WHYCHOCK 1166 * 5/21/17 (033)
You're into my flume Paris caravan.

WHYCHOCK 1167 * 5/13/21 (034)
Say you win the rat race then what. Join the caravan to the next age. You can bet your bippy there are vending machines in heaven. My kirschwasser shell is almost empty, and has no answers, man. Try The Overnightscape 1817 instead. Very humble and groovy inside your head. I'd like an 80s Waldenbooks bag, the woodcut one. A phenomenon is those four making it to the next level. Conrad awoke, the door to the paddywhack was open, there was no one to stop him.

The Overnightscape – 2023

Hosted by Frank Edward Nora

Get set for another year of the surreal hijinks and super theories of the cosmic universe, delights of the alcohol and tobacco sorts, unknown destinations, realizations, cartoons and TV shows from the 70s and so much more.

Onsug Days

Hosted by Frank Edward Nora

The Overnightscape Underground ("Onsug" for short) began as an ambitious concept for freeform and longform audio content, released in 24-hour sets. These "days" contain a wide variety of material, interspersed with hosting segments by Frank. After 5 "days", Onsug switched to a monthly format, and eventually developed into the Onsug we know and love today.

The Overnightscape Underground - Day 1 (December 2007)

ug: The Start (11/11/07) 41:23 [111] It's the start of The Overnightscape Underground! Frank talks about how the project came into being and where it is headed. Recorded in The Overnightscape Studio on 11/11/07. Note: "ug" stands for "Underground". It is the way I describe the tracks where I am hosting The Overnightscape Underground, between all the other kinds of content. Topics: The start of The Overnightscape Underground!, the "secret project", background information, The Overnightscape, deep content, old time radio, Laurie Anderson's "United States", episodes, Station Unlimited, Weekend Showcase, Bluffcosm.com, wider range of audio content, organizing by days, an audio world you can explore, the formats of the project, BitTorrent, 24-hour MP3 file, the kind of content coming up on The Overnightscape Underground, taking advantage of the technology of today, The Overnightscape hi-fi archive, Creative Commons licenses, onsug.com, a new view on copyrights, people in the future, music, Fuzzy Daupner, audio cassettes, video tapes, online video, creative passion, field recordings, open source audio and video, movie time, the world of The Overnightscape, new audio field trips, Severe Repair audiobook, the defunct website MyVirtualBand.com, and the intro for the song "My Straw Hat - Mix 3".

song: My Straw Hat - Mix 3 (from MyVirtualBand.com, 2005) 3:29 [111] Cool rock song released on now-defunct music collaboration website MyVirtualBand.com on 7/18/05. MyVirtualBand.com was a website that began in late 2004 and closed in early 2007. On the site, musicians collaborated to create songs by uploading and downloading audio tracks. All the audio tracks on the site were released under the Creative Commons Attribution 2.0 license, which means that you can do pretty much what you want with the audio as long as you give credit to those who created it. There were 113 "featured songs" on the site, and a much greater number of songs "in progress". Even though the site has shut down, the music from the site is still under the same license - which allows the songs to be re-released here in The Overnightscape Underground!

"My Straw Hat - Mix 3" is an alternate mix of "My Straw Hat" (featured song #59, released 10/5/05). I feel this mix is superior to the mix that was in the featured release. It is a great song and I am very happy to play it it here at the start of The Overnightscape Underground! The lyrics are very appropriate... "heading out on the highway", just like I am heading off on the "road" of The Overnightscape Underground...

Lyrics:

Good mornin' highway, it's such a good day
We're goin' somewhere, where we can hear 'em play
You're gonna have to trace this line, to know what's on our minds
Just shufflin' down this road

We got our straw hats on our heads, yeah
We've got an itchin' for the road
To travel places far away
Come on now, let's go

Hey

Good mornin' highway, it's such a good day
We're goin' somewhere, where we can hear 'em play

I've got the feelin' that's got me wheelin'
On down that dusty road
On down that road
It's got me wheelin' on down that road

I got my straw hat on today
Ain't got no work it's time to play
I'm gonna head out on that highway
To travel places far away

Whoo

Hey

Lyrics:

And can I say we are Crazy crossing a rocky stream
Kissing hills and air and dreams
Coltishly beaucoup in our mysteries

Bathing cool in a stimulating rio
Tiki and arctic phase at Nanticoko
Singing folk space rock at the top of our lungs
Winding down in the wow fluff of the treetops

We can walk together
Under the moon or whatever
And our nasty predawn jive
Will even make the scorpions cry

We can walk together
Under the moon or whatever
And our nasty predawn jive
Will even make the scorpions cry

Humpback dude with jackdaw steed
Whale and bird on a new kind of trip
Motors, lights and audio delights
Rubber bands are pumping energy

The treasure of me is stalking away
At the whining dusk of day
Your mental aggression craft is called Attack-type dog

We can walk together
Under the moon or whatever
And our nasty predawn jive
Will even make the scorpions cry

We can walk together
Under the moon or whatever
And our nasty predawn jive
Will even make the scorpions cry

Above the primly introspective waste
The Rover is the tune
As we skydive in new wave ruins
She make weird animal dolls

Pogs were not a lasting trend
The new age it just came and went
The humans we're all stuck in are
The leftovers of an obvious recall

We can walk together
Under the moon or whatever
And our nasty predawn jive
Will even make the scorpions cry

We can walk together
Under the moon or whatever
And our nasty predawn jive

Will even make the scorpions cry

ug: About Place Sounds (11/17/07) 7:11 [111] Frank talks about the "Place Sounds" idea. Topics: Outro to "Sliding Gardens", music disappearing, metadata, feeling the way forward, the idea of "Place Sounds", ambient soundscapes, Place Sounds in Grand Central, Station Unlimited, Chef Mark, and the intro to "Audio Street Fair Blues".

Place Sounds: Audio Street Fair Blues (6/11/07) 20:05 [111] Ambient audio of a street fair in Times Square, NYC. Recorded in Times Square, NYC on 6/11/07. Originally released on StationUnlimited.com (release #74, June 19, 2007). On Monday, June 11, 2007 I was walking through Times Square in NYC and I saw a street fair called "Taste of Times Square". I went for 2 blocks on 46th St. from Times Square to 9th Ave. I walked the full length of it and realized it would make a great "Place Sounds" piece (a recording of an audio environment). So I started recording and heading back through the fair. ¶ Unfortunately, things didn't work out like I planned. First of all a lot of the musicians I had seen on the first walk thru were taking their breaks. Then it started to rain... lightly at first and then it turned into a real downpour. And then I realized I had pressed pause by accident and lost a lot of the stuff I was recording. ¶ This piece is the final result - the first in the "Place Sounds" series. I look forward to recording more "Place Sounds" in the future - it is certainly a different kind of audio content than what people are used to, but in the right frame of mind such stuff can be very enjoyable and intriguing to listen to. ¶ Topics: Intro, Tony and Tina's Wedding, song "Celebration", world music style singer, Chef Mark, blues band, latin music band, guitar player, police radio, whistle, radio station playing an ad, car horns, bluegrass band, "that'll be perfect", Frank sees the recorder was paused, description of what happened, the remaining audio walking in the rain, radio station playing song, drumming, world music, doo wop singers, and the conclusion.

Lyrics:

Early in the concrete cement
Sheet metal whatever center
The seeping enterprise washing
I wish this snow was unrelenting

I bore a hole in the Nunavut springtime
My misery isn’t interesting at all

I bore a hole in the Nunavut springtime
My misery isn’t interesting at all

Overnight cable got the
Beanies and the Christian Rock
And all the puppets there
Are constructed outta socks

Overnight cable got the
Beanies and the Christian Rock
And all the puppets there
Are constructed outta socks

The they and the temperature level
Black trees, his antimatter sneeze
Selected slash of casino ash
Lass in the pedways of Halifax

I bore a hole in the Nunavut springtime
My misery isn’t interesting at all

I bore a hole in the Nunavut springtime
My misery isn’t interesting at all

Overnight cable got the
Beanies and the Christian Rock
And all the puppets there
Are constructed outta socks

Overnight cable got the
Beanies and the Christian Rock
And all the puppets there
Are constructed outta socks

I prepared all last night
To rip the waterfall to shreds
Deemrose Bonnie crossbow humid
Pedway ankh the breeze is in shock

I bore a hole in the Nunavut springtime
My misery isn't interesting at all

I bore a hole in the Nunavut springtime
My misery isn't interesting at all

Overnight cable got the
Beanies and the Christian Rock
And all the puppets there
Are constructed outta socks

Overnight cable got the
Beanies and the Christian Rock
And all the puppets there
Are constructed outta socks

Early in the sheetrock day
My chocolate factory is in no way
Hershey or Wonka but it's quite okay
Its effect keeps my childhood erect

I bore a hole in the Nunavut springtime
My misery isn't interesting at all

I bore a hole in the Nunavut springtime
My misery isn't interesting at all

Overnight cable got the
Beanies and the Christian Rock
And all the puppets there
Are constructed outta socks

Overnight cable got the
Beanies and the Christian Rock
And all the puppets there
Are constructed outta socks

Lyrics:

Down this lonely road I travel
With my pockets filled with dreams
All the mysteries will unravel
Yet they're never what they seem

I need a hand to hold me
I need a hand to help me on my way
Oh yeah
I'm just lookin' for a lover that's never gonna stray
Oh no

All I want is lovin'
All I get is pain
And I can't believe it
No I can't believe it

One after another
Throwing good for bad
I watched another woman with all I had
I should have known better having done it before
Still I'd leave it all just to get a little more

One more shot at nothin'
Must be doing something wrong
Oh no
All your takin' and no givin'
Be easier alone
Yeah

All I want is lovin'
All I get is pain
And I can't believe it
No I can't believe it

All I want is lovin'
All I get is pain
And I can't believe it
No I can't believe it

Lyrics:

From my room I can see
Coyotes on the boulevard
Alone and afraid just like me

Iridescent eyes flash in the headlights
Not understanding these hot L.A. nights

Lost and all is gone
Wanna get back to the place they belong

Running frantic in the big city gloom
With no time for howling at the moon

Nothing here they understand
Nothing here but the dangerous man

A million people with that same terrified gaze
With a million reasons to escape this place

Like coyotes on the boulevard
Like coyotes on the boulevard
Yeah
Show me the way home
Show me the way home

Nothing here they understand
Nothing here but the dangerous man

A million people with that same terrified gaze
With a million reasons to escape this place

Lyrics:

God hates penguins
All penguins must die
He keeps them in the freezing cold
And will not let them fly

Now if you’ve got a poodle
And dress him up in black and white
God thinks that’s just the coolest thing y’all
He thinks they’re outta sight

I don’t know why God hates penguins so much
They’re not mentioned in the Bible
They’ve got nothing against him
They should sue him for libel

Penguins aren’t much good at conversation
Or differential calculus
But they’re smart enough to know when they’re being persecuted
By God and the rest of us

Now if you’ve got a black and white chicken
God thinks that’s really nice
You can fry it, you can bake, you can boil it in a pot
And serve it up with yellow rice

Now if you are a truly good person
You’ll ignore the lord above
And treat a penguin as a friend
All penguins need love

Penguins in love
Penguins in love
Penguins in love
Penguins in love
Penguins in love
Penguins in love

Lyrics:

Will the sun refuse to shine
Will the moon fall from the sky
Will the clouds make some rain
Will the sun come up again
Will my eyes ever see
What the hell's in front of me

With every question
Come my answer
I don't know
I don't know

Will tomorrow come on time
Will I find the keys to life
Will I mend or will I break
Will I find I'm much too late
Will my eyes ever see
What the hell's in front of me

With every question
Comes my answer
I don't know
I don't know
I don't know
I don't know

Will they be okay
Why they act that way
I don't understand
Will you hold my hand

Are you all that way
Will I be okay
What about this man
Can you understand

Willl they be okay

Why they act that way
I don't understand
Will you hold my hand

Are you all that way
Will I be okay
What about this man
Can you understand

Willl they be okay
Why they act that way
I don't understand
Will you hold my hand

With every question
I don't know
Comes my answer
I don't know

With every question
I don't know

Lyrics:

In the middle of the night just outside of Phoenix
There's a little cafe called the El Gato Negro
Thats where we go to dance

Look at the stars up in the sky
So beautiful you want to cry

I can see the moon on the horizon
That's where we go to to dance

The wind blowing in our hair
Drinking whisky whisky and beer
A fire's burning deep inside
That's where we go to dance

In the middle of the night
Just outside of Phoenix
There's a little cafe called the El Gato Negro

That's where we go to dance
That's were fell into the trance
That's where we go to dance
To dance the El Gato Negro

The music's pounding in my head
Loud enough to wake the dead
Too much whisky too much beer
El Gato Negro is what I fear

In the middle of the night
Just outside of Phoenix
There's a little cafe called the El Gato Negro

That's where we go to dance
That's where we all fell into a trance
That's where we go to dance
To dance the El Gato Negro

The music's pounding in my head
Loud enough to wake the dead
Too much whisky too much beer
El Gato Negro is what I fear

Look at the stars up in the sky
So beautiful you want to cry
I can see the moon on the horizon

Lyrics:

I've walked 150 miles walking day and night
Every footstep closer my goal is right at home for me

The war has taken its toll on my soul
'Cause each mile I make I feel a little older

I feel the heat comin' down on me
And I feel my feet givin' out on me
I left those battlefields for my home
I just got to get back home

Alright

It sure was bloody down in New Orleans
A few were lucky but most didn't make it
And all the blood that flowed out in those streets
And all the memories will haunt my dreams back home

I've walked 150 miles walking day and night
Every footstep closer my goal is right at home for me

The war has taken its toll on my soul
'Cause each mile I make I feel a little older

I feel the heat comin' down on me
And I feel my feet goin' out on me
I left those battlefields for my home
I just got to get back home

Lyrics:

Did you ever hear the story, did you ever hear the yarn?
'Bout what?
'Bout Gasoline Gus

He saved up a dollar then he borrowed twenty cents
Then what?
For the Jitney Bus

His coffee mill was made of tin
But tin was made to pack things in
He hung a sign and it read thus
This is Gasoline Gus and his Jitney Bus

Gus, Gus, Gasoline Gus
Gasoline Gus and his Jitney Bus
He packed them on the fenders and he packed them on the hood
He packed them by the dozen and the other dozen stood

From out the heap there came a cry
Hey take that suitcase out of my eye

Gus, Gus, Gasoline Gus
Gasoline Gus and his Jitney Bus

Did I tell you what he purchased, did I tell you what he used?
Who used?
Why Gasoline Gus

He bought a ton of dynamite
He bought a pint of gin
For what?
For his Jitney Bus

It's got a bigger kick than gasoline
Said Gus as he loaded his tin machine
A lady said "don't go too far"
Said Gus "it's not that kind of a car"

Gus, Gus, Gasoline Gus
Gasoline Gus and his Jitney Bus
He turned a dozen somersaults and then he looped the loop
He made a bigger noise than the boarders eating soup

How far he went I quite forget
But according to Hoyle he's not back yet

Gus, Gus, Gasoline Gus
Gasoline Gus and his Jitney Bus

Do you want hear the finish?
Do you want to hear the end?

'Bout what?

'Bout Gasoline Gus

He bumped into old Satan
And he got old Satan's goat
With what?
With his Jitney Bus

Old Satan frowned
Said “Take him out, and let him ride my imp about”
In fifteen minutes, big as life
He was making love to the old boy’s wife

Gus, Gus, Gasoline Gus
Gasoline Gus and his Jitney Bus

They telephoned old Satan that his wifey had eloped
With a funny looking fellow in a funny little boat
Old Satan never turned a hair
He smiled and said “they’re a perfect pair”

Gus, Gus, Gasoline Gus
Gasoline Gus and his Jitney Bus

Lyrics:

With the morning sun blazing in the sky
And the moon is singing bye-bye
I can feel the warmth reaching down from high
And it's burning into my eyes

I feel today will be my day
All things will turn and go my way
I'll find a song to sing and play
If not I'll surely fade away

Don't let me fade...

I'll just hold on
And I'll sing on
And I'll play until I've finally found my place

I feel today will be my day
All things will turn and go my way
Go my way
Go my way
Go my way
Go my way

Well the morning has stretched out into noon
And the colors have faded to blue
I'm still searching for my tune
For a sound that just might carry me through

I feel today will be my day
All things will turn and go my way
I'll find a song to sing and play
If not I'll surely fade away
Fade away
Don't let me fade
Fade away

Don't let me fade away
Don't want to fade away
Fade away
No don't fade away
But I'll just hold on
And I'll sing on
And I'll play until I finally find my way

I feel today will be my day

Lyrics:

They got your motion sickness medication wrong
That new girl that they hired can be spacey and hard-headed Still I don't think you should keep on repeating how the room is spinning There's not a lot that can be done to change the simple fact that

I don't want to see you anymore
(Do you think that I am lying to you)
I don't want to see you anymore
(Do you think that I am lying to you)

Your next-door neighbor's walking papers haven't turned up yet
And so another filibuster with the broken teleprompter
Seems like one more stupid idea that you think will change all the others before it
But no impromptu speech will make a difference
Don't you know that

I don't want to see you anymore
(Do you think that I am lying to you)
I don't want to see you anymore
(Do you think that I am lying to you)

I don't want to see you anymore
(Do you think that I am lying to you)
I don't want to see you anymore
(Do you think that I am lying to you)

I don't want to see you anymore
(Do you think that I am lying to you)
I don't want to see you anymore
(Do you think that I am lying to you)

Lyrics:

I've got friends in the ocean
Who choose to live in the sea
I'll see you when my eyes are in another man
Whose hands are buried in the sand

Have you danced in the fire
Have you quenched your desire

Six feet below the ground
I'll take my leave
I'm moving to the sea

I've got friends in the city
Whose view is a little less blue
They're dryer than a caravan of cinnamon
But their eyes are the deepest shade of blue

Have you danced in the fire
Have you quenched your desire
Six feet below the ground
I'll take my leave
I'm moving to the sea

I've seen palaces that burn for less
Queens that stare into a mess
Take your rod and point it somewhere else
Your whipping boy is becoming a man today
Point your finger and fate will show the way
Fate will show the way

Lyrics:

Winter Lady
With a heart so cold
Never knowing which way she'll blow
She's my lady
Yes she told me so
Just before she dropped three feet of snow

I'll just take my time
Just sit here and unwind
Just let me clear my mind
With all the snow outside

Winter Lady
She's playing her games
She's calling me out by name
She's my lady
Every year it's the same
She keeps searching for fortune and fame

With all the snow outside
I'll just take my time
Just sit and clear my mind
Just let me warm up these hands unlined yeah

Oh here comes the sun

Just let me clear my mind
Just sit here and unwind
I'm gonna take my time
I'm gonna take my time
I'm gonna take my time

Winter Lady
Your time's about done
April's got you on the run
Keeps reminding me of all our fun
Keep on telling me that I'm the one

Winter Lady
Here come's the sun
Winter Lady
Here come's the sun

Your time's about done

Winter Lady
Every year it's the same
She keeps searching for fortune and fame
She's my lady
She told me so
Just before she dropped three feet of snow

I'll just take my time
Just sit here and unwind
Just let me clear my mind
With all the snow outside

Winter Lady
Your time's about done

April's got you on the run
Keeps reminding me of all our fun
Keep on telling me that I'm the one

Winter Lady
Here come's the sun

Winter Lady
Oh here come's the sun

Oh Winter Lady
Here come's the sun

Lyrics:

Us Hound Control, to The Us Hounds below
All aboard for action, we're ready to go!

Welcome to the new world of passenger trains
Choo choo to gardens and plains
yellow volcanoes in the rain
Their goal is no more than to entertain
Yet if passengers are threatened
they will intervene

All that youth in media culture

Is daydream fodder for grandfathers and fathers
Claws named youth and visual jazz
The Weather Channel frail honchos

All that youth in media culture
Is daydream fodder for grandfathers and fathers
Claws named youth and visual jazz
The Weather Channel frail honchos

Welcome to the new world of passenger trains
Choo choo to gardens and plains
yellow volcanoes in the rain
Their goal is no more than to entertain
Yet if passengers are threatened
they will intervene

Myra's on the synthesizer, in The Us Hounds
Enter the milieu, if you please, of The Us Hounds
Hildebad is on electric guitar, and Harla is on acoustic
Trace is on the bass guitar, and Bruckner plays the drums
They're rocking out on the rails of the world, The Us Hounds!

We are awfully proud of spring
And then again
Awfully bored of prance
And then again
Awfully proud of spring
And then again
Awfully bored of prance

song: Steel Drum Ragtime - The Easy Winners (Scott Joplin, 1901) 1:34 [111] A classic ragtime song with a steel drum sound. I came up with the "steel drum ragtime" idea playing around with MIDI files back in the 90s. Somehow, the MIDI steel drum sound seems to work really well with ragtime songs to my ears. This particular song, "The Easy Winners" is really fast in the version I made. On the original sheet music it says "Not Fast"... so maybe I'll make a slower version sometime. But I think this version sounds cool.

ug: onsug.com (11/24/07) 3:09 [111] Frank talks about onsug.com. Topics: Outro to "song: The Us Hounds" and "song: Steel Drum Ragtime - The Easy Winners", Day 2 will begin in a few minutes, websites, TheOvernightscape.com, onsug.com, going back in time 34 years, Wacky Packages, and the intro to "Bad Hole".

Bad Hole (11/25/73) 1:47 [111] Six-year-old Frank with an early "pleasantly insane ramble". Recorded in Bridgewater Township, New Jersey, on November 25, 1973. Topics: Frank at age 6 recording on a tape recorder, John's rant, Julie crying, "I won't turn it off", "big old bad hole", "goodbye now I'll see you in ten minutes", Wacky Packages ("Grass Wax", "Raw Goo", "Choke Wagon", and "Wormy Packages"), the monster story, and Frankenstein. (Tape recorder batteries were probably low, that's why the voices sound sped up.)

ug: Nearing End of Day (11/24/07) 1:55 [111] Frank talks about nearing the end of Day One. Topics: Outro to "Bad Hole", intro to "The Killer Bag".

The Killer Bag (2/11/01) 6:10 [111] Join Frank, Pete, and Nick for some hijinks in a freezing cold mall parking lot. Recorded in the parking lot of the Hackettstown Mall in Hackettstown, NJ on February 11, 2001. This clip is part of "The Motor Excursion Ruffians #1" (3:06:45) which will be included at some point here in The Overnightscape Underground. Topics: Free Internet, rock and roll, CD Frisbee, Bluelight ninja, smashing the CD, "destroy the Internet", prize offer (no longer valid!), no curse words, frostbite, warm up the car, get off the short bus, taking pictures, motor oil, picture of the sun, attack of The Killer Bag, fingers frozen, hanging out with a bunch of shopping carts, Marlboro Milds, and car horn.

ug: End of Day Music (11/24/07) 2:08 [111] Some music to bring us to the end of Day One. Recorded in The Overnightscape Studio on 11/24/07.

The Overnightscape Underground - Day 2 (Spring 2008)

ug: Oldskool Hardcore (4/9/08) 2:15:50 [111] The Overnightscape Underground is back! Frank talks about the hiatus since the end of Day One, and celebrates the new day with some single malt scotch (Macallan Cask Strength) and an energy drink (Jolt Silver). He also plays around with his brand-new synthesizer (XioSynth 25) and checks out some classic techno music. Finally, he introduces the next two tracks ("The Getting To ONS 694" and "The Preshow to ONS 694"). Recorded in The Overnightscape Studio.

The Getting To ONS 694 (3/27/08) 33:37 [111] On March 27, 2008, Frank celebrated the 5th Anniversary of The Overnightscape with a "live show" (in front of a live audience) - The Overnightscape #694. Getting over to the location, however, was quite a challenge - as you'll hear in this recording from New York City!

The Preshow To ONS 694 (3/27/08) 35:11 [111] On March 27, 2008, Frank celebrated the 5th Anniversary of The Overnightscape with a "live show" (in front of a live audience) - The Overnightscape #694. Before he started the main recording, he did a "preshow" with some of the people who were there - as you'll hear in this recording from New York City!

ug: Conspiracy Theories (4/10/08) 33:37 [111] On the streets of NYC, Frank talks about Ron Paul, politics, and conspiracy theories.

Ron Paul Rally in Philadelphia (11/10/07) 1:58:19 [111] Frank and his sister-in-law Carrie (and her friend George) travel down to Philadadelphia to attend a Ron Paul Rally, on November 10, 2007.

ug: More Don West (4/12/08) 27:28 [111] Frank plays some more Don West shopping channel videos, and then talks about the history of video game arcades to introduce the next segment. Recorded in The Overnightscape Studio.

Goodbye Arcade (11/12/07) 1:30:00 [111] Frank visits "Fun N' Games", a venerable video game arcade at the Willowbrook Mall in Wayne, NJ - 12 days before the arcade closed its doors forever. Frank plays a bunch of games and reminisces about his history with this arcade.

ug: Fun Time (4/13/08) 1:08:35 [111] In the middle of the night, Frank talks about old arcade games, NyQuil, drug abuse, Triscuits, time travel, pinball, the long lost "Fun Time" arcade, and a whole lot more. Recorded in The Overnightscape Studio.

The Mini Car Show (9/18/99) 12:26 [111] Frank meets Peter and his friends in the midst of "The Mini Car Show" - a strangely stupid (yet compelling) spontaneous event in the parking lot of the Rockaway Townsquare Mall on September 18, 1999.

These Black Cars (9/18/99) 1:33:56 [111] A complete, unedited cassette recording from September 18, 1999 in New Jersey called "These Black Cars" . Frank gets lost driving over to the Rockaway Townsquare Mall to meet his friend Peter. At the mall, he finds Peter and friends doing a "Mini Car Show". Then they head over to an "Oktoberfest" celebration, which Frank is not too enthusiastic about. Finally, Frank talks about this project "Obliviana" while driving home.

ug: Holly Hobbie (4/13/08) 59:02 [111] Topics: "Glothjyp", napkin dispenser mishap, pasta mishap, Jamba Juice "Strawberry Surf Rider", Holly Hobbie toothpaste, Wolverine toothpaste, beverage review ("Dublin" Dr Pepper (made with Imperial pure cane sugar)), snack review (Chex Mix "Jalapeno Cheddar"), and an introduction to Little Frankie Nora "Welcome To The Weasel Village Mall".

Little Frankie Nora - Welcome to the Weasel Village Mall - Side 1 (1987) 31:30 [111] Cassette of original music created by Frank. Released in 1987 by Cut'n'Shoot Records (a division of Nomadi Entertainment).

“Welcome to the Weasel Village Mall” is a nightmare symphony in 81 movements. It takes the listener from screaming gateways to collapsing structures, from dark conversations to the infinite beyond. Little Frankie Nora combines synthesizers, television sets, things stolen from work, sundry metal objects, old recordings, and other obscure and unpopular devices to create the disruptive sound that is his trademark. Both upsetting and calming, humorous and horrible, “Welcome to the Weasel Village Mall” is definitely a unique experience for anyone.

The Rampler – 2008

Frank experiments with a new, simpler way of recording, on the streets of NYC , and The Rampler is born! This offshoot of The Overnightscape quickly takes on a life of its own. Soon, the show getting inextricably entangled in the whole "Andy Kaufman Lives" phenomenon... leading to the infamous "Andy Kaufman Press Conference".

The Rampler #1 (8/14/08) 18:15 [113] Testing audio, Beta version for this new project, Overnightscape raw feed, streamlined version of the overnightscape with no descriptions and no post-production, getting to a lot of topics, making it easier to release shows, test of the system, Burritoville, name of this project, Overnightscape Raw Feed, Overnightscape Feed, Do one thing and do it well, getting stuff in the overnightscape underground, getting new stuff out there, minimal descriptions. Overnightscape stripped. This episode is pretty much Frank planning and plotting this "stripped down" version of Overnightscape, testing and describing his equipment and methods.

The Rampler #2 (8/14/08) 11:32 [113] Much like the first episode, this is primordial, preperatory verbal goo, a continued "warm up" for the actual upcoming series. Basically, this is Frank, searching for that Rampler Groove.

The Rampler #3 (8/14/08) 41:56 [113] Our Man, Nora, continues to settle into the looser format. He reviews the two previous "test" shows as he wanders through a post-thunderstorm Times Square. He announces the decision to name this series "The Rampler" with lengthy exposition on the thought process, coincidences that led to this decision. Decides 20-90 is the ideal new setting. Has put an old, "retro" logo on the Overnightscape site. A crazy hassidic says "Leaves Without Aphids(?)". Frank uses his cigar holder to visit Sam Ash and play synthesizors and the Hershey Store. He, as he often ponders, wonders if he should just do one program and call it all The Overnightscape. Motor Excursion Ruffians.

The Rampler #4 (8/15/08) 37:41 [113] Beta 4 begins at the Port Authority and Frank launches with a review of the previous experiments and re-reviews the overall Rampler Concept. <missed some in here> Discusses Robert Moog's name and the "mooooooog/moag" pronounciation. Talks about how 2005 was the "Year of the Podcast", bemoans that despite his true pioneerdom and dilligence he has never fit into the clique of "popular podcasters". Another reason for the Rampler is that he may be spending too much home/quality family time with the podcast instead of the Mrs. How Rampler will let him riff and cover topics that wind up unused on The Overnightscape.

The Rampler #5 (8/15/08) 27:23 [113] A lunchbreak episode. Frank has registered the rampler.com domain name and finally seems settled that this will be the name of these programs. Mentions Walter Becker's new solo lp. Doesn't like Circus Money at all. Elite Foodbar is considered. Steely Dan talk for the uninformed. Crazy woman, who is behaving more normal than usual. Deli sounds. Sees a white guy and an Asian girl making out that initially look like mannequins. Sounds like "Slingblade" when he says "doggys". Describes and takes over spot by East River for lunch, reviews Aloe Vera King drink and stops to eat.

The Rampler #6 (8/15/08) 26:23 [113] Finishing his lunch, Frank resumes recording. Discusses the use of helicopters as transit, ponders what it would take to bring the craft into more common use. Commuting, transportation and the tram. Has cigar to smoke, after all. Launches into a lengthy critiquer of the latter Star Wars era, especially pointing at Jar Jar Binks as emblematic to the issue. Finishes show by suggesting that, since he wasn't going to do show notes for Rampler episodes, doing a wiki where listeners might.

The Rampler #7 (8/15/08) 34:15 [113] Frank walks around Midtown Manhattan talking about a wide variety of topics. In the rain...

The Rampler #8 (8/18/08) 37:08 [113] Kooky pens[1], comments on The Rampler,movie reviews, Hellboy 2, The Dark Knight review, Heath Ledger, X-Files, Star wars - Clone wars.42nd Street strange lighting.NYC Mounted Police - crowd control, being trampled.Cold war is back,ONS episode 731 and nuclear weapons conspiracy. The Rampler – 2009

Hosted by Frank Edward Nora

The Rampler is on the rise in 2009, as Frank starts getting involved with WFMU. In June, The Rampler takes over as Frank's main show and he starts broadcasting a version of the show on WFMU. Then… the show on WFMU gets canceled, and The Rampler is put to rest. It was a short but wild ride, and an important stepping stone to what Onsug would become.

The Rampler Special: 4 Weasels (5/2/09) 4:39:27 [211]* Frank meets Peter in Basking Ridge, NJ and sees his new car for the first time. They go to Edison, NJ so that Peter can play a part in a movie by Lordi Films. Then they drive to Devon, Pennsylvania, to meet up with Bryan and Shayne. On the drive, Frank plays with Peter's XM Radio. They review some "Pepsi Throwback", play some "The Lord of the Rings", go to an Indian and a Japanese restaurant, Bryan talks about hypnosis, Peter talks about Teen Challenge, and then Frank and Peter get a little lost on the drive back, even with a GPS system. And of course, a whole lot more stuff happens in-between the stuff mentioned here. cross-listed in The Rampler and The Weasels

The Rampler Special: Alan Abel Interview (5/9/09) 1:20:19 [201]* Frank interviews legendary professional hoaxer Alan Abel. cross-listed in The Rampler and Overnightscape Departures

The Rampler Special: Andy's Message (5/16/09) 4:46:00 [201]* May 16, 2009 is the 25th anniversary of the supposed death of Andy Kaufman. The website AndyKaufmanLives.com had been promising a special message for this day, so I got set up to record my reactions to it in real time. One thing I had been intending to do for awhile was sit out on the porch and smoke pipes. Also, having seen some recent web broadcasts from BradmanTV on USTREAM, I figured I would try it out myself, though I just had a kind of crappy webcam on my Acer Aspire One netbook. ¶ In the end, I would up broadcasting for nearly 5 hours! It was a heck of a lot of fun. I smoked pipes and drank some "Black & White" Scotch on the porch, and we got Andy's "fuck you" message, and a lot of the people were watching and in the chatroom. ¶ My battery ran out and I went inside and continued the show in The Overnightscape Studio, eventually drinking some absinthe and putting on a puppet show!! Also, showing some video of Andy Kaufman on Fridays with weird video feedback sounds... a whole lot of stuff. Most of it was recorded on video (see below)... ¶ It was a very fun experience! I hope to do it again, hopefully with a better webcam... ¶ From an audio perspective, this piece may be a bit difficult at times - long pauses and such - since so much was going on - but there is good stuff up till the very end, so stick with it! cross-listed in The Rampler and Overnightscape Departures

The Rampler Special: West Belt Mall (7/5/09) 2:38:38 [211]* Frank and Peter in New Jersey in the afternoon... Monster Mini Golf in Fairfield, air hockey, Monster Bash pinball, business school, Goodwill, The Brecker Brothers cassette "Straphangin'", movie theater, Bahama Breeze, the demolished Wayne Towne Center mall (formerly West Belt Mall), JC Penney, cereal lip balm, The Olive Garden, going to see the new Woody Allen movie "Whattever Works", and the drive home. cross-listed in The Rampler and The Weasels

Remember The Rampler (2008-2009) 15:00 [202]

The Rampler. August 14, 2008 to October 10, 2009. 422 days. (March 13, 2009 is the midpoint, 211 days in.)

Remembering "The Rampler" with the first, middle, and last 5 minute segments of the show... The first 5 minutes of "The Rampler #1" from August 14, 2008. The middle 5 minutes of The Rampler recordings from March 13, 2009 (from "The Rampler #233"). And the last 5 minutes of "The Rampler on WFMU - Episode 16 - Night in Motion" from October 10, 2009.

In 2008, after 5 years of doing The Overnightscape, I was looking for a new method of doing the show that would take less time and effort. This experiment in field recording became "The Rampler", and it was such a different experience, I took it in a whole new direction. It very quickly grew in popularity, largely due to my involvement in the "Andy Kaufman Lives" phenomenon. This led to an opportunity to bring the show to a real radio station - WFMU. But as 2009 wore on, the show's popularity (at least as I perceived it) diminished, and the pressures of being on the "real" radio took away some of the spirit of spontaneity that the show had in its early months. And then... WFMU canceled the show. A little over a year after it had begun, The Rampler was finished.

I chose to continue my Internet radio recordings here on "The Overnightscape Underground" (which has been going great), and drop "The Rampler" name. While it is a good name, and I had a blast doing it, the name "The Rampler" is associated with energy and vibes that I would rather put behind me.

But what a wild ride it was!! This 15-minute audio piece is a brief encapsulation of the whole experience... but it's all available for you to listen to...

The Frank Nora Show – 2008

Hosted by Frank Edward Nora

In November 2008, Frank ended the "Days" system of The Overnightscape Underground ("Onsug" for short), and switched to a monthly system. This included "ug" tracks which were the hosting level of the system - the format that would eventually turn into "The Frank Nora Show". Collected here are the four "ug" tracks from November 2008. Frank was also doing The Overnightscape and The Rampler on Onsug at this time.

ug: Night Coffee Black (11/1/08) 55:07 [119] Introduction to the new Monthly System of The Overnightscape Underground, the history of The Overnightscape, Japanese beverage review ("Iwaizumi Ryusendo Coffee Black"), and the intro to "The Overnightscape - Beta #1", "The Overnightscape - Beta #2", and "The Rampler #101".

ug: River Monster (11/16/08) 1:00:00 [119] Overview of The Overnightscape Underground - November 2008 so far, beer review ("Young's Luxury Double Chocolate Stout"), hairball, Frank's radio history, The Andy Kaufman Press Conference, upcoming tracks ("The Inramble Audio", "The Story of a Stuffed Elephant"), the nature of dreams, aspects of dreamland, lucid dreaming, religion, dream review ("River Monster", "Waiter Bells"), the mellow underground, and Bamboo Tornado.

ug: Port/Pinchot (11/28/08) 3:45:24 [119] Have a ramshackle "Breakfast With Frank" as he explores such topics as the lost world of video game arcades, the fleeting nature of hotness, TV variety shows, Barbara Mandrell, Bronson Pinchot, and much, much more...

ug: Fever Dreaming (11/29-30/08) 31:25 [119] Frank gets hit with a nasty stomach flu and endures bizarre fever dreams... and then introduces the three songs that will end November 2008 on The Overnightscape Underground...

2009 was a very chaotic year for Onsug. Frank was doing The Overnightscape, The Rampler, The Rampler on WFMU, and also running The Overnightscape Underground ("Onsug" for short). It's all too much, and by September, Frank cancels The Overnightscape and the Rampler, and then The Rampler on WFMU is cancelled, so all that's left is The Overnightscape Underground. Frank uses the "ug" hosting level tracks as his new main outlet. In October, he takes some time off with a "radio vacation", to try and figure out how to move foward. When Frank returns in November, we continues with a "show with no name" on The Overnightscape Underground as his main show. And then something amazing happens - other hosts start joining Onsug with their own shows, forming a new network... as Onsug as we know it was born...

ug: Swing Night (8/27/09) 2:07:54 [119] The resurgence of The Overnightscape Underground! Frank revives the "meta-level" of ONSUG, and goes to the Nutley Swing Night 2009 street festival, celebrating with some Barilla Pastina, Staroplzenecky Absinthe, Starbucks Espresso, and Nat Sherman 509 Blend pipe tobacco. Later, on the porch, Frank puffs on his pipe and muses on the past and future. ¶ Caricature by VG Myers

Nightstation Classic

2011-2012
Hosts: Frank Edward Nora, PQ Ribber, Shambles Constant, Chad Bowers, Eddie Murray

Nightstation began as an experiment in Internet radio, with the idea of creating "virtual live" broadcasts. Each "patch" was around 8 hours long, and played on a streaming station. While the project didn't last long, the ideas did live on, influencing many later Onsug shows.

Nightstation with Eddie 1: Sphynx (2/14/12) 2:00:05 [253]

Eddie sent this in on the same day I decided to end the Nightstation experiment (for the time being). He did this show in the "phase 2" style I established last week in "Swank". So this will be the last Nightstation patch, for a while at least.

Nightstation with Frank: Southbound (3/11/12) 2:47:29 [253]

This is a test recording to introduce a new idea I've been thinking about for Nightstation.

Nightstation Flashback: Gasohol Segment 4 (12/1/11) 1:32:26 [253]

I've been listening to old Nightstation segments and I came across this one from the Gasohol patch, and I really enjoyed it. I figured I would release it here for everyone to check out. This is the first time it's been released in "hifi" audio. Topics include De La Soul, Stereolab, The Word, Katie Puckrik, Perfect Gambler, and The Jim Henson Hour Pitch Tape.

I'm still thinking about Nightstation. It had a number of aspects that worked, both also a lot that didn't work. I still may bring it back someday in a new form.

Nightstation Flashback Plus: Queens Malls (12/30/11) (8/31/12) 1:49:31 [253]

These are two recordings that stand out in my mind, where I ventured out to malls in Queens and made special recordings. The first one was for the Nightstation patch Coaxial, and the second one was for "Basic Overnightscape". I've collected them here so that they are easier to listen to.

On both recordings I talk about new ideas - Nightstation in the first one and Ramplers in the second one. Both ideas are related, and I've had to go back to the drawing board on both of them. I'm still working on these kind of ideas, and I'm hopeful that some variant will be useful when the time is right... but in any case, it's therapeutic for me to revisit these recordings...

Overnightscape Departures

Enjoy a wild variety of alternate recordings with the host of The Overnightscape, Frank Edward Nora. First, explore the Outer Boroughs of NYC with Roel from The Netherlands and Manny the Mailman. Then go with Frank to the Podcast Expo in California. And of you dare, enter the annoying yet fascinating world of "Andy Kaufman Lives". The Inramble Audio is the complete sound from a video series that never took off. The Severe Repair Universe is an incomplete reading of Frank's sci-fi novel. Many dreams are reviewed in The Dream Review. In The Box is a show designed to be listened to in an earlier incarnation of the Onsug archive called OnsugBox. Plus, a vast array of assorted audio features.

Overnightscape Adventures

2012-2013
Hosted by Frank Edward Nora

The Overnightscape Adventures happen when Roel from the Netherlands visits the New York area, and get together with Frank and Manny the Mailman to go on amazing journeys. Many of these are recorded as part of Frank's main show, The Overnightscape, but some have been released on their own. These are what you will find in this section.

Special Report: The Andy Kaufman Situation - with Brandon from Canada (11/18/08) 1:30:00 [201]
In this Special Report, Frank talks on the phone to Brandon from Canada (also known as AGKMNII) about the aftermath and reaction to "The Andy Kaufman Press Conference", and the history of this whole "Andy Kaufman Lives" phenomenon. Brandon talks about his Facebook group "The Stephan Maddox/Andy Kaufman Revolt", and his hopes for the future in this matter.

Special Report 2: The Andy Kaufman Situation - with Susan, Brandon, Abi, and Yannick (11/28/08) 1:15:17 [201]
In this Special Report, Frank talks about the "Andy Kaufman Lives" phenomenon with an international group: Susan from Texas (Spooky), Brandon from Canada (AGKMNII), Abi from England (me), and Yannick from The Netherlands (YannickJoker). Topics include the origins of the phenomenon, how long each person has been involved, the "The Andy Kaufman Press Conference", and the current situation. Susan and Brandon discuss the group they have started called AMLA (Against Maddox for the Love of Andy), as well as their upcoming "Delete Party".

Special Report 3: The Andy Kaufman Situation - with Andrea, Nikki, Susan, Brandon, Curt and Zak (12/7/08) 2:34:34 [201]
In this Special Report, Frank talks about the "Andy Kaufman Lives" phenomenon with the former "Andy's Angels" - Nikki from Utah (darlingnikki84), Susan from Texas (Spooky), and Andrea from Croatia (Hyperkinetic)... as well as Brandon from Canada (AGKMNII), Curt from North Hollywood (DrAgotch), and Zak from Maryland (JiveCrackerZak).

The Rampler Special: Andy's Message (5/16/09) 4:46:00 [201]* May 16, 2009 is the 25th anniversary of the supposed death of Andy Kaufman. The website AndyKaufmanLives.com had been promising a special message for this day, so I got set up to record my reactions to it in real time. One thing I had been intending to do for awhile was sit out on the porch and smoke pipes. Also, having seen some recent web broadcasts from BradmanTV on USTREAM, I figured I would try it out myself, though I just had a kind of crappy webcam on my Acer Aspire One netbook. ¶ In the end, I would up broadcasting for nearly 5 hours! It was a heck of a lot of fun. I smoked pipes and drank some "Black & White" Scotch on the porch, and we got Andy's "fuck you" message, and a lot of the people were watching and in the chatroom. ¶ My battery ran out and I went inside and continued the show in The Overnightscape Studio, eventually drinking some absinthe and putting on a puppet show!! Also, showing some video of Andy Kaufman on Fridays with weird video feedback sounds... a whole lot of stuff. Most of it was recorded on video (see below)... ¶ It was a very fun experience! I hope to do it again, hopefully with a better webcam... ¶ From an audio perspective, this piece may be a bit difficult at times - long pauses and such - since so much was going on - but there is good stuff up till the very end, so stick with it! cross-listed in The Rampler and Overnightscape Departures
