01-02 song: My Straw Hat - Mix 3 (from MyVirtualBand.com, 2005) (3:29)

-----
Cool rock song released on now-defunct music collaboration website MyVirtualBand.com on 7/18/05.

Day 01 (Dec 2007) - Track 02 - 12:41 AM (0:41:23)
The Overnightscape Underground (onsug.com) - "An audio world to discover and explore."
Created by Frank Edward Nora (frank@theovernightscape.com) in New Jersey, USA

MyVirtualBand.com was a website that began in late 2004 and closed in early 2007. On the site, musicians collaborated to create songs by uploading and downloading audio tracks. All the audio tracks on the site were released under the Creative Commons Attribution 2.0 license, which means that you can do pretty much what you want with the audio as long as you give credit to those who created it. There were 113 "featured songs" on the site, and a much greater number of songs "in progress". Even though the site has shut down, the music from the site is still under the same license - which allows the songs to be re-released here in The Overnightscape Underground!

"My Straw Hat - Mix 3" is an alternate mix of "My Straw Hat" (featured song #59, released 10/5/05). I feel this mix is superior to the mix that was in the featured release. It is a great song and I am very happy to play it here at the start of The Overnightscape Underground! The lyrics are very appropriate... "heading out on the highway", just like I am heading off on the "road" of The Overnightscape Underground...

Lyrics:

Good mornin' highway, it's such a good day
We're goin' somewhere, where we can hear 'em play
You're gonna have to trace this line, to know what's on our minds
Just shufflin' down this road

We got our straw hats on our heads, yeah

We've got an itchin' for the road
To travel places far away
Come on now, let's go

Hey

Good mornin' highway, it's such a good day
We're goin' somewhere, where we can hear 'em play

I've got the feelin' that's got me wheelin'
On down that dusty road
On down that road
It's got me wheelin' on down that road

I got my straw hat on today
Ain't got no work it's time to play
I'm gonna head out on that highway
To travel places far away

Whoa

Hey

01-07 song: Sliding Gardens (by Fuzzy Daupner, 2001) (4:56)

A song about a future world by Fuzzy Daupner, a band from Belleville, NJ that existed from 1998 to 2001.

Day 1 (Dec 2007) - Track 07 - 1:43 AM (1:43:37)
The Overnightscape Underground (onsug.com) - "An audio world to discover and explore."
Created by Frank Edward Nora (frank@theovernightscape.com) in New Jersey, USA

Credits: Carrie Engdahl: Music, Vocals, Acoustic Guitar. Rob DiCaterino: Drums, Electric Guitar, Recording, Mixing. Phil Mould: Bass Guitar. Frank Edward Nora: Lyrics. Produced by Fuzzy Daupner (Carrie Engdahl, Rob DiCaterino, Phil Mould, Denice Nora, and Frank Edward Nora). From the album "Naked Exit Friend", released March 2001.

Lyrics:

And can I say we are

Crazy crossing a rocky stream
Kissing hills and air and dreams
Coltishly beaucoup in our mysteries

Bathing cool in a stimulating rio
Tiki and arctic phase at Nanticoko
Singing folk space rock at the top of our lungs
Winding down in the wow fluff of the treetops

We can walk together
Under the moon or whatever
And our nasty predawn jive
Will even make the scorpions cry

We can walk together
Under the moon or whatever
And our nasty predawn jive
Will even make the scorpions cry

Humpback dude with jackdaw steed
Whale and bird on a new kind of trip
Motors, lights and audio delights
Rubber bands are pumping energy

The treasure of me is stalking away
At the whining dusk of day
Your mental aggression craft is called Attack-type dog

We can walk together
Under the moon or whatever
And our nasty predawn jive
Will even make the scorpions cry

We can walk together
Under the moon or whatever
And our nasty predawn jive
Will even make the scorpions cry

Above the primly introspective waste
The Rover is the tune
As we skydive in new wave ruins
She make weird animal dolls

Pogs were not a lasting trend
The new age it just came and went
The humans we're all stuck in are
The leftovers of an obvious recall

We can walk together
Under the moon or whatever
And our nasty predawn jive
Will even make the scorpions cry

We can walk together
Under the moon or whatever
And our nasty predawn jive
Will even make the scorpions cry

01-09 Place Sounds: Audio Street Fair Blues (6/11/07) (20:05)

Ambient audio of a street fair in Times Square, NYC.

The Overnightscape Underground (onsug.com) - "An audio world to discover and explore."

Recorded in Times Square, NYC on 6/11/07. Originally released on StationUnlimited.com (release #74, June 19, 2007).

On Monday, June 11, 2007 I was walking through Times Square in NYC and I saw a street fair called "Taste of Times Square". I went for 2 blocks on 46th St. from Times Square to 9th Ave. I walked the full length of it and realized it would make a great "Place Sounds" piece (a recording of an audio environment). So I started recording and heading back through the fair.

Unfortunately, things didn't work out like I planned. First of all a lot of the musicians I had seen on the first walk thru were taking their breaks. Then it started to rain... lightly at first and then it turned into a real downpour. And then I realized I had pressed pause by accident and lost a lot of the stuff I was recording.

This piece is the final result - the first in the "Place Sounds" series. I look forward to recording more "Place Sounds" in the future - it is certainly a different kind of audio content than what people are used to, but in the right frame of mind such stuff can be very enjoyable and intriguing to listen to.

Topics: Intro, Tony and Tina's Wedding, song "Celebration", world music style singer, Chef Mark, blues band, latin music band, guitar player, police radio, whistle, radio station playing an ad, car horns, bluegrass band, "that'll be perfect", Frank sees the recorder was paused, description of what happened, the remaining audio walking in the rain, radio station playing song, drumming, world music, doo wop singers, and the conclusion.

01-17 song: Christian Rock (by Fuzzy Daupner, 2000) (5:23)

A song about Canada and late night cable TV by Fuzzy Daupner, a band from Belleville, NJ that existed from 1998 to 2001.

Day 1 (Dec 2007) - Track 17 - 7:41 AM (7:41:11)
The Overnightscape Underground (onsug.com) - "An audio world to discover and explore."
Created by Frank Edward Nora (frank@theovernightscape.com) in New Jersey, USA

Lyrics:

Early in the concrete cement
Sheet metal whatever center
The seeping enterprise washing
I wish this snow was unrelenting

I bore a hole in the Nunavut springtime

My misery isn't interesting at all

I bore a hole in the Nunavut springtime
My misery isn't interesting at all

Overnight cable got the
Beanies and the Christian Rock
And all the puppets there
Are constructed outta socks

Overnight cable got the
Beanies and the Christian Rock
And all the puppets there
Are constructed outta socks

The they and the temperature level
Black trees, his antimatter sneeze
Selected slash of casino ash
Lass in the pedways of Halifax

I bore a hole in the Nunavut springtime
My misery isn't interesting at all

I bore a hole in the Nunavut springtime
My misery isn't interesting at all

Overnight cable got the
Beanies and the Christian Rock
And all the puppets there
Are constructed outta socks

Overnight cable got the
Beanies and the Christian Rock
And all the puppets there
Are constructed outta socks

I prepared all last night
To rip the waterfall to shreds
Deemrose Bonnie crossbow humid
Pedway ankh the breeze is in shock

I bore a hole in the Nunavut springtime
My misery isn't interesting at all

I bore a hole in the Nunavut springtime
My misery isn't interesting at all

Overnight cable got the
Beanies and the Christian Rock
And all the puppets there
Are constructed outta socks

Overnight cable got the
Beanies and the Christian Rock
And all the puppets there
Are constructed outta socks

Early in the sheetrock day
My chocolate factory is in no way
Hershey or Wonka but it's quite okay
Its effect keeps my childhood erect

I bore a hole in the Nunavut springtime
My misery isn't interesting at all

I bore a hole in the Nunavut springtime
My misery isn't interesting at all

Overnight cable got the
Beanies and the Christian Rock
And all the puppets there
Are constructed outta socks

Overnight cable got the
Beanies and the Christian Rock
And all the puppets there
Are constructed outta socks

01-25 song: Enola (from MyVirtualBand.com, 2005) (3:03)

Cool rock song released on now-defunct music collaboration website MyVirtualBand.com on 6/18/05.

Day 1 (Dec 2007) - Track 25 - 11:36 AM (11:36:30)
The Overnightscape Underground (onsug.com) - "An audio world to discover and explore."
Created by Frank Edward Nora (frank@theovernightscape.com) in New Jersey, USA

MyVirtualBand.com was a website that began in late 2004 and closed in early 2007. On the site, musicians collaborated to create songs by uploading and downloading audio tracks. All the audio tracks on the site were released under the Creative Commons Attribution 2.0 license, which means that you can do pretty much what you want with the audio as long as you give credit to those who created it. There were 113 "featured songs" on the site, and a much greater number of songs "in progress". Even though the site has shut down, the music from the site is still under the same license - which allows the songs to be re-released here in The Overnightscape Underground!

Lyrics:

Down this lonely road I travel
With my pockets filled with dreams
All the mysteries will unravel
Yet they're never what they seem

I need a hand to hold me
I need a hand to help me on my way
Oh yeah
I'm just lookin' for a lover that's never gonna stray
Oh no

All I want is lovin'
All I get is pain
And I can't believe it
No I can't believe it

One after another
Throwing good for bad
I watched another woman with all I had
I should have known better having done it before Still I'd leave it all just to get a little more

One more shot at nothin'
Must be doing something wrong
Oh no
All your takin' and no givin'
Be easier alone
Yeah

All I want is lovin'
All I get is pain
And I can't believe it
No I can't believe it

All I want is lovin'
All I get is pain
And I can't believe it
No I can't believe it

Lyrics:

From my room I can see Coyotes on the boulevard
Alone and afraid just like me

Iridescent eyes flash in the headlights
Not understanding these hot L.A. nights

Lost and all is gone
Wanna get back to the place they belong

Running frantic in the big city gloom
With no time for howling at the moon

Nothing here they understand
Nothing here but the dangerous man

A million people with that same terrified gaze
With a million reasons to escape this place

Like coyotes on the boulevard
Yeah

Show me the way home

Lyrics:

God hates penguins
All penguins must die
He keeps them in the freezing cold
And will not let them fly

Now if you've got a poodle
And dress him up in black and white
God thinks that's just the coolest thing y'all
He thinks they're outta sight

I don't know why God hates penguins so much They're not mentioned in the Bible They've got nothing against him
They should sue him for libel

Penguins aren't much good at conversation
Or differential calculus
But they're smart enough to know when they're being persecuted
By God and the rest of us

Now if you've got a black and white chicken
God thinks that's really nice
You can fry it, you can bake, you can boil it in a pot
And serve it up with yellow rice

Now if you are a truly good person
You'll ignore the lord above
And treat a penguin as a friend
All penguins need love

Penguins in love
Penguins in love
Penguins in love
Penguins in love
Penguins in love
Penguins in love

Lyrics:

Will the sun refuse to shine
Will the moon fall from the sky
Will the clouds make some rain
Will the sun come up again

Will my eyes ever see
What the hell's in front of me

With every question
Come my answer
I don't know
I don't know

Will tomorrow come on time
Will I find the keys to life
Will I mend or will I break
Will I find I'm much too late
Will my eyes ever see
What the hell's in front of me

With every question
Comes my answer
I don't know
I don't know
I don't know
I don't know

Will they be okay
Why they act that way
I don't understand
Will you hold my hand

Are you all that way
Will I be okay
What about this man
Can you understand

Will they be okay
Why they act that way
I don't understand
Will you hold my hand

Are you all that way
Will I be okay
What about this man
Can you understand

Will they be okay
Why they act that way

Lyrics:

In the middle of the night just outside of Phoenix
There's a little cafe called the El Gato Negro

That's where we go to dance

Look at the stars up in the sky
So beautiful you want to cry
I can see the moon on the horizon
That's where we go to dance

The wind blowing in our hair
Drinking whisky whisky and beer
A fire's burning deep inside
That's where we go to dance

In the middle of the night
Just outside of Phoenix
There's a little cafe called the El Gato Negro

That's where we go to dance
That's where we fell into the trance
That's where we go to dance
To dance the El Gato Negro

The music's pounding in my head
Loud enough to wake the dead
Too much whisky too much beer
El Gato Negro is what I fear

In the middle of the night
There's a little cafe called the El Gato Negro

That's where we go to dance
That's where we all fell into a trance
That's where we go to dance

The music's pounding in my head
Loud enough to wake the dead
Too much whisky too much beer

Look at the stars up in the sky
So beautiful you want to cry
I can see the moon on the horizon
It's where we go to dance

The wind blowing in our hair
Drinking whisky whisky and beer

Lyrics:

I've walked 150 miles walking day and night
Every footstep closer my goal is right at home for me

The war has taken its toll on my soul
'Cause each mile I make I feel a little older

I feel the heat comin' down on me
And I feel my feet givin' out on me
I left those battlefields for my home
I just got to get back home

Alright

It sure was bloody down in New Orleans
A few were lucky but most didn't make it
And all the blood that flowed out in those streets
And all the memories will haunt my dreams back home

I've walked 150 miles walking day and night
Every footstep closer my goal is right at home for me

The war has taken its toll on my soul
'Cause each mile I make I feel a little older

I feel the heat comin' down on me
And I feel my feet goin' out on me
I left those battlefields for my home
I just got to get back home

01-34 song: Gasoline Gus and his Jitney Bus (1915) (3:29)

A very addictive song about a man, a bus, and Satan.

Day 1 (Dec 2007) - Track 34 - 12:38 PM (12:38:06)
The Overnightscape Underground (onsug.com) - "An audio world to discover and explore."

Song "Gasoline Gus and his Jitney Bus". Released in 1915 on Edison Records. Performed by: Billy Murray and chorus. Composers: Byron Gay and Charley Brown. Sheet music scans (with slightly different lyrics than this version):

<http://ucblibraries.colorado.edu/cgi-bin/sheetmusic.pl?RagGasoline&Rag&main>

Lyrics:

Did you ever hear the story, did you ever hear the yarn?
'Bout what?
'Bout Gasoline Gus

He saved up a dollar then he borrowed twenty cents
Then what?
For the Jitney Bus

His coffee mill was made of tin
But tin was made to pack things in He hung a sign and it read thus
This is Gasoline Gus and his Jitney Bus

Gus, Gus, Gasoline Gus
Gasoline Gus and his Jitney Bus
He packed them on the fenders and he packed them on the hood
He packed them by the dozen and the other dozen stood

From out the heap there came a cry
Hey take that suitcase out of my eye

Gasoline Gus and his Jitney Bus

Did I tell you what he purchased, did I tell you what he used?
Who used?
Why Gasoline Gus

He bought a ton of dynamite
He bought a pint of gin
For what?
For his Jitney Bus

It's got a bigger kick than gasoline
Said Gus as he loaded his tin machine
A lady said "don't go too far"
Said Gus "it's not that kind of a car"

Gus, Gus, Gasoline Gus
Gasoline Gus and his Jitney Bus
He turned a dozen somersaults and then he looped the loop
He made a bigger noise than the boarders eating soup

How far he went I quite forget
But according to Hoyle he's not back yet

Gasoline Gus and his Jitney Bus

Do you want hear the finish?
Do you want to hear the end?

'Bout what?
'Bout Gasoline Gus

He bumped into old Satan
And he got old Satan's goat With what?
With his Jitney Bus

Old Satan frowned
Said "Take him out, and let him ride my imp about"
In fifteen minutes, big as life
He was making love to the old boy's wife

Gus, Gus, Gasoline Gus
Gasoline Gus and his Jitney Bus

They telephoned old Satan that his wifey had eloped
With a funny looking fellow in a funny little boat
Old Satan never turned a hair
He smiled and said "they're a perfect pair"

Gus, Gus, Gasoline Gus
Gasoline Gus and his Jitney Bus

01-41 film: Our Gang (Little Rascals) - School's Out (1930) (20:30)

Audio of 1930 comedy short film "School's Out" from the "Our Gang" (Little Rascals) series.

Day 1 (Dec 2007) - Track 41 - 4:21 PM (16:21:32)
The Overnightscape Underground (onsug.com) - "An audio world to discover and explore."
Created by Frank Edward Nora (frank@theovernightscape.com) in New Jersey, USA

Notes: The Little Rascals are afraid they will lose their beloved teacher Miss Crabtree, so Jackie suggests they keep the school open all summer. The kids meet a man who they believe wants to marry Miss Crabtree, so they tell him lies about Miss Crabtree and steal his clothes when he goes swimming. The kids give fake answers to a bunch of questions in school, which they got from "Bonedust". In the end, Miss Crabtree finds out what the kids have done and forgives them. The younger children find her brother's clothes.

MyVirtualBand.com was a website that began in late 2004 and closed in early 2007. On the site, musicians collaborated to create songs by uploading and downloading audio tracks. All the audio tracks on the site were released under the Creative Commons Attribution 2.0 license, which means that you can do pretty much what you want with the audio as long as you give credit to those who created it. There were 113 "featured songs" on the site, and a much greater number of songs "in progress". Even though the site has shut down, the music from the site is still under the same license - which allows the songs to be re-released here in The Overnightscape Underground!

Lyrics:

With the morning sun blazing in the sky
And the moon is singing bye-bye
I can feel the warmth reaching down from high
And it's burning into my eyes

I feel today will be my day
All things will turn and go my way
I'll find a song to sing and play
If not I'll surely fade away

Don't let me fade...

I'll just hold on
And I'll sing on
And I'll play until I've finally found my place

I feel today will be my day
All things will turn and go my way
Go my way

Well the morning has stretched out into noon
And the colors have faded to blue
I'm still searching for my tune
For a sound that just might carry me through

I feel today will be my day
All things will turn and go my way
I'll find a song to sing and play
If not I'll surely fade away
Fade away
Don't let me fade
Fade away

Don't let me fade away
Don't want to fade away
Fade away
No don't fade away
But I'll just hold on
And I'll play until I finally find my way

I feel today will be my day

Lyrics:

They got your motion sickness medication wrong
That new girl that they hired can be spacey and hard-headed Still I don't think you should keep on repeating how the room is spinning There's not a lot that can be done to change the simple fact that

I don't want to see you anymore
(Do you think that I am lying to you)
I don't want to see you anymore
(Do you think that I am lying to you)

Your next-door neighbor's walking papers haven't turned up yet
And so another filibuster with the broken teleprompter Seems like one more stupid idea that you think will change all the others before it
But no impromptu speech will make a difference Don't you know that

I don't want to see you anymore
(Do you think that I am lying to you)
I don't want to see you anymore
(Do you think that I am lying to you)

I don't want to see you anymore
(Do you think that I am lying to you)
I don't want to see you anymore
(Do you think that I am lying to you)

I don't want to see you anymore
(Do you think that I am lying to you)
I don't want to see you anymore

Lyrics:

I've got friends in the ocean
Who choose to live in the sea
I'll see you when my eyes are in another man Whose hands are buried in the sand

Have you danced in the fire
Have you quenched your desire
Six feet below the ground
I'll take my leave
I'm moving to the sea

I've got friends in the city
Whose view is a little less blue
They're dryer than a caravan of cinnamon
But their eyes are the deepest shade of blue

Have you danced in the fire
Have you quenched your desire
Six feet below the ground
I'll take my leave
I'm moving to the sea

I've seen palaces that burn for less Queens that stare into a mess
Take your rod and point it somewhere else
Your whipping boy is becoming a man today
Point your finger and fate will show the way
Fate will show the way

Lyrics:

Winter Lady
With a heart so cold
Never knowing which way she'll blow
She's my lady
Yes she told me so
Just before she dropped three feet of snow

I'll just take my time
Just sit here and unwind
Just let me clear my mind
With all the snow outside

Winter Lady
She's playing her games
She's calling me out by name
She's my lady
Every year it's the same
She keeps searching for fortune and fame

With all the snow outside
I'll just take my time
Just sit and clear my mind
Just let me warm up these hands unlined yeah

Oh here comes the sun

Just let me clear my mind
Just sit here and unwind
I'm gonna take my time
I'm gonna take my time
I'm gonna take my time

Winter Lady
Your time's about done
April's got you on the run
Keeps reminding me of all our fun
Keep on telling me that I'm the one

Here come's the sun
Winter Lady
Here come's the sun

Your time's about done

Winter Lady
Every year it's the same
She keeps searching for fortune and fame
She's my lady
She told me so

-----
Notes: The stabbing scene filmed in the parking lot of the blowing alley at night - Hugo opening and closing a butterfly knife, hey Hugo man what's going on bro, bloopers, crazy laughter, audience, stab him, go down on the ground man, look up at him, fake blood, carrying the "victim" into the bowling alley, he got stabbed... bowling alley bathroom - Admiral Ackbar hat, do not try this at home, official bloopers, 3-D, toilets, hover above like you're taking a crap, push Hugo in the toilet, New Jersey Stone Core, goodbye.

01-69 song: The Us Hounds (by Fuzzy Daupner, 2001) (4:38)

A song about a cartoon band and youth in media culture by Fuzzy Daupner, a band from Belleville, NJ that existed from 1998 to 2001.

Day 1 (Dec 2007) - Track 69 - 11:38 PM (23:38:39)
The Overnightscape Underground (onsug.com) - "An audio world to discover and explore."

Credits: Carrie Engdahl: Music, Vocals, Acoustic Guitar. Rob

DiCaterino: Drums, Electric Guitar, Recording, Mixing. Phil Mould: Bass Guitar. Frank Edward Nora: Lyrics. Produced by Fuzzy Daupner (Carrie Engdahl, Rob DiCaterino, Phil Mould, Denice Nora, and Frank Edward Nora). From the album "Naked Exit Friend", released March 2001.

Lyrics:

Us Hound Control, to The Us Hounds below
All aboard for action, we're ready to go!

Welcome to the new world of passenger trains
Choo choo to gardens and plains
yellow volcanoes in the rain
Their goal is no more than to entertain
Yet if passengers are threatened
they will intervene

All that youth in media culture
Is daydream fodder for grandfathers and fathers
Claws named youth and visual jazz
The Weather Channel frail honchos

All that youth in media culture
Is daydream fodder for grandfathers and fathers
Claws named youth and visual jazz
The Weather Channel frail honchos

Welcome to the new world of passenger trains
Choo choo to gardens and plains
Their goal is no more than to entertain
Yet if passengers are threatened
they will intervene

Myra's on the synthesizer, in The Us Hounds
Enter the milieu, if you please, of The Us Hounds
Hildebad is on electric guitar, and Harla is on acoustic
Trace is on the bass guitar, and Bruckner plays the drums
They're rocking out on the rails of the world, The Us Hounds!

We are awfully proud of spring
And then again
Awfully bored of prance
And then again
Awfully proud of spring
And then again
Awfully bored of prance
And then again

All that youth in media culture
Is daydream fodder for grandfathers and fathers
Claws named youth and visual jazz
The Weather Channel frail honchos

All that youth in media culture
Is daydream fodder for grandfathers and fathers
Claws named youth and visual jazz

01-70 song: Steel Drum Ragtime - The Easy Winners (Scott Joplin, 1901) (1:34)

A classic ragtime song with a steel drum sound.

Day 1 (Dec 2007) - Track 70 - 11:43 PM (23:43:17)
The Overnightscape Underground (onsug.com) - "An audio world to discover and explore."
Created by Frank Edward Nora (frank@theovernightscape.com) in New Jersey, USA

I came up with the "steel drum ragtime" idea playing around with MIDI files back in the 90s. Somehow, the MIDI steel drum sound seems to work really well with ragtime songs to my ears. This particular song, "The Easy Winners" is really fast in the version I made. On the original sheet music it says "Not Fast"... so maybe I'll make a slower version sometime. But I think this version sounds cool.

The Overnightscape Underground (onsug.com) - "An audio world to discover and explore."

Recorded in Bridgewater Township, New Jersey, on November 25, 1973.

Topics: Frank at age 6 recording on a tape recorder, John's rant, Julie crying, "I won't turn it off", "big old bad hole", "goodbye now I'll see you in ten minutes", Wacky Packages ("Grass Wax", "Raw Goo", "Choke Wagon", and "Wormy Packages"), the monster story, and Frankenstein. (Tape recorder batteries were probably low, that's why the voices sound sped up.)

The Overnightscape Underground is back! Frank talks about the hiatus since the end of Day One, and celebrates the new day with some single malt scotch (Macallan Cask Strength) and an energy drink (Jolt Silver). He also plays around with his brand-new synthesizer (XioSynth 25) and checks out some classic techno music. Finally, he introduces the next two tracks ("The Getting To ONS 694" and "The Preshow to ONS 694"). Recorded in The Overnightscape Studio.

Day 2 (Spring 2008) - Track 12 - 11:48 AM (11:48:01)

Cassette of original music created by Frank. Released in 1987 by Cut'n'Shoot Records (a division of Nomadi Entertainment).

"Welcome to the Weasel Village Mall" is a nightmare symphony in 81 movements. It takes the listener from screaming gateways to collapsing structures, from dark conversations to the infinite beyond. Little Frankie Nora combines synthesizers, television sets, things stolen from work, sundry metal objects, old recordings, and other obscure and unpopular devices to create the disruptive sound that is his trademark. Both upsetting and calming, humorous and horrible, "Welcome to the Weasel Village Mall" is definitely a unique experience for anyone.

Side One: Intro Glycerin / Oktoberfest / Seashore / Thunder Lizard / Spy Zack / Urgent / Die! / That Thing / Days / Acid Snow / Blastard / More Books / And Our Strength / Maybe Not / Bad Street Theme / Wise War II / Quiet Down / Napalm Baby / Gilligan's Nightmare / Radio and Television / Ice Cream Cone of the Gods / Dick See / Sphinxette / Eggbert / Down the River / Bag of Garbage / Baby Rats / Sojourn X / Weather or Not / Piss Me Off / Big Bad / Spangle / What Color / Brat Pit / Monsters / You Are / Doctor Jones / Sign On / On The Roof / Mangoman / Numb / Faggot / Mary Ann / Big Wheel.

PENT BREEZE

Funnier and comfier, responsive and sane, Looping in imperfection space, Aukwise vinegars we're tinting slake, Terrarium daycare and the random sleep / You could be mine, In the early 90s, I'll find the time / You could be mine, In the early 90s, I'll find the time / Yo shrinkwrapped CD open it up, Climaxing and flaxen, A falconer attention, A Fallingwater affection, Change... Rebel yanking my braid, Snarled stress gets unmade, A spy store gets rearranged, The days... Are getting colder / Pent Breeze, Information please, I can't go to Europe right now / Pent Breeze, Maybe space is east, Garage sale signs are old / Frivolartango's the focus pretty motorhome, Millheel Chamille's the focus pretty van, It's okay to fantasize, In an unbuilt building night, All mimsy were the slot machines, Cheap maple syrup is cheap / Yo shrinkwrapped CD open it up, Climaxing and flaxen, A falconer attention, A Fallingwater affection, Change... Rebel yanking my braid, Snarled stress gets unmade, A spy store gets rearranged, The days... Are getting colder / Pent Breeze, The flowers breathe, Concepts are so lame / Pent Breeze, The charming sleaze, Lantern bleak and westerly / She said this, birds are cool, She said this, birds are cool, She said this, birds are cool

Sunflower Slow Drag 2, Lingerie in a suitcase in ice, A little mandolin gesture, Of a primitive pinball spice / I have agreed, Perhaps stupidly, To embark on a Hyper Mission / Out of a phase, The fading telecast age, With the in-flight dungeon games, In the flickety flames / I have agreed, I have agreed / Ridiculous Fortune, Savage FFM, Ocelot vibe, Bad Scoville in again / Out of a phase, The fading telecast age, With the in-flight dungeon games, In the flickety flames / I have agreed, I have agreed / This fiery Spring is a, Fine and naughty daydream, And strife is for erasing with, Skinny dipping into things amazing / I have agreed, Perhaps stupidly, To embark on a Hyper Mission / Out of a phase, Out of a phase / Savage Far Field Monitor, Forgotten windshear friend, Lulling me the ramping lyre, Telecasting as the tundra falls, Away... Away...
Away... / Ridiculous Fortune, Savage FFM, Ocelot vibe, Bad

I'm a pretty cool chick, I like to laugh, I'm not too serious, maybe just a little mysterious, doesn't that make you curious / I'm a pretty cool chick, I've got my own dot com, I play guitar, I write you songs, I even have my own car, I'll let you take it for a ride / Let me make you feel like a man, you don't gotta be my biggest fan, I could do so many things to you, and you could say you're with the band, you could say you're with the band / My candle's not lit, hot wax could be naughty, when I use my voice like this, I'll see you in the morning, little fan / Let me make you feel like a man, you don't gotta be my biggest fan, I could do so many things to you, and you could say you're with the band, you could say you're with the band / I'm a pretty

POSSIBLE CALHOUN

Well here's the van, hop on in, There's still some fun in the world, y'know, So come along my friend / It's the time of day to open your mind, In other words it's anytime of the night or day / Don't believe in a starlight squeeze, Don't be the realistic one, oh jeez / Feel the morning slapping your frown, For a number of hours to come, We'll be hanging around, And singing around and playing around, And horsing and horsing, Around and around / It's a wildering drifted gown, Licking freshly minted weeks, Ooh..., Licking freshly minted weeks / Via va va vo and, Via va va vay, Toll plaza dragonflies, Wake up uh get up uh, Possible Calhoun / Via va va vo and, Via va va vay, Toll plaza dragonflies, Wake up uh get up uh, Possible Calhoun / Well hello space camp stepsister, Have you had that smile on long, Say you oughtta might honey feel the night, It's got a raven's nest and hero's hall / It's a wildering drifted gown, Licking freshly minted weeks, Ooh..., Licking freshly minted weeks / Via va va vo and, Via va va vay, Toll plaza dragonflies, Wake up uh get up uh, Possible Calhoun / Via va va vo and, Via va va vay, Toll plaza dragonflies, Wake up uh get up uh, Possible Calhoun / So let's go now my, Happy sleepy amigos, So let's go now my, Happy sleepy amigos, So let's go now my, Happy sleepy amigos / There's more of all this revelry, It will not go sour, Don't be a drag with all of your counting the hours, Let us love a fair time of slush in the flowers / Via va va vo and, Via va va vay, Toll plaza dragonflies, Wake up uh get up uh, Possible Calhoun / Via va va vo and, Via va va vay, Toll plaza dragonflies, Wake up uh get up uh, Possible Calhoun

Frank recorded "The Overnightscape #335" back in November 2005, but he was unhappy with how the show turned out - so he set aside the first recording and completely the episode. This file is the original, "failed" version of The Overnightscape #335, kind of a "lost episode". Topics include: Hanging out at a strip mall in Iselin, NJ, and memories of Podcast Expo 2005 in Ontario, California.

Many thanks to those who wrote show notes on The Overnightscape Wiki for these episodes of The Rampler. This is the text that was on the description for each of these episodes:

You can help! Go to this episode's page on The Rampler Show Notes Wiki and write some show notes for this episode. They can be as brief or detailed as you like. Always feel free to add more details or make corrections to what's already there.
Thanks!!

Join host Frank Edward Nora his daily commute, walking through the streets of NYC, as he discusses a dizzying myriad of topics. This show is an experimental "spinoff" of Frank's main show, The Overnightscape (which continues on as normal). The show is recorded directly as a 128kbps MP3 file on an Edirol R-09 portable recorder. This makes it much easier to release the recordings, since no post-production is required.
Also, at least to start with, the shows will be released without show notes to further speed up the release process.

"The Rampler" is released here on The Overnightscape Underground, but it exists outside the standard "Day" format - again, to make it easier to very quickly record and release.

The Rampler #1 (8/14/08) (18:15 / 16.8 MB)
Show Notes:

Testing audio, Beta version for this new project, Overnightscape raw feed, streamlined version of the overnightscape with no descriptions and no post-production, getting to a lot of topics, making it easier to release shows, test of the system, Burritoville, name of this project, Overnightscape Raw Feed, Overnightscape Feed, Do one thing and do it well, getting stuff in the overnightscape underground, getting new stuff out there, minimal descriptions.
Overnightscape stripped. This episode is pretty much Frank planning and plotting this "stripped down" version of Overnightscape, testing and describing his equipment and methods.

The Rampler #2 (8/14/08) (11:32 / 10.7 MB)
Show Notes:

Much like the first episode, this is primordial, preparatory verbal goo, a continued "warm up" for the actual upcoming series. Basically, this is Frank, searching for that Rampler Groove.

The Rampler #3 (8/14/08) (41:56 / 38.5 MB)
Show Notes:

Our Man, Nora, continues to settle into the looser format. He reviews the two previous "test" shows as he wanders through a post-thunderstorm Times Square. He announces the decision to name this series "The Rampler" with lengthy exposition on the thought process, coincidences that led to this decision.
Decides 20-90 is the ideal new setting. Has put an old, "retro" logo on the Overnightscape site. A crazy hassidic says "Leaves Without Aphids(?)". Frank uses his cigar holder to visit Sam Ash and play synthesizers and the Hershey Store. He, as he often ponders, wonders if he should just do one program and call it all The Overnightscape. Motor Excursion Ruffians.

The Rampler #4 (8/15/08) (37:41 / 34.6 MB)
Show Notes:

Beta 4 begins at the Port Authority and Frank launches with a review of the previous experiments and re-reviews the overall Rampler Concept. <missed some in here> Discusses Robert Moog's name and the "moooooog/moag" pronunciation.
Talks about how 2005 was the "Year of the Podcast", bemoans that despite his true pioneerdom and dilligence he has never fit into the clique of "popular podcasters". Another reason for the Rampler is that he may be spending too much home/quality family time with the podcast instead of the Mrs. How Rampler will let him riff and cover topics that wind up unused on The Overnightscape.

The Rampler #5 (8/15/08) (27:23 / 25.2 MB)
Show Notes:

A lunchbreak episode. Frank has registered the rampler.
com domain name and finally seems settled that this will be the name of these programs. Mentions Walter Becker's new solo lp. Doesn't like Circus Money at all. Elite Foodbar is considered. Steely Dan talk for the uninformed. Crazy woman, who is behaving more normal than usual. Deli sounds. Sees a white guy and an Asian girl making out that initially look like mannequins. Sounds like "Slingblade" when he says "doggy's". Describes and takes over spot by East River for lunch, reviews Aloe Vera King drink and stops to eat.

The Rampler #6 (8/15/08) (26:23 / 24.2 MB)

Show Notes:

Finishing his lunch, Frank resumes recording. Discusses the use of helicopters as transit, ponders what it would take to bring the craft into more common use. Commuting, transportation and the tram. Has cigar to smoke, after all. Launches into a lengthy critiquer of the latter Star Wars era, especially pointing at Jar Jar Binks as emblematic to the issue. Finishes show by suggesting that, since he wasn't going to do show notes for Rampler episodes, doing a wiki where listeners might.

The Rampler #7 (8/15/08) (34:15 / 31.4 MB)

Show Notes:

Frank walks around Midtown Manhattan talking about a wide variety of topics. in the rain...

The Rampler #8 (8/18/08) (37:08 / 34.1 MB)

Show Notes:

-----
I came up with the idea for The Overnightscape on Thursday, March 13, 2003. I was on my way home from work in NYC, riding the PATH train back to NJ. Here's exactly what I wrote on my Palm Pilot:

3/13/03 6:54 pm

non-meta half-hour talk show, just me

3/13/03 7:03 pm

the overnightscape nightscans

I went home, set up my recording system, and started recording the show at around 9:55 PM - less than 3 hours after I wrote down my idea for the show and its name (wow, just think, it could have been called Nightscans...) What I recorded was The Overnightscape Beta #1 - a test show that definitely was not fit for release!

This is the recording, which I originally released back on March 27, 2005 in celebration of the Second Anniversary of The Overnightscape. This release has much better audio quality than the previous release. But remember - it's really rough and weird and not very good. If you're a fan of The Overnightscape, though, you might find it interesting to listen to...

A week after the first Beta Episode, I recorded another show (Beta #2), with the idea that it could potentially become the first real show - but this one as well fell short in several ways. It was not till the following week, on March 27, 2003, that the first official episode was recorded and released!

A rock song by Jerry Collins (GTRman4040) and Bobshock, released 11/27/05 on MyVirtualBand.com

MyVirtualBand.com was a website that began in late 2004 and closed in early 2007. On the site, musicians collaborated to create songs by uploading and downloading audio tracks. All the audio tracks on the site were released under the Creative Commons Attribution 2.0 license, which means that you can do pretty much what you want with the audio as long as you give credit to those who created it. There were 113 "featured songs" on the site, and a much greater number of songs "in progress". Even though the site has shut down, the music from the site is still under the same license - which allows the songs to be re-released here in The Overnightscape Underground!

Lyrics: Your going through a phase your lost in a zone, You want the sun rays and its time to go home, It didnt really hit you its like a cartoon, Out in the market with your brand new goon / I grow old in age as you follow that dream, Living in rage with your boyfriend schemes, Im tired of the lies that you put me through, I wont even bother with unfaithful you / A month to remember but its not a good thing, Remember November is the song to sing, You always need change a new distraction, Your choice is so lame and you blow attraction / Resistance is futile nothing left to say, Flirting with the locals one wrong day, November with a punch inspired this tune, Remembering the month a shadowing gloom / I say that your too loose you say that your adored, Nothing but the truth your choice to explore, Far from November memories of the past, Into December and I only look back / I grow old in age as you follow that dream, Living in rage with your boyfriend schemes, Im tired of the lies that you put me through, I wont even bother with unfaithful you / A month to remember but its not a good thing, Remember November is the song to sing, You always need change a new distraction, Your choice is so lame and you blow attraction / Far from November memories of the past, Into December and I only look back, And since its December theres nothing left for you, lost in November when somebody got screwed

Inramble (inramble.com) was Frank's attempt at creating a series of short videos for the Internet. It lasted from January thru June 2008, with 142 released episodes (plus 11 unreleased ones). Mostly recorded in NYC, Inramble was not officially canceled, but there are currently no plans to continue with it.

“The Inramble Audio”, in six parts, presents the full audio of all 153 videos.

In Part One, we hear episodes 1 through 26 (Jan. 14-18, 2008) - recorded on Frank’s Treo 680. The audio quality is quite bad. On the next part, the quality will improve greatly as Frank got a new camera (Flip Video Ultra).

“Your Late Night Broadcast” online at onsug.com

-----
Audiobook version of “The Story of a Stuffed Elephant” (by Laura Lee Hope, published in 1922). This version was released on LibriVox.org on October 3, 2006. Read by Vlooi. Both the original and the audio version are in the public domain.

For this release, Frank combined the ten chapters into one file, and did a little remastering to improve the sound of the audio.

Summary: The Story of a Stuffed Elephant is... well, the story of a Stuffed Elephant and the little boy who owns him, and his sister, and all their adventures. A delightful children’s book by the author of The Bobbsey Twins series. (Summary by Vlooi and Kara)

Notes from the original release on Station Unlimited on June 22, 2007:

"The Motor Excursion Ruffians", starring me (Frank Edward Nora) and Peter Litkey, began as a successor to our previous show, "Train Crap & Blood". The idea is that we have so much freedom that we never use... you can just get in a car and drive and who knows where you'll wind up!

Episode 1 of "The Motor Excursion Ruffians" was recorded on February 11, 2001, in western New Jersey and released on my old Internet radio station, Bluffcosm.com. Episode 2 was recorded on April 4-5, 2003 (between The Overnightscape #4 and #5), on a visit down to see our friend Bryan in Virginia. Over 8 hours of material was recorded - but it was never released. I plan on releasing both of these here on Station Unlimited in the near future.

This past Saturday, June 16, 2007, I got together with Pete and we went on a "motor excursion" without thinking of "The Motor Excursion Ruffians" - in fact, I didn't even know if I was going to record at all. But I started recording some stuff, and later in the day we both realized we were doing a new episode of "The Motor Excursion Ruffians"!

Here is a description of the recording...

After waking up at 4:30 AM and waiting 5.5 hours for White Stripes tickets, I was about to go to sleep when Peter called me... we decided to get together and go on a trip, featuring a torrential Thunderstorm and hail, roof parking of The Fashion Center mall in Paramus, NJ, coffee from Blimpie, weird spiral staircase, old school architecture, heading north on Route 17, Woodbury Common Premium Outlets in Central Valley, NY, super heavy pottery, free drinks and CDs, finding the food court, Le Gourmet Chef, Pretzel Time, the cosmic lemonade balance, Pete chooses an item from the Protocol Personal Products Convenience Center in the men's room, candy review ("Ora Labs XStreme Sour Drops - Strawberry"), Folz, Pringles vending machines, finding the exit, Le Creuset, Lladro, dust collectors, Route 6 - cool road, Bear Mountain State Park, free parking, merry go round closed, tranquil feeling, ice cream vending machine, a walk around Hessian Lake, forbidden rock climbing, vending machine deaths, vehicle, out of breath, living a screensaver, exercise, a methaphor for life, cigar, chipmunk, Canadian geese hissing, the goose fight question, the judgement of the ice cream deception, flags, "It's a Mistake" by Men At Work, Pallisades Parkway, Fort Lee, Mitsuwa Marketplace ("The Japanese Mall"), Hungary and Hungarian stuff, food court, food samples, Auto Freak, hoji tea coming out of the wall, packets of unknown material, Pete tries some natto, A Bathing Ape, Pocari Sweat, exploring the supermarket, Creap, Re-Ment, miniature cleaning supplies, Frank spends all his money, miso choice, deer joke, soothing music

The United States of Whatever, Liam Lynch, Sifl & Olly, The Sharper Image, and finding the way out of Edgewater.

This is the full audio (commercials and all) of a broadcast of “Channel 7’s Late Movie” taped off TV circa July 1994 in New Jersey. The movie is “Leo and Loree” from 1980, starring Donny Most (best known as Ralph Malph of Happy Days). As far as I can tell, this movie has never been made available on home video. They should release it on DVD - it is a great movie.

I think this is a very interesting cultural artifact. If you fell asleep in front of your TV back in the 90s, this is the kind of audio your subconscious mind would be hearing... and maybe even incorporating into your dreams...

This feature was recorded way back at the beginning of The Overnightscape - between episodes 4 and 5, in fact. Yet for some reason, it has taken me nearly 6 years to release it! I re-listened to the whole things to do the show notes, and I think it's a great audio feature. Here's a photo gallery of the pics I took, and here's the original hi-res pics if you want to check them out.

Merry Christmas!! This audio is from a cassette tape purchased at a flea market in New Jersey around 2001. It was labeled "XMAS 1973" on one side, and "MIKE" on the other side. This is the complete audio that was on the cassette.

This piece was originally intended for release on my old Internet radio station, Bluffcosm.com, in November 2001, though at that time, Bluffcosm was kind of in "hibernation", and it was not released. I eventually released it on Daily Podcast From Another Place exactly 4 years ago, on 12/25/04. This current release has better audio quality than that release.

A song by BlueTom, Luke Stephensen, Dan (TubeDreamer), Jerry Collins (GTRman4040) & Gavin (jamerson), released 12/23/06 on MyVirtualBand.com

MyVirtualBand.com was a website that began in late 2004 and closed in early 2007. On the site, musicians collaborated to create songs by uploading and downloading audio tracks. All the audio tracks on the site were released under the Creative Commons Attribution 2.0 license, which means that you can do pretty much what you want with the audio as long as you give credit to those who created it. There were 113 "featured songs" on the site, and a much greater number of songs "in progress". Even though the site has shut down, the music from the site is still under the same license - which allows the songs to be re-released here in The Overnightscape Underground!

Lyrics: I'm going to head out, on this lonely road and leave my woes in the dust. / I'm gonna get out, on the lonely road, leave my troubles and the fuss / All the heartache, I'll leave it all behind. // I'm going to start out on this life again, leave my failures in the past. / I'm going to stand up with some confidence, this time it will last.

All the places, to start this life again, / I'm going to start out on this life again, leave my failures in the past. // Well I'm moving right along in life. / I'm moving right along in life. // Well I'm moving right along in life. / I'm moving right along in life.

“Weird University” was originally a series of comedy videos created at Drew University in the Fall of 1986. It was a side project of the “Anything But Monday” team of Frank Edward Nora and Mad Mike.

The videos were reconceived as an audio project by Frank in 2001 as a part of Bluffcosm.com. On January 10, 2009, Frank re-edited the features into a single audio file.

CONTENTS:

- Edited version of the song “Weird University” by SMERSH
- Part 01 “Iggy and the Stud” (3:17) Iggy Szalzo interviews Bart Phillips, the biggest stud on the Weird University campus.
- Part 02 “Weird Vice” (5:36) The exciting adventures of Detective Goldberg on the campus of Weird University! Traffic violations, wild parties, drug deals... it’s crazy crime action-adventure!
- Part 03 “Weird October Hitchhiker” (8:06) It’s a Weird October at Weird University... and John’s a waiter who gets abused by customers, and then has to hitchhike home one day...
- Part 04 “Iggy and the Smart Guys” (7:58) Iggy Szalzo interviews the smartest guys on the Weird University campus, Shannon O’Shannahan and Gil Mannings.
- Part 05 “Shopping With Franco” (8:41) Join Franco Wolfini and the mysterious cameraman “Willie” on a very wacky trip to the supermarket! Another audio masterpiece from “Weird University”... including an appearance by Iggy Szalzo!
- Part 06 “Weird October Beast” (2:20) It’s a Weird October at Weird University... and there’s something wrong with Will! And whatever happened to Maureen...?
- Part 07 “Iggy and the Condemned Man” (7:18) Iggy Szalzo interviews Branson Stringfellow, a Weird University student who is scheduled to be executed for making obscene phone calls.
- Part 08 “Sights of the Uncommons” (13:39) Fall 1986. Mike and Frank explore the wonders and mysteries of the college food center. Originally recorded for the video “Weird University”.
- Part 09 “Weird October Dreamer” (4:31) It’s a Weird October at Weird University... and why does Rob keep having these strange dreams...?
- Part 10 “Weird October Spirit” (1:58) It’s a Weird October at Weird University... and Will, Rob, and John meet a mysterious stranger that they could all swear they’ve seen before...
- Full version of the song “Weird University” by SMERSH

Notes from Station Unlimited release, July 2007:

Originally released on Bluffcosm.com in February 2001. Original Description: A Computerized Radio Show on the Road! Join Frank, Pete, and Nick on their zany journey. Features include "Fun with Walky-Talkies", "Foods from The East", "The Killer Bag", interviews, wacky conversions, and more!

7/4/07 - I re-listened to this, and I have to say it's an awesome recording. During the show I mention how I intended to do more episodes on a regular basis - but that never happened, unfortunately. There is #2, from 2003, which I will release at some point... Also, I realized that the end of this episode is a lot like the ending of the final episode of The Sopranos! We are in a restaurant and the tape ends abruptly with no warning!

Notes from Station Unlimited release, December 2005:

"The Audio Field Trip" is a feature on The Overnightscape where I go out into the world and record various adventures and activities. Most of these are edited and played in their entirety on the show - but two of them are special cases. The first one is "The Audio Field Trip #1, which I was only able to play a very little bit of on The Overnightscape #20 (7/24/03). This is the complete recording.

On this trip, I go on "The Iselin Run", driving down to my storage unit in Iselin, NJ. This full audio was played for a while in 2003 on the Bluffcosm "live stream", and was then released as one of the "Second Anniversary Bonus Releases" back on March 27, 2005. This release has much better audio quality.

Notes from Station Unlimited release, October 2006:

Recorded on Tuesday, May 10, 2005, at a bar called "One and One" (at the corner of 1st Ave. and 1st St. in Manhattan). Starring Greg Narain (Beercasting.com / Sparkcasting.com), Steve Warren (InteractiveNYC.com), Frank Edward Nora (TheOvernightscape.com), and waitress "Myar".

Here's the story - Greg created the website "Beercasting.com", with the general idea of getting a bunch of people together at a bar, and then recording and podcasting their conversation on several different topics. At some point, Greg changed the name of the website to "Sparkcasting.com" and added a potential market research aspect to the project. This caused some controversy, as seen on this blog post. Then Greg posted on the NYC Podcasting Meetup forum, also causing a bit of controversy.

In any case, I went to the Beercasting that night, and we didn't start recording till real late. Only Greg, Steve, and myself were left. Greg wanted me to use my recorder, so I recorded the Beercast. We talked on a number of different topics, including the Sparkcasting marketing idea, podcasting, Adam Curry, stats, and male aggression. Toward the end, waitress "Myar" joined the recording. I eventually went to the bathroom and the Beercast ended.

The next day I sent the audio file to Greg, who said he would post it on Sparkcasting.com. But, as it happened, Sparkcasting was never updated. In fact, to this day, the site does not appear to have been updated at all since May of 2005. I think I emailed Greg a few times, but eventually I forgot about the whole thing.

Then, at the Podcasting Expo in Ontario, California, in September 2006, who should I meet at the bar at the Marriott but Greg! It was good to see him again, and he said he was working on some new stuff. I mentioned the recording to him and he said I could go ahead and post it.

I'm still not sure what happened with the whole Sparkcasting thing, but in any case, here is the complete, unedited "Forgotten Beercast" from that long ago day...

Notes from Station Unlimited release, December 2005:

This journey starts off with me and Peter Litkey driving to pick up his friend Brian. We then go to see Star Wars Episode III: Revenge of the Sith. Afterwards, we drive around very wealthy areas of New Jersey, visit Pete's old school, and Pete's car reaches 200,000 miles. Along the way we talk about many interesting things!

Recorded on May 28, 2005, I kept meaning to edit it and play it on the show, but I never got to it. So as time went on, it became known as "The Lost Audio Field Trip". Now, it is released in all of its 2+ hour glory!

Notes from Station Unlimited release, May 2006:

I went to check out the opening of the new Apple Store Fifth Avenue and I wound up recording over 2-and-a-half hours of audio! Instead of waiting weeks or months to edit it and play it on the show, I figured I'd release the raw audio right away for your listening pleasure... nothing edited (except a few phone numbers I had to bleep). Ben from CodedSignal.com pretty much became my co-host at one point. I met a bunch of other podcasters there - it was a lot of fun! (P.S. Gaurav got in at 9:50 PM.)

The Overnightscape Underground - January 2009 - Track 36
“Your Late Night Broadcast” online at onsug.com

Notes from Station Unlimited release, August 2006:

Recorded on Saturday, July 29, and Sunday, July 30, 2006. On this Audio Field Trip, my wife Denice and I travel from northern New Jersey to a wedding in western Massachusetts. Phil and Sarah, listeners to The Overnightscape, are getting married at a Quaker retreat called “Woolman Hill”. On this recording, you'll hear about the long drive up, the creepy motel, arrival at the wedding, the wedding ceremony, walking through a cornfield the next day, visits to the Yankee Candle Flagship Store and the Hampshire Mall, and much more.

I recorded this Audio Field Trip on my Edirol R-1 digital recorder. Unfortunately, the Compact Flash card had gone faulty but I didn't know about it. The total recording consists of 75 segments, totalling almost 2.5 hours. Unfortunately, 11 of the files were corrupt - so about 36 minutes of recordings were lost, all interspersed throughout. The lost segments include some commentary about the wedding, the night drive back to the motel, and an interview with Phil and Sarah.

This release consists of the raw unedited audio (minus the corrupt segments). It is a long, rambling piece of audio, and the “narrative” suffers a bit from the loss of some of the segments. But there is a lot of interesting and very varied stuff in this audio. Hopefully I'll do an edited version at some point that will be an easier listen.

Frank in NYC in the morning. Talking about the older Mickey Mouse and the newer Mickey Mouse, why Rush is the best rock band, Steely Dan's sleazy lyric topics, the fleeting nature of hotness - both for people and music, a certain quality, talk radio, cross-country motorcycle trips, stopped reading books, 6th Anniversary of The Overnightscape, the mushroom photos, writing poetry, worthless art, TV in real time sucks, The Iraq War, transition point, 777, the show has a quality that can transcend the "game", the theory of rancid olive oil vapor, newspaper clipping, book "The Lost City of Z", tired of the zombie genre, Spuds MacKenzie, conspiracy theories, hubris, the arrogance of the mediocre, food review "Nature's Promise - Muesli Salad", cumin, truck cartoon characters and dolls, and Road Warrior.

-----
Before the dawn of The Overnightscape in 2003, I used to make random recordings in NYC all the time. The idea was to capture interesting audio that I could use in my Internet radio project at the time, Bluffcosm.com.

The "City Cassette" series contains these recordings, one cassette per release. They will not be in chronological order, because I don't think it matters that much.

This first cassette in the series contains a lot of interesting stuff, including some of my thoughts on the future of Internet radio, lots of sounds from the subway system, a visit to an old place of work, and a whole lot more. A good portion of it is "ambient sound", rather than me talking.

Here is how the tape is labeled: Side A: "1/31/01 - 2/14/01 NYC Audio". Side B: "2/16/01 - 2/22/01 NYC D&A Snow / Subway Crowd"

Frank attempts to go to 21 shopping malls in New Jersey on Monday, July 2, 2001, and "tap" each one with his brass "Jukewand". This is the audio record of the adventure. In the end, Frank gets to 17 malls:

Cherry Hill Mall, Deptford Mall, Echelon Mall, Quaker Bridge Mall, Princeton Market Fair, Princeton Forrestal Village, Brunswick Square Mall, Freehold Raceway Mall, Ocean County Mall, Monmouth Mall, Woodbridge Center Mall, Menlo Park Mall, Bridgewater Commons Mall, Short Hills Mall, Livingston Mall, Wayne Towne Center, Willowbrook Mall

This was the one and only time Frank ever did Tap-A-Mall. Though of course a Tap-A-Mall 2 is possible in the future...

Frank meets Peter in Basking Ridge, NJ and sees his new car for the first time. They go to Edison, NJ so that Peter can play a part in a movie by Lordi Films. Then they drive to Devon, Pennsylvania, to meet up with Bryan and Shayne. On the drive, Frank plays with Peter’s XM Radio. They review some “Pepsi Throwback”, play some “The Lord of the Rings”, go to an Indian and a Japanese restaurant, Bryan talks about hypnosis, Peter talks about Teen Challenge, and then Frank and Peter get a little lost on the drive back, even with a GPS system. And of course, a whole lot more stuff happens in-between the stuff mentioned here.

Fuzzy Daupner - All The Songs (1998-2001) 12.4 (2:13:29 / 122 MB)
The Overnightscape Underground - May 2009 - Track 4
“Your Late Night Broadcast” online at onsug.com
Created by Frank Edward Nora (frank@theovernightscape.com) in New Jersey, USA

-----
Fuzzy Daupner was an obscure New Jersey rock band which, in the brief span of 3 years (1998-2001), created a catalog of 32 amazing songs. You can here all of these songs right here, along with complete lyrics, below.

Fuzzy Daupner began in 1998 when Carrie Engdahl began collaborating with her sister Denice and Denice's husband Frank on creating songs. Awhile later, they joined forces with Rob DiCaterino on drums and formed the band Fuzzy Daupner. The final member, Phil Mould on bass, joined a little later.

They produced two home-recorded, Internet-distributed albums, and played many shows around New Jersey and NYC. But they never got signed and they broke up in November 2001.

As you will hear, there is something rather unique about these 32 songs. This audio release will hopefully help in keeping the songs alive - it is intended as a reference source for the songs.

FUZZY DAUPNER

Carrie Engdahl - Vocals, Guitar
Rob DiCaterino - Drums
Phil Mould - Bass

Denice Nora - Creative Direction
Frank Edward Nora - Creative Direction

All 32 songs are the original creations of the members of Fuzzy Daupner. (Specific songwriting credits are not included in this post, but are available elsewhere.)

These 32 songs may be available as individual tracks in the future.

ALL THE LYRICS...

-----
You were there in that college
And you like this god Frey
You were there in that college
And you like this god Loki

You said this was all you were waiting for
I gave you my heart, I told you my soul

You were there in that college
And you like this god Frey
You were there in that college
And you like this god Loki

I gave you everything that I possibly could
But you just stood there with your hands wide open
I guess I should have expected that you would

You were there in that college
And you like this god Frey
You were there in that college
And you like this god Loki

What about what I want?
Were you ever gonna give me that?

So, if I gave you what you wanted
Would you really be happy?
And if I gave you what you wanted
Would I have been loved?

I'm a pretty cool chick
I like to laugh, I'm not too serious
maybe just a little mysterious

doesn't that make you curious

I'm a pretty cool chick
I've got my own dot com
I play guitar, I write you songs
I even have my own car
I'll let you take it for a ride

Let me make you feel like a man
you don't gotta be my biggest fan
I could do so many things to you and you could say you're with the band
you could say you're with the band

My candle's not lit
hot wax could be naughty
when I use my voice like this
I'll see you in the morning, little fan

Let me make you feel like a man
you don't gotta be my biggest fan
I could do so many things to you

I'm a pretty cool chick
I like to laugh, I'm not too serious
maybe just a little mysterious
doesn't that make you curious
doesn't that make you curious
doesn't that make you curious

-----

Montana Kentucky Bermuda Maine
Hovercraft race and the dreamer Lorraine
Won the Mexican Hovercraft in a backgammon game
The first to Bar Harbor wins a trip into space

And the Mexican Hovercraft is ready for speed
Shields and Yarnell and J. Appleseed
The heck with nostalgia there can be a new dawning
Lorraine at the wheel is still sneering and yawning

Give it sweet attention
An incense on interstate rain
Give it sweet attention
Appomatox is buzzing again

Give it sweet attention
An incense on interstate rain
Give it sweet attention
Appomatox is buzzing again

October train stations as dark as can be
Thoughts from Cape May are numbingly clean
Racing stripes in an autumn scheme
Bolt Wintercindie and the Laser Bee

Kentucky is chill and the contest is fading
The Lippizan Stallions are ready for mating
The Halma Club geeks are bitter and jaded
Lorraine hits the brakes with a pepper elation

Give it sweet attention
An incense on interstate rain
Give it sweet attention
Appomatox is buzzing again

Give it sweet attention
An incense on interstate rain
Give it sweet attention

MONSTER NOW
-----

So how you been my crazy monster head?
Are you lonely?
I know I haven't been myself,
I thought I was OK on my own,
But sometimes you just need your
Crazy monster
Sometimes you just need your monster

Some things very very very wrong
You're my Easter
And someday this will get easier

Look at the sky
And say good-bye
Feelings don't last
Licorice goes bad
And children sometimes cry and

Some things very very very wrong
You're my Easter
And someday this will get easier

"Have another cigarette,"
I say to myself
What else is there to do?
I convince my monster

Some things very very very wrong
You're my Easter
And someday this will get easier

So how you been my crazy monster head?
Are you lonely?
I know I haven't been myself
I thought I was okay on my own,
But sometimes you just need your
Crazy monster
Sometimes you just need your monster
Sometimes I just need my monster
Sometimes you just need your monster

Sometimes I just need my monster

ONLY SAW TRUCKS
-----

The slower the warning here is building
And a slow travel down weird sideways
No fortress here nothing
Otherside and faraway something

Dreaming by the hotel check-in
He should be here any second
A glance and a look
I'm waiting for a car
But I only saw trucks
I only saw trucks

Detours to a row of vending machines
Hearing their voices trying to make my choices
Next time I'll wear long sleeves

Dreaming by the hotel check-in
He should be here any second
A glance and a look
I'm waiting for a car
But i only saw trucks
I mantra slam all

My dreaming has changed to wondering
Many seconds have gone by Pulling into my face with a smile
He has arrived and I told him that I was

Dreaming by the hotel check-in Knowing you'd be here any second
Looking for your car but I only saw trucks
I only saw trucks

No wind no warning the desert is beat
Hopefully he'll be back quick
Standing alone near a red rock plateau
The air is downy like thunder
In my pocket no keys or money
Just dice and fax and phone numbers
Wrench and bolt 3 2 1 contact
One way is loosen one way is damn tighten

Baby I wanna get moving
But I only saw trucks
Baby I wanna get moving
But I only saw trucks
I only saw trucks

Well here's the van, hop on in
There's still some fun in the world, y'know
So come along my friend

It's the time of day to open your mind
In other words it's anytime of the night or day

Don't believe in a starlight squeeze
Don't be the realistic one, oh jeez
Feel the morning slapping your frown
For a number of hours to come
We'll be hanging around
And singing around and playing around
And horsing and horsing
Around and around and around and AROUND

It's a wildering drifted gown
Licking freshly minted weeks
Oh...
Licking freshly minted weeks

Via va va vo and
Via va va vay
Toll plaza dragonflies
Wake up uh get up uh
Possible Calhoun

Via va va vo and
Via va va vay
Toll plaza dragonflies
Wake up uh get up uh
Possible Calhoun

Well hello space camp stepsister
Have you had that smile on long
Say you oughtta might honey feel the night
It's got a raven's nest and hero's hall

Licking freshly minted weeks

Oh...
Licking freshly minted weeks

So let's go now my
Happy sleepy amigos
So let's go now my
Happy sleepy amigos
So let's go now my
Happy sleepy amigos

There's more of all this revelry
It will not go sour
Don't be a drag with all of your counting the hours
Let us love a fair time of slush in the flowers

Via va va vo and
Via va va vay
Toll plaza dragonflies
Wake up uh get up uh
Possible Calhoun

Via va va vo and
Via va va vay
Toll plaza dragonflies
Wake up uh get up uh

PREGNANT SKATEBOARD
-----

Car wash canals clearly doesn't make sense,
But smiles live with me behind that fence
Chocolate and vanilla are quite complimentary
You and I seem so contradictory
Picture perfect places only exist in pictures
And nothing is guaranteed as a permanent fixture

You and me, maybe not
Just a thought, that's all I've got
You and me, maybe not
Just a thought, that's all I've got

In the cards and on the dice,
Take your chance, it might be nice
Waiting for nothing and playing the game
Waiting for you is just the same as
Waiting for nothing and playing the game

You and me, maybe not
Just a thought, that's all I've got
You and me, maybe not
Just a thought, that's all I've got

I'm okay with you here,
Acting silly, shimmering smiles
Looking like lavender after a while,
But you better bet both hands now mister
'Cause flounders are flying faster that you can

You and me, maybe not
Just a thought, that's all I've got
You and me, maybe not
Just a thought, that's all I've got

Sunflower Slow Drag 2
Lingerie in a suitcase in ice
A little mandolin gesture
Of a primitive pinball spice

I have agreed
Perhaps stupidly
To embark on a Hyper Mission

Out of a phase
The fading telecast age
With the in-flight dungeon games
In the flickety flames

I have agreed

Bad Scoville in again

Out of a phase

With the in-flight dungeon games
In the flickety flames

This fiery Spring is a Fine and naughty daydream
And strife is for erasing with Skinny dipping into things amazing

Sign of the malls
Going where I want to go
It's not a song for the insane people to sing

SLIDING GARDENS

And can I say we are

Crazy crossing a rocky stream
Kissing hills and air and dreams
Coltishly beaucoup in our mysteries

Bathing cool in a stimulating rio
Tiki and arctic phase at nanticoko
Singing folk space rock at the top of our lungs
Winding down in the wow fluff of the treetops

We can walk together
Under the moon or whatever
And our nasty predawn jive
Will even make the scorpions cry

We can walk together
Under the moon or whatever
And our nasty predawn jive
Will even make the scorpions cry

Humpback dude with jackdaw steed
Whale and bird on a new kind of trip
Motors and lights and audio delights
Rubber bands are pumping energy

The treasure of me is stalking away
At the whining dusk of day
Your mental aggression craft is called Attack-type dog

We can walk together
Under the moon or whatever
And our nasty predawn jive
Will even make the scorpions cry

We can walk together
Under the moon or whatever
And our nasty predawn jive
Will even make the scorpions cry

Above the primly introspective waste
The Rover is the tune
As we skydive in new wave ruins
She make weird animal dolls

Pogs were not a lasting trend
The new age it just came and went
The humans we're all stuck in are
The leftovers of an obvious recall

We can walk together
Under the moon or whatever
And our nasty predawn jive
Will even make the scorpions cry

We can walk together
Under the moon or whatever
And our nasty predawn jive
Will even make the scorpions cry

SOME IN THE WOODS

Though it wouldn't compute today
There were some in the woods
Detergent like misty May go away
Sunglasses like that she's no bank employee

The airport one of the grasslands
Has a nuclear weapon
There's a reptile that's almost here
And on carpet he ain't steppin'

Seen the white phosphorus braids
Of the jingle bell maker of the breeze
Erotically wasted
On the leaves of hidden trees

There's an elevator on the train
Of windmill and waterwheel
Saw a dryad with anthracite
Cuckoo clock's cold, gotta heat that steel

Bold and bright and savage hammer
From a field of silly flowers
Dark artwork of a corporation
Snowy and ruined, my night hours

Seen the white phosphorus braids
Of the jingle bell maker of the breeze
Erotically wasted
On the leaves of hidden trees

Though it wouldn't compute today
There were some in the woods
Detergent like misty May go away
Sunglasses like that she's no park ranger

The airport one of the grasslands
Has a nuclear weapon
There's a reptile that's almost here
And he's got my full attention

The grizzlycorn with the copper horn
In the light of digital clocks was born
Jesse and Sasha wore their outfits torn
And those in the woods, they hit their foghorn

Yes those in the woods, they hit their foghorn
Yes those in the woods, they hit their foghorn
Yes those in the woods, they hit their foghorn

TAKE A NAP

When this happens I feel trapped
When this happens I feel trapped
I need to run away to a place I can relax
'Cause when this happens

I feel trapped
I need a nap

When this happens I take a nap
When this happens I take a nap
Wrap me in a blanket
and throw me in the sack
'Cause when all this stuff happens
I take a nap
I feel trapped

James K. Polk and his hamster Zack
Are playing out in the back
When this stuff happens I take a nap
When that happens I take a nap
When that happens I take a nap <<<CHANGE line added
I feel trapped
I'm on attack

Let me shut off
with my pillow nice and soft
'Cause when all this stuff happens
I take a nap
When this happens I take a nap
I feel trapped
I feel trapped

I'm too big for daddy's lap
these days he just gives me a pat
so these days stuff happens
I take a nap
When that happens I take a nap
When this happens I take a nap
I feel trapped
I'm on attack

Don't wake me up
or I'll give you a whack

If that happened I'd take a nap

If you don't let me nap
I'll be on a Feral Kid attack

If that happened I'd take a nap
I'd play with Zack

When I wake from my nap
I can then deal with the crap
but when all this stuff happens
In Carbonite I'm trapped
I need a nap

Can I fathom this darkling drape?

Can I fathom this darkling drape?

Can I fathom this darkling drape?

I take a nap.

TEN MINUTES CAT

I always forget to water my plants
New clothes make me dance
I always forget to tell you how I feel

Always waiting for that second chance
Look at me with that long time glane
So I'm sure that you feel the same

Ten minutes cat, you better call
Ten minutes cat, until I fall
You've got ten minutes cat, that's all

I can't help feeling pissed
Why does no matter what this
Romance is such a game

Why do I leave it up to Whether or not I feel blue
I don't know what else to say or do

Ten minutes cat, I'm waiting no more
Ten minutes cat, this is such a chore
Ten minutes to call, that's all

Ten minutes cat, you better call
Ten minutes cat, until I fall
You've got ten minutes cat, thats all.

TRANSIT SHIVERS

note: there are two versions of this song - the long version (below), and the short version, which is a subset of the long version

A thousand years ago, I was so alone
I had three horses, Bob, Jake and Fred
I made my money by making bread
Those horses were my only friends
and you said I was weird cause, I talked to them, but I knew, that you knew, that you loved me anyway

But, I was disruptive, I was untrusted, I was destructive with your heart
I was disruptive, I was untrusted, I was destructive with my heart
Transit shivers make me quiver
Transit shivers always make me quiver

Five hundred years ago, I was so alone
I had three plants, Daisy, Dead and Petal
I made my money by making metal
Those plants were my only friends
and you said I was crazy because, I talked to them,

but I knew, that you knew, that you loved me anyway

But, I was disruptive, I was untrusted, I was destructive with your heart

I was disruptive, I was untrusted, I was destructive with my heart

Transit shivers make me quiver

Transit shivers always make me quiver

One hundred years ago, I was so alone
I had three frogs, George, Blair, and Cope
I made my money by making soap
Those frogs were my only friends and you said I was strange because, I talked to them
but I knew, that you knew, that you loved me anyway

But, I was disruptive, I was untrusted, I was destructive with your heart

I was disruptive, I was untrusted, I was destructive with my heart

Transit shivers make me quiver

Transit shivers always make me quiver

This year, I am so alone
I have three cuckoos, Mappy, Reese, and Kitty
I make my money by making old woman pretty
These cuckoos are my only friends
and you think I'm insane because, I talk to them but I know, that you know, that you love me anyway

I'll try not being so disruptive, or untrusted, or destructive with your heart

So disruptive, or untrusted, or destructive with my heart

Transit shivers make me quiver

Transit shivers always make me quiver

And maybe someday I won't be so alone, so solo, so solo

Myra's on the synthesizer, in The Us Hounds
Enter the milieu, if you please, of The Us Hounds
Hildebad is on electric guitar, and Harla is on acoustic
Trace is on the bass guitar, and Bruckner plays the drums
They're rocking out on the rails of the world, The Us Hounds!

We are awfully proud of spring

And then again

Awfully bored of prance

And then again

Awfully proud of spring

And then again

Awfully bored of prance

And then again

WEIRD HIGHWAY
-----

I can't say this song is called dial
Get telepathic with gecko and skink for awhile
Steel wool crossfire is grand
a thousand years old, drawn on a goddess's hand

The subject of a company of dust
Dance rants laugh
On the Nordenskjold Line of my mind
Imbibing the stripes of industrial signs

Apartment pepper December fire coze
Clash of blasted slack with sudden pose
Like lemonglass walls of fulsome of those Total envy as Tixe-a is the one I chose

Cruisin' down a weird highway
on a Himalayan kitten's couch
Truckin' the dance of flying thru windows is the only thing that counts

That Barchetta isn't red
It's gunmetal gray instead
Stumbling down Mediocre Lane
Some hatters are still sane

Cruisin' down a weird highway
on a Himalayan kitten's couch
Truckin' the dance of flying thru windows
is the only thing that counts

-----

And took an immediate liking to this type of percussion
Wearing denim from head to toe
He doesn't know who to like
And he doesn't know where to stand

The Armixhony of Conrad
Another Universe Southland
The Delicious Potential of Spencer
Honk Towers is the town where he met her

Of startings over, hello
Dollhouse checkerboards in the black & tan
He's in the air, And her name is Flare
And they are going over there

Well it's official, it's night
And it's officially wet
As jesters from head to toe
The new games fresh in the memory

The Armixhony of Conrad
Another Universe Southland
The Delicious Potential of Spencer
Honk Towers is the town where he met her

When summer plant feathers flock in air
Spencer's a rock-climbing marketing hack
She puts in glass fragile artifacts
From semi-fictional mad shipwrecks
Flare's not gonna deal like that
Conrad's in the Indian paddywhack

BACK TO CIRCLES

Love is all around me
Just not in me
Sometimes I'm wrapped in plastic it seems

Someone else's shoes is more appealing to me

Maybe if I just start spinning

Circles
Everything leads
Back to circles
Back to circles
Back to circles

Sometimes I try to speak
But I choke
Sometimes I laugh
When there's no joke
Now you see me
Now you don't
Sometimes I would
Most times I won't

Maybe if I just start spinning

Circles
Everything leads
Back to circles
Back to circles
Back to circles

Love is all around me
Just not in me
I'm wrapped in plastic again today
Someone else's shoes could help me run away

Maybe if I just start spinning

Circles
Everything leads
Back to circles
Back to circles
Back to circles

THE BROWN AND BLUE
-----

Why do kids color lobsters red?
They're only red when they're dead
Why are these crustaceans dead?
'Cause people with butter are waiting for them

Lobsters red
When they're dead
Lobsters red
When they're dead
And sometimes crabs are victims too
They should stay brown and blue

Lobsters red
When they're dead
Lobsters red
When they're dead

And sometimes crabs are victims too
They should stay brown and blue

Why do kids color lobsters red?

BUILT-IN BOOKSHELVES
-----

Black old shoes
And a dusty knife
I supinely rose, late last night
I did not succeed, 'cause the moment you sneezed
You blew all my courage away

You always find something to ruin my plans
You always found some way to serif my sans
But it's okay 'cause I've got...

Built-in bookshelves baby
Built-in bookshelves
Go get your reading glasses
'Cause I wanna teach you a lesson
about me

I thought I was easy to read
I thought I made it easy for you to read
I gave you the bait, but I guess you never bit
Could you really be this illiterate?

Built-in bookshelves baby
Built-in bookshelves
Go get those grinded lenses
'Cause I'm gonna teach you lesson
about me

I could've been the book you can't put down
Your neverending story
But I finally found
These built-in bookshelves inside me
I finally found these built-in bookshelves
Right here, inside me

Lissomeness, a creek, this geometric peace
Came so close to crashing, clean by not touching you at all
In your rockness, you made... me... see...
The flowers and fireworks in me
In your rockness, you made me see
And I learned a lesson about me

-----

How could you let it come to this?
How could you let this take place?

The woman above me holds herself together with aerosol cans

The mirror seems to be her best friend
And I think this may change my plans
Since I'm starting to learn how to bend

Let me be who I am meant to be
Let me see how I can actually be

The woman below me tries to act drunk
Because she feels somewhat invisible
And I try to fathom the reason
But it's really not so hard to see

Let me learn from other women's mistakes
Let me learn so my heart will never break

The woman inside me is only a fantasy,
And the little girl that possesses me is only thinking about
Screaming and breaking free
The woman inside me is only a fantasy,
And the little girl that possesses me is only thinking
She's only thinking

Let me learn from other women's mistakes
Let me learn so my heart will never break

The person in the mirror is always a bit intrigued,
She is lonely, she is fearful, and not willing to receive She imagines possibilities occurring from something only to realize
She still has nothing
So, she pretends to be okay and pretends to be alive, because she won't be responsible for letting herself die
Is there a man out there who is able to fix this?
For some reason I doubt that he even exists

How could you let it come to this?
How could you let this take place?

Your time is up, it's time to stand up and face this problem
That began long before you started to run,
Lost in space too far behind to ever catch up,
Losing my mind don't tell me again to shut up,
'Cause last time I listened and now look at me,
No really look...

Can you see me?...
Can you see me?

Early in the concrete cement

The seeping enterprise washing
I wish this snow was unrelenting

I bore a hole in the Nunavut springtime
My misery isn't interesting at all

I bore a hole in the Nunavut springtime

Overnight cable got the
Beanies and the Christian Rock
And all the puppets there
Are constructed outta socks

The they and the temperature level
Black trees, his antimatter sneeze
Selected slash of casino ash
Lass in the pedways of Halifax

I bore a hole in the Nunavut springtime

I prepared all last night
To rip the waterfall to shreds
Deemrose Bonnie crossbow humid
Pedway ankh the breeze is in shock

I bore a hole in the Nunavut springtime
My misery isn't interesting at all

Early in the sheetrock day
My chocolate factory is in no way
Hershey or Wonka but it's quite okay
Its effect keeps my childhood erect

I bore a hole in the Nunavut springtime
My misery isn't interesting at all

COPING SAW SUNSET ROADS

Each morning I sleep in your family room
Sunshine in the raw clamps your terra cotta
Somewhat perfect I attend to marshes in dreams
And your cat is nice to me

Driving your truck to a home architecture place
My headband is giving out 65 messages
Tears on the yellow credit card receipt
And the scowls of dour teens aplenty

Searching the tippy tops of your many closets
Boardgames from the seventies often lurk there
And I brew that deep peppermint tea
Having missed 15 minutes of Quincy

I was not happy with your E-mail from the airport
I got a pile of magazines and a collage to create
I might walk in the night, some festivals are near
I have a cougar's soul, that's what I'll tell myself

Calling all you tricky nothingness
A Crazy Plonto clockful morning is storming
Seeking goes to store, vases on her mind
Pawn of the Ago Quartz, Crazy Plonto, Episode 5

Wanting the clop clop antique
Baby, as baby hawks are near
Three stupid things we got in here
Nostalgia, karate, and a sponge

Yeah Vulcan, that is me
Young, outcast, yeah I failed
Forging away, forming facades
Yeah I failed, yeah so now what?

Superscience needed, she loves muddy bay
Polluting the minds with ballet
Art in museum, doesn't mean a thing
A cat god robot on film she likes to see

A freckle and a burn, side by side
I would think that skeeball's your game
Pretty please play tetherball with me
Tonight you're cool, you're a fortieth century schoolgirl

Yeah Vulcan, that is me

Gaga Scirroco, I gather you're fumbling

Don Jay Maxfield plays the role
Time travel action hero, it's fantastic
She claims she's gonna marry him someday
And be in a Crazy Plonto movie

Yeah Vulcan, that is me
Young, outcast, yeah I failed
Forging away, forming facades
Yeah I failed, yeah so now what?

Yeah Vulcan, that is me
Young, outcast, yeah I failed
Forging away, forming facades
Yeah I failed, yeah...
Let's get outta here
Let's get outta here...

CUP OF JOE
-----

I'm kind of in the mood for a cup of joe
I'm kind of in the mood for a cup of joe
I'm feeling kinda scared and I don't think it's fair
I'm feeling kinda scared and I don't think he cares

So, I'll hold in my thoughts
And I'll hold in my fears Holden teach me how to be real

I'm kind of in the mood for a cup of joe
I'm kind of in the mood for a cup of joe

It's sort of strange, but it's classified as sane
It's sort of strange, and I know he thinks the same

An uncommon friendship that's lasted a few years
An uncommon friendship caused by my own fears

I'm kind of in the mood for a cup of joe
Kind of in the mood for a cup of joe
Kind of in the mood for a cup of joe

DEAR ANYONE
-----

I think my heart needs a jump start
I feel the need, I feel the want, but i never learned how to flaunt

I'm a blessing in disguise, I promise you that
So come on, come on let me try on your hat

Dear Anyone, I'm lonely but I'm to blame
Dear Anyone, Show me my flame
Dear Anyone, you don't know how lucky you could be
Dear Anyone, I dare you to set me free

Dear Anyone, I'm lonely but I'm to blame
Dear Anyone, I'm begging show me my flame
Dear Anyone, you don't know how lucky you would be
Dear Anyone, I dare you to set me free

I think my heart needs a jump start
I feel the need, I feel the want, but i never learned how to
flaunt

I'm a blessing in disguise, I promise you that
So, come on, come on, let me try on your hat

Dear Anyone, I'm lonely buy I'm to blame
Dear Anyone, I want a better flame
Dear Anyone, you don't know how lucky you would be

DELUGE OF PRIMACY

Eight o'clock to sound in a peal
Her brunette crown through the window
A darkling intersection in between his things
Unfirm and awesome
She felt his eyes on her
Unfirm and awesome
She felt his eyes on her

A night in the city
Washington Square Park
Commencing on church steps in the dark
Still there and it's morning
Something keeping them awake
Unfirm and awesome
She felt his eyes on her
Unfirm and awesome
She felt his eyes on her

True Lies it's a snow cone maker
Syd Barrett sing Late Night
Deluge of Primacy dripping wax
She was still amazed
He continued to gaze
Unfirm and awesome
She felt his eyes on her
Unfirm and awesome
She felt his eyes on her

He only has eyes for her
He only has eyes for her

Dirtbike fun revolaxation

Dawdling as madly as the safety swing hummingbird 19 and 17 and 13 and 11 are indivisible like us and our friends

Your free will is set against a clockworking majesty To thrash around uselessly and following most of the rules

Calming the nerves of everyone
Surfing fun revolaxation
Hello keel your wanting need
Your handlers are a rational breed

Drowsy as elklike as

-----

If I told you a story would you want to hear the end?
'Cause it's kinda long and it's awfully stupid
So just let me begin

It started on Michael's porch in 1984
He stuck his tongue in my mouth and I fell to the floor

He said we were playing make-believe
But pretending was never that real
And since that day, I've been afraid
Of the real thing
I'm afraid of the real thing
I'm afraid of the real thing
I'm afraid of the real thing

His mom saw us and she called to tell mine
My mom stood there in the kitchen and asked what's on my mind
And I said nothing
I said nothing
I said nothing
I said nothing

She asked if what she heard was true
I didn't know what to say
I wanted to tell the truth
That Michael made me play
But I said nothing
I said nothing and I lied
and I lied

And I'm not sure why, I let this control my mind
And I'm not sure how I became such a coward

I'm not sure why, I let this control my mind
I'm not sure how, it made me such a coward
I'm such a coward
I'm such a coward
I'm such a coward
I'm such a coward

And you loved to climb my tree
And you loved to watch me pee
Always asking how it works
How am I supposed know?
I'm only seven years old
How could you expect me know?
I'm only seven years old
Seven years old

And I'm not sure if that's the reason
But it keeps my wonder sane
And maybe if this didn't happen
I'd still turn out the same
Afraid of the real thing
I'm afraid of the real thing
I'm afraid of the real thing
I'm afraid of the real thing

And I wonder what would happen if the real thing came my way
What kind of excuses could I think of to say
Maybe I'd start to sing to help you understand
That I really don't want to leave it's just the way I am Afraid of the real thing
I'm afraid of the real thing
I'm afraid of the real thing
I'm afraid of the real thing

THE FILMOGRAPHY OF ANN B. DAVIS
-----

Boring books that other people read
About adults and their infidelities
And travelling to romantic places
These readers are wanting of sleeves with aces

Paper plates with the cartoon stars of the day
Inelegant remains of some kind of ice cream cake
As relatives are lazing the tension is phasing
And phone calls at night's-end are hoped to be pleasing

Loving life can take more juice
Than the air conditioning at a mall
Rows and columns of bitches from college
Her place in the scheme of things is just idiotic

Loving life can take more juice
Than the air conditioning at a mall
Rows and columns of bitches from college
Her place in the scheme of things is just idiotic

As lame as a fast food no-left-turn sign

Dirty fingers that prod in the produce lane
Pirates adored as the dudes of pop culture
Real ones caused misery and torture

This place is construction zones and shoe store blues
The mentally scrambled at facade-craft are ample
The toys of the '80s are ready and waiting Sweaty clothes are stripped and the shower is dreaming

Loving life can take more juice
Than the air conditioning at a mall
Rows and columns of bitches from college
Her place in the scheme of things is just idiotic

Loving life can take more juice
Than the air conditioning at a mall
Rows and columns of bitches from college
Her place in the scheme of things is just idiotic

This place has crap from the past that better not last
The razor wire friends that talk empty and fresh Loving life is a rock guitar haunting
The mall is so cold that I gotta keep running

Rows and columns of bitches from college
Rows and columns of bitches from college
Rows and columns of bitches from college
Her place in the scheme of things is changing just slightly

May 16, 2009 is the 25th anniversary of the supposed death of Andy Kaufman. The website AndyKaufmanLives.com had been promising a special message for this day, so I got set up to record my reactions to it in real time. One thing I had been intending to do for awhile was sit out on the porch and smoke pipes. Also, having seen some recent web broadcasts from BradmanTV on USTREAM, I figured I would try it out myself, though I just had a kind of crappy webcam on my Acer Aspire One netbook.

In the end, I would up broadcasting for nearly 5 hours! It was a heck of a lot of fun. I smoked pipes and drank some "Black & White" Scotch on the porch, and we got Andy's "fuck you" message, and a lot of the people were watching and in the chatroom.

My battery ran out and I went inside and continued the show in The Overnightscape Studio, eventually drinking some absinthe and putting on a puppet show!! Also, showing some video of Andy Kaufman on Fridays with weird video feedback sounds... a whole lot of stuff. Most of it was recorded on video (see below)...

It was a very fun experience! I hope to do it again, hopefully with a better webcam...

From an audio perspective, this piece may be a bit difficult at times - long pauses and such - since so much was going on - but there is good stuff up till the very end, so stick with it!

Sounds of the Commons (Alternate Audio)

----

Go Away (Radio Segment)

----

Umbrella

1986

(1:19) Dare we call this a sublime audio masterpiece? I think we may so dare.

----

For Joey

Fall 1987?

--

(6:06) Chaz and Teddy are searching for Joey... will they find him?

----

News From Civilization

11/20/1985

(2:03) 11/20/85. Frank is a freshman in college and has drank way too much vodka. In a drunken stupor, he reads from a Walt Disney World guidebook...

----

Pineapple

October 1986

(2:08) An alternate take from the original footage of the Blufftoon "Weird October Hitchhiker". John is a waiter who gets abused by his customers...

----

The Famous Cameracorder

October 1986

(1:45) Now that you got your car started, can I have some food? Listen, this world runs on a capitalistic sort of system. You are an alms beggar. I have no need for you.

----

The Arkanoid Player

October 1986

(1:59) Step back in time to Drew University in October 1986... the campus arcade... with Galaga and Eight Ball Deluxe in the background... Bryan is playing... playing Arkanoid!

----

----

It's a Tuck-In 1986

(2:55) In college, a girl's dorm was raising money by doing "tuck-ins". Frank and Mike buy one for Physics Phil, and surprise him with it. Check out the Blufftoon "Arcade Phantom" to hear Phil comment on this incident, among many other things.

----

Birthday 1988

10/3/1988

(4:14) October 3, 1988... the offices of Anything But Monday Magazine in Caldwell, NJ... Mike wishes Frank a happy birthday by hurling batteries at him...

----

Anything But Monday Minimix mastered 7/27/03

Sounds of the Commons

1986

(9:26) Mike and Frank's cool trip to the college food center, recorded for their radio show, Anything But Monday. "Sights of the Uncommons" is the sequel to this Blufftoon.

----

A Hairy One

Fall 85 or Spring 86

(9:21) It's nighttime at college... and John is drunk! Hear his friends torment him in this mid-1980s classic!

Ping Pong

Early 1989

(18:47) Frank, Pete, and John visit Drew University in early 1989. Physics Phil bursts onto the scene. Then a confrontation. Then a quieter time with ping pong and the like. Then talking to people outside...

**This is a very weird Blufftoon, but with some patience you'll be able to warp your ears and mind around it. Enjoy!

Go Away

1986

(3:04) Mike and Frank try to interview Physics Phil for their radio show, Anything But Monday. Phil is not cooperative. Check out the Space Shuttle Challenger disaster news report in the background, dating this piece to shortly after January 28, 1986.

----

Arcade Phantom

1987

--

(16:20) A series of cool interviews with some fairly strange people. The subject: What do they think of Frank and his entertainment productions and stuff? The year: 1987. The location: Drew University, in Madison, NJ. Okay! Let's listen now!

----

Iggy and the Stud

1986

(3:17) Iggy Szalzo interviews Bart Phillips, the biggest stud on the Weird University campus.

----

Weird Vice

Sep or Oct 1986

(5:36) The exciting adventures of Detective Goldberg on the campus of Weird University! Traffic violations, wild parties, drug deals... it's crazy crime action-adventure!

Weird October Hitchhiker

October 1986

(8:06) It's a Weird October at Weird University... and John's a waiter who gets abused by customers, and then has to hitchhike home one day...

----

Iggy and the Smart Guys

1986

(7:58) Iggy Szalzo interviews the smartest guys on the Weird University campus, Shannon O'Shannahan and Gil Mannings.

----

Shopping With Franco

Sep or Oct 1986

(8:41) Join Franco Wolfini and the mysterious cameraman "Willie" on a very wacky trip to the supermarket! Another audio masterpiece from "Weird University"... including an appearance by Iggy Szalzo!

----

Weird October Beast

October 1986

(2:20) It's a Weird October at Weird University... and there's something wrong with Will! And whatever happened to Maureen...?

----

Iggy and the Condemned Man

1986

(7:18) Iggy Szalzo interviews Branson Stringfellow, a Weird University student who is scheduled to be executed for making obscene phone calls.

----

Sights of the Uncommons

Fall 1986

(13:39) Fall 1986. Mike and Frank explore the wonders and mysteries of the college food center. Originally recorded for the video "Weird University".

----

Weird October Dreamer

October 1986

(4:31) It's a Weird October at Weird University... and why does Rob keep having these strange dreams...?

----

Weird October Spirit

October 1986

(1:58) It's a Weird October at Weird University... and Will, Rob, and John meet a mysterious stranger that they could all swear they've seen before...

----

For Joey (Full Version)

Fall 1987?

(11:13) Chaz and Teddy are searching for Joey... will they find him?

----

Road to Truro (9/8/99)
Sept. 1999
--
(1:52) Carrie, Denice, and Frank are on the scary back roads of Nova Scotia at night, trying to find a city called Truro...

Paul 6 Years

----

Kathy Jones
(0:33) It has been... almost writing on the wall all over.
(0:33) It's fine and dandy! (changed 1/11/01)

Bluffcosm ID #1 (4/6/00)

(0:08) Heard on the Bluffcosm live stream between Blufftoons.
Hey, check out the stream! Go to Bluffcosm.com to hear it!

I Want Something Funny (4/29/00)
4/29/2000
(0:53) That's dumb.. that's stupid! Yes, huh, what, I'm not sure about that one!

Bill Jorgensen
Late 1970s
(3:58) One day when the inspector was walking home from the police department, he met a man named Frankie. He noticed something unusual about this man, because he had a
.357 Magnum in his hand.

Making Polarized Worlds: Part 1
Summer 1985
--
(7:42) Summer 1985, and it's the first day of production on a homemade Dr. Who movie. Hear the kids talk, they're cool!

Originally released on Bluffcosm.com in November 2001. Edited from “Classictronica #2, recorded at a NAVA video game collector’s meeting at Video Game Connections in Howell, NJ.

Some potentially “offensive” content.

This is one of my favorite “Blufftoons”. Blufftoons were the audio pieces on my Internet radio station, Bluffcosm.com. The idea was that a piece of non-music audio could be listened to over and over just like a song. To me, this Blufftoon is a real nihilistic treat.

You were there in that college
And you like this god Frey
You were there in that college
And you like this god Loki

You said this was all you were waiting for
I gave you my heart, I told you my soul

You were there in that college
And you like this god Frey
You were there in that college
And you like this god Loki

I gave you everything that I possibly could
But you just stood there with your hands wide open
I guess I should have expected that you would

You were there in that college
And you like this god Frey
You were there in that college
And you like this god Loki

What about what I want?

Were you ever gonna give me that?

So, if I gave you what you wanted
Would you really be happy?
And if I gave you what you wanted
Would I have been loved?

I'm a pretty cool chick
I like to laugh, I'm not too serious
maybe just a little mysterious
doesn't that make you curious

I'm a pretty cool chick
I've got my own dot com
I play guitar, I write you songs
I even have my own car
I'll let you take it for a ride

Let me make you feel like a man
you don't gotta be my biggest fan
I could do so many things to you
and you could say you're with the band
you could say you're with the band

My candle's not lit
hot wax could be naughty
when I use my voice like this
I'll see you in the morning, little fan

Let me make you feel like a man
you don't gotta be my biggest fan
I could do so many things to you
and you could say you're with the band

-----
Montana Kentucky Bermuda Maine
Hovercraft race and the dreamer Lorraine
Won the Mexican Hovercraft in a backgammon game
The first to Bar Harbor wins a trip into space

And the Mexican Hovercraft is ready for speed
Shields and Yarnell and J. Appleseed
The heck with nostalgia there can be a new dawning
Lorraine at the wheel is still sneering and yawning

Give it sweet attention
An incense on interstate rain
Give it sweet attention
Appomatox is buzzing again

Give it sweet attention
An incense on interstate rain
Give it sweet attention
Appomatox is buzzing again

October train stations as dark as can be
Thoughts from Cape May are numbingly clean
Racing stripes in an autumn scheme
Bolt Wintercindie and the Laser Bee

Kentucky is chill and the contest is fading
The Lippizan Stallions are ready for mating
The Halma Club geeks are bitter and jaded
Lorraine hits the brakes with a pepper elation

Give it sweet attention
An incense on interstate rain
Give it sweet attention
Appomatox is buzzing again

Give it sweet attention
An incense on interstate rain
Give it sweet attention
Appomatox is buzzing again

So how you been my crazy monster head?
Are you lonely?
I know I haven't been myself,
I thought I was OK on my own,
But sometimes you just need your
Crazy monster
Sometimes you just need your monster

Some things very very very wrong
You're my Easter
And someday this will get easier

Look at the sky
And say good-bye
Feelings don't last
Licorice goes bad
And children sometimes cry and

Some things very very very wrong
You're my Easter
And someday this will get easier

"Have another cigarette,"
I say to myself
What else is there to do?

I convince my monster

Some things very very wrong
You're my Easter
And someday this will get easier

So how you been my crazy monster head?
Are you lonely?
I know I haven't been myself
I thought I was okay on my own,

-----

The slower the warning here is building
And a slow travel down weird sideways
No fortress here nothing
Otherside and faraway something

Dreaming by the hotel check-in
He should be here any second
A glance and a look
I'm waiting for a car
But I only saw trucks
I only saw trucks

Detours to a row of vending machines
Hearing their voices trying to make my choices
Next time I'll wear long sleeves

Dreaming by the hotel check-in
He should be here any second
A glance and a look
I'm waiting for a car
But i only saw trucks
I mantra slam all

My dreaming has changed to wondering
Many seconds have gone by
Pulling into my face with a smile
He has arrived and I told him that I was

Dreaming by the hotel check-in
Knowing you'd be here any second
Looking for your car but I only saw trucks
I only saw trucks

No wind no warning the desert is beat
Hopefully he'll be back quick
Standing alone near a red rock plateau
The air is downy like thunder
In my pocket no keys or money
Just dice and fax and phone numbers

Wrench and bolt 3 2 1 contact
One way is loosen one way is damn tighten

Baby I wanna get moving
But I only saw trucks
Baby I wanna get moving
But I only saw trucks
I only saw trucks

Well here's the van, hop on in
There's still some fun in the world, y'know
So come along my friend

It's the time of day to open your mind
In other words it's anytime of the night or day

Don't believe in a starlight squeeze
Don't be the realistic one, oh jeez
Feel the morning slapping your frown
For a number of hours to come
We'll be hanging around
And singing around and playing around
And horsing and horsing
Around and around and around and AROUND

It's a wildering drifted gown
Licking freshly minted weeks
Oh...
Licking freshly minted weeks

Via va va vo and
Via va va vay

Well hello space camp stepsister
Have you had that smile on long
Say you oughtta might honey feel the night
It's got a raven's nest and hero's hall

It's a wildering drifted gown
Licking freshly minted weeks
Oh...
Licking freshly minted weeks

So let's go now my
Happy sleepy amigos
So let's go now my

Car wash canals clearly doesn't make sense,
But smiles live with me behind that fence
Chocolate and vanilla are quite complimentary
You and I seem so contradictory
Picture perfect places only exist in pictures
And nothing is guaranteed as a permanent fixture

You and me, maybe not
Just a thought, that's all I've got
You and me, maybe not
Just a thought, that's all I've got

In the cards and on the dice,
Take your chance, it might be nice

Waiting for nothing and playing the game
Waiting for you is just the same as
Waiting for nothing and playing the game

You and me, maybe not
Just a thought, that's all I've got
You and me, maybe not
Just a thought, that's all I've got

I'm okay with you here,
Acting silly, shimmering smiles
Looking like lavender after a while,
But you better bet both hands now mister
'Cause flounders are flying faster that you can

You and me, maybe not

SLIDING GARDENS

And can I say we are
Crazy crossing a rocky stream
Kissing hills and air and dreams
Coltishly beaucoup in our mysteries

Bathing cool in a stimulating rio
Tiki and arctic phase at nanticoko
Singing folk space rock at the top of our lungs
Winding down in the wow fluff of the treetops

We can walk together
Under the moon or whatever
And our nasty predawn jive
Will even make the scorpions cry

We can walk together
Under the moon or whatever
And our nasty predawn jive
Will even make the scorpions cry

Humpback dude with jackdaw steed
Whale and bird on a new kind of trip
Motors and lights and audio delights
Rubber bands are pumping energy

The treasure of me is stalking away
At the whining dusk of day
Your mental aggression craft is called Attack-type dog

We can walk together
Under the moon or whatever
And our nasty predawn jive
Will even make the scorpions cry

We can walk together
Under the moon or whatever
And our nasty predawn jive
Will even make the scorpions cry

Above the primly introspective waste
The Rover is the tune
As we skydive in new wave ruins
She make weird animal dolls

Pogs were not a lasting trend
The new age it just came and went
The humans we're all stuck in are

The leftovers of an obvious recall

We can walk together
Under the moon or whatever
And our nasty predawn jive
Will even make the scorpions cry

We can walk together
Under the moon or whatever
And our nasty predawn jive
Will even make the scorpions cry

-----

Though it wouldn't compute today
There were some in the woods
Detergent like misty May go away
Sunglasses like that she's no bank employee

The airport one of the grasslands
Has a nuclear weapon
There's a reptile that's almost here
And on carpet he ain't steppin'

Seen the white phosphorus braids
Of the jingle bell maker of the breeze
Erotically wasted
On the leaves of hidden trees

There's an elevator on the train
Of windmill and waterwheel
Saw a dryad with anthracite
Cuckoo clock's cold, gotta heat that steel

Bold and bright and savage hammer
From a field of silly flowers
Dark artwork of a corporation
Snowy and ruined, my night hours

Seen the white phosphorus braids
Of the jingle bell maker of the breeze
Erotically wasted
On the leaves of hidden trees

Though it wouldn't compute today
There were some in the woods
Detergent like misty May go away
Sunglasses like that she's no park ranger

The airport one of the grasslands
Has a nuclear weapon
There's a reptile that's almost here
And he's got my full attention

The grizzlycorn with the copper horn
In the light of digital clocks was born
Jesse and Sasha wore their outfits torn
And those in the woods, they hit their foghorn

Yes those in the woods, they hit their foghorn
Yes those in the woods, they hit their foghorn
Yes those in the woods, they hit their foghorn

When this happens I feel trapped
When this happens I feel trapped
I need to run away to a place I can relax
'Cause when this happens
I feel trapped
I need a nap

When this happens I take a nap
When this happens I take a nap
Wrap me in a blanket
and throw me in the sack
'Cause when all this stuff happens
I take a nap
I feel trapped

James K. Polk and his hamster Zack
Are playing out in the back
When this stuff happens I take a nap
When that happens I take a nap
When that happens I take a nap ---CHANGE line added
I feel trapped
I'm on attack

Let me shut off
with my pillow nice and soft
'Cause when all this stuff happens
I take a nap
When this happens I take a nap
I feel trapped
I feel trapped

I'm too big for daddy's lap
these days he just gives me a pat
so these days stuff happens
I take a nap
When that happens I take a nap
When this happens I take a nap
I feel trapped
I'm on attack

Don't wake me up
or I'll give you a whack

If that happened I'd take a nap

If you don't let me nap
I'll be on a Feral Kid attack

If that happened I'd take a nap
I'd play with Zack

When I wake from my nap
I can then deal with the crap
but when all this stuff happens
In Carbonite I'm trapped
I need a nap

Can I fathom this darkling drape?

Can I fathom this darkling drape?

Can I fathom this darkling drape?

I take a nap.

-----

I always forget to water my plants
New clothes make me dance
I always forget to tell you how I feel

Always waiting for that second chance
Look at me with that long time glane
So I'm sure that you feel the same

Ten minutes cat, you better call
Ten minutes cat, until I fall
You've got ten minutes cat, that's all

I can't help feeling pissed
Why does no matter what this
Romance is such a game

Why do I leave it up to
Whether or not I feel blue
I don't know what else to say or do

Ten minutes cat, I'm waiting no more
Ten minutes cat, this is such a chore
Ten minutes to call, that's all

Ten minutes cat, you better call
Ten minutes cat, until I fall
You've got ten minutes cat, thats all.

-----

note: there are two versions of this song - the long version (below), and the short version, which is a subset of the long

A thousand years ago, I was so alone
I had three horses, Bob, Jake and Fred
I made my money by making bread
Those horses were my only friends

and you said I was weird cause, I talked to them,
but I knew, that you knew, that you loved me anyway

But, I was disruptive, I was untrusted, I was destructive with
your heart

I was disruptive, I was untrusted, I was destructive with my heart

Transit shivers make me quiver

Transit shivers always make me quiver

Five hundred years ago, I was so alone
I had three plants, Daisy, Dead and Petal
I made my money by making metal
Those plants were my only friends
and you said I was crazy because, I talked to them,
but I knew, that you knew, that you loved me anyway

But, I was disruptive, I was untrusted, I was destructive with
your heart

I was disruptive, I was untrusted, I was destructive with my heart

Transit shivers make me quiver

Transit shivers always make me quiver

One hundred years ago, I was so alone
I had three frogs, George, Blair, and Cope
I made my money by making soap
Those frogs were my only friends
and you said I was strange because, I talked to them
but I knew, that you knew, that you loved me anyway

But, I was disruptive, I was untrusted, I was destructive with
your heart

I was disruptive, I was untrusted, I was destructive with my heart

Transit shivers make me quiver

Transit shivers always make me quiver

This year, I am so alone
I have three cuckoos, Mappy, Reese, and Kitty
I make my money by making old woman pretty
These cuckoos are my only friends
and you think I'm insane because, I talk to them
but I know, that you know, that you love me anyway

I'll try not being so disruptive, or untrusted, or destructive with your heart

So disruptive, or untrusted, or destructive with my heart

Transit shivers make me quiver

Transit shivers always make me quiver

And maybe someday I won't be so alone, so solo, so solo

Us Hound Control, to The Us Hounds below
All aboard for action, we're ready to go!

Welcome to the new world of passenger trains

Choo choo to gardens and plains,
yellow volcanoes in the rain
Their goal is no more than to entertain
Yet if passengers are threatened,
they will intervene

All that youth in media culture
Is daydream fodder for grandfathers and fathers
Claws named youth and visual jazz
The Weather Channel frail honchos

Myra's on the synthesizer, in The Us Hounds
Enter the milieu, if you please, of The Us Hounds
Hildebad is on electric guitar, and Harla is on acoustic
Trace is on the bass guitar, and Bruckner plays the drums
They're rocking out on the rails of the world, The Us Hounds!

We are awfully proud of spring
And then again
Awfully bored of prance
And then again

-----

I can't say this song is called dial
Get telepathic with gecko and skink for awhile
Steel wool crossfire is grand
a thousand years old, drawn on a goddess's hand

The subject of a company of dust
Dance rants laugh
On the Nordenskjold Line of my mind
Imbibing the stripes of industrial signs

Apartment pepper December fire coze
Clash of blasted slack with sudden pose
Like lemonglass walls of fulsome of those Total envy as Tixe-a is the one I chose

Cruisin' down a weird highway
on a Himalayan kitten's couch
Truckin' the dance of flying thru windows
is the only thing that counts

That Barchetta isn't red
It's gunmetal gray instead
Stumbling down Mediocre Lane
Some hatters are still sane

Cruisin' down a weird highway
on a Himalayan kitten's couch
Truckin' the dance of flying thru windows
is the only thing that counts

-----

And took an immediate liking to this type of percussion
Wearing denim from head to toe
He doesn't know who to like
And he doesn't know where to stand

The Armixhony of Conrad
Another Universe Southland
The Delicious Potential of Spencer
Honk Towers is the town where he met her

Of startings over, hello
Dollhouse checkerboards in the black & tan
He's in the air, And her name is Flare
And they are going over there

Well it's official, it's night
And it's officially wet
As jesters from head to toe
The new games fresh in the memory

The Armixhony of Conrad
Another Universe Southland
The Delicious Potential of Spencer
Honk Towers is the town where he met her

When summer plant feathers flock in air

Spencer's a rock-climbing marketing hack
She puts in glass fragile artifacts
From semi-fictional mad shipwrecks
Flare's not gonna deal like that
Conrad's in the Indian paddywhack

-----

Love is all around me
Just not in me
Sometimes I'm wrapped in plastic it seems
Someone else's shoes is more appealing to me

Maybe if I just start spinning

Circles
Everything leads
Back to circles
Back to circles
Back to circles

Sometimes I try to speak
But I choke
Sometimes I laugh
When there's no joke
Now you see me
Now you don't
Sometimes I would
Most times I won't

Maybe if I just start spinning

Circles
Everything leads
Back to circles
Back to circles
Back to circles

Love is all around me
Just not in me
I'm wrapped in plastic again today
Someone else's shoes could help me run away

Maybe if I just start spinning

Circles
Everything leads
Back to circles
Back to circles
Back to circles

-----

Why do kids color lobsters red?

They're only red when they're dead
Why are these crustaceans dead?
'Cause people with butter are waiting for them

Lobsters red
When they're dead
Lobsters red
When they're dead
And sometimes crabs are victims too
They should stay brown and blue

Lobsters red
When they're dead
Lobsters red
When they're dead
And sometimes crabs are victims too
They should stay brown and blue

Why do kids color lobsters red?

-----

Black old shoes
And a dusty knife
I supinely rose, late last night
I did not succeed, 'cause the moment you sneezed
You blew all my courage away

You always find something to ruin my plans
You always found some way to serif my sans
But it's okay 'cause I've got...

Built-in bookshelves baby
Built-in bookshelves
Go get your reading glasses
'Cause I wanna teach you a lesson
about me

I thought I was easy to read
I thought I made it easy for you to read
I gave you the bait, but I guess you never bit
Could you really be this illiterate?

Built-in bookshelves baby
Built-in bookshelves
Go get those grinded lenses
'Cause I'm gonna teach you lesson
about me

I could've been the book you can't put down
Your neverending story
But I finally found
These built-in bookshelves inside me
I finally found these built-in bookshelves
Right here, inside me

Lissomeness, a creek, this geometric peace
Came so close to crashing, clean by not touching you at all

In your rockness, you made... me... see...
The flowers and fireworks in me
In your rockness, you made me see
And I learned a lesson about me

-----

How could you let it come to this?
How could you let this take place?

The woman above me holds herself together with aerosol cans
The mirror seems to be her best friend
And I think this may change my plans
Since I'm starting to learn how to bend

Let me be who I am meant to be
Let me see how I can actually be

The woman below me tries to act drunk
Because she feels somewhat invisible
And I try to fathom the reason
But it's really not so hard to see

Let me learn from other women's mistakes
Let me learn so my heart will never break

The woman inside me is only a fantasy,
And the little girl that possesses me is only thinking about
Screaming and breaking free
The woman inside me is only a fantasy,
And the little girl that possesses me is only thinking
She's only thinking

Let me learn from other women's mistakes
Let me learn so my heart will never break

The person in the mirror is always a bit intrigued,
She is lonely, she is fearful, and not willing to receive She imagines possibilities occurring from something only to
She still has nothing
So, she pretends to be okay and pretends to be alive, because
she won't be responsible for letting herself die
Is there a man out there who is able to fix this?
For some reason I doubt that he even exists

How could you let it come to this?
How could you let this take place?

Your time is up, it's time to stand up and face this problem
That began long before you started to run,
Lost in space too far behind to ever catch up,
Losing my mind don't tell me again to shut up,
'Cause last time I listened and now look at me,
No really look...

Can you see me?...
Can you see me?

Early in the sheetrock day
My chocolate factory is in no way
Hershey or Wonka but it's quite okay
Its effect keeps my childhood erect

I bore a hole in the Nunavut springtime
My misery isn't interesting at all

-----

Each morning I sleep in your family room
Sunshine in the raw clamps your terra cotta
Somewhat perfect I attend to marshes in dreams
And your cat is nice to me

Driving your truck to a home architecture place
My headband is giving out 65 messages
Tears on the yellow credit card receipt
And the scowls of dour teens aplenty

Searching the tippy tops of your many closets
Boardgames from the seventies often lurk there
And I brew that deep peppermint tea
Having missed 15 minutes of Quincy

I was not happy with your E-mail from the airport
I got a pile of magazines and a collage to create
I might walk in the night, some festivals are near
I have a cougar's soul, that's what I'll tell myself

Calling all you tricky nothingnesses
A Crazy Plonto clockiful morning is storming
Seeking goes to store, vases on her mind
Pawn of the Ago Quartz, Crazy Plonto, Episode 5

Wanting the clop clop antique
Baby, as baby hawks are near
Three stupid things we got in here
Nostalgia, karate, and a sponge

Yeah Vulcan, that is me
Young, outcast, yeah I failed
Forging away, forming facades
Yeah I failed, yeah so now what?

Superscience needed, she loves muddy bay
Polluting the minds with ballet
Art in museum, doesn't mean a thing
A cat god robot on film she likes to see

A freckle and a burn, side by side
I would think that skeeball's your game
Pretty please play tetherball with me
Tonight you're cool, you're a fortieth century schoolgirl

Yeah Vulcan, that is me
Young, outcast, yeah I failed
Forging away, forming facades
Yeah I failed, yeah so now what?

Blue Jay Earth Phone
Bicentennial Quarter Maniac
Interthimble, erasing candles
Gaga Scirroco, I gather you're fumbling

Don Jay Maxfield plays the role
Time travel action hero, it's fantastic
She claims she's gonna marry him someday

And be in a Crazy Plonto movie

Yeah Vulcan, that is me
Young, outcast, yeah I failed
Forging away, forming facades
Yeah I failed, yeah so now what?

Yeah Vulcan, that is me
Young, outcast, yeah I failed

Eight o'clock to sound in a peal
Her brunette crown through the window
A darkling intersection in between his things
Unfirm and awesome
She felt his eyes on her
Unfirm and awesome
She felt his eyes on her

A night in the city
Washington Square Park
Commencing on church steps in the dark
Still there and it's morning
Something keeping them awake
Unfirm and awesome
She felt his eyes on her
Unfirm and awesome
She felt his eyes on her

True Lies it's a snow cone maker
Syd Barrett sing Late Night
Deluge of Primacy dripping wax
She was still amazed

-----

If I told you a story would you want to hear the end?
'Cause it's kinda long and it's awfully stupid
So just let me begin

It started on Michael's porch in 1984
He stuck his tongue in my mouth and I fell to the floor

He said we were playing make-believe
But pretending was never that real
And since that day, I've been afraid
Of the real thing
I'm afraid of the real thing
I'm afraid of the real thing
I'm afraid of the real thing

His mom saw us and she called to tell mine
My mom stood there in the kitchen and asked what's on my mind
And I said nothing
I said nothing

I said nothing
I said nothing

She asked if what she heard was true
I didn't know what to say
I wanted to tell the truth
That Michael made me play
But I said nothing
I said nothing
and I lied
and I lied

And I'm not sure why, I let this control my mind
And I'm not sure how I became such a coward

I'm not sure why, I let this control my mind
I'm not sure how, it made me such a coward
I'm such a coward
I'm such a coward
I'm such a coward
I'm such a coward

And you loved to climb my tree
And you loved to watch me pee
Always asking how it works
How am I supposed know?
I'm only seven years old
How could you expect me know?
I'm only seven years old
Seven years old

And I'm not sure if that's the reason
But it keeps my wonder sane
And maybe if this didn't happen
I'd still turn out the same
Afraid of the real thing
I'm afraid of the real thing
I'm afraid of the real thing
I'm afraid of the real thing

And I wonder what would happen if the real thing came my way
What kind of excuses could I think of to say
Maybe I'd start to sing to help you understand
That I really don't want to leave it's just the way I am Afraid of the real thing
I'm afraid of the real thing
I'm afraid of the real thing
I'm afraid of the real thing

Boring books that other people read
About adults and their infidelities

These readers are wanting of sleeves with aces

Paper plates with the cartoon stars of the day

Inelegant remains of some kind of ice cream cake
As relatives are lazing the tension is phasing
And phone calls at night's-end are hoped to be pleasing

"The Woodstock 89 Tape (8/16/89)" - recorded August 16, 1989 - 1:30:40 - 83.1 MB - StationUnlimited.com release #1 (December 17, 2005) - su-W89-01_Wdstck89_Tape-001

I started a magazine in college with my friend Mike. It was called Anything But Monday, and by 1988 we were distributing it to comic books shops nationwide. Unfortunately, we didn't sell enough copies to keep it going, and by the summer of 1989 the business was falling apart.

On August 16, 1989, just 3 months before the final collapse of the magazine in November, Mike and I took a trip up to Bethel, NY, where people had gathered in an impromptu celebration of the 20th Anniversary of Woodstock, often referred to as Woodstock '89 (here is the Wikipedia article on it.) The idea was that we would take pictures and interview people for a feature in the magazine. We recorded a 90-minute tape of the event, primarily so we could transcribe the interviews for the magazine.

After we left Bethel, our car broke down and we watched the lunar eclipse in the parking lot of some municipal building in the middle of nowhere. Eventually, our business partner Jim Lord came and rescued us. We put together the feature for our last issue, as seen below (click for larger pictures):

And here are some hi-res scans of the photos we took (in chronological order):01-Dennis 02-Daniel 03-Steven 04-Ziggy_and_Bosco 05-Karen 06-Max 07-Gary 08-Robert 09-Maureen 10-Debbie 11-Murph 12-George 13-UnknownThe set on Flickr is here.

The interview tape sat in a box for over 11 years. In January 2001, I finally listened to it and put in on computer, editing some segments for my Internet radio station, Bluffcosm.com. I was amazed at how vastly superior the audio itself was to the print piece we had derived from it. At that time, I put together 5 audio pieces ("Blufftoons"), totalling about 20 minutes. Plus, I extracted a segment called "Mountain Madness" which I used in several other Blufftoons.

Now, on December 17, 2005, I am finally releasing the audio of the complete tape. Absolutely nothing is edited out - this is the full, raw audio. Besides being quite entertaining, I think this recording also has some historical significance. I hope you enjoy it!!!

Anything But Monday Show #1 (Feb. 19, 2007 - 2:58:13 - abmshow.com), starring Mad Mike Masters and Frank Edward Nora. On the 21st anniversary of the first ABM broadcast, the Anything But Monday Show is back as a premium comedy podcast! On this inaugural episode, Mike and Frank (in their brand new state-of-the-art studio) discuss the origins of the show back in the dark ages of the 1980s - from their first meeting at Drew University in Madison, NJ, to getting (and then losing) their first radio show, their magazine which almost got them kicked out of college, their burgeoning media empire, and its premature collapse in 1989. Topics include Frank sending Mike to the Planet of the Apes dimension, Frank's awkward first day at college, Chemical Bank, an MTV News story on ABM, the shirt incident, "The Cave" (Mike and Frank's highly illegal dorm night club), pinball machine, alcohol delivery on campus, ((33:18)) the website and premium subscription, contours of the time travel continuum, Tiffany, the battery incident, how to contact the show, the dumping of the free listeners ((50:00)) An Interview with Two Bimbos (Erin and Tawny) that program director Dave met at the gym in California, celebrity encounters (Jamie Foxx, Kurt Russell, Goldie Hawn), naked toga party, naked beach party, the pizza box incident, The Knights Templar, The Dating Game, motorcycle riding, yoga, Dhalsim, Booty Ballet, judo, Ontario Mills Mall, ((78:35)) Street Fighter II, premium podcasting, the snow key incident, PRESENTATION OF THE GIFTS (the "exciting" Burger Mallow (life-size marshmallow hamburger), new 30GB black iPod, Hong Kong Phooey action figure, "I Love My Penis" chewing gum, "Lick Your Wounds" Candy, original Farrah Fawcett poster, original Wacky Packages stickers), Super Video Battle (Phoenix (Centuri, 1980)), ((1:56:38)) disclaimer, "Here's Your Horrorscope", George W. Bush, Submit-A-Bit, ((2:07:53)) The F'd Up World That We Live In (Zeus Worship, The Flat Earth Society, zombies, horny gods, giant rabbits, "Night of the Lepus", world domination, exploded cars in Baghdad, Tim Hardaway, racial issues, Jennifer Aniston, NASCAR, puppets, ((2:33:25)) Real Life Adventures (Mike and Frank visit "Woodstock 89?, with audio clip "Dirty Trip"), breakdown on the thruway, the in-between years, time sheets, the closing credits, and vinyl siding repair.

Description from brianjudeshow.blogspot.com: After the last episode, I vowed never to leave the house without my iPod microphone, just in case I had the opportunity to record. Well, today I did remember to take it with me - but I left it at The Unitarian Universalist Congregation at Montclair (where I was heading later that night) and did NOT have it with me as once again I left my acting gig at Kaplan Medical even earlier than I did the other day! Too bad, because the trip via the Newark Light Rail and NJ Transit Bus #28 would have made for an excellent Rampler-esque episode! I will, however, offer the episode to Frank Nora for release on his Overnightscape Underground. Plugs include KillingBoxx.com (two films I produced made it to their Top 13 list!), The Fave and Natalie Gelman.

World Gateway Area Loop (11/25/09) 22.23 (1:00:00 / 55.1 MB)

Background music loop for an imaginary theme park land called "World Gateway". This idea was inspired by the the "world music" trend of the 1990s, and generic "world" themes such as video game levels, Rainforest Cafe, etc. My initial idea was of "world laser tag" - like laser tag, but with the "world" theme instead of the generic sci-fi theme. Then I thought about some kind of indoor theme park with such a theme... or it could be one "land" of a much larger theme park... anyway, it's still a very vague idea, but I love the idea of making background music for an imaginary place like this...

-----
This one-hour music loop consists of 27 tracks created by Kevin MacLeod, and released on his website, incompetech.com. The songs are licensed under Creative Commons
"Attribution 3.0" - which means he gives permission for people to use the music in just about any way as long as they give him credit. I chose the set of songs and the sequence. I have to say, I was amazed to find such perfect music for this whimsical little project - Kevin is incredibly talented - I suggest you check out his site if you are looking for music!

List of songs used: AngloZulu, Folk Round, Baltic Levity, Kumasi Groove Flugelhorn, Cambodian Odessa, Thunderhead, Bama Country, Desert City, Tango de Manzana, Artifact, Parisian, Beach Party, Monkoto, Miri's Magic Dance, Ishikari Lore, Padanaya Blokov, Night of the Owl, Confused State, The North, Double Polka, Chanter, Whimsy Groove, Rhythm 2005, Netherworld Shanty, Night Cave, Celtic Impulse, Flutey Sting.

So sit back, relax, and imagine yourself exploring World Gateway!

Check out this great episode of Republic of Avalon Radio, from Newfoundland, Canada with Jim Fidler..

This Time on the ROAR:

-----
Jim talks about his love for and history in radio. He looks back from his first transistor radio, as a very wee lad, up until the present. He also shows ham radio in action as well as taking you for a spin through the 41 meter shortwave band and the AM broadcast band. He also mentions the alternative search engine, startpage.com, the internet archive site at archive.org and gives a tip of the hat to his friend and fellow ?caster, Frank Nora at onsug.com.

-----
Big thanks to Bill and Zac of the Random Access Thought, a regular part of This week in Amateur Radio, for their new ROAR station ID. Brilliant stuff! Mother Radio on the ROAR! Who'd a'thunk it?

-----
If you're interested in radio, ham radio most specifically, tune into this one!

-----
Music this time:

-----
Our intro and extro music by Jim Fidler.

Best listened to on headphones. - "Radio gaga?" Well, perhaps a wee bit...

Description from brianjudeshow.blogspot.com: Remember when I forgot my mic when I took the Newark Light Rail a few months ago? I remembered it this time! The Law of Attraction is working for me! I decided to write a biopic screenplay of a well-known motivational speaker. After four weeks without response, he finally called and gave me his blessing! I share Karen Bishop's thoughts on how the world is vibrating at a higher level, and discuss time loops, The International Center for Reiki Training's World Peace Card Meditation, the earthquake in Haiti, Cindi Merkle, The American Cancer Society's Relay for Life. And don't forget about the first Brian Jude Show Contest - Why Is My Plant Named Philo?

Remember The Rampler (2008-2009) 25.24 (15:00 / 14 MB)
The Overnightscape Underground - February 2010 - Track 24
“Your Late Night Broadcast” online at onsug.com
Created by Frank Nora (frank@theovernightscape.com) in New Jersey, USA

-----
The Rampler. August 14, 2008 to October 10, 2009. 422 days. (March 13, 2009 is the midpoint, 211 days in.)

Remembering “The Rampler” with the first, middle, and last 5 minute segments of the show... The first 5 minutes of “The Rampler #1” from August 14, 2008. The middle 5 minutes of The Rampler recordings from March 13, 2009 (from “The Rampler #233?”). And the last 5 minutes of “The Rampler on WFMU - Episode 16 - Night in Motion” from October 10, 2009.

In 2008, after 5 years of doing The Overnightscape, I was looking for a new method of doing the show that would take less time and effort. This experiment in field recording became “The Rampler”, and it was such a different experience, I took it in a whole new direction. It very quickly grew in popularity, largely due to my involvement in the “Andy Kaufman Lives” phenomenon. This led to an opportunity to bring the show to a real radio station - WFMU. But as 2009 wore on, the show’s popularity (at least as I perceived it) diminished, and the pressures of being on the “real” radio took away some of the spirit of spontaneity that the show had in its early months. And then... WFMU canceled the show. A little over a year after it had begun, The Rampler was finished.

I chose to continue my Internet radio recordings here on “The Overnightscape Underground” (which has been going great), and drop “The Rampler” name. While it is a good name, and I had a blast doing it, the name “The Rampler” is associated with energy and vibes that I would rather put behind me.

But what a wild ride it was!! This 15-minute audio piece is a brief encapsulation of the whole experience... but it’s all available for you to listen to...

396 episodes (19 days of audio):

367 of “The Rampler” (regular numbered episodes)

19 of “The Rampler on WFMU” (broadcast on 91.1 FM)

5 of “The Rampler on the Airwaves” (radio practice sessions)

4 of "The Rampler Special"

1 of "Beneath The Rampler on WFMU"

Get it all on the Frank Nora Archive. And most of it is also here on The Overnightscape Underground site, just use the search box on the right.

Description from brianjudeshow.blogspot.com: A double-reference to the great and wonderful "Weird Al" Yankovic! In this episode I discuss the mysterious "27?" phenomenon associated with "Weird Al," as well as my family's three-day trip to Virginia last week. I also announce officially that I am writing a screenplay based on the life of Morris E. Goodman, a.k.a. "The Miracle Man," (as seen in "The Secret"), and describe my meeting with him, which was one of the catalysts for my trip. I also remark how things are ironically happening about an hour earlier on this, the day before Daylight Savings Time begins. Once again, special thanks to Frank Nora of The Overnightscape Underground at <http://onsug.com>, and Wayne from Spare Time Radio for his encouragement.

This is a very strange recording. It’s me, Frank Nora, at age 22 back on Wednesday, February 14, 1990 (over 20 years ago!) driving from New Jersey to Rhode Island in the middle of the night. I brought a tape recorder and decided to record some thoughts on a project I was working on called “Nomadi” (and the related concept of “Noyage”). I was in some kind of weird mental haze back then. My ideas were incredibly bizarre and convoluted. But it is very interesting to listen to...

Sarje in the studio and streets of suburban St. Paul, MN.

The first show of "The St. Paul Skyline," with Sarje. In advance, let me apologize for the uneven levels... hopefully I'll improve these next episode. Today:

Thanks, Frank! New viewpoints from the midwest of the U.S., show format/recording equipment, "a little bit about me." The question of productivity, show origin/formatting again, some shows "lost in the ether." A consolidation of shows, coming up, along with "LOST." Pause for "Jeopardy!"

Back at 2045 CST, walking/getting beer, the phrase "death and taxes." Where I live. A cat! Level Up Games. Nice night after a nice day. "There goes a cop." Old photos, show art, chemtrails, and Jon Stewart (May 18, 2007 @ Orpheum). The Minneapolis Theatre District. Anthony Bourdain coming up (April 16, 2010 @ State), the Travel Channel, Ani DiFranco. Ambient sounds at the liquor store. Architecture/drafting/construction/building codes. Back to Jon Stewart. Beer (Stella Artois, Summit). Black Sheep Coffee Shop (<http://blacksheepcoffeecafe.com>). Ambient sounds at the walk-up Dairy Queen. Again, really lovely night.

Back in the studio. "Castillo Blanco," and "Svalbard," also, hi Manny the Mailman. Live version of show sometime, maybe. "LOST," Desmond--trending on Twitter. Consolidation of shows--scattered thoughts--what do you think about this so far? (<http://twitter.com/sarje>) Goal mapping. Thanks!

Show 2: Theories Abound!

A note on today's show art: I mention Rochester, MN in today's show, so here's a photo taken there!

Friday April 9, 2010. "Delayed show," Severe Repair Universe, waking up with a song in your head, "Twilight" / "Boy" by U2, dream recollection, Twilight movies, mind control/conspiracy, Bono (bad Irish accent!). Night coffee, "The Big Bang Theory," Sheldon, annoying coffeemaker. Thanks listeners!

Internet radio networks (like terrestrial radio), Rochester, MN's tiny station (KNXR), ONSUG network, Adam Carolla network, Kevin Pollak, Chris Hardwick, getting my best friend on the show sometime.

Experience rooms, themed restaurants/Rainforest Cafe, virtual reality/augmented reality, time cracks, "The Rhythm of Life"/YES, string theory, perception of time is linear (FYI: I realize that time is no longer used as the fourth dimension by physicists...but it used to be...anyway). Consciousness time-traveling (experienced as deja vu). Past-or-future projection experience rooms. Potential graphic novel.

Using Audacity, anyone with advice on mixing/levels for these recordings? Garden State, challenges of having "complete creative control" in filmmaking. "TBBT" is a "Roseanne" reunion show.

Show 3: Memory is a kind of time travel, too

Hey, it's Monday, April 12, 2010 (first half recorded on Saturday, April 10, 2010). Annoying sound, amphitheatre, the Northeast (would be fun to visit). More thanks. Follow-ups on: "death and taxes," "The Big Bang Theory." Physics/electron behaviors, Law of Attraction. Accents/perception thereof, motorcycle interruption, "Land of 10,000 Lakes"/"Laws." Ambient grocery-store sounds, chocolate syrup, and Justin Bieber query. Living situation, voice, accents/affectations, recording practices, Bluetooth rudeness. Rancid SPAM, Springfield vs. Springsteen, vegetarian/vegan cooking, revealing my hometown, Stockyards.

Quick pause, broken key, Doomsday seed bank (Svalbard). Artists/designers/creators as podcasters (response to Wayne), applying to chain/"big box" retail employers, "Minnesota Nice." Writing a novel set in the 1990s. Grandparents, ghosts. Productivity, naps, vision, dreaming, "Waking Life," 2006 trip to Miami, FL / lucid dream recollection. "Kevin Pollak's Chat Show."

Intermission. Return on morning of April 12, 2010. Duck in a tree? Bodum French Press travel mug. Thanks, Brian! Traveling with instruments, euphonium. Synchronicities, Overnightscape shows 587 and 474, Frank/Peter/birth control factory, staying up all night, the year 2007, I Ching and Tarot, depression, cleaning. 2004 in college, 2007 in Scotland coffee shop, recalling bad memories vs. good. Rush, progressive rock, Emerson Lake and Palmer's "Pirates." "The Prisoner." Trader Joe's Dark Sumatran coffee. Thanks for listening!

This is the audio from the video of the first test of the Sneaky TT broadcasting system (at <http://www.livestream.com/sneakytt>), with me, Frank Nora. The idea of Sneaky TT is very simple - crazy public domain U.S. government videos with amusing commentary. During this first broadcast, I slowly figured out the best way to do things. Toward the end, I think the system was working pretty well. I really don't know if this is going to become any kind of regular thing, but I think it does have potential.

The idea of Sneaky TT is very simple - crazy public domain U.S. government videos with amusing commentary. During this second broadcast, I was able to do over 3.5 hours of broadcasting, showing and commenting on many videos, with around 8-10 people watching live. It was a lot of fun to do, but I am still unsure whether it's something I would do on a regular basis. Let me know what you think.

Description from brianjudeshow.blogspot.com:

I had recorded an entire episode and part of a second episode last week. But alas, my iPod somehow became corrupted, and I had to talk about here what I talked about then. Sad, because I had some really great stuff! Talked about my involvement in the American Cancer Society's Relay for Life, held last week at Montclair State University, on a team led by Cindi Merkle, plus the screening of a short film I produced, "The Collector's Item," and Q&A with director Bill Clemis. Plus I answer a question from Wayne from Sparetime Radio, and TV's Jorge

Garcia (from LOST) answers my question on his podcast, Geronimo Jack's Beard.

The Overnightscape Underground (onsug.com) – May 2010 – Track 33

The Brian Jude Show #31: The Cellular Toaster WMSC-FM Alumni Takeover Special 2010 (ONSUG Version)

Description from brianjudeshow.blogspot.com:

After a 15-year hiatus, I return to my old college radio station at Montclair State University with my former co-host, the lovely & talented Jill Knapp as we relive old times and talk about things we're up to now. We discuss the history of The Cellular Toaster, how it evolved from the show Propaganda From Hell (and we take calls from former hosts Jim From Hell and Alter-Ego Pete), We Might Be Giants Too, Ralph the Word Guy, Jill's band: Industrial Jazz Group, my work with Digital Cafe Tour and Friday's Child, The Dead Milkmen (Bring Out Your Dead!), The Joe Trainor Trio, They Might Be Giants, Frank Zappa, "Weird Al" Yankovic, Fathom and more! Tremendous thanks to Jeff Knapp for being resourceful enough to record this, while my efforts to do so failed miserably! (Recorded Monday, May 10, 2010, 3pm-5pm.)

5 Year Flashback – ONS 198 (5/18/05) 28.40 (30:00)

The Overnightscape Underground (onsug.com) – May 2010 – Track 40

I had this thought on the bus home, of seeing how my show had changed by listening to the show I did exactly 5 years ago, so here it is! This seems to be a pretty typical show from that time period.

The Overnightscape #198 (5/18/05) Tonight’s subjects include: Aggravating sunlight, ultrarunners, Internet memories (“Good Morning New Zealand”), energy drink review (“Full Throttle”), listener email (“Andy from New Zealand”, “Andy from California”, “Shakerleg”), soft drink review (“Pepsi Lime”), From the Forum (“Sigstedt from Oslo, Norway”, “Edward from Southern California”, “Jay from Rio de Janeiro, Brazil”), live stapling, Fuse TV, and a weird woman violating the order of things on the bus. Hosted by Frank Edward Nora. (30 minutes)

Introducing the Midnight Cassette System! I am going to be posting just this first track here on The Overnightscape Underground - for all other Midnight Cassettes, visit the site at:
mcs.franknora.com

When I was cleaning up The Overnightscape Studio a few weeks ago, I discovered that I had a brand new MadPlayer that had never been used. I decided that I would use it to record lots of music that anyone can use for whatever they want. This is the Midnight Cassette System.

Into Your Head 301: Thursday's breakfast Show - guest hosted by BRIAN JUDE! (6/3/10) 29.23 (13:41)
The Overnightscape Underground (onsug.com) - June 2010 - Track 23

The original version of this episode cut off suddenly at the end. It was assumed by NEAL to be a deliberate and excellent joke, but the truth is even better. It was not the end. Not BRIAN's fault - An Internet problem at the Irish end appears to have conspired.

Here now is the full version of Thursday's Into Your Head Temporarily Almost Daily Breakfast Show, Guest hosted and produced by BRIAN JUDE.

Some of you know BRIAN from his works, including THE BRIAN JUDE SHOW at BRIANJUDESHOW.blogspot.com and the eponymous @BRIANJUDE Twitter feed

BRIAN JUDE also acts, teaches, writes screens, makes movies, directs plays, is a bandmember who plays instruments properly, and was the first man ever to podcast from space. It is widely believe that he does not know how to sleep.

BRIAN JUDE is standing in for NEAL today after volunteering to do Thursday's IYH at very short notice. Thanks BRIAN.

Brian Jude Show 32: The Real Neal - with guest host Neal from Ireland (6/9/10) 29.24 (25:06)
The Overnightscape Underground (onsug.com) - June 2010 - Track 24

Description from brianjudeshow.blogspot.com:

Sorry that there's not been many updates from me lately, but, well, if you've been listening to my show lately, you'll know why! If not, my friend and guest host Neal from Ireland will explain it all to you! (Thank you, Neal, for covering me!) Neal talks about his "real" speaking voice, his "uniquely nonsensical improvised talk show" Into Your Head, being a cranky old man before his time, stopping uninvited sales calls at the door, gypsies, catering to the illiterate, the inexplicable overuse of the word "is," a scary neighborhood dog, Barack Obama, "The Secret" and positive thinking, cats, crap vs. carp. Neal's help in this endeavor is in return for my covering a recent episode of his show.

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT: I and my wife will be directing and performing in A.R. Gurney's "The Dinning Room" at the Unitarian Universalist Congregation at Montclair, 67 Church Street, Montclair, New Jersey, on Saturday, June 12 at 8pm, Sunday June 13 at 3pm, and Saturday June 19 at 8pm. Suggested donation is $10, no advanced tickets will be sold. Hope you can make it!

An incredible cramming of material into a 10 minute brain suppository of Conspiracy News! The band, revisiting it's days as Phydeaux III made some great music with our new drummer, Joel, this past weekend that we will present sometime soon, maybe! However, as technical glitchidity precludes that this time, we present a rare hybrid Conspiracy track - 'Thank You', Cut-Up Band 8, PQ Ribber babbling away about the internet and much more! And as if this weren't enough - check out these cool goodies:

Phydeaux III retrospective hosted by Fruitcake Toothpaste, the elusive Doctor Panasofkee, and Ribber with rare tracks from the 1990s!!

29.42 (9:59)
The Overnightscape Underground (onsug.com) - June 2010 - Track 42

-----
The classic and often forgotten and neglected era of Pre-Code Hollywood is the main topic of this episode as PQ Ribber babbles about old movies, especially: Baby Face (1932), Kongo (1932), and The Story of Temple Drake (1933)! Also included is a cool demo of the Phydeaux III/Conspiracy of the Insignificant classic song: Eternal Youth! Another rewarding passage of 10 minutes from New Mexico's Foremost Popular Culture Cult!

The Brian Jude Show #33: BD (ONSUG Version) 29.55 (39:10)
The Overnightscape Underground (onsug.com) - June 2010 - Track 55

-----
Brian's show notes:

I was going to call this episode "Between Doors," as several "doors" in my life have recently closed, and I'm awaiting some new ones to open. However, the day ended up being a "Beach Day," which was another appropriate title! So "BD" it is! My son Jacob & I went to the city of my birth, Long Branch, New Jersey, where my mother Nancy lives, and the three of us went to the beach. We also went to my other hometown, Howell, New Jersey, twice, visiting my friends Sabrina and Lynda! "Beach Day" topics include a bit of my personal history, "pool people" vs. "beach people," my grandparents' now abandoned buildings, my Mom's poodle Emily, mussels & my seafood allergies, The Mystery of Jetties, playgrounds, Jacob's report card & concert performance, airplane advertisements, Amy's Omelette House, helping my mom with computer stuff. "Between Doors" topics include finishing substitute teaching for the school year, the final performances of "The Dining Room," and finishing the first draft of the screenplay of "The Miracle Man" (NOTE: If you would like to read my draft, and provide feedback, e-mail me at brianjude27@gmail.com!), upcoming jobs counting people and possibly demonstrating 3D TV's. Words of Wisdom: Be grateful for the best parts of your day, every day, and resolve to make each day the best day it can be!

The St. Paul Skyline #9 (with Sarje) - The Malaprop Monster (6/28/10) 29.62 (51:14)

Sarje records on her commute in and around St. Paul, MN.

The elevator and the waterfall. Thanks, everyone! Gorgeous day, strange last week, the ankle situation. Didn't expect to be missed, network growth, and welcome to all the new shows. The Friday floods. Patrick McGoohan, "The Prisoner," Ice Station Zebra, and James Bond. Shameless self promotion. REI, wall climbing. Snorkeling (with sharks and manatees), Florida vacation memories. World Cup=what? Minor correction, three minutes to the bus, the word "ponderous," the Light Rail construction, Kellogg Square, and Crowne Plaza. Back in SSP, two boats, 108, sangria, movie reviews: Paris je t'aime, New York, I Love You, and Uncertainty. "Key to the City," project and some funny/weird ideas about it.

46:03 - I have tried to sort out a couple of issues with the podcasts jumping back to the start when pausing. I have checked this episode on my ipod and there seems to be no problem with it. If you still find it is happening please leave me a message in the forum. Thanks and enjoy !

Annoying speed cameras could be no more, Mp's expenses scandal and the aftermath of it all, more people murdering their families for no apparent reason. Are the pressures of money and life sending people over the edge. The strongest beer in the world served inside a squirrel. I am proved right... again as the guy who killed his family had debt problems. Jailbreaking an ipod or iphone and the ease of it. Apple lose fair usage court case, probably means more expensive devices in the future. Better Of Ted and 30 Rock good comedies.

Just Say No To Politics – lyrics (c) 2010 Conspiracy of the Insignificant

Just say no to politics – Just a bunch of parlour tricks
When You See them Urging Voters – They’re Just Trying to Meet Their Quotas

They Just Wanna Be In Power – They Will Make your stomach sour

Just Say no to politics – Isn't this a ton of bricks?

Bible babble wasting time – Just another Party Line

Rising up into a station – Representing corporations

Just Say No to Politics – Give you candles, sell you wicks

Tell you one thing then they switch – Kiss the asses of the rich

They are just a bunch a wankers – They will bail out all the bankers

Just say no to politics

They are on their best behaviour - They will owe too many favors

Funds from folks with such a hard-on – for a Presidential Pardon

Just say no to politics – Somethings voting just cant fix

Turning fiction into fact – Selling you the Patriot act

Emptiness in Legislation – Diplomatic Masturbation

Just say no to politics – Heaven is a lot like this

Cagey House -

We Buzz Away

B for Breakfast [BP055] (March 21, 2010)

Cagey House creates ethereal and energetic instrumental music. Cagey House music has been featured on over one hundred alternative-oriented music podcasts, and also used as background, bumper, and theme music on many other non-music-oriented shows. Have had a couple of net-releases through Nishi, Umor-rex, Dog Eared, bumpfoot, and a few other netlabels.

B for Breakfast is Cagey House's latest production. The album has varied between being kind of pop/rock-ish and instrumental experiments. All the tracks focused on melody and rhythm, but with lots of unexpected twists and turns, and with some dada-style vocal samples mutually interacting. Credits: Written, Produced by Cagey House. Re-mastered by ZhangJW. Artwork by Kinle Wo.

Batavia EP (2010)

At Sea Music

This companion EP to "It Is Glorious to Make Electricity for Socialism" is about the British commercial war against the Dutch in the 18th century, Dutch colonialism in Indonesia and the amazing synergies between British and Indonesian folk songs. I've been having these ideas for over 20 years, so here are my musical thoughts over time. I'm not celebrating colonialism, I'm celebrating the connections between people made evident through music.

Sakee Sed -

I Am Drunk

Alle basi della roncola (ca365)

Clinical Archives Collection

SAKEE SED The band was born as DE SEEKAS Letters turned upside-down, like in a mirror. The Sakee Sed are Marco Grezzi and Gianluca Perucchini, guys from Bergamo, Italy, born between 1984 and 1986, grown in the nearby of the "Roncola", a grey mount in Bergamo. After a two-years experience with the band De Seekas, a band with a stoner-rock attitude, the two guys began to deal with Howard, a piano from the beginning of the century, which drives them to turn literally upside-down their style and name.

"Alle basi della Roncola" (At the feet of the Roncola) is the title of their debut album as Sakee Sed, coloured and dark at the same time, compact and multifaceted but of great impact. The album contains 13 tracks that blend a sense of lightness with paranoia, friendship and hate, fairy and frenzy, everything hanging by a grey rural dimension and a coloured world soaked in LSD.

Old and vintage instruments, very simple and low-fi recording characterize the album. On the Howard's tunes and on a dancing drumming, we find ourselves catapulted back to the old saloons of the 50s and we can even smell tobacco. Everything is surrounded by harmonies of acoustic and electric guitars, vibraphones, banjo, ukulele, horgans, basses, chorus, melted with Marco, just awake, voice.

Puns, metaphores and allusions characterize the lyrics. The reality of some images fits in novels that remind of a melancholy fairy.

Sakee Sed still seem to be able to listen to the children novels, the sound of nature and its becoming human, and involve all: introspective sound and stories of drugs and alcohol, medicines, fears, everyday life and love.

Sakee Sed usually change their live sets, sometimes unplugged, sometimes loud and electric, and they are supported on stage by "the family", some friends and musicians of them, like Roberta Sammarelli (Verdena), Nicolas Restivo [n!], Martina Togni e Thomas Maffi.

Improvisations For NoSyncopated Guitars

The Fly

(ca353) Clinical Archives

"Improvisations For NoSyncopated Guitars" is the first solo album of the italian eclectic improviser Stefano Ferrian. Here he's with 9 abstract classical guitar solos and duet (with himself) improvisations. Not just the usual impro stuff but a deep introspection guided by the winters solitude.

Produced by Stefano Ferrian @ Noize Studios on 19/20

December 2009

Stefano Ferrian / Classical Guitars

Stefano Ferrian plays guitars since the age of 9 studying various genres like Blues, Rock, Fusion, Funky and Avantgarde techniques. He's the former member of the Italian well known grindcore/experimental band 'psychofagist' and he's active in various projects like Razoj, Udus and collaborates with many bands in the extreme music scene like Ephel Duath, The True Endless and in the folk project Skoll. After more that a decade playing in extreme/experimental bands he start studying Saxophones founding he's new Impro Trio FFATSO. He recorded or played live with musicians like Davide Tiso (Ephel Duath), Mario Gabola, Damo Suzuki, Stefano Giust, Dominik Gawara, Ivan Pilat and Luca T Mai (ZU).

Logan Whitehurst and The Jr. Science Club

"Buckaroo Bonzai Is Not Just a Movie"

"An Introduction to..."

Logan Whitehurst (November 15, 1977 – December 3, 2006), was an American musician. His career began as the drummer for the band Little Tin Frog from 1995 until 2000, although he is best known as a founding member of Californian indie rock band The Velvet Teen[1] and as a solo artist performing under the name Logan Whitehurst and the Junior Science Club.

From November 2003 onward Logan battled fatigue, headaches, dizziness, and stomach illness. In May, 2004 it was discovered that the ailments he was suffering were due to a cancerous brain tumor. Deciding to focus on his recovery, he left The Velvet Teen[12] and put his solo career on hiatus.

He spent the better part of a year and a half in treatments for the recurring brain cancer. On December 3, 2006, Logan Whitehurst succumbed to his illness at his home in Los Banos, California.

10:00 – Catching up and branching out – Gangpol and Mit, one of our favorite Creative Entities have been kind enough to allow us to play you their music, so PQ brings on 'Safety Instructions in Case of Emergency', then a Zappa Mini-Tribute (he would've been 70 this year) with Dr Panasofkee and PQ doing a quick instrumental run of 'Take Your Clothes Off When You Dance', then, as if this wouldn't be more than enough stimulation to your auditory nerves, an assemblage of Don Ebel of Bethel Baptist church in Portland, Oregon, Three Man Army, and some Conspiracy of the Insignificant/Rubber Room Entertainment Lab Magic – 'Entertainment'. More of why this 10 minute broadcast may be the coolest thing coming out of New Mexico!

[45] Across the Pond – Episode 13 (8/18/10)

51:08 – Naomi Campbell and her appearance at the blood diamond trial. Robbie Williams gets married (big deal) The Beckhams ...what I think of them. Major League Soccer, my thoughts on sport and what I watch. The rip off that is Lost. Toy Story 3 review, very expensive to see a 3D movie these days. Crazy air steward leaves his job in the best way possible. Oldest woman in China disappears, oldest man in China has been dead for 30 years....hmmmm. How to die young ...just eat a burger in a sugar bun. Take.fm good for torrents, coda.fm good for music. I have become a grandad at a very early age. Benefit cheats playing the system to get massive amounts of money for nothing. David Beckham's sister is claiming benefit too.

[49] ROAR-2010-08-06 – Episode 91 – Walking With The Little People

Republic of Avalon Radio logo
This time on the ROAR:
Walkabout with Jim and Lillian, same old same old, calm as a clock, how calm is a clock, sweating like a pig, do pigs sweat, Jim’s blooper, the state of the world, fandom, you can’t blame the youths, good people with guns VS bad people with guns, blaming society VS personal accountability, the state raising children VS parents raising children, home schooling VS public indoctrination, some weather banter, fast walking, dancing on the sidewalk, Jim and Lillian turn into little people, the ancient thesaurus, ugga ugga boo ugga boo boo ugga, thinking up potential album names and band names, the secret milk shakes, Flappy and the Lapdogs, Abba Cadavre, the spooky street lights, transitioning the ROAR to the new server, DIY, images, branding, Reality Time, Revolution Time, Jim’s up-coming performance at the Folk festival, artistic children growing up into artistic adults, public negativity, smelling oil, don’t kill Kenny, the human nature paradox, folks basing reality on fiction, planning VS spontaneity, actors are liars, the Lesbo-Folk genre, passing the Djembe players, Jim and Lillian’s new theme song again, “what odds?”, running into Roseanne and Donny, Michael Meekins, a call for content and all dat kind of stuff.

Music this time:
Our theme, Genesis, by Jim Fidler

Best listened to on headphones. - The world can be a scary place when you’re 6 inches tall.

3:59:38 – Frank, Roel from the Netherlands, Manny the Mailman, and his son Mike meet up for another yearly adventure! Starting at the Liberty State Park Light Rail station in Jersey City, NJ, they travel all the way to the end of the line in Union City, where they find a bizarre work of art in the middle of a parking lot. Then they head back the other way and explore the Newport Center Mall. Then they head to Hoboken, and walk north on the waterfront, discovering many strange things, including a cave and an ancient boat. Then they take the NY Waterway ferry to Manhattan, and take a bus downtown to the World Trade Center. After a hearty Five Guys meal, they head over to the World Financial Center and the Irish Hunger Memorial before heading back to New Jersey on the PATH train. They visit the front of the WFMU building, and then head back to the parking lot, having had a very satisfying journey.

[61] The Brian Jude Show: NON-SUG Bundle #1 (Sept. - Oct. 2009)

3:18:48 - It's the first anniversary of The Brian Jude Show today! To celebrate, I am releasing the first in a series of episodes that were previously unreleased here on the Overnightscape Underground channel, packaged together into "NON-SUG Bundles!"

This first volume includes:

- BJS002: What About the Boy? (Originally released 9/30/09) My second, and potentially my last show. In this episode we take a trip to Anything But Costumes Prop Rental House in Flemington, New Jersey, where I pick up props for T. Schreiber Studios' production of "Rosencrantz and Guildenstern are Dead" while discussing my son, Jacob. Listen as I butcher the word "Guildenstern," and talk about my busted GPS, Edward Norton, my web design work, "Sweet Bird of Youth," "Picasso at the Lapin Agile," Cat Parker, "A Bronx Tale," my URL & iTunes updates, Judaism & my family, my work with Kaplan Medical, the Jersey Devil Hunters, news video of a horse attacked by an unknown animal, my dad's encounters with the Jersey Devil, women who inspired "Lucy in the Sky with Diamonds" and "Sexy Sadie" dead, Eric Roberts' new CD "My Brazilian Heart," DCT Live 2.0 NYC, comedian John McClellan's blog "4 Minutes of Fame," Geoffrey "Badger" Gould and black smoke - 9/11, the future of The Jacob & Daddy Show, my son's birth, VACTERL association, rescuing Jacob, his new school, learning Polish. Plugs: ONSUG's "Rambling Roundup" with Eddie Murray, Morning Commute with Bob, Brandon Rambles/now Ramblecast, Into Your Head, The Rubenerd Show, Big Kev's Geek Stuff and my suggestions for "Heroes," FLIC(K).

- BJS003: Mercury Retrograde Won't Leave Me Alone (Originally released 10/3/09) My third and potentially last show, and I'll tell you WHY it may be my last... all while walking two miles in Nyack, New York to the beginning of a parade with the Tappan Zee Bridgemen. Topics covered: Explaining Mercury Retrograde, people asking me questions, problems uploading Episode 2, my bluetooth, my car, DCT Comedy project tapes not digitizing, TK Music Rock Academy, Uploading photos to Facebook, my busted GPS fixed, the "Weird AI" ringer, Jimmy Sheridan, Manny the Mailman, Carrie Engdahl, Dawn Peat McNamara, Rampler on WFMU is no more, Tom Walker. Concludes with Friday's Child's "Pay Day Ray" © 1998 Thomas V. Walker/Can't See the Honeybee Music, Used With Permission.

- BJS005: The Search for BJS004 (Originally released 10/8/09) My fifth and potentially last episode, in which I talk about why my actual last episode (i.e. previous, not final) is no longer available. For those of you who missed it, I also recap my dreams about The Six Fingered Jesus with the Lame Left Arm and The Bell-Shaped UFO, and discuss being sick, thoughts on the swine flu vaccine, my impromptu visit from Verizon, DCT Concerts on CBS Interactive's tv.com, DCT Comedy pilots and plug The Industrial Jazz Group "avant-garde party music," Jill Knapp, Andrew Durkin, Brooklyn Ferry, The Evelyn Situation, Jay's Booming Hat and Stephanie Richards.

- BJS006: Lunchtime and The Jersey Devil (Originally released 10/15/09)

My sixth show – and no more negative comments on how many I might be doing in the future! Listen as I make my standard lunch – peanut butter and apple. I discuss my progress on the DCT Comedy 30-minute pilots, the TK Music Rock Academy project, Jacob's realization that I can now edit the unreleased episodes of The Jacob & Daddy Show, spending time at The Unitarian Universalist Congregation at Montclair, Melanie & I appearing in Selections from "Spoon River Anthology," Senior Youth Group overnight lock-in, The Jersey Devil Hunters may be on SyFy's "Destination Truth." Concludes with audio from the interview with my father about his encounters with The Jersey Devil.

- BJS007: Shopping Wild (Originally released 10/19/09)

Take a trip with me to a wild, magical far away place called Shop Rite. (Okay, it's not wild, magical, or far away, but I'm in that kinda mood.) I discuss lower sales tax in New Jersey "urban areas," Jacob being sick again, Melanie's birthday, the comparison between The Balloon Boy and Max from "Where the Wild Things Are," hoping to go to the Apple Store & the movies tomorrow if the boy isn't still sick, Optimum Rewards, Clearview Cinemas, Arcade Fire, Brandon Rambles – now Ramblecast WV, Frank Nora's Radio Vacation, Industrial Jazz Group, Iron Monkey Automata Chino, Peanut Butter & Apple Facebook picture comments, GPS, Louisiana Justice of the Peace Keith Bardwell not marrying interracial couple, Jeremiah Kipp's short film "Contact" is showing at the end of the month at Sinister Six Fest, Zoë Daelman Chlanda, Robb Leigh Davis, Alan Rowe Kelly, Fangoria, Tom Walker of Friday's Child and Tasty Cocoa in Caldwell, New Jersey. Concludes with Industrial Jazz Group's "Big Ass Truck" from the album LEEF.

[1] Escapist Radio #3 – Hong Kong Businessmen’s Lunch (10/01/10)

11:18 - It’s a binary day (10-01-10... get it?) release of Escapist Radio Episode 3, and it’s a short one – but long on lessons to be learned when attending a proper Hong Kong businessmen’s luncheon at a proper Hong Kong businessmen’s restaurant. This show was recorded while driving the uncharacteristic uncrowded freeways of Los Angeles County VERY early in the morning.

While today’s content isn’t racy or generally vulgar, those who possibly have a sensitive constitution might want to sit this one out. It’s not gross, just a wee bit disturbing in the end.

This work is licensed under a Creative Commons Attribution-NonCommercial-NoDerivs 3.0 United States License. Attribution: content by Escapist from LA; Opening music by Tonda Smichka and Escapist from LA – more info at onsug.com.

You can follow Escapist (from LA) on Twitter at <http://twitter.com/GreatEscapist> .

Released October 2010 on The Overnightscape Underground (onsug.com), an AWESOME Internet talk radio channel focusing on a freeform monologue style, with diverse and fascinating hosts. Listen... you will be happy you did!

[2] Conspiracy of the Insignificant – Radios In Motion – (10/1/10)

10:00 – New video by and for the Conspiracy of the Insignificant, Fun from F Le Mur, The 1908 World Series, a PQ Ribber Historic Providence recording of Crushed Puppies, a sneak preview of Show Cluster 2... Yep – another jam packed, ten minute show from the Rubber Room to the world!

- BJS009: Horray* for Sleepy Hollow (Originally released 10/25/09)

*Type-o intentional.

In this episode, I wait to march in the Halloween Parade in Sleepy Hollow, New York, dressed in my Jedi robes, as I interview musicians JB Reed & Brandon General regarding their collaborative venture Hooray for Everything! Listen while I discuss passing a DeLorean on the way up, driving over the Tappan Zee Bridge, R2-D2 on the GPS, my student Laura telling me to "cheer up," Rev. Charlie Ortman's children's story about the Farmer's Horse, Reiki, Jedi Realism, "The Legend of Sleepy Hollow," Hessian soldiers. JB, Brandon & I talk about their meeting and working together, Canada, Caledonia, Ontari, the Niagra Peninsula, Tim Hortons vs. Dunkin Donuts and Krispy Kreme, local jewelery store, Canadian currency, regional accents and more! Music by JB Reed & Brandon General. Used with permission.

- BJS010: Alternate (Originally released 11/3/09)

In this episode I sit in a noisy Dunkin' Donuts across the street from my mechanic in Paterson, New Jersey as I wait my car to receive a new alternator. (I think I forgot to actually explain that in the show, but that's why I'm here.) It's my first show that I'm recording and releasing remotely via my laptop and a free wifi connection! I talk about Election Day, why I voted for Chris Daggett, Democrats & Republicans, marriage equality, Garden State Equality, the Obama-Corzine billboard: "Keep it going," when my alternator died, 9-year old girl died on Halloween, puts a perspective of my situation, losing my step-brother. I plug Zombie Take-Out The B-Movie & Cult Movie Podcast, Big Kev's Geek Stuff - I got "Heroes Revealed" by Michael Goldman, DK Publishing - DCT Concerts artist The Fave, playing Maxwell's on 1/22/10 (Dom's bday), nominated as Top Band in the Pop Rock Category for the second consecutive year by The 2009 Asbury Park Music Awards, held on November 14th at The Stone Pony. Concludes with The Fave's "Let It Out" recorded by DCT Concerts. Celebrity GPS Voice: Homer Simpson.

- BJS011: Reunited (Originally released 11/8/09)

Hear some behind-the-scenes rambling before, during and after my 20-year high school reunion at the Sheraton in Eatontown, New Jersey. Celebrity Guest GPS Voice: Hannibal Lecter.

- BJS012: He Left Home Without It (Originally released 11/12/09)

I found myself done with my acting gig at Kaplan Medical early today, so I had time to record. But did I bring my microphone? NO! So I decided to record on my laptop.

- BJS014: A Short Time Ago In A Concert Very, Very Close (Originally released 11/20/09)

Join me and my friend, Maestro Tracy Glenn Murray, as we attend "Star Wars in Concert" at the Izod Center at the Meadowlands Sports Complex in East Rutherford, New Jersey. I recorded our commentary immediately after the show, and we met up with our friend P Jay and his sons, then I called my mother to thank her for getting us the tickets - none of which you'll hear, because I inadvertently deleted all of that! But you'll hear us talk about the concert on our way back to nearby Lyndhurst, New Jersey where I had to pick up my son.

Superman Fan Podcast Episode #146: It Was 50 Years Ago Today!*

As I celebrate my 50th birthday this week, on this episode I feature the Superman stories that were published the month I was born: September, 1960! Thanks to MIKE’S AMAZING WORLD OF DC COMICS at <http://dcindexes.com> for being an invaluable resource for this episode, as always!

DC published 27 titles during the month of September 1960, five of them Superman titles. They carried the cover date of November or November / December 1960, and a few carried the cover date of December 1960. All of the Superman titles that were published this month carried the November 1960 cover date.

- WORLD’S FINEST COMICS 113: published on September 6, 1960 and edited by Jack Schiff. The cover was pencilled by Curt Swan and inked by Stan Kaye. It featured the Superman / Batman story, BAT-MITE MEETS MR. MXYZPTLK, written by Jerry Coleman, pencilled by Dick Sprang and inked by Sheldon Moldoff. This story was reprinted in BATMAN FROM THE THIRTIES TO THE SEVENTIES, WORLD’S FINEST COMICS ARCHIVES vol. III and SHOWCASE PRESENTS: WORLD’S FINEST vol. II. (I may have mistakenly said vol. III. That’s what I had written in my notes.)

The remaining Superman related titles were edited by Mort Weisinger.

- SUPERMAN 141: published on September 15, 1960. The cover was pencilled by Curt Swan and inked by Stan Kaye. SUPERMAN’S RETURN TO KRYPTON was written by Jerry Siegel, pencilled by Wayne Boring and inked by Stan

Kaye. It was reprinted in SUPERMAN IN THE SIXTIES, SUPERMAN: THE GREATEST STORIES EVER TOLD vol. II and SHOWCASE PRESENTS: SUPERMAN vol. II.

- SUPERMAN’S GIRL FRIEND LOIS LANE 21 was published on September 22, 1960. The cover featured the second story in the issue, and was pencilled by Curt Swan and Kurt Schaffenberger (who inked Lois Lane and maybe Lana Lang). The rest of the cover was inked by Stan Kaye. THE LOIS LANE DOLL was written by Edmond Hamilton and drawn by Kurt Schaffenberger. It was reprinted in SUPERMAN: THE BOTTLE CITY OF KANDOR. THE BATTLE BETWEEN SUPER LOIS AND SUPER LANA was drawn by Kurt Schaffenberger. The writer credit was unknown. It was only reprinted in 80 PAGE GIANT #3, with the cover date of September 1964.

I was disappointed to learn that no Superman titles were published on my birthday of September 27, 1960. The final two Superman related titles were published on September 29, 1960.

- ACTION COMICS 270: The cover was drawn by Curt Swan and inked by Stan Kaye. THE OLD MAN OF METROPOLIS was written by Otto Binder, pencilled by Curt Swan and inked by John Forte. It was reprinted in SHOWCASE PRESENTS: SUPERMAN vol. II and SHOWCASE PRESENTS: SUPERGIRL vol. I. SUPERGIRL’S BUSIEST DAY was written by Jerry Siegel and drawn by Jim Mooney. This story was reprinted in SUPERGIRL ARCHIVES vol. II and SHOWCASE PRESENTS: SUPERGIRL vol. I.

- ADVENTURE COMICS 278: The cover was drawn by Curt Swan and inked by Stan Kaye. SUPERGIRL IN SMALLVILLE was written by Otto Binder and drawn by Al Plastino. It was reprinted in SHOWCASE PRESENTS: SUPERGIRL vol. I.

Next Episode: HOW CLARK KENT MET LOIS LANE!

Citizen Reporter ctrp352 Landing as a Journalist in Kabul, 1996*

In Sept. 1996 the Taliban had just taken over Kabul and Jeremy Wagstaff was working as a journalist for Reuters in Hong Kong when the unexpected happened. He was told they needed him in Kabul, without much preparation or explanation he eventually found his way there and found his way to the front lines of the war in Afghanistan.

In this podcast, recorded one calm sunny afternoon in Kabul, Jeremy recalls what the city was like in those days, what you could and couldn't do, and what dealing with the Taliban was like for a foreign journalist.

The Bikecast Episode #40: Giving Up on Politics*

Another element of Getting from Here to There is giving up on politics. The theatrics and drama of politics, along with the ever appealing us vs. them dynamic involved, freezes people for years and decades in the mistaken belief that the state can effect a reversal of social ills. Endless energy and resources are expended in the pursuit of political solutions and are thereby diverted from alternative efforts. This starving of effective, decentralized, and sustainable non-governmental approaches to social problems insulates and protects the existing power structures from the threat of any substantive change.

[36] 418 Show #5 (Oct. 2010)

19:55 – 418 Show (with Peter Bernard)

Robot intro, closing the cabin door, swinging on the porch, there's the chipmunk, humans are squirrels, thinking about family and kids, white kids can be annoying, be happy with what you've got, people staring at me, I want a hot meal, cabins and tents vs. Washington Heights, squirrels– playing or mating?, maybe I should be a "serious artist" instead of trying to make people happy, Jim Morrison's shamanism, the day I died, lay people becoming interested in shamanism, Skidoo, Cary Grant, Monkey Business, organic food supermarkets, trees all colors, wanted hot breakfast, enter zen through fried mushrooms, territorial pissings, look out for low stone fences,

I am not an expert of anything, I know nothing about show business, music or anything else, in NYC people tell me who it would be good to work with, the chipmunk is living under my cabin, I never understood bar hopping, here comes a tractor trailer.

Chipmunk video: <http://209show.com/418/chipmunkvid01.html>

Photos related to this episode:
<http://snevilistic.blogspot.com/2010/10/pictures-of-saugerties-and-woodstock.html>

Mystery cat video- please help me solve the mystery of what this cat was:

Around 10 after 7 am on the morning of 10/15/10, the birds started making a fuss and I looked out the screen door of the cabin to see a cat run past from left to right. I had not seen ANY cats the entire time I was up there but saw plenty of chipmunks and squirrels. I grabbed the camera and turned it on and ran outside. I saw the cat sitting in the dark. I tried to lure it out by talking cat language to it. When it finally came out into the light, it was larger than I had realized and I'm sort of glad it was scared of me.

Video and photos here:

<http://209show.com/418/spottedcat.html>

It looks sort of like a bobcat but has a long fluffy tail. Maybe it's a large house cat mixed with a wild cat? If you can solve this puzzle, please forward along your findings to peter@peterbernard.com.

Hogan Grip – Stance Gives You Balance [foot156] (October 10, 2010)
To Henry Picard – An Outstanding Teacher, An Outstanding Player And An Outstanding Man
Junior85 formed a tag team with DeclanQKelly, that is Hogan Grip. Their description is as shown below.
There followed an intense fortnight or so of recording, mixing, the addition of various horns and and much golf tee painting to bring into existence the Hogan Grip EP “Stance Gives You Balance”, which was launched on the 20th of August 2010 with much fanfare and free golf tees at the CitÁ³g free music night in Galway, within walking/golf carting distance of that same fateful charity shop. The music is based mostly on hurried improvisation, with the main parts of the songs composed and recorded in Tony’s sitting room – DeclanQKelly played keys and guitar and Tony Higgins played drums, bass and keys. Additional magic occurred in Tony’s bedroom where he made the songs go whoosh with extra instrumentation and magical masterering.
All the song titles for the EP were taken from phrases or chapter titles in Ben Hogan’s seminal instructional golf book “Power Golf” (Corgi Press, 1958) (except “Stance Gives You Power”, which was merely Tony’s mis-remembering of “Stance Gives You Balance” that just stuck around). Though the resulting music bears little direct relation to “Power Golf”, we believe it was conceived and executed in the spirit of the book, summed up in the last chapter “Now it’s up to you”. It contained “Eight hints on how to lower your score”, which include such golden tips as “PLAY SAFE IF YOU CAN’T GET A CLEAN SHOT”; “COMMON SENSE” and “DON’T BE AFRAID”. “LEARN TO PLAY THE SAND WEDGE” and “USE A CLUB WITH ENOUGH LOFT” were perhaps not so relevant to our cause but were duly noted and applied vigourously to other areas of our lives.

Most importantly, we learned that most people hit the outside of the ball instead of the back of it. Armed with this knowledge we are, admittedly, no better off generally, but feel there is at least something about ourselves we ought to be in some way improving. Which is as good a reason as any to go on living.

Spin Drive Smasher – Crazy Tiny EP

Sprigott 3:05

Spin Drive Smasher is a new 8-bit-infused chiptune artist from Milwaukee, Wisconsin. While many modern chiptune artists like to focus on club-style music, Spin Drive Smasher takes its cue from Final Fantasy, Megaman and other NES-era classics. This EP features four original tunes, as well as two Famby Fun! covers (a band Spin Drive Smasher is also a member of).

[59] Escapist Radio #4 - The House At Haunted Hill (10/27/10)

49:51 - It's that time of year once again. A time when children go door-to-door trick-or-treating, adults have an excuse to act bizarre and people with certain talents shine in all their glory in the bathing moonlight. Yes, it is Halloween season.

In this episode we are introduced to a couple from Southern California who, for 10 years now, have been passionately displaying their home in the All Hallows Eve Holiday motif. But somewhere along the way, their passion of simply decorating the outside of their home for trick-or-treaters turned into a real, honest to Golem high-end Halloween Yard Haunt with professional story production and state of the art lights, music, performances and special effects. What on this side of reality drives people to do such things for no more than the love of the holiday itself? Listen in and find out.

You can easily find out more about The House At Haunted Hill at their website.

Apologies up front, but this one was a bear to edit due to some serious technical difficulties behind the scenes. There are a couple of audio level and mix inconsistencies. All are due to temperamental software, flakey hardware and a trans-coder that couldn't understand what 192 kb/ps was, therefore the show was a day or two delayed – please enjoy anyway and I look forward to your comments here on the ONSUG Forum.

30:02 – Last week was the 25th anniversary of the date in which Marty McFly (well, the dog Einstein, actually) became the first time traveler in "Back to the Future." Melanie & I saw the remastered film in the theatre, and it still stands up after all these years. Makes me think about how our own realities can be shifted by simply putting your mind to it. A true example of that is my friend Jen Ponton, a most talented actress whose recent cameo/debut on NBC's "30 Rock" just aired, including a scene that is destined to be one of the series' most memorable moments.

[35] Conspiracy of the Insignificant – Conspiro – (11/15/10)

Religions of the Ancient Mediterranean Podcast

Philip A. Harland, author of book of same name Podcast 6.6: 1 Enoch – An Introduction to the Earliest Apocalypse 10:00 – Band and arts update, a rousing, infectious and snappy take of ‘Pornographic Glasses’ from the newly-opened Panasofkee Archive, mortality, Mr F Le Mur, skeptic merit badge babble and more from PQ Ribber and Rubber Room Entertainment Labs. 10 minutes you can ride in neutral to!

Here I begin to introduce our earliest example of the Judean apocalyptic worldview and our first example of an otherworldly journey apocalypse as a type of literature, 1 Enoch (which most likely dates to about 225-200 BCE). The next episode examines the so called “Book of Watchers” in 1 Enoch chapters 1-36 in more detail.

Shadows in the Dark – Lost Cosmonauts (January 20, 2008)
Olav Phillips returned to the show to discuss the secret Soviet space program and the Lost Cosmonauts. In 1961, The Judica-Cordiglia brothers, after setting up a listening post which probed the cosmos and successfully tracked all the early american and soviet unmanned satellites, heard the beat of a failing heart and the last gasping breaths of a dying cosmonaut weeks before Yuri Gagarin’s epic space flight. It is believed that the Soviets tried to launch 2 men in to outer space before Gargarin.

[51] The Brian Jude Show: NON-SUG Bundle #3 (Nov. – Dec. 2009)

3:08:12 – Just in time for Pagan Thanksgiving, here's the next in my series of episodes that were previously unreleased on the Overnightscape Underground channel. This was a very transformative period in my life. Check out the moment during which I realized and declare that I want to start working on a feature film, how my mentality changes after I discovered "The Secret," and my thoughts on 2010 being the Year of Abundance! But of course, it all starts with gratitude...

Also look for the supplemental video episode to follow – BJS016a: The Last Days of Frank Whyte (a short film with intro)!

This volume includes:

- BJS015: Rosencrantz and Guildenstern Are Thankful Pagans (Originally released 11/23/09)

If you listened to BJS002, you'll remember I picked up props for T. Schreiber Studios' production of "Rosencrantz and Guildenstern are Dead." Yesterday Melanie & I saw the show, and today I returned the props back to Anything But Costumes i Flemington, New Jersey. Later on, I attended the 19th annual Pagan Thanksgiving, hosted by two former college classmates – and Student Government Association presidents – of mine, Tony Susco and James "Appetite" Cotter.

- BJS016: Q&A at the Old Bridge Filmmakers Showcase (Originally released 11/28/09)

Three local New Jersey filmmakers participate in a Q&A session at the first installment of the Old Bridge Filmmakers Showcase at the Old Bridge Public Library. Hosted by Matt Helme, the filmmakers discuss their short films presented earlier in the afternoon. Marla Cukor discusses "The Masquerade" (directed by Natalia Garcia), a mystery thriller which she wrote, and which stars Christopher Masterson of TV's "Malcolm in the Middle." Jamal Hall talks about his short film "Strivin'," a stylistic story about an inner city kid who dreams of becoming a dancer while coping with an abusive father. I ramble on about "The Last Days of Frank Whyte," which I co-wrote, directed and produced with the film's star Franklin Correa, and which tells the tale of a drug dealer's downward spiral of life. (If you haven't already, check out BJS016a – my first video episode which contains my film in its entirety.)

- BJS018: Crazy Nights (Originally released 12/14/09)

Join me as I talk about the Festival of Lights known as Hanukkah – the story behind it, our family's observance of it and what it means to me as a non-Jew. I also discuss my Paramount Pictures hat given to me by Joe "Joey Pants" Pantoliano, Jacob's "bad witch/good witch" dream, starting to live with "The Secret" and the controversy over "Happy Holidays." Music by the Unitarian Universalist Congregation at Montclair Choir.

- BJS019: I'll Be Elvish For Solstice (Originally released 12/21/09)

Listen as I join fellow members of the Unitarian Universalist Congregation at Montclair as we bring toys and books to the children of the Newton Street School in Newark, NJ, assisting Santa (as played by congregation member and television actor Andre Braugher). I interview fellow member Courtney Allen on our seven-year relationship with the school, and discuss the winter solstice, accepting the benefits of abundance, and New Moon rituals. Concludes with music by Mr. Steve and Miss Katie (used with permission).

- BJS020: Reflections on 2009 (Originally released 12/31/09)

I spend a few moments on the morning of New Year's Eve reflecting on the positive moments of 2009, and why it's critical to be grateful for the things we have in our life. I also discuss Facebook's "My Year in Photos" application, the Facebook group "I Claim 2010 As the Year of Abundance," and how the principals of Kwanzaa can apply to non-African-Americans as well.

"Mulatto" (by Listen With Sarah)

Another Nice Mix turns unexpected technical faults and human confusion into an "art event." It was created from samples of The John Peel Show and Another Nice Mess (Marcelle van Hoof's show on Radio DFM), with music by Oak and Krause Duo Nr. 2 and a pinch of Laurel and Hardy. Originally released on CD in 2006.

"Next Time I See You Remind Me Not To Talk To You" (by Stealing Orchestra)

from Wikipedia entry for Stealing Orchestra:

A review by Cool and Strange Music Magazine back in 2000 gives a general idea of the music by Stealing Orchestra even if there were many changes in the line-up or musical creation. "No matter how off the map Mascarenhas' musical funhouse gets, with things running backward and jumping in at the most inappropriate spots, there is always the semblance of a song. His mixed madness has a definite lounge and pop bent to it – yet there is also a strong Portuguese/Spanish flavor. Think of all faux Spanish music that exists out there, then try to imagine what would happen if someone from the area began lampooning American culture with that inherent style. It's like a soundtrack a spy movie ran through a blender."

"When I Snap My Fingers You'll Wake Up" (by Eusebio)

These are 9 tracks testifying together about the way Bucharest is and feels like today. The album, simply called ONE, marks Eusebio's debut and it doesn't just play the capital's soundscape. Its purpose is to make you feel like you are taking a walk through it: full blown human chaos with sound chaos and traffic chaos for the middle of the day and deep, deep clam punctuated by a vagrant dog or car for the middle of the night. The album contains reworked night time street ambient recordings and for any of the song there is a corresponding particular state of mind or moment in time.

It took Eusebio a full year to finish ONE, a full year of fine tuning to achieve minute details that you are aware of after two or three listening sessions. The more sessions, the more details. Synths, flutes, guitars, drums and drum effects and drum machines plus traffic signs turned drum kits, plates and glasses turned to chimes and bells, and above all these, the mighty PC, used as a recording, editing and mixing tool. Part of the songs are produced by Waar, Eusebio wingman in the High Jet project, an electronica extravaganza endeavor, a musical fresh mint designed to refresh you.

"Destroy She Says" (by Zoe.LeelA)

Queendom Come is some of the finest electronic urban soul I've heard on the internet. The Berlin artist has a silky smooth sound that rides a fine line between naughty and sexy. Her voice is casual yet seductive. The production values on her album are almost impeccable. Yet it is her vocals and breathy persona that tempts me into each replay. "Bridges" and "Destroy She Says" are two excellent examples of her alchemy. Download this and surrender to the temptation. -Marvin / Free Albums

"I've sat with this man and enjoyed Funk, Electronica and Techno, which I had previously ignored, over a fine cup of coffee.
A 12-year DJ and space and time influenced producer and improviser, Krowne is here to give you 'Orders From Mars.' An EP that explores a concept of waking interests, and delivers fine textures in Electronica with a heavy groove!"

[29] No Snowjob

Jim Fidler announces the launching of the Snowman Radio Podcast

The SnowMan Radio Broadcast, a satirical talk show, was produced between August of 1999, and May 2001 by Jim Snowbarger of Marshalltown Iowa. The program was broadcast over LiveStreamAmerica.com. Later shows were also broadcast on ACBRadio.org. Shows were also posted on Live365.com and a now defunked service called GiveMeTalk.com. All voices and nearly all of the music used on this show were that of Jim Snowbarger.

The Program was supposedly originated from a mythical radio station known as WWSNOW, an A.M. station which featured talk programming comprised of the stream-of-consciousness ramblings of The SnowMan. The show featured three primary personalities:

* The SnowMan - the self-possessed star of the show and boss of the station. Hefty Genitals - NewsMan and general fun-loving man about town.

* The program engineer and producer, who speaks over an intercom system, often harassing the SnowMan as he does his show, but who is never named.

Other personalities referred to but never heard were Nookie, girlfriend of Hefty Genitals, an unnamed secretary, presumably the SnowGirl, and the staff psychologist Dr. Weebit Mental, though Dr. Weebit does make one appearance.

The program was actually produced in a small spare bedroom with an 8-channel mixing board, several effects devices and a computer. The first 25% of these programs were produced on analog tape, with the remainder done with multi-track computer software. All programs were produced on Saturday afternoon, and uploaded late Saturday

[78] The Brian Jude Show Ep. 51: The Social Timesuck

57:37 - So since I missed recording a segment for The Overnightscape Central's episode about Facebook, I decided to dedicate an entire episode of The Brian Jude Show to the topic! Here the story of how I first joined Facebook, courtesy of Kathryl Velvel Jones, Facebook's lack of customizability, throwing sheep, the rise of Facebook and the downfall of MySpace, high school reunion, some people don't want to talk with old high school classmates, Alumni Group page, closer with some people now than ever before, letting bygones be bygones, getting gigs, keeping up with family, younger cousins, requests from strangers, Temple of the Jedi Order, status updates, Twitter, "Brian Jude is...", Wall vs. Profile/Info vs. Home, News Feed, using SMS to keep up, FB + Twitter = Now have to keep texts silent & always check, I ignore notifications, Gmail Priority Inbox & Facebook notifications separated, News from friends, Dawn Richie, Vanessa & Reiki, birthdays sharing photos, Jacob's albums, The Many Faces of Brian Jude, people don't like being tagged, DCT Comedy's Brooke Van Poppelen, videos, 3rd Party Apps, MP3, YouTube - Great auto function - instant embed - any web site image, no more Links page(?), notes, tagging, Events, Groups vs. Pages, "Like," Discussions, Insights, promoting DCT, DRP, the Miracle Man, the great time suck, Chat - I'm always "offline", games, Mafia, Farmville, ads are non-intrusive, quick to load, New Facebook, removed info box from sidebar, love new info page & its functionality, birthdays, friends photos, friend groups - everyone has at least 1 category - helps with mass messaging, "The Social Network," helpful for me - cast off doubts! Make someone happy with your favorite social network.
