The Overnightscape Handbook
by Frank Nora

June 16, 2011 - Welcome to The Overnightscape Handbook!

This books lists all of the audio recordings in The Overnightscape system.

Return of The Overnightscape

After two years, The Overnightscape is back. In that time, I kept doing essentially the same show - but under a variety of different names: The Rampler, The Rampler on WFMU, The Frank Nora Show, etc.

The Overnightscape began in March 2003 - long before the dawn of "podcasting". When podcasting took off in October 2004, I jumped aboard, and it was an intoxicating ride.

I started doing the show daily in January 2005. That year, podcasting was hot, and I thought I had finally made it. Listenership was increasing, and the Podcast Expo in California later that year was very exciting.

However, the whole podcasting phenomenon cooled off in 2006 - especially for independent podcasters like myself. The Podcast Expo a year later in 2006 was quite depressing for me, and I stopped the daily format of The Overnightscape, returning to a weekly format.

In early 2007, I set forth on a new project - ABM Show, with my old college buddy Mad Mike. Unfortunately, this project collapsed after a few months. I kept doing The Overnightscape, but with less of a sense of direction.

In December 2007, I started The Overnightscape Underground, to explore new vistas of Internet night radio. This was the first of many splits which eventually led to the end of the show called The Overnightscape.

In August 2008, I was experimenting with recording on the street of NYC, on my commute into work. While this could have simply been a new format for The Overnightscape, I decided to give it a new name – The Rampler.

The Rampler took off almost immediately, and the show became intertwined with an online phenomenon called Andy Kaufman Lives. Through this connection, I was contacted by a prestigious “freeform” radio station called WFMU. Starting in early 2009, I began doing some shows on WFMU, and by the Summer, I was on the schedule, with The Rampler on WFMU.

It was another exciting time, and I thought that this time my “radio career” was going to take off. By early September 2009, I decided I should put an end to The Overnightscape and The Rampler, in order to focus on The Rampler on WFMU. Unfortunately, after 16 weeks, WFMU cancelled my show.

I was still doing my “ug” show on The Overnightscape Underground – but in October 2009 I took a “radio vacation” and really thought about quitting the whole thing. After all the effort, after all the highs and lows, I felt I was nowhere again.

But, I came back in November 2009 and continued doing the “ug” show on The Overnightscape Underground. In retrospect, I should have just brought The Overnightscape back then – but I was still reeling from all the chaos.

Then, something amazing happened – many of the people who had been listening to my shows decided to start doing shows of their own, and I put these shows on The Overnightscape Underground.

As 2010 dawned, a new phenomenon was growing. I had inspired a number of people to try out this monologue “night radio” format – and I was running a cool little Internet radio experiment. I thought that with all these new people involved, with all the people they knew, and with all the collective effort that could be put into it, that The Overnightscape Underground was destined to grow into something very cool.

I changed the name of my show to The Frank Nora show, and the whole thing grew by leaps and bounds in April 2010. It was another very exciting time.

But, as 2010 wore on, once again it became clear that things were cooling. By the Fall of 2010, I was struggling to find new ways to structure things so that we could warm things up again. I had tons of different ideas, but none of them seemed right.

In recent months, I started feeling burnt out again, and The Overnightscape Underground began to really cool down. A few weeks ago, I decided to switch to a weekly format, and changed The Frank Nora Show to The Rampler Weekly.

I did three episodes of The Rampler Weekly – but then it came to me – I should just return to the original – I should bring back The Overnightscape.

Looking back on things, I had six years of The Overnightscape, and then two years of confusing (yet also wonderful) chaos. So in returning back to the main show, I am bringing to it a wealth of experience from those two crazy years.

The new format for The Overnightscape is a little different from the old show. I’ll be doing a new show each week or so – and I’m thinking each show will average about four hours. But instead of releasing each episode in one chunk, I’m going to release it in individual segments.

The first new show, number 782, has eight separate segments, and totals about 4.5 hours. Each show will be mainly my usual monologue format, but then later in the show things will shift to more of an audio exploration - with lots of music, old recordings, weirdness, and whatever else I feel like doing.

The show will be released as segments here on TheOvernightscape.com. The full shows will also be available for download here.

The Overnightscape Underground - at onsug.com - will continue, but I will not be posting The Overnightscape there, since it doesn't make sense to double-post the show.

However, I will continue doing segments on Overnightscape Central on onsug.com - and I expect that The Overnightscape Underground will continue to grow and evolve with the many talented people doing shows on there.

So what does the future hold? I really don't know - but I still love doing The Overnightscape, and I hope that with this reorientation things can continue to move forward in a bit of a more stable way.

The Internet and culture as a whole is going through ever more changes all the time. I hope that The Overnightscape and The Overnightscape Underground can grow and take their place in the vast and evolving landscapes that are developing.

What does "Attribute this work" mean?

The page you came from contained embedded licensing metadata, including how the creator wishes to be attributed for re-use. You can use the HTML here to cite the work. Doing so will also include metadata on your page so that others can find the original work as well.

No Derivative Works – You may not alter, transform, or build upon this work.

This license is the most restrictive one that Creative Commons offers. But there is a reason for it.

The noncommercial restriction is easy to understand - not wanting others to exploit our work for financial gain.

In terms of the "no derivatives work" restriction - the idea here is that because of the nature of our shows, at times short clips of copyrighted material may be heard, which is considered to be fair use in context. However, were someone to isolate these clips, they could be recontextualized and not be fair use anymore.

These restrictions apply to what you can do without getting any further permission. Any of these conditions can be waived with the permission of the show creator.

20.01 [0671] ug: The Start (11/11/07) 41:23

It's the start of The Overnightscape Underground! Frank talks about how the project came into being and where it is headed. Recorded in The Overnightscape Studio on 11/11/07. Note: "ug" stands for "Underground". It is the way I describe the tracks where I am hosting The Overnightscape Underground, between all the other kinds of content. Topics: The start of The Overnightscape Underground!, the "secret project", background information, The Overnightscape, deep content, old time radio, Laurie Anderson's "United States", episodes, Station Unlimited, Weekend Showcase, Bluffcosm.com, wider range of audio content, organizing by days, an audio world you can explore, the formats of the project, BitTorrent, 24-hour MP3 file, the kind of content coming up on The Overnightscape Underground, taking advantage of the technology of today, The Overnightscape hi-fi archive, Creative Commons licenses, onsug.com, a new view on copyrights, people in the future, music, Fuzzy Daupner, audio cassettes, video tapes, online video, creative passion, field recordings, open source audio and video, movie time, the world of The Overnightscape, new audio field trips, Severe Repair audiobook, the defunct website MyVirtualBand.com, and the intro for the song "My Straw Hat - Mix 3".

20.02 [0672] song: My Straw Hat - Mix 3 (from MyVirtualBand.com, 2005) 3:29

Cool rock song released on now-defunct music collaboration website MyVirtualBand.com on 7/18/05.

MyVirtualBand.com was a website that began in late 2004 and closed in early 2007. On the site, musicians collaborated to create songs by uploading and downloading audio tracks. All the audio tracks on the site were released under the Creative Commons Attribution 2.0 license, which means that you can do pretty much what you want with the audio as long as you give credit to those who created it. There were 113 "featured songs" on the site, and a much greater number of songs "in progress". Even though the site has shut down, the music from the site is still under the same license - which allows the songs to be re-released here in The Overnightscape Underground!

"My Straw Hat - Mix 3" is an alternate mix of "My Straw Hat" (featured song #59, released 10/5/05). I feel this mix is superior to the mix that was in the featured release. It is a great song and I am very happy to play it here at the start of The Overnightscape Underground! The lyrics are very appropriate... "heading out on the highway", just like I am heading off on the "road" of The Overnightscape Underground...

Lyrics:

Good mornin' highway, it's such a good day
We're goin' somewhere, where we can hear 'em play
You're gonna have to trace this line, to know what's on our minds
Just shufflin' down this road

We got our straw hats on our heads, yeah
We've got an itchin' for the road
To travel places far away
Come on now, let's go

Hey

Good mornin' highway, it's such a good day
We're goin' somewhere, where we can hear 'em play

I've got the feelin' that's got me wheelin'
On down that dusty road
On down that road
It's got me wheelin' on down that road

I got my straw hat on today
Ain't got no work it's time to play
I'm gonna head out on that highway
To travel places far away

Whoo

20.06 [0676] ug: About Fuzzy Daupner (11/16/07) 14:07

Frank talks about the history of the band “Fuzzy Daupner”. Topics: Outro to “Coffee House Rendezvous”, Chevy Chase, audio pieces you can listen to over and over again, history of the band “Fuzzy Daupner”, monster party idea for The Overnightscape #666, Blue Oyster Cult, and intro to “Sliding Gardens”. Links: Carrie - carrieengdahl.com / Rob - paunchstevenson.com

20.07 [0677] song: Sliding Gardens (by Fuzzy Daupner, 2001) 4:56

A song about a future world by Fuzzy Daupner, a band from Belleville, NJ that existed from 1998 to 2001.

Credits: Carrie Engdahl: Music, Vocals, Acoustic Guitar. Rob DiCaterino: Drums, Electric Guitar, Recording, Mixing. Phil Mould: Bass Guitar. Frank Edward Nora: Lyrics. Produced by Fuzzy Daupner (Carrie Engdahl, Rob DiCaterino, Phil Mould, Denice Nora, and Frank Edward Nora). From the album “Naked Exit Friend”, released March 2001.

Lyrics:

And can I say we are
Crazy crossing a rocky stream
Kissing hills and air and dreams

Coltishly beaucoup in our mysteries

Bathing cool in a stimulating rio
Tiki and arctic phase at Nanticoko
Singing folk space rock at the top of our lungs
Winding down in the wow fluff of the treetops

We can walk together
Under the moon or whatever
And our nasty predawn jive
Will even make the scorpions cry

We can walk together
Under the moon or whatever
And our nasty predawn jive
Will even make the scorpions cry

Humpback dude with jackdaw steed
Whale and bird on a new kind of trip
Motors, lights and audio delights
Rubber bands are pumping energy

The treasure of me is stalking away
At the whining dusk of day
Your mental aggression craft is called Attack-type dog

We can walk together
Under the moon or whatever
And our nasty predawn jive
Will even make the scorpions cry

We can walk together
Under the moon or whatever
And our nasty predawn jive
Will even make the scorpions cry

Above the primly introspective waste
The Rover is the tune
As we skydive in new wave ruins
She make weird animal dolls

Pogs were not a lasting trend
The new age it just came and went
The humans we're all stuck in are
The leftovers of an obvious recall

We can walk together

Under the moon or whatever
And our nasty predawn jive
Will even make the scorpions cry

We can walk together
Under the moon or whatever
And our nasty predawn jive
Will even make the scorpions cry

20.08 [0678] ug: About Place Sounds (11/17/07) 7:11

Frank talks about the "Place Sounds" idea. Topics: Outro to "Sliding Gardens", music disappearing, metadata, feeling the way forward, the idea of "Place Sounds", ambient soundscapes, Place Sounds in Grand Central, Station Unlimited, Chef Mark, and the intro to "Audio Street Fair Blues".

20.09 [0679] Place Sounds: Audio Street Fair Blues (6/11/07) 20:05

Ambient audio of a street fair in Times Square, NYC. Recorded in Times Square, NYC on 6/11/07. Originally released on StationUnlimited.com (release #74, June 19, 2007). On Monday, June 11, 2007 I was walking through Times Square in NYC and I saw a street fair called "Taste of Times Square". I went for 2 blocks on 46th St. from Times Square to 9th Ave. I walked the full length of it and realized it would make a great "Place Sounds" piece (a recording of an audio environment). So I started recording and heading back through the fair.

Unfortunately, things didn't work out like I planned. First of all a lot of the musicians I had seen on the first walk thru were taking their breaks. Then it started to rain... lightly at first and then it turned into a real downpour. And then I realized I had pressed pause by accident and lost a lot of the stuff I was recording.

This piece is the final result - the first in the "Place Sounds" series. I look forward to recording more "Place Sounds" in the future - it is certainly a different kind of audio content than what people are used to, but in the right frame of mind such stuff can be very enjoyable and intriguing to listen to.

Topics: Intro, Tony and Tina's Wedding, song "Celebration", world music style singer, Chef Mark, blues band, latin music band, guitar player, police radio, whistle, radio station playing an ad, car horns, bluegrass band, "that'll be perfect", Frank sees the recorder was paused, description of what happened, the remaining audio walking in the rain, radio station playing song, drumming, world music, doo wop singers, and the conclusion.

Lyrics:

Early in the concrete cement
Sheet metal whatever center
The seeping enterprise washing
I wish this snow was unrelenting

I bore a hole in the Nunavut springtime
My misery isn’t interesting at all

I bore a hole in the Nunavut springtime
My misery isn’t interesting at all

Overnight cable got the
Beanies and the Christian Rock
And all the puppets there

Are constructed outta socks

Overnight cable got the
Beanies and the Christian Rock
And all the puppets there
Are constructed outta socks

The they and the temperature level
Black trees, his antimatter sneeze
Selected slash of casino ash
Lass in the pedways of Halifax

I bore a hole in the Nunavut springtime
My misery isn't interesting at all

I bore a hole in the Nunavut springtime
My misery isn't interesting at all

Overnight cable got the
Beanies and the Christian Rock
And all the puppets there
Are constructed outta socks

Overnight cable got the
Beanies and the Christian Rock
And all the puppets there
Are constructed outta socks

I prepared all last night
To rip the waterfall to shreds
Deemrose Bonnie crossbow humid
Pedway ankh the breeze is in shock

I bore a hole in the Nunavut springtime
My misery isn't interesting at all

I bore a hole in the Nunavut springtime
My misery isn't interesting at all

Overnight cable got the
Beanies and the Christian Rock
And all the puppets there
Are constructed outta socks

Overnight cable got the
Beanies and the Christian Rock
And all the puppets there
Are constructed outta socks

Early in the sheetrock day
My chocolate factory is in no way
Hershey or Wonka but it's quite okay
Its effect keeps my childhood erect

I bore a hole in the Nunavut springtime
My misery isn't interesting at all

I bore a hole in the Nunavut springtime
My misery isn't interesting at all

Overnight cable got the
Beanies and the Christian Rock
And all the puppets there
Are constructed outta socks

Overnight cable got the
Beanies and the Christian Rock
And all the puppets there
Are constructed outta socks

Cool rock song released on now-defunct music collaboration website MyVirtualBand.com on 6/18/05.

MyVirtualBand.com was a website that began in late 2004 and closed in early 2007. On the site, musicians collaborated to create songs by uploading and downloading audio tracks. All the audio tracks on the site were released under the Creative Commons Attribution 2.0 license, which means that you can do pretty much what you want with the audio as long as you give credit to those who created it. There were 113 "featured songs" on the site, and a much greater number of songs "in progress". Even though the site has shut down, the music from the site is still under the same license - which allows the songs to be re-released here in The Overnightscape Underground!

Lyrics:

Down this lonely road I travel
With my pockets filled with dreams
All the mysteries will unravel
Yet they're never what they seem

I need a hand to hold me
I need a hand to help me on my way
Oh yeah
I'm just lookin' for a lover that's never gonna stray
Oh no

All I want is lovin'
All I get is pain
And I can't believe it
No I can't believe it

One after another
Throwing good for bad
I watched another woman with all I had
I should have known better having done it before

Still I'd leave it all just to get a little more

One more shot at nothin'
Must be doing something wrong
All your takin' and no givin'
Be easier alone
Yeah

All I want is lovin'
All I get is pain
And I can't believe it
No I can't believe it

All I want is lovin'
All I get is pain
And I can't believe it
No I can't believe it

Lyrics:

From my room I can see Coyotes on the boulevard
Alone and afraid just like me

Iridescent eyes flash in the headlights
Not understanding these hot L.A. nights

Lost and all is gone
Wanna get back to the place they belong

Running frantic in the big city gloom
With no time for howling at the moon

Nothing here they understand
Nothing here but the dangerous man

A million people with that same terrified gaze
With a million reasons to escape this place

Like coyotes on the boulevard
Like coyotes on the boulevard
Yeah
Show me the way home

With a million reasons to escape this place

Lyrics:

God hates penguins
All penguins must die
He keeps them in the freezing cold
And will not let them fly

Now if you've got a poodle
And dress him up in black and white
God thinks that's just the coolest thing y'all
He thinks they're outta sight

I don't know why God hates penguins so much
They're not mentioned in the Bible
They've got nothing against him
They should sue him for libel

Penguins aren't much good at conversation
Or differential calculus
But they're smart enough to know when they're being persecuted
By God and the rest of us

Now if you've got a black and white chicken
God thinks that's really nice
You can fry it, you can bake, you can boil it in a pot
And serve it up with yellow rice

Now if you are a truly good person
You'll ignore the lord above
And treat a penguin as a friend
All penguins need love

Penguins in love
Penguins in love
Penguins in love
Penguins in love
Penguins in love
Penguins in love

Lyrics:

Will the sun refuse to shine
Will the moon fall from the sky
Will the clouds make some rain
Will the sun come up again
Will my eyes ever see
What the hell's in front of me

With every question
Come my answer
I don't know
I don't know

Will tomorrow come on time
Will I find the keys to life
Will I mend or will I break
Will I find I'm much too late
Will my eyes ever see
What the hell's in front of me

With every question
Comes my answer
I don't know
I don't know
I don't know
I don't know

Will they be okay
Why they act that way
I don't understand
Will you hold my hand

Are you all that way
Will I be okay
What about this man
Can you understand

Willl they be okay
Why they act that way
I don't understand
Will you hold my hand

Are you all that way
Will I be okay
What about this man
Can you understand

Willl they be okay
Why they act that way
I don't understand
Will you hold my hand

I don't know
Comes my answer
I don't know

With every question
I don't know

Lyrics:

In the middle of the night just outside of Phoenix

There's a little cafe called the El Gato Negro
That's where we go to dance

Look at the stars up in the sky
So beautiful you want to cry
I can see the moon on the horizon
That's where we go to dance

The wind blowing in our hair
Drinking whisky whisky and beer
A fire's burning deep inside
That's where we go to dance

In the middle of the night
Just outside of Phoenix
There's a little cafe called the El Gato Negro

That's where we go to dance
That's where we fell into the trance
That's where we go to dance
To dance the El Gato Negro

The music's pounding in my head
Loud enough to wake the dead
Too much whisky too much beer
El Gato Negro is what I fear

In the middle of the night
There's a little cafe called the El Gato Negro

That's where we go to dance
That's where we all fell into a trance
That's where we go to dance
To dance the El Gato Negro

The music's pounding in my head
Loud enough to wake the dead
Too much whisky too much beer

Look at the stars up in the sky
So beautiful you want to cry
I can see the moon on the horizon
It's where we go to dance

The wind blowing in our hair
Drinking whisky whisky and beer

A fire burns deep inside
That's where we go to dance

In the middle of the night
There's a little cafe called the El Gato Negro

That's where we go to dance
That's where we all fell into the trance
That's where we go to dance
That's where we go to dance

Lyrics:

I've walked 150 miles walking day and night
Every footstep closer my goal is right at home for me

The war has taken its toll on my soul
'Cause each mile I make I feel a little older

I feel the heat comin' down on me
And I feel my feet givin' out on me
I left those battlefields for my home
I just got to get back home

Alright

It sure was bloody down in New Orleans
A few were lucky but most didn't make it
And all the blood that flowed out in those streets
And all the memories will haunt my dreams back home

I've walked 150 miles walking day and night
Every footstep closer my goal is right at home for me

The war has taken its toll on my soul
'Cause each mile I make I feel a little older

I feel the heat comin' down on me
And I feel my feet goin' out on me
I left those battlefields for my home
I just got to get back home

Frank talks about what was going on 10 months ago. Topics: Outro to the "Musical Journey" (the previous 6 songs), Frank sings along, audio from 10 months ago, another podcasting project, life lessons, step back in time, and the intro to "Daves Departure".

20.32 [0702] NYC Audio: Dave's Departure (1/31/07) 32:02

Walking through the streets of NYC, Frank talks about a difficult situation. Recorded in New York City on January 31, 2007. Topics: In the 300 gates area of the Port Authority Bus Terminal for the first time, like an alternate world, glowing orange numbers, weird old black-and-white pictures, alternate bathrooms, interesting day, monthly bus pass, Plainsboro, job in advertising, job history, cult handouts, Broadway and Prince, Soho, layoffs, the worst and best job ever, freezing cold weather, guerrilla marketers (girls dressed up in red coats with stop signs), bus on sidewalk, Dave's departure, starting a new podcasting project, podcasting meetup, a bit of snow, super slow bus ride, iPod screen cracked, Little Brazil, 99 Cent Dreams, "friends 2B made", little humanoid dolls, Blade Runner, new Starbucks, dawn of the dystopian future, global warming, freedom, executive orders, Magic Marker, Teriyaki Boy, got the monthly pass, 9th Avenue, podcast advertising, and premium podcasting.

20.33 [0703] ug: Time Travel (11/23/07) 4:57

Frank talks about time travel. Topics: Outro to "Daves Departure", podcasting subscription model, time travel, malls in the 70s and 80s, The Overnightscape #666, bailing out of recordings, intro to song “Gasoline Gus and his Jitney Bus” and feature “The Evil Farm (Distilled Highlights)”.

20.34 [0704] song: Gasoline Gus and his Jitney Bus (1915) 3:29

A very addictive song about a man, a bus, and Satan. Song “Gasoline Gus and his Jitney Bus”. Released in 1915 on Edison Records. Performed by: Billy Murray and chorus. Composers: Byron Gay and Charley Brown. Sheet music scans (with slightly different lyrics than this version):

<http://ucblibraries.colorado.edu/cgi-bin/sheetmusic.pl?RagGasoline&Rag&main>

Lyrics:

Did you ever hear the story, did you ever hear the yarn?

‘Bout Gasoline Gus

He saved up a dollar then he borrowed twenty cents

Then what?

For the Jitney Bus

His coffee mill was made of tin

But tin was made to pack things in

He hung a sign and it read thus

This is Gasoline Gus and his Jitney Bus

Gus, Gus, Gasoline Gus

Gasoline Gus and his Jitney Bus

He packed them on the fenders and he packed them on the hood

He packed them by the dozen and the other dozen stood

From out the heap there came a cry

Hey take that suitcase out of my eye

Gasoline Gus and his Jitney Bus

Did I tell you what he purchased, did I tell you what he used?

Who used?

Why Gasoline Gus

He bought a ton of dynamite

He bought a pint of gin

For what?

For his Jitney Bus

It’s got a bigger kick than gasoline

Said Gus as he loaded his tin machine

A lady said “don’t go too far”

Said Gus “it’s not that kind of a car”

Gus, Gus, Gasoline Gus
Gasoline Gus and his Jitney Bus
He turned a dozen somersaults and then he looped the loop
He made a bigger noise than the boarders eating soup

How far he went I quite forget
But according to Hoyle he's not back yet

Gus, Gus, Gasoline Gus
Gasoline Gus and his Jitney Bus

Do you want hear the finish?
Do you want to hear the end?

'Bout what?

'Bout Gasoline Gus

He bumped into old Satan
And he got old Satan's goat
With what?
With his Jitney Bus

Old Satan frowned
Said "Take him out, and let him ride my imp about"
In fifteen minutes, big as life
He was making love to the old boy's wife

Gus, Gus, Gasoline Gus
Gasoline Gus and his Jitney Bus

They telephoned old Satan that his wifey had eloped
With a funny looking fellow in a funny little boat
Old Satan never turned a hair
He smiled and said "they're a perfect pair"

Gasoline Gus and his Jitney Bus

Audio of 1930 comedy short film “School’s Out” from the “Our Gang” (Little Rascals) series. Notes: The Little Rascals are afraid they will lose their beloved teacher Miss Crabtree, so Jackie suggests they keep the school open all summer. The kids meet a man who they believe wants to marry Miss Crabtree, so they tell him lies about Miss Crabtree and steal his clothes when he goes swimming. The kids give fake answers to a bunch of questions in school, which they got from “Bonedust”. In the end, Miss Crabtree finds out what the kids have done and forgives them. The younger children find her brother’s clothes.

Lyrics:

With the morning sun blazing in the sky
And the moon is singing bye-bye
I can feel the warmth reaching down from high
And it's burning into my eyes

I feel today will be my day
All things will turn and go my way
I'll find a song to sing and play
If not I'll surely fade away

Don't let me fade...

I'll just hold on
And I'll sing on
And I'll play until I've finally found my place

I feel today will be my day
All things will turn and go my way
Go my way

Well the morning has stretched out into noon
And the colors have faded to blue
I'm still searching for my tune
For a sound that just might carry me through

I feel today will be my day
All things will turn and go my way
I'll find a song to sing and play
If not I'll surely fade away
Fade away
Don't let me fade
Fade away

Don't let me fade away
Don't want to fade away
Fade away
No don't fade away
But I'll just hold on
And I'll sing on
And I'll play until I finally find my way

I feel today will be my day

Lyrics:

They got your motion sickness medication wrong
That new girl that they hired can be spacey and hard-headed Still I don't think you should keep on repeating how the room is spinning There's not a lot that can be done to change the simple fact that

I don't want to see you anymore
(Do you think that I am lying to you)
I don't want to see you anymore
(Do you think that I am lying to you)

Your next-door neighbor's walking papers haven't turned up yet
And so another filibuster with the broken teleprompter
Seems like one more stupid idea that you think will change all the others before it
But no impromptu speech will make a difference
Don't you know that

I don't want to see you anymore
(Do you think that I am lying to you)
I don't want to see you anymore
(Do you think that I am lying to you)

I don't want to see you anymore
(Do you think that I am lying to you)
I don't want to see you anymore
(Do you think that I am lying to you)

I don't want to see you anymore
(Do you think that I am lying to you)
I don't want to see you anymore
(Do you think that I am lying to you)

Lyrics:

I've got friends in the ocean
Who choose to live in the sea
I'll see you when my eyes are in another man Whose hands are buried in the sand

Have you danced in the fire
Have you quenched your desire
Six feet below the ground
I'll take my leave
I'm moving to the sea

I've got friends in the city
Whose view is a little less blue
They're dryer than a caravan of cinnamon
But their eyes are the deepest shade of blue

Have you danced in the fire
Have you quenched your desire
Six feet below the ground
I'll take my leave
I'm moving to the sea

I've seen palaces that burn for less
Queens that stare into a mess
Take your rod and point it somewhere else
Your whipping boy is becoming a man today
Point your finger and fate will show the way
Fate will show the way

20.46 [0716] song: Winter Lady (from MyVirtualBand.com, 2005) 3:54
Cool song released on now-defunct music collaboration website MyVirtualBand.com on 3/21/05.
MyVirtualBand.com was a website that began in late 2004 and closed in early 2007. On the site, musicians collaborated to create songs by uploading and downloading audio tracks. Lyrics:

Winter Lady
With a heart so cold
Never knowing which way she'll blow
She's my lady
Yes she told me so
Just before she dropped three feet of snow

I'll just take my time
Just sit here and unwind
Just let me clear my mind
With all the snow outside

Winter Lady
She's playing her games
She's calling me out by name
She's my lady
Every year it's the same
She keeps searching for fortune and fame

With all the snow outside
I'll just take my time
Just sit and clear my mind
Just let me warm up these hands unlined yeah

Oh here comes the sun

Just let me clear my mind
Just sit here and unwind
I'm gonna take my time
I'm gonna take my time
I'm gonna take my time

Winter Lady
Your time's about done
April's got you on the run
Keeps reminding me of all our fun
Keep on telling me that I'm the one

Winter Lady
Here come's the sun
Winter Lady
Here come's the sun

Your time's about done

Winter Lady
Every year it's the same
She keeps searching for fortune and fame
She's my lady
She told me so
Just before she dropped three feet of snow

I'll just take my time
Just sit here and unwind
Just let me clear my mind
With all the snow outside

Winter Lady
Your time's about done

Keeps reminding me of all our fun
Keep on telling me that I'm the one

Winter Lady
Here come's the sun

Winter Lady
Oh here come's the sun

Oh Winter Lady
Here come's the sun

Frank talks about some cool upcoming songs. Topics: Outro to “The Evil Farm”, The Weather Channel in the 90s, “The Sting”, frantic feel, and the intro to “song: The Us Hounds” and “song: Steel Drum Ragtime - The Easy Winners”.

20.69 [0739] song: The Us Hounds (by Fuzzy Daupner, 2001) 4:38

A song about a cartoon band and youth in media culture by Fuzzy Daupner, a band from Belleville, NJ that existed from 1998 to 2001. Credits: Carrie Engdahl: Music, Vocals, Acoustic Guitar. Rob DiCaterino: Drums, Electric Guitar, Recording, Mixing. Phil Mould: Bass Guitar. Frank Edward Nora: Lyrics. Produced by Fuzzy Daupner (Carrie Engdahl, Rob DiCaterino, Phil Mould, Denice Nora, and Frank Edward Nora). From the album "Naked Exit Friend", released March 2001.

Lyrics:

Us Hound Control, to The Us Hounds below
All aboard for action, we're ready to go!

Welcome to the new world of passenger trains
Choo choo to gardens and plains
yellow volcanoes in the rain
Their goal is no more than to entertain
Yet if passengers are threatened
they will intervene

All that youth in media culture
Is daydream fodder for grandfathers and fathers
Claws named youth and visual jazz
The Weather Channel frail honchos

All that youth in media culture
Is daydream fodder for grandfathers and fathers
Claws named youth and visual jazz
The Weather Channel frail honchos

Welcome to the new world of passenger trains
Choo choo to gardens and plains
yellow volcanoes in the rain
Their goal is no more than to entertain
Yet if passengers are threatened
they will intervene

Myra's on the synthesizer, in The Us Hounds
Enter the milieu, if you please, of The Us Hounds
Hildebad is on electric guitar, and Harla is on acoustic
Trace is on the bass guitar, and Bruckner plays the drums
They're rocking out on the rails of the world, The Us Hounds!

We are awfully proud of spring
And then again
Awfully bored of prance
And then again
Awfully proud of spring
And then again
Awfully bored of prance
And then again

All that youth in media culture
Is daydream fodder for grandfathers and fathers
Claws named youth and visual jazz
The Weather Channel frail honchos

All that youth in media culture
Is daydream fodder for grandfathers and fathers
Claws named youth and visual jazz

20.70 [0740] song: Steel Drum Ragtime - The Easy Winners (Scott Joplin, 1901) 1:34

A classic ragtime song with a steel drum sound. I came up with the "steel drum ragtime" idea playing around with MIDI files back in the 90s. Somehow, the MIDI steel drum sound seems to work really well with ragtime songs to my ears. This particular song, "The Easy Winners" is really fast in the version I made. On the original sheet music it says "Not Fast" ... so maybe I'll make a slower version sometime. But I think this version sounds cool.

Frank talks about onsug.com. Topics: Outro to "song: The Us Hounds" and "song: Steel Drum Ragtime - The Easy Winners", Day 2 will begin in a few minutes, websites, TheOvernightscape.com, onsug.com, going back in time 34 years, Wacky Packages, and the intro to "Bad Hole".

20.72 [0742] Bad Hole (11/25/73) 1:47

Six-year-old Frank with an early "pleasantly insane ramble". Recorded in Bridgewater Township, New Jersey, on November 25, 1973. Topics: Frank at age 6 recording on a tape recorder, John's rant, Julie crying, "I won't turn it off", "big old bad hole", "goodbye now I'll see you in ten minutes", Wacky Packages ("Grass Wax", "Raw Goo", “Choke Wagon”, and “Wormy Packages”), the monster story, and Frankenstein. (Tape recorder batteries were probably low, that’s why the voices sound sped up.)

20.73 [0743] ug: Nearing End of Day (11/24/07) 1:55

Frank talks about nearing the end of Day One. Topics: Outro to “Bad Hole”, intro to “The Killer Bag”.

20.74 [0744] The Killer Bag (2/11/01) 6:10

Join Frank, Pete, and Nick for some hijinks in a freezing cold mall parking lot. Recorded in the parking lot of the Hackettstown Mall in Hackettstown, NJ on February 11, 2001. This clip is part of “The Motor Excursion Ruffians #1” (3:06:45) which will be included at some point here in The Overnightscape Underground. The Overnightscape Underground (onsug.com) - "An audio world to discover and explore."

The Overnightscape Underground is a companion project to The Overnightscape (theovernightscape.com), an Internet radio show hosted by Frank since March 2003.

23.01 [0787] ug: Oldskool Hardcore (4/9/08) 2:15:50

The Overnightscape Underground is back! Frank talks about the hiatus since the end of Day One, and celebrates the new day with some single malt scotch (Macallan Cask Strength) and an energy drink (Jolt Silver). He also plays around with his brand-new synthesizer (XioSynth 25) and checks out some classic techno music. Finally, he introduces the next two tracks (“The Getting To ONS 694” and “The Preshow to ONS 694”). Recorded in The Overnightscape Studio.

23.02 [0788] The Getting To ONS 694 (3/27/08) 33:37

On March 27, 2008, Frank celebrated the 5th Anniversary of The Overnightscape with a “live show” (in front of a live audience) - The Overnightscape #694. Getting over to the location, however, was quite a challenge - as you’ll hear in this recording from New York City!

23.03 [0789] The Preshow To ONS 694 (3/27/08) 35:11

On March 27, 2008, Frank celebrated the 5th Anniversary of The Overnightscape with a “live show” (in front of a live audience) - The Overnightscape #694. Before he started the main recording, he did a “preshow” with some of the people who were there - as you’ll hear in this recording from New York City!

23.04 [0790] ug: Conspiracy Theories (4/10/08) 33:37

On the streets of NYC, Frank talks about Ron Paul, politics, and conspiracy theories.

23.05 [0791] Ron Paul Rally in Philadelphia (11/10/07) 1:58:19

Frank and his sister-in-law Carrie (and her friend George) travel down to Philadelphia to attend a Ron Paul Rally, on November 10, 2007.

23.06 [0792] ug: More Don West (4/12/08) 27:28

Frank plays some more Don West shopping channel videos, and then talks about the history of video game arcades to introduce the next segment. Recorded in The Overnightscape Studio.

23.07 [0793] Goodbye Arcade (11/12/07) 1:30:00

Frank visits “Fun N’ Games”, a venerable video game arcade at the Willowbrook Mall in Wayne, NJ - 12 days before the arcade closed its doors forever. Frank plays a bunch of games and reminisces about his history with this arcade.

23.08 [0794] ug: Fun Time (4/13/08) 1:08:35

In the middle of the night, Frank talks about old arcade games, NyQuil, drug abuse, Triscuits, time travel, pinball, the long lost “Fun Time” arcade, and a whole lot more. Recorded in The Overnightscape Studio.

23.09 [0795] The Mini Car Show (9/18/99) 12:26

Frank meets Peter and his friends in the midst of “The Mini Car Show” - a strangely stupid (yet compelling) spontaneous event in the parking lot of the Rockaway Townsquare Mall on September 18, 1999.

23.10 [0796] These Black Cars (9/18/99) 1:33:56

A complete, unedited cassette recording from September 18, 1999 in New Jersey called “These Black Cars”. Frank gets lost driving over to the Rockaway Townsquare Mall to meet his friend Peter. At the mall, he finds Peter and friends doing a “Mini Car Show”. Then they head over to an “Oktoberfest” celebration, which Frank is not too enthusiastic about. Finally, Frank talks about this project “Obliviana” while driving home.

23.11 [0797] ug: Holly Hobbie (4/13/08) 59:02

Topics: “Glothjyp”, napkin dispenser mishap, pasta mishap, Jamba Juice “Strawberry Surf Rider”, Holly Hobbie toothpaste, Wolverine toothpaste, beverage review (“Dublin” Dr Pepper (made with Imperial pure cane sugar)), snack review (Chex Mix “Jalapeno Cheddar”), and an introduction to Little Frankie Nora “Welcome To The Weasel Village Mall”.

23.12 [0798] Little Frankie Nora - Welcome to the Weasel Village Mall - Side 1 (1987) 31:30

Cassette of original music created by Frank. Released in 1987 by Cut’n’Shoot Records (a division of Nomadi Entertainment).

“Welcome to the Weasel Village Mall” is a nightmare symphony in 81 movements. It takes the listener from screaming gateways to collapsing structures, from dark conversations to the infinite beyond. Little Frankie Nora combines synthesizers, television sets, things stolen from work, sundry metal objects, old recordings, and other obscure and unpopular devices to create the disruptive sound that is his trademark. Both upsetting and calming, humorous and horrible, “Welcome to the Weasel Village Mall” is definitely a unique experience for anyone.

LYRICS...

PENT BREEZE

Funnier and comfier, responsive and sane, Looping in imperfection space, Aukwise vinegars we’re tinting slake, Terrarium daycare and the random sleep / You could be mine, In the early 90s, I’ll find the time / You could be mine, In the early 90s, I’ll find the time / Yo shrinkwrapped CD open it up, Climaxing and flaxen, A falconer attention, A Fallingwater affection, Change... Rebel yanking my braid, Snarled stress gets unmade, A spy store gets rearranged, The days... Are getting colder / Pent Breeze, Information please, I can’t go to Europe right now / Pent Breeze, Maybe space is east, Garage sale signs are old / Frivolartango’s the focus pretty motorhome, Millheel Chamille’s the focus pretty van, It’s okay to fantasize, In an unbuilt building night, All mimsy were the slot machines, Cheap maple syrup is cheap / Yo shrinkwrapped CD open it up, Climaxing and flaxen, A falconer attention, A Fallingwater affection, Change... Rebel yanking my braid, Snarled stress gets unmade, A spy store gets rearranged, The days... Are getting colder / Pent Breeze, The flowers breathe, Concepts are so lame / Pent Breeze, The charming sleaze, Lantern bleak and westerly / She said this, birds are cool, She said this, birds are cool, She said this, birds are cool

RIDICULOUS FORTUNE

Sunflower Slow Drag 2, Lingerie in a suitcase in ice, A little mandolin gesture, Of a primitive pinball spice / I have agreed, Perhaps stupidly, To embark on a Hyper Mission / Out of a phase, The fading telecast age, With the in-flight dungeon games, In the flickety flames / I have agreed, I have agreed / Ridiculous Fortune, Savage FFM, Ocelot vibe, Bad Scoville in again / Out of a phase, The fading telecast age, With the in-flight dungeon games, In the flickety flames / I have agreed, I have agreed / This fiery Spring is a, Fine and naughty daydream, And strife is for erasing with, Skinny dipping into things amazing / I have agreed, Perhaps stupidly, To embark on a Hyper Mission / Out of a phase, Out of a phase / Savage Far Field Monitor, Forgotten windshear friend, Lulling me the ramping lyre, Telecasting as the tundra falls, Away... Away... Away... / Ridiculous Fortune, Savage FFM, Ocelot vibe, Bad Scoville in again / I have agreed, Out of a phase / I have agreed, Out of a phase / I have agreed, Out of a phase / Sunflower Slow Drag 2

LITTLE FAN

I'm a pretty cool chick, I like to laugh, I'm not too serious, maybe just a little mysterious, doesn't that make you curious / I'm a pretty cool chick, I've got my own dot com, I play guitar, I write you songs, I even have my own car, I'll let you take it for a ride / Let me make you feel like a man, you don't gotta be my biggest fan, I could do so many things to you, and you could say you're with the band, you could say you're with the band / My candle's not lit, hot wax could be naughty, when I use my voice like this, I'll see you in the morning, little fan / Let me make you feel like a man, you don't gotta be my biggest fan, I could do so many things to you, and you could say you're with the band, you could say you're with the band / I'm a pretty cool chick, I like to laugh, I'm not too serious, maybe just a little mysterious, doesn't that make you curious, doesn't that make you curious, doesn't that make you curious?

PREGNANT SKATEBOARD

Car wash canals clearly doesn't make sense, But smiles live with me behind that fence, Chocolate and vanilla are quite complimentary, You and I seem so contradictory / Picture perfect places only exist in pictures, And nothing is guaranteed as a permanent fixture / You and me, maybe not, Just a thought, that's all I've got / You and me, maybe not, Just a thought, that's all I've got / In the cards and on the dice, Take your chance, it might be nice, Waiting for nothing and playing the game, Waiting for you is just the same as, Waiting for nothing and playing the game / You and me, maybe not, Just a thought, that's all I've got / You and me, maybe not, Just a thought, that's all I've got / I'm okay with you here, Acting silly, shimmering smiles, Looking like lavender after a while, But you better bet both hands now mister, 'Cause flounders are flying faster than you can / You and me, maybe not, Just a thought, that's all I've got, You and me, maybe not, Just a thought, that's all I've got

THE FILMOGRAPHY OF ANN B. DAVIS

Boring books that other people read, About adults and their infidelities, And travelling to romantic places, These readers are wanting of sleeves with aces / Paper plates with the cartoon stars of the day, Inelegant remains of some ice cream cake, As relatives are lazing the tension is phasing, And phone calls at night's-end are hoped to be pleasing / Loving life can take more juice, Than the air conditioning at a mall, Rows and columns of bitches from college, Her place in the scheme of things is just idiotic / Loving life can take more juice, Than the air conditioning at a mall, Rows and columns of bitches from college, Her place in the scheme of things is just idiotic / As lame as a fast food no-left-turn sign, Dirty fingers that prod in the produce lane, Pirates adored as the dudes of pop culture, Real ones caused misery and torture / This place is construction zones and shoe store blues, The mentally scrambled at facade-craft are ample, The toys of the '80s are ready and waiting, Sweaty clothes are stripped and the shower is dreaming / Loving life can take more juice, Than the air conditioning at a mall, Rows and columns of bitches from college, Her place in the scheme of things is just idiotic / Loving life can take more juice, Than the air conditioning at a mall, Rows and columns of bitches from college, Her place in the scheme of things is just idiotic / This place has crap from the past that better not last, The razor wire friends that talk empty and fresh, Loving life is a rock guitar haunting, The mall is so cold that I gotta keep running / Rows and columns of bitches from college, Rows and columns of bitches from college, Rows and columns of bitches from college, Her place in the scheme of things is changing just slightly

26.23 [0888] The Overnightscape #335 - Fail (11/25/05) 30:00

Frank recorded "The Overnightscape #335" back in November 2005, but he was unhappy with how the show turned out - so he set aside the first recording and completely redid the episode. This file is the original, "failed" version of The Overnightscape #335, kind of a "lost episode". Topics include: Hanging out at a strip mall in Iselin, NJ, and memories of Podcast Expo 2005 in Ontario, California.

26.24 [0889] song: The Gill Lane Saga (8/7/08) 4:31

A song called "The Gill Lane Saga" by Frank Edward Nora, recorded August 7, 2008. Played on a Novation XioSynth 25 synthesizer.

THE RAMPLER

<http://onsug.com>

The Overnightscape Underground (onsug.com) - "Your Late Night Broadcast"

The Overnightscape Underground is a companion project to The Overnightscape (theovernightscape.com), an Internet radio show hosted by Frank since March 2003.

Many thanks to those who wrote show notes on The Overnightscape Wiki for these episodes of The Rampler. This is the text that was on the description for each of these episodes:

You can help! Go to this episode's page on The Rampler Show Notes Wiki and write some show notes for this episode. They can be as brief or detailed as you like. Always feel free to add more details or make corrections to what's already there. Thanks!!

Join host Frank Edward Nora his daily commute, walking through the streets of NYC, as he discusses a dizzying myriad of topics. This show is an experimental "spinoff" of Frank's main show, The Overnightscape (which continues on as normal). The show is recorded directly as a 128kbps MP3 file on an Edirol R-09 portable recorder. This makes it much easier to release the recordings, since no post-production is required. Also, at least to start with, the shows will be released without show notes to further speed up the release process.

"The Rampler" is released here on The Overnightscape Underground, but it exists outside the standard "Day" format - again, to make it easier to very quickly record and release.

Note: Starting with The Rampler #101, in November 2008, The Rampler has been incorporated into the monthly ONSUG format.

Testing audio, Beta version for this new project, Overnightscape raw feed, streamlined version of the overnightscape with no descriptions and no post-production, getting to a lot of topics, making it easier to release shows, test of the system, Burritoville, name of this project, Overnightscape Raw Feed, Overnightscape Feed, Do one thing and do it well, getting stuff in the overnightscape underground, getting new stuff out there, minimal descriptions. Overnightscape stripped. This episode is pretty much Frank planning and plotting this "stripped down” version of Overnightscape, testing and describing his equipment and methods.

27.02 [0891] The Rampler #2 (8/14/08) 11:32

Much like the first episode, this is primordial, preparatory verbal goo, a continued “warm up” for the actual upcoming series. Basically, this is Frank, searching for that Rampler Groove.

Our Man, Nora, continues to settle into the looser format. He reviews the two previous “test” shows as he wanders through a post-thunderstorm Times Square. He announces the decision to name this series “The Rampler” with lengthy exposition on the thought process, coincidences that led to this decision. Decides 20-90 is the ideal new setting. Has put an old, “retro” logo on the Overnightscape site. A crazy hassidic says “Leaves Without Aphids(?)”. Frank uses his cigar holder to visit Sam Ash and play synthesizers and the Hershey Store. He, as he often ponders, wonders if he should just do one program and call it all The Overnightscape. Motor Excursion Ruffians.

27.04 [0893] The Rampler #4 (8/15/08) 37:41

Beta 4 begins at the Port Authority and Frank launches with a review of the previous experiments and re-reviews the overall Rampler Concept. <missed some in here> Discusses Robert Moog’s name and the “mooooooog/moag” pronunciation. Talks about how 2005 was the “Year of the Podcast”, bemoans that despite his true pioneerdom and diligence he has never fit into the clique of “popular podcasters”. Another reason for the Rampler is that he may be spending too much home/quality family time with the podcast instead of the Mrs. How Rampler will let him riff and cover topics that wind up unused on The Overnightscape.

27.05 [0894] The Rampler #5 (8/15/08) 27:23

A lunchbreak episode. Frank has registered the rampler.com domain name and finally seems settled that this will be the name of these programs. Mentions Walter Becker’s new solo lp. Doesn’t like Circus Money at all. Elite Foodbar is considered. Steely Dan talk for the uninformed. Crazy woman, who is behaving more normal than usual. Deli sounds. Sees a white guy and an Asian girl making out that initially look like mannequins. Sounds like “Slingblade” when he says “doggy”. Describes and takes over spot by East River for lunch, reviews Aloe Vera King drink and stops to eat.

27.06 [0895] The Rampler #6 (8/15/08) 26:23

Finishing his lunch, Frank resumes recording. Discusses the use of helicopters as transit, ponders what it would take to bring the craft into more common use. Commuting, transportation and the tram. Has cigar to smoke, after all. Launches into a lengthy critiquer of the latter Star Wars era, especially pointing at Jar Jar Binks as emblematic to the issue. Finishes show by suggesting that, since he wasn’t going to do show notes for Rampler episodes, doing a wiki where listeners might.

27.07 [0896] The Rampler #7 (8/15/08) 34:15

Frank walks around Midtown Manhattan talking about a wide variety of topics. In the rain...

31.01 [1039] ug: Night Coffee Black (11/1/08) 55:07

Introduction to the new Monthly System of The Overnightscape Underground, the history of The Overnightscape, Japanese beverage review ("Iwaizumi Ryusendo Coffee Black"), and the intro to "The Overnightscape - Beta #1", "The Overnightscape - Beta #2", and "The Rampler #101".

31.02 [1040] The Overnightscape - Beta #1 (3/13/03) 1:00:04

I came up with the idea for The Overnightscape on Thursday, March 13, 2003. I was on my way home from work in NYC, riding the PATH train back to NJ. Here's exactly what I wrote on my Palm Pilot:

3/13/03 6:54 pm

non-meta half-hour talk show, just me

the overnightscape
nightscans

I went home, set up my recording system, and started recording the show at around 9:55 PM - less than 3 hours after I wrote down my idea for the show and its name (wow, just think, it could have been called Nightscans...) What I recorded was The Overnightscape Beta #1 - a test show that definitely was not fit for release!

This is the recording, which I originally released back on March 27, 2005 in celebration of the Second Anniversary of The Overnightscape. This release has much better audio quality than the previous release. But remember - it's really rough and weird and not very good. If you're a fan of The Overnightscape, though, you might find it interesting to listen to...

A week after the first Beta Episode, I recorded another show (Beta #2), with the idea that it could potentially become the first real show - but this one as well fell short in several ways. It was not till the following week, on March 27, 2003, that the first official episode was recorded and released!

Frank walks through Midtown Manhattan. Topics include: People eating at an art installation "restaurant", MoMA, eraser game buying incident, Hershey Store, TKTS. mirror gymnasts, going to see the movie "Synecdoche, New York", popcorn buying incident, heading home.

31.05 [1043] song: Remember November (from MyVirtualBand.com, 2005) 4:35

A rock song by Jerry Collins (GTRman4040) and Bobshock, released 11/27/05 on MyVirtualBand.com

MyVirtualBand.com was a website that began in late 2004 and closed in early 2007. On the site, musicians collaborated to create songs by uploading and downloading audio tracks. All the audio tracks on the site were released under the Creative Commons Attribution 2.0 license, which means that you can do pretty much what you want with the audio as long as you give credit to those who created it. There were 113 "featured songs" on the site, and a much greater number of songs "in progress". Even though the site has shut down, the music from the site is still under the same license - which allows the songs to be re-released here in The Overnightscape Underground!

Lyrics: You're going through a phase you're lost in a zone, You want the sun rays and its time to go home, It didn't really hit you it's like a cartoon, Out in the market with your brand new goon / I grow old in age as you follow that dream, Living in rage with your boyfriend schemes, I'm tired of the lies that you put me through, I won't even bother with unfaithful you / A month to remember but it's not a good thing, Remember November is the song to sing, You always need change a new distraction, Your choice is so lame and you blow attraction / Resistance is futile nothing left to say, Flirting with the locals one wrong day, November with a punch inspired this tune, Remembering the month a shadowing gloom / I say that you're too loose you say that you're adored, Nothing but the truth your choice to explore, Far from November memories of the past, Into December and I only look back / I grow old in age as you follow that dream, Living in rage with your boyfriend schemes, Im tired of the lies that you put me through, I wont even bother with unfaithful you / A month to remember but its not a good thing, Remember November is the song to sing, You always need change a new distraction, Your choice is so lame and you blow attraction / Far from November memories of the past, Into December and I only look back, And since its December theres nothing left for you, lost in November when somebody got screwed Audiobook version of “The Story of a Stuffed Elephant” (by Laura Lee Hope, published in 1922). This version was released on LibriVox.org on October 3, 2006. Read by Vlooi. Both the original and the audio version are in the public domain.

For this release, Frank combined the ten chapters into one file, and did a little remastering to improve the sound of the audio.

Summary: The Story of a Stuffed Elephant is... well, the story of a Stuffed Elephant and the little boy who owns him, and his sister, and all their adventures. A delightful children’s book by the author of The Bobbsey Twins series. (Summary by Vlooi and Kara)

32.08 [1106] The Motor Excursion Ruffians #3 (6/16/07) 1:51:21

Notes from the original release on Station Unlimited on June 22, 2007:

"The Motor Excursion Ruffians", starring me (Frank Edward Nora) and Peter Litkey, began as a successor to our previous show, "Train Crap & Blood". The idea is that we have so much freedom that we never use... you can just get in a car and drive and who knows where you'll wind up!

Episode 1 of "The Motor Excursion Ruffians" was recorded on February 11, 2001, in western New Jersey and released on my old Internet radio station, Bluffcosm.com. Episode 2 was recorded on April 4-5, 2003 (between The Overnightscape #4 and #5), on a visit down to see our friend Bryan in Virginia. Over 8 hours of material was recorded - but it was never released. I plan on releasing both of these here on Station Unlimited in the near future.

This past Saturday, June 16, 2007, I got together with Pete and we went on a "motor excursion" without thinking of "The Motor Excursion Ruffians" - in fact, I didn't even know if I was going to record at all. But I started recording some stuff, and later in the day we both realized we were doing a new episode of "The Motor Excursion Ruffians"!

Here is a description of the recording...

After waking up at 4:30 AM and waiting 5.5 hours for White Stripes tickets, I was about to go to sleep when Peter called me... we decided to get together and go on a trip, featuring a torrential Thunderstorm and hail, roof parking of The Fashion Center mall in Paramus, NJ, coffee from Blimpie, weird spiral staircase, old school architecture, heading north on Route 17, Woodbury Common Premium Outlets in Central Valley, NY, super heavy pottery, free drinks and CDs, finding the food court, Le Gourmet Chef, Pretzel Time, the cosmic lemonade balance, Pete chooses an item from the Protocol Personal Products Convenience Center in the men's room, candy review ("Ora Labs XStreme Sour Drops - Strawberry"), Folz, Pringles vending machines, finding the exit, Le Creuset, Lladro, dust collectors, Route 6 - cool road, Bear Mountain State Park, free parking, merry go round closed, tranquil feeling, ice cream vending machine, a walk around Hessian Lake, forbidden rock climbing, vending machine deaths, vehicle, out of breath, living a screensaver, exercise, a metaphor for life, cigar, chipmunk, Canadian geese hissing, the goose fight question, the judgement of the ice cream deception, flags, "It's a Mistake" by Men At Work, Pallisades Parkway, Fort Lee, Mitsuwa Marketplace ("The Japanese Mall"), Hungary and Hungarian stuff, food court, food samples, Auto Freak, hoji tea coming out of the wall, packets of unknown material, Pete tries some natto, A Bathing Ape, Pocari Sweat, exploring the supermarket, Creap, Re-Ment, miniature cleaning supplies, Frank spends all his money, miso choice, deer joke, soothing music

The United States of Whatever, Liam Lynch, Sifl & Olly, The Sharper Image, and finding the way out of Edgewater.

32.09 [1107] Special Report 3: The Andy Kaufman Situation - with Andrea, Nikki, Susan, Brandon, Curt and Zak (12/7/08) 2:34:34

In this Special Report, Frank talks about the "Andy Kaufman Lives" phenomenon with the former "Andy's Angels" - Nikki from Utah (darlingnikki84), Susan from Texas (Spooky), and Andrea from Croatia (Hyperkinetic)... as well as Brandon from Canada (AGKMNII), Curt from North Hollywood (DrAgotch), and Zak from Maryland (JiveCrackerZak).

32.10 [1108] The Rampler #135 (12/8/08) 32:38

It's freezing out, so Frank goes on an underground trip from the Port Authority Bus Terminal, through subway tunnels, the Time Square Shuttle, and Grand Central Terminal over to work... to test doing a show in the deep freeze...

32.11 [1109] The Rampler #136 (12/8/08) 1:06:30

Frank walks through the chilly streets of NYC at night, visiting the shops and ice skating rink at Bryant Park, talking about a wide variety of topics.

Frank walks through the chilly streets of NYC, talking about upcoming audio features, water, doing a good deed, Amy Winehouse, free Diet Coke, National Debt Clock, F editing, country music, and executing the oatmeal option.

32.13 [1111] The Rampler #138 (12/9/08) 42:46

Frank walks through the streets of NYC at night, talking about Christmas food at work, government corruption, anger about podcasting, feed players, Dean & DeLuca, nice music, and singing some Men Without Hats.

32.14 [1112] Casino Ambience (9/21/08) 45:05

The ambient sounds of a casino in Atlantic City, NJ on September 21, 2008.

32.15 [1113] Vacuuming (9/14/08) 34:00

The sound of Frank vacuuming his living room, while news of Hurricane Ike plays in the background, on September 14, 2008.

32.16 [1114] The Recent Dreams (8/15/08-12/8/08) 1:57:11

Twelve "Dream Reviews" which Frank recorded right after he woke up from each one, from August 15, 2008 to December 8, 2008.

32.17 [1115] The Late Movie: Leo and Loree (1980, recorded in 1994) 1:51:44

This is the full audio (commercials and all) of a broadcast of "Channel 7's Late Movie" taped off TV circa July 1994 in New Jersey. The movie is "Leo and Loree" from 1980, starring Donny Most (best known as Ralph Malph of Happy Days). As far as I can tell, this movie has never been made available on home video. They should release it on DVD - it is a great movie.

I think this is a very interesting cultural artifact. If you fell asleep in front of your TV back in the 90s, this is the kind of audio your subconscious mind would be hearing... and maybe even incorporating into your dreams...

32.18 [1116] The Rampler #139 (12/10/08) 35:45

Frank walks through the streets of NYC in the rain with an extra umbrella and a bagel in his pocket, talking about recent ONSUG audio features "Casino Ambience", "Vacuuming", "The Recent Dreams", and "The Late Movie: Leo and Loree", plus a dream review ("Ghosts at a Theme Park"), sleeping in a photo studio, Action Park, and time pirates for a good cause.

32.19 [1117] The Motor Excursion Ruffians #2 - Part 1 (4/4/03) 1:01:46

This feature was recorded way back at the beginning of The Overnightscape - between episodes 4 and 5, in fact. Yet for some reason, it has taken me nearly 6 years to release it! I re-listened to the whole thing to do the show notes, and I think it's a great audio feature. Here's a photo gallery of the pics I took, and here's the original hi-res pics if you want to check them out.

32.50 [1148] song: Heading Out (from MyVirtualBand.com, 2006) 6:56

MyVirtualBand.com was a website that began in late 2004 and closed in early 2007. On the site, musicians collaborated to create songs by uploading and downloading audio tracks. All the audio tracks on the site were released under the Creative Commons Attribution 2.0 license, which means that you can do pretty much what you want with the audio as long as you give credit to those who created it. There were 113 “featured songs” on the site, and a much greater number of songs “in progress”. Even though the site has shut down, the music from the site is still under the same license - which allows the songs to be re-released here in The Overnightscape Underground!

Lyrics: I’m going to head out, on this lonely road and leave my woes in the dust. / I’m gonna get out, on the lonely road, leave my troubles and the fuss / All the heartache, I’ll leave it all behind. // I’m going to start out on this life again, leave my failures in the past. / I'm going to stand up with some confidence, this time it will last.

All the places, to start this life again, / I'm going to start out on this life again, leave my failures in the past. //
Well I'm moving right along in life. / I'm moving right along in life. // Well I'm moving right along in life. / I'm moving right along in life.

Notes from Station Unlimited release, July 2007:

Originally released on Bluffcosm.com in February 2001. Original Description: A Computerized Radio Show on the Road! Join Frank, Pete, and Nick on their zany journey. Features include "Fun with Walky-Talkies", "Foods from The East", "The Killer Bag", interviews, wacky conversions, and more!

Photo Gallery

7/4/07 - I re-listened to this, and I have to say it's an awesome recording. During the show I mention how I intended to do more episodes on a regular basis - but that never happened, unfortunately. There is #2, from 2003, which I will release at some point... Also, I realized that the end of this episode is a lot like the ending of the final episode of The Sopranos! We are in a restaurant and the tape ends abruptly with no warning!

33.32 [1180] The Audio Field Trip #1 (7/24/03) 58:57

Notes from Station Unlimited release, December 2005:

"The Audio Field Trip" is a feature on The Overnightscape where I go out into the world and record various adventures and activities. Most of these are edited and played in their entirety on the show - but two of them are special cases. The first one is "The Audio Field Trip #1, which I was only able to play a very little bit of on The Overnightscape #20 (7/24/03). This is the complete recording.

On this trip, I go on "The Iselin Run", driving down to my storage unit in Iselin, NJ. This full audio was played for a while in 2003 on the Bluffcosm "live stream", and was then released as one of the "Second Anniversary Bonus Releases" back on March 27, 2005. This release has much better audio quality.

33.33 [1181] The Forgotten Beercast (5/10/05) 40:54

Notes from Station Unlimited release, October 2006:

Recorded on Tuesday, May 10, 2005, at a bar called “One and One” (at the corner of 1st Ave. and 1st St. in Manhattan). Starring Greg Narain (Beercasting.com / Sparkcasting.com), Steve Warren (InteractiveNYC.com), Frank Edward Nora (TheOvernightscape.com), and waitress “Myar”.

Here’s the story - Greg created the website “Beercasting.com”, with the general idea of getting a bunch of people together at a bar, and then recording and podcasting their conversation on several different topics. At some point, Greg changed the name of the website to “Sparkcasting.com” and added a potential market research aspect to the project. This caused some controversy, as seen on this blog post. Then Greg posted on the NYC Podcasting Meetup forum, also causing a bit of controversy.

In any case, I went to the Beercasting that night, and we didn’t start recording till real late. Only Greg, Steve, and myself were left. Greg wanted me to use my recorder, so I recorded the Beercast. We talked on a number of different topics, including the Sparkcasting marketing idea, podcasting, Adam Curry, stats, and male aggression. Toward the end, waitress “Myar” joined the recording. I eventually went to the bathroom and the Beercast ended.

The next day I sent the audio file to Greg, who said he would post it on Sparkcasting.com. But, as it happened, Sparkcasting was never updated. In fact, to this day, the site does not appear to have been updated at all since May of 2005. I think I emailed Greg a few times, but eventually I forgot about the whole thing.

Then, at the Podcasting Expo in Ontario, California, in September 2006, who should I meet at the bar at the Marriott but Greg! It was good to see him again, and he said he was working on some new stuff. I mentioned the recording to him and he said I could go ahead and post it.

I’m still not sure what happened with the whole Sparkcasting thing, but in any case, here is the complete, unedited “Forgotten Beercast” from that long ago day...

33.34 [1182] The Lost Audio Field Trip (5/28/05) 2:04:44
Notes from Station Unlimited release, December 2005:

This journey starts off with me and Peter Litkey driving to pick up his friend Brian. We then go to see Star Wars Episode III: Revenge of the Sith. Afterwards, we drive around very wealthy areas of New Jersey, visit Pete’s old school, and Pete’s car reaches 200,000 miles. Along the way we talk about many interesting things!

Recorded on May 28, 2005, I kept meaning to edit it and play it on the show, but I never got to it. So as time went on, it became known as “The Lost Audio Field Trip”. Now, it is released in all of its 2+ hour glory!

33.35 [1183] Frank at the Apple Store Fifth Avenue Opening (5/19/06) 2:36:50
Notes from Station Unlimited release, May 2006:

I went to check out the opening of the new Apple Store Fifth Avenue and I wound up recording over 2-and-a-half hours of audio! Instead of waiting weeks or months to edit it and play it on the show, I figured I’d release the raw audio right away for your listening pleasure... nothing edited (except a few phone numbers I had to bleep). Ben from CodedSignal.com pretty much became my co-host at one point. I met a bunch of other podcasters there - it was a lot of fun! (P.S. Gaurav got in at 9:50 PM.)

33.36 [1184] Wedding at Woolman Hill (7/29/06) 1:52:36

Notes from Station Unlimited release, August 2006:

Recorded on Saturday, July 29, and Sunday, July 30, 2006. On this Audio Field Trip, my wife Denise and I travel from northern New Jersey to a wedding in western Massachusetts. Phil and Sarah, listeners to The Overnightscape, are getting married at a Quaker retreat called "Woolman Hill". On this recording, you'll hear about the long drive up, the creepy motel, arrival at the wedding, the wedding ceremony, walking through a cornfield the next day, visits to the Yankee Candle Flagship Store and the Hampshire Mall, and much more.

I recorded this Audio Field Trip on my Edirol R-1 digital recorder. Unfortunately, the Compact Flash card had gone faulty but I didn't know about it. The total recording consists of 75 segments, totalling almost 2.5 hours. Unfortunately, 11 of the files were corrupt - so about 36 minutes of recordings were lost, all interspersed throughout. The lost segments include some commentary about the wedding, the night drive back to the motel, and an interview with Phil and Sarah.

This release consists of the raw unedited audio (minus the corrupt segments). It is a long, rambling piece of audio, and the "narrative" suffers a bit from the loss of some of the segments. But there is a lot of interesting and very varied stuff in this audio. Hopefully I'll do an edited version at some point that will be an easier listen.

Frank arrives in NYC at the Port Authority Bus Terminal in the morning, talking about a child's glove, security garbage, hammering on tile, getting espresso at Deli Plus, MLK Day, Obama, Times Square Shuttle, falling asleep while driving, being on the radio, and Alka-Seltzer Plus.

33.38 [1186] The Rampler #174 (1/19/09) 47:06

Frank freaks out on Lexington Avenue, thinking he has slipped into another dimension because all the buildings look different. Then he enters Grand Central Terminal and reviews the Hawaii State Quarter. Then records a guy selling "Street News" on the subway, walks down 42nd St., talks about the Obama Inauguration, and gets on the bus home. Plus, squash, a brass band, and Roseanne Barr.

36.22 [1310] City Cassette #1 (Jan-Feb 2001) 1:33:14

Before the dawn of The Overnightscape in 2003, I used to make random recordings in NYC all the time. The idea was to capture interesting audio that I could use in my Internet radio project at the time, Bluffcosm.com.

The "City Cassette" series contains these recordings, one cassette per release. They will not be in chronological order, because I don't think it matters that much.

This first cassette in the series contains a lot of interesting stuff, including some of my thoughts on the future of Internet radio, lots of sounds from the subway system, a visit to an old place of work, and a whole lot more. A good portion of it is "ambient sound", rather than me talking.

Here is how the tape is labeled: Side A: "1/31/01 - 2/14/01 NYC Audio". Side B: "2/16/01 - 2/22/01 NYC D&A Snow / Subway Crowd"

37.03 [1326] The Rampler Special: 4 Weasels (5/2/09) 4:39:27

Frank meets Peter in Basking Ridge, NJ and sees his new car for the first time. They go to Edison, NJ so that Peter can play a part in a movie by Lordi Films. Then they drive to Devon, Pennsylvania, to meet up with Bryan and Shayne. On the drive, Frank plays with Peter's XM Radio. They review some "Pepsi Throwback", play some "The Lord of the Rings", go to an Indian and a Japanese restaurant, Bryan talks about hypnosis, Peter talks about Teen Challenge, and then Frank and Peter get a little lost on the drive back, even with a GPS system. And of course, a whole lot more stuff happens in-between the stuff mentioned here.

37.04 [1327] Fuzzy Daupner - All The Songs (1998-2001) 2:13:29

Fuzzy Daupner was an obscure New Jersey rock band which, in the brief span of 3 years (1998-2001), created a catalog of 32 amazing songs. You can hear all of these songs right here, along with complete lyrics, below.

Fuzzy Daupner began in 1998 when Carrie Engdahl began collaborating with her sister Denice and Denice's husband Frank on creating songs. Awhile later, they joined forces with Rob DiCaterino on drums and formed the band Fuzzy Daupner. The final member, Phil Mould on bass, joined a little later.

They produced two home-recorded, Internet-distributed albums, and played many shows around New Jersey and NYC. But they never got signed and they broke up in November 2001.

As you will hear, there is something rather unique about these 32 songs. This audio release will hopefully help in keeping the songs alive - it is intended as a reference source for the songs.

FUZZY DAUPNER

Carrie Engdahl - Vocals, Guitar

Rob DiCaterino - Drums

Phil Mould - Bass

Denice Nora - Creative Direction

Frank Edward Nora - Creative Direction

All 32 songs are the original creations of the members of Fuzzy Daupner. (Specific songwriting credits are not included in this post, but are available elsewhere.)

FUZZY DAUPNER

You were there in that college
And you like this god Frey
You were there in that college
And you like this god Loki

You said this was all you were waiting for
I gave you my heart, I told you my soul

You were there in that college
And you like this god Frey
You were there in that college
And you like this god Loki

I gave you everything that I possibly could
But you just stood there with your hands wide open
I guess I should have expected that you would

You were there in that college
And you like this god Frey
You were there in that college
And you like this god Loki

What about what I want?
Were you ever gonna give me that?

So, if I gave you what you wanted
Would you really be happy?
And if I gave you what you wanted
Would I have been loved?

I'm a pretty cool chick
I like to laugh, I'm not too serious
maybe just a little mysterious
doesn't that make you curious

I'm a pretty cool chick
I've got my own dot com
I play guitar, I write you songs
I even have my own car
I'll let you take it for a ride

Let me make you feel like a man
you don't gotta be my biggest fan
I could do so many things to you
and you could say you're with the band
you could say you're with the band

My candle's not lit
hot wax could be naughty
when I use my voice like this
I'll see you in the morning, little fan

Let me make you feel like a man
you don't gotta be my biggest fan
I could do so many things to you

I'm a pretty cool chick
I like to laugh, I'm not too serious
maybe just a little mysterious
doesn't that make you curious
doesn't that make you curious
doesn't that make you curious

THE MEXICAN HOVERCRAFT

Montana Kentucky Bermuda Maine
Hovercraft race and the dreamer Lorraine
Won the Mexican Hovercraft in a backgammon game
The first to Bar Harbor wins a trip into space

And the Mexican Hovercraft is ready for speed
Shields and Yarnell and J. Appleseed
The heck with nostalgia there can be a new dawning
Lorraine at the wheel is still sneering and yawning

Give it sweet attention
An incense on interstate rain
Give it sweet attention
Appomatox is buzzing again

Give it sweet attention
An incense on interstate rain
Give it sweet attention
Appomatox is buzzing again

October train stations as dark as can be
Thoughts from Cape May are numbingly clean
Racing stripes in an autumn scheme
Bolt Wintercandie and the Laser Bee

Kentucky is chill and the contest is fading
The Lippizan Stallions are ready for mating
The Halma Club geeks are bitter and jaded

Lorraine hits the brakes with a pepper elation

Give it sweet attention
An incense on interstate rain
Give it sweet attention
Appomatox is buzzing again

Give it sweet attention
An incense on interstate rain
Give it sweet attention

MONSTER NOW

So how you been my crazy monster head?
Are you lonely?
I know I haven't been myself,
I thought I was OK on my own,
But sometimes you just need your
Crazy monster
Sometimes you just need your monster

Somethings very very very wrong
You're my Easter
And someday this will get easier

Look at the sky
And say good-bye
Feelings don't last
Licorice goes bad
And children sometimes cry and

Somethings very very very wrong
You're my Easter
And someday this will get easier

"Have another cigarette,"
I say to myself
What else is there to do?
I convince my monster

Somethings very very very wrong
You're my Easter
And someday this will get easier

So how you been my crazy monster head?
Are you lonely?
I know I haven't been myself
I thought I was okay on my own,
But sometimes you just need your
Crazy monster
Sometimes you just need your monster
Sometimes I just need my monster
Sometimes you just need your monster
Sometimes I just need my monster

ONLY SAW TRUCKS

The slower the warning here is building
And a slow travel down weird sideways
No fortress here nothing
Otherside and faraway something

Dreaming by the hotel check-in
He should be here any second
A glance and a look
I'm waiting for a car
But I only saw trucks
I only saw trucks

Detours to a row of vending machines
Hearing their voices trying to make my choices
Next time I'll wear long sleeves

Dreaming by the hotel check-in
He should be here any second
A glance and a look
I'm waiting for a car
But i only saw trucks
I mantra slam all

My dreaming has changed to wondering
Many seconds have gone by
Pulling into my face with a smile
He has arrived and I told him that I was

Dreaming by the hotel check-in Knowing you'd be here any second

Looking for your car but I only saw trucks
I only saw trucks

No wind no warning the desert is beat
Hopefully he'll be back quick
Standing alone near a red rock plateau
The air is downy like thunder
In my pocket no keys or money
Just dice and fax and phone numbers
Wrench and bolt 3 2 1 contact
One way is loosen one way is damn tighten

Baby I wanna get moving
But I only saw trucks
Baby I wanna get moving
But I only saw trucks
I only saw trucks

PENT BREEZE

Funnier and comfier, responsive and sane
Looping in imperfection space
Aukwise vinegars we're tinting slake
Terrarium daycare and the random sleep

You could be mine
In the early 90s
I'll find the time

You could be mine
In the early 90s
I'll find the time

Yo shrinkwrapped CD open it up
Climaxing and flaxen
A falconer attention
A Fallingwater affection
Change...
Rebel yanking my braid
Snarled stress gets unmade
A spy store gets rearranged
The days...
Are getting colder

POSSIBLE CALHOUN

Well here's the van, hop on in

There's still some fun in the world, y'know

So come along my friend

It's the time of day to open your mind

In other words it's anytime of the night or day

Don't believe in a starlight squeeze

Don't be the realistic one, oh jeez

Feel the morning slapping your frown

For a number of hours to come

We'll be hanging around

And singing around and playing around

And horsing and horsing

Around and around and around and AROUND

It's a wildering drifted gown

Licking freshly minted weeks

Oh...

Licking freshly minted weeks

Via va va vo and

Via va va vay

Toll plaza dragonflies

Wake up uh get up uh

Possible Calhoun

Via va va vo and

Via va va vay

Toll plaza dragonflies

Wake up uh get up uh

Possible Calhoun

Well hello space camp stepsister

Have you had that smile on long

Say you oughtta might honey feel the night

It's got a raven's nest and hero's hall

It's a wilderling drifted gown
Licking freshly minted weeks
Oh...
Licking freshly minted weeks

So let's go now my
Happy sleepy amigos
So let's go now my
Happy sleepy amigos
So let's go now my
Happy sleepy amigos

There's more of all this revelry
It will not go sour
Don't be a drag with all of your counting the hours
Let us love a fair time of slush in the flowers

Via va va vo and
Via va va vay
Toll plaza dragonflies
Wake up uh get up uh
Possible Calhoun

Via va va vo and
Via va va vay
Toll plaza dragonflies
Wake up uh get up uh
Possible Calhoun

Car wash canals clearly doesn't make sense,
But smiles live with me behind that fence
Chocolate and vanilla are quite complimentary
You and I seem so contradictory
Picture perfect places only exist in pictures
And nothing is guaranteed as a permanent fixture

You and me, maybe not
Just a thought, that's all I've got
You and me, maybe not
Just a thought, that's all I've got

In the cards and on the dice,
Take your chance, it might be nice
Waiting for nothing and playing the game
Waiting for you is just the same as
Waiting for nothing and playing the game

You and me, maybe not
Just a thought, that's all I've got
You and me, maybe not
Just a thought, that's all I've got

I'm okay with you here,
Acting silly, shimmering smiles
Looking like lavender after a while,
But you better bet both hands now mister
'Cause flounders are flying faster that you can

You and me, maybe not
Just a thought, that's all I've got
You and me, maybe not
Just a thought, that's all I've got

Sunflower Slow Drag 2
Lingerie in a suitcase in ice
A little mandolin gesture
Of a primitive pinball spice

I have agreed
Perhaps stupidly
To embark on a Hyper Mission

Out of a phase
The fading telecast age
With the in-flight dungeon games
In the flickety flames

I have agreed
I have agreed

Ridiculous Fortune
Savage FFM

Ocelot vibe
Bad Scoville in again

Out of a phase
The fading telecast age
With the in-flight dungeon games
In the flickety flames

I have agreed
I have agreed

This fiery Spring is a
Fine and naughty daydream
And strife is for erasing with Skinny dipping into things amazing

I have agreed
Perhaps stupidly
To embark on a Hyper Mission

Out of a phase
Out of a phase

Savage Far Field Monitor
Forgotten windshear friend
Lulling me the ramping lyre
Telecasting as the tundra falls
Away... Away... Away...

Savage FFM
Ocelot vibe
Bad Scoville in again

I have agreed
Out of a phase

SIGN OF THE MALLS

At a loser's house she sought the sign of the malls
People are insane towards her
What do you want

At a loser's house she sought the sign of the malls
People are insane towards her
What do you want

Sign of the malls
Going where I want to go
It's not a song for the insane people to sing

Sign of the malls
Going where I want to go
It's not a song for the insane people to sing

At the new york mercantile exchange
Lightning teen walk
What do you want

SLIDING GARDENS

And can I say we are
Crazy crossing a rocky stream
Kissing hills and air and dreams

Coltishly beaucoup in our mysteries

Bathing cool in a stimulating rio
Tiki and arctic phase at nanticoko
Singing folk space rock at the top of our lungs
Winding down in the wow fluff of the treetops

We can walk together
Under the moon or whatever
And our nasty predawn jive
Will even make the scorpions cry

We can walk together
Under the moon or whatever
And our nasty predawn jive
Will even make the scorpions cry

Humpback dude with jackdaw steed
Whale and bird on a new kind of trip
Motors and lights and audio delights
Rubber bands are pumping energy

The treasure of me is stalking away
At the whining dusk of day
Your mental aggression craft is called Attack-type dog

We can walk together
Under the moon or whatever
And our nasty predawn jive
Will even make the scorpions cry

We can walk together
Under the moon or whatever
And our nasty predawn jive
Will even make the scorpions cry

Above the primly introspective waste
The Rover is the tune
As we skydive in new wave ruins
She make weird animal dolls

Pogs were not a lasting trend
The new age it just came and went
The humans we're all stuck in are
The leftovers of an obvious recall

We can walk together

Under the moon or whatever
And our nasty predawn jive
Will even make the scorpions cry

We can walk together
Under the moon or whatever
And our nasty predawn jive
Will even make the scorpions cry

SOME IN THE WOODS

Though it wouldn't compute today
There were some in the woods
Detergent like misty May go away
Sunglasses like that she's no bank employee

The airport one of the grasslands
Has a nuclear weapon
There's a reptile that's almost here
And on carpet he ain't steppin'

Seen the white phosphorus braids
Of the jingle bell maker of the breeze
Erotically wasted
On the leaves of hidden trees

There's an elevator on the train
Of windmill and waterwheel
Saw a dryad with anthracite
Cuckoo clock's cold, gotta heat that steel

Bold and bright and savage hammer
From a field of silly flowers
Dark artwork of a corporation
Snowy and ruined, my night hours

Seen the white phosphorus braids
Of the jingle bell maker of the breeze
Erotically wasted
On the leaves of hidden trees

Though it wouldn't compute today
There were some in the woods
Detergent like misty May go away

Sunglasses like that she's no park ranger

The airport one of the grasslands
Has a nuclear weapon
There's a reptile that's almost here
And he's got my full attention

The grizzlycorn with the copper horn
In the light of digital clocks was born
Jesse and Sasha wore their outfits torn
And those in the woods, they hit their foghorn

Yes those in the woods, they hit their foghorn
Yes those in the woods, they hit their foghorn
Yes those in the woods, they hit their foghorn

TAKE A NAP

When this happens I feel trapped
When this happens I feel trapped
I need to run away to a place I can relax
'Cause when this happens
I feel trapped
I need a nap

When this happens I take a nap
When this happens I take a nap
Wrap me in a blanket
and throw me in the sack
'Cause when all this stuff happens
I take a nap
I feel trapped

James K. Polk and his hamster Zack
Are playing out in the back
When this stuff happens I take a nap
When that happens I take a nap
When that happens I take a nap <<<CHANGE line added
I feel trapped
I'm on attack

Let me shut off
with my pillow nice and soft
'Cause when all this stuff happens

I take a nap
When this happens I take a nap
I feel trapped
I feel trapped

I'm too big for daddy's lap
these days he just gives me a pat
so these days stuff happens
I take a nap
When that happens I take a nap
When this happens I take a nap
I feel trapped
I'm on attack

Don't wake me up
or I'll give you a whack

If that happened I'd take a nap

If you don't let me nap
I'll be on a Feral Kid attack

If that happened I'd take a nap
I'd play with Zack

When I wake from my nap
I can then deal with the crap
but when all this stuff happens
In Carbonite I'm trapped
I need a nap

Can I fathom this darkling drape?

Can I fathom this darkling drape?

Can I fathom this darkling drape?

I take a nap.

TEN MINUTES CAT

I always forget to water my plants
New clothes make me dance
I always forget to tell you how I feel

Always waiting for that second chance
Look at me with that long time glane
So I'm sure that you feel the same

Ten minutes cat, you better call
Ten minutes cat, until I fall
You've got ten minutes cat, that's all

I can't help feeling pissed
Why does no matter what this
Romance is such a game

Why do I leave it up to
Whether or not I feel blue
I don't know what else to say or do

Ten minutes cat, I'm waiting no more
Ten minutes cat, this is such a chore
Ten minutes to call, that's all

Ten minutes cat, you better call
Ten minutes cat, until I fall
You've got ten minutes cat, thats all.

TRANSIT SHIVERS

note: there are two versions of this song - the long version (below), and the short version, which is a subset of the long version

A thousand years ago, I was so alone
I had three horses, Bob, Jake and Fred
I made my money by making bread
Those horses were my only friends
and you said I was weird cause, I talked to them, but I knew, that you knew, that you loved me anyway

But, I was disruptive, I was untrusted, I was destructive with your heart
I was disruptive, I was untrusted, I was destructive with my heart
Transit shivers make me quiver
Transit shivers always make me quiver

Five hundred years ago, I was so alone
I had three plants, Daisy, Dead and Petal

I made my money by making metal
Those plants were my only friends
and you said I was crazy because, I talked to them,
but I knew, that you knew, that you loved me anyway

But, I was disruptive, I was untrusted, I was destructive with your heart
I was disruptive, I was untrusted, I was destructive with my heart
Transit shivers make me quiver
Transit shivers always make me quiver

One hundred years ago, I was so alone
I had three frogs, George, Blair, and Cope
I made my money by making soap
Those frogs were my only friends
and you said I was strange because, I talked to them
but I knew, that you knew, that you loved me anyway

But, I was disruptive, I was untrusted, I was destructive with your heart
I was disruptive, I was untrusted, I was destructive with my heart
Transit shivers make me quiver
Transit shivers always make me quiver

This year, I am so alone
I have three cuckoos, Mappy, Reese, and Kitty
I make my money by making old woman pretty
These cuckoos are my only friends
and you think I'm insane because, I talk to them
but I know, that you know, that you love me anyway

I'll try not being so disruptive, or untrusted, or destructive with your heart
So disruptive, or untrusted, or destructive with my heart
Transit shivers make me quiver
Transit shivers always make me quiver
And maybe someday I won't be so alone, so solo, so solo

THE US HOUNDS

Us Hound Control, to The Us Hounds below
All aboard for action, we're ready to go!

Welcome to the new world of passenger trains
Choo choo to gardens and plains,
yellow volcanoes in the rain
Their goal is no more than to entertain

Yet if passengers are threatened,
they will intervene

All that youth in media culture
Is daydream fodder for grandfathers and fathers
Claws named youth and visual jazz
The Weather Channel frail honchos

All that youth in media culture

Welcome to the new world of passenger trains
Choo choo to gardens and plains,
yellow volcanoes in the rain
Their goal is no more than to entertain
Yet if passengers are threatened,
they will intervene

Myra's on the synthesizer, in The Us Hounds
Enter the milieu, if you please, of The Us Hounds
Hildebad is on electric guitar, and Harla is on acoustic
Trace is on the bass guitar, and Bruckner plays the drums
They're rocking out on the rails of the world, The Us Hounds!

We are awfully proud of spring
And then again
Awfully bored of prance
And then again
Awfully proud of spring
And then again
Awfully bored of prance
And then again

All that youth in media culture
Is daydream fodder for grandfathers and fathers
Claws named youth and visual jazz
The Weather Channel frail honchos

All that youth in media culture

WEIRD HIGHWAY

I can't say this song is called dial
Get telepathic with gecko and skink for awhile
Steel wool crossfire is grand
a thousand years old, drawn on a goddess's hand

The subject of a company of dust
Dance rants laugh
On the Nordenskjold Line of my mind
Imbibing the stripes of industrial signs

Apartment pepper December fire coze
Clash of blasted slack with sudden pose
Like lemonglass walls of fulsome of those Total envy as Tixe-a is the one I chose

Cruisin' down a weird highway
on a Himalayan kitten's couch
Truckin' the dance of flying thru windows
is the only thing that counts

That Barchetta isn't red
It's gunmetal gray instead
Stumbling down Mediocre Lane

Some hatters are still sane

Cruisin' down a weird highway
on a Himalayan kitten's couch
Truckin' the dance of flying thru windows
is the only thing that counts

THE ARMIXHONY OF CONRAD

And took an immediate liking to this type of percussion
Wearing denim from head to toe
He doesn't know who to like
And he doesn't know where to stand

The Armixhony of Conrad
Another Universe Southland
The Delicious Potential of Spencer
Honk Towers is the town where he met her

Of startings over, hello
Dollhouse checkerboards in the black & tan
He's in the air, And her name is Flare
And they are going over there

Well it's official, it's night
And it's officially wet
As jesters from head to toe
The new games fresh in the memory

The Armixhony of Conrad
Another Universe Southland
The Delicious Potential of Spencer
Honk Towers is the town where he met her

When summer plant feathers flock in air
Spencer's a rock-climbing marketing hack
She puts in glass fragile artifacts
From semi-fictional mad shipwrecks
Flare's not gonna deal like that Conrad's in the Indian paddywhack

BACK TO CIRCLES

Love is all around me
Just not in me
Sometimes I'm wrapped in plastic it seems
Someone else's shoes is more appealing to me

Maybe if I just start spinning

Circles
Everything leads
Back to circles
Back to circles
Back to circles

Sometimes I try to speak
But I choke
Sometimes I laugh
When there's no joke
Now you see me
Now you don't
Sometimes I would
Most times I won't

Maybe if I just start spinning

Circles
Everything leads
Back to circles
Back to circles
Back to circles

Love is all around me
Just not in me
I'm wrapped in plastic again today
Someone else's shoes could help me run away

Maybe if I just start spinning

Circles
Everything leads
Back to circles
Back to circles
Back to circles

THE BROWN AND BLUE

Why do kids color lobsters red?
They're only red when they're dead
Why are these crustaceans dead?
'Cause people with butter are waiting for them

Lobsters red
When they're dead
Lobsters red
When they're dead
And sometimes crabs are victims too
They should stay brown and blue

Lobsters red
When they're dead
Lobsters red
When they're dead
And sometimes crabs are victims too
They should stay brown and blue

Why do kids color lobsters red?

BUILT-IN BOOKSHELVES

Black old shoes
And a dusty knife
I supinely rose, late last night
I did not succeed, 'cause the moment you sneezed
You blew all my courage away

You always find something to ruin my plans
You always found some way to serif my sans
But it's okay 'cause I've got...

Built-in bookshelves baby
Built-in bookshelves
Go get your reading glasses
'Cause I wanna teach you a lesson
about me

I thought I was easy to read

I thought I made it easy for you to read
I gave you the bait, but I guess you never bit
Could you really be this illiterate?

Built-in bookshelves baby
Built-in bookshelves
Go get those grinded lenses
'Cause I'm gonna teach you lesson
about me

I could've been the book you can't put down
Your neverending story
But I finally found
These built-in bookshelves inside me
I finally found these built-in bookshelves
Right here, inside me

Lissomeness, a creek, this geometric peace
Came so close to crashing, clean by not touching you at all
In your rockness, you made... me... see...
The flowers and fireworks in me
In your rockness, you made me see
And I learned a lesson about me

--

CATAMARAN WALKER

How could you let it come to this?
How could you let this take place?

The woman above me holds herself together with aerosol cans
The mirror seems to be her best friend
And I think this may change my plans
Since I'm starting to learn how to bend

Let me be who I am meant to be
Let me see how I can actually be

The woman below me tries to act drunk
Because she feels somewhat invisible
And I try to fathom the reason
But it's really not so hard to see

Let me learn from other women's mistakes
Let me learn so my heart will never break

The woman inside me is only a fantasy,
And the little girl that possesses me is only thinking about
Screaming and breaking free
The woman inside me is only a fantasy,
And the little girl that possesses me is only thinking
She's only thinking

Let me learn from other women's mistakes
Let me learn so my heart will never break

The person in the mirror is always a bit intrigued,
She is lonely, she is fearful, and not willing to receive
She imagines possibilities occurring from something only to realize
She still has nothing
So, she pretends to be okay and pretends to be alive, because she won't be responsible for letting herself die
Is there a man out there who is able to fix this?
For some reason I doubt that he even exists

How could you let it come to this?
How could you let this take place?

Your time is up, it's time to stand up and face this problem
That began long before you started to run,
Lost in space too far behind to ever catch up,
Losing my mind don't tell me again to shut up,
'Cause last time I listened and now look at me,
No really look...

Can you see me?...
Can you see me?

CHRISTIAN ROCK

Early in the concrete cement
Sheet metal whatever center
The seeping enterprise washing
I wish this snow was unrelenting

I bore a hole in the Nunavut springtime
My misery isn't interesting at all

I bore a hole in the Nunavut springtime
My misery isn't interesting at all

Overnight cable got the
Beanies and the Christian Rock
And all the puppets there
Are constructed outta socks

Overnight cable got the
Beanies and the Christian Rock
And all the puppets there
Are constructed outta socks

The they and the temperature level
Black trees, his antimatter sneeze
Selected slash of casino ash
Lass in the pedways of Halifax

I bore a hole in the Nunavut springtime
My misery isn't interesting at all

I bore a hole in the Nunavut springtime
My misery isn't interesting at all

Overnight cable got the
Beanies and the Christian Rock
And all the puppets there
Are constructed outta socks

Overnight cable got the
Beanies and the Christian Rock
And all the puppets there
Are constructed outta socks

I prepared all last night
To rip the waterfall to shreds
Deemrose Bonnie crossbow humid
Pedway ankh the breeze is in shock

I bore a hole in the Nunavut springtime
My misery isn't interesting at all

I bore a hole in the Nunavut springtime
My misery isn't interesting at all

Overnight cable got the
Beanies and the Christian Rock
And all the puppets there
Are constructed outta socks

Overnight cable got the
Beanies and the Christian Rock
And all the puppets there
Are constructed outta socks

Early in the sheetrock day
My chocolate factory is in no way
Hershey or Wonka but it's quite okay
Its effect keeps my childhood erect

I bore a hole in the Nunavut springtime
My misery isn't interesting at all

I bore a hole in the Nunavut springtime
My misery isn't interesting at all

Overnight cable got the
Beanies and the Christian Rock
And all the puppets there
Are constructed outta socks

COPING SAW SUNSET ROADS

Each morning I sleep in your family room
Sunshine in the raw clamps your terra cotta
Somewhat perfect I attend to marshes in dreams
And your cat is nice to me

Driving your truck to a home architecture place
My headband is giving out 65 messages
Tears on the yellow credit card receipt
And the scowls of dour teens aplenty

Searching the tippy tops of your many closets
Boardgames from the seventies often lurk there
And I brew that deep peppermint tea
Having missed 15 minutes of Quincy

I was not happy with your E-mail from the airport

I got a pile of magazines and a collage to create
I might walk in the night, some festivals are near
I have a cougar's soul, that's what I'll tell myself

Each morning I sleep in your family room

So I can play for you, when you get home
I have a cougar's soul, that's what I'll tell myself

CRAZY PLONTO

Calling all you tricky nothingnessess
A Crazy Plonto clockiful morning is storming
Seekling goes to store, vases on her mind
Pawn of the Ago Quartz, Crazy Plonto, Episode 5

Wanting the clop clop antique
Baby, as baby hawks are near
Three stupid things we got in here
Nostalgia, karate, and a sponge

Yeah Vulcan, that is me
Young, outcast, yeah I failed
Forging away, forming facades

Yeah I failed, yeah so now what?

Superscience needed, she loves muddy bay
Polluting the minds with ballet
Art in museum, doesn't mean a thing
A cat god robot on film she likes to see

A freckle and a burn, side by side
I would think that skeeball's your game
Pretty please play tetherball with me
Tonight you're cool, you're a fortieth century schoolgirl

Yeah Vulcan, that is me
Young, outcast, yeah I failed
Forging away, forming facades
Yeah I failed, yeah so now what?

Blue Jay Earth Phone
Bicentennial Quarter Maniac
Interthimble, erasing candles
Gaga Scirroco, I gather you're fumbling

Don Jay Maxfield plays the role
Time travel action hero, it's fantastic
She claims she's gonna marry him someday
And be in a Crazy Plonto movie

Yeah Vulcan, that is me
Young, outcast, yeah I failed
Forging away, forming facades
Yeah I failed, yeah so now what?

Yeah Vulcan, that is me
Young, outcast, yeah I failed
Forging away, forming facades
Yeah I failed, yeah...
Let's get outta here
Let's get outta here...

CUP OF JOE

I'm kind of in the mood for a cup of joe
I'm kind of in the mood for a cup of joe
I'm feeling kinda scared and I don't think it's fair

I'm feeling kinda scared and I don't think he cares

So, I'll hold in my thoughts
And I'll hold in my fears
Holden teach me how to be real

I'm kind of in the mood for a cup of joe
I'm kind of in the mood for a cup of joe

It's sort of strange, but it's classified as sane
It's sort of strange, and I know he thinks the same

An uncommon friendship that's lasted a few years
An uncommon friendship caused by my own fears

I'm kind of in the mood for a cup of joe
Kind of in the mood for a cup of joe
Kind of in the mood for a cup of joe

DEAR ANYONE

I think my heart needs a jump start
I feel the need, I feel the want, but i never learned how to flaunt
I'm a blessing in disguise, I promise you that
So come on, come on let me try on your hat

Dear Anyone, I'm lonely but I'm to blame
Dear Anyone, Show me my flame
Dear Anyone, you don't know how lucky you could be
Dear Anyone, I dare you to set me free

Dear Anyone, I'm lonely but I'm to blame
Dear Anyone, I'm begging show me my flame
Dear Anyone, you don't know how lucky you would be
Dear Anyone, I dare you to set me free

I think my heart needs a jump start
I feel the need, I feel the want, but i never learned how to flaunt
I'm a blessing in disguise, I promise you that
So, come on, come on, let me try on your hat

Dear Anyone, I'm lonely buy I'm to blame
Dear Anyone, I want a better flame
Dear Anyone, you don't know how lucky you would be

Dear Anyone, I dare you to set me free

DELUGE OF PRIMACY

Eight o'clock to sound in a peal
Her brunette crown through the window
A darkling intersection in between his things
Unfirm and awesome
She felt his eyes on her
Unfirm and awesome
She felt his eyes on her

A night in the city
Washington Square Park
Commencing on church steps in the dark
Still there and it's morning
Something keeping them awake
Unfirm and awesome
She felt his eyes on her
Unfirm and awesome
She felt his eyes on her

True Lies it's a snow cone maker
Syd Barrett sing Late Night
Deluge of Primacy dripping wax
She was still amazed
He continued to gaze
Unfirm and awesome
She felt his eyes on her
Unfirm and awesome
She felt his eyes on her

He only has eyes for her
He only has eyes for her

Dirtbike fun revolaxation
Dirtbike fun revolaxation
Dirtbike fun revolaxation

Dirtbike fun revolaxation

Dawdling as madly as the safety swing hummingbird
19 and 17 and 13 and 11 are indivisible like us and our friends

Your free will is set against a clockworking majesty
To thrash around uselessly
and following most of the rules

Calming the nerves of everyone
Surfing fun revolaxation
Hello keel your wanting need
Your handlers are a rational breed

Drowsy as elklike as the jester virgin spy
7 and 5 and
3 and 2 are indivisible like us and our friends

Kids can talk about freedom and it's real in an inside way
Chico Marx has the vital spark
If you like the chains, they'll give you more

Calming the nerves of everyone
Dirtbike fun revolaxation
Hello keel your wanting need
Your handlers are a damnable weed

FEAR NUMBER ONE

If I told you a story would you want to hear the end?
'Cause it's kinda long and it's awfully stupid
So just let me begin

It started on Michael's porch in 1984
He stuck his tongue in my mouth and I fell to the floor

He said we were playing make-believe
But pretending was never that real
And since that day, I've been afraid
Of the real thing
I'm afraid of the real thing
I'm afraid of the real thing
I'm afraid of the real thing

His mom saw us and she called to tell mine
My mom stood there in the kitchen and asked what's on my mind
And I said nothing
I said nothing
I said nothing
I said nothing

She asked if what she heard was true
I didn't know what to say
I wanted to tell the truth
That Michael made me play
But I said nothing
I said nothing and I lied
and I lied

And I'm not sure why, I let this control my mind
And I'm not sure how I became such a coward

I'm not sure why, I let this control my mind
I'm not sure how, it made me such a coward
I'm such a coward
I'm such a coward
I'm such a coward
I'm such a coward

And you loved to climb my tree
And you loved to watch me pee
Always asking how it works
How am I supposed know?
I'm only seven years old
How could you expect me know?
I'm only seven years old
Seven years old

And I'm not sure if that's the reason

But it keeps my wonder sane
And maybe if this didn't happen
I'd still turn out the same
Afraid of the real thing
I'm afraid of the real thing
I'm afraid of the real thing
I'm afraid of the real thing

And I wonder what would happen if the real thing came my way
What kind of excuses could I think of to say
Maybe I'd start to sing to help you understand
That I really don't want to leave it's just the way I am Afraid of the real thing
I'm afraid of the real thing
I'm afraid of the real thing
I'm afraid of the real thing

THE FILMOGRAPHY OF ANN B. DAVIS

Boring books that other people read
About adults and their infidelities
And travelling to romantic places
These readers are wanting of sleeves with aces

Paper plates with the cartoon stars of the day
Inelegant remains of some kind of ice cream cake
As relatives are lazing the tension is phasing
And phone calls at night's-end are hoped to be pleasing

Loving life can take more juice
Than the air conditioning at a mall
Rows and columns of bitches from college
Her place in the scheme of things is just idiotic

Loving life can take more juice
Than the air conditioning at a mall
Rows and columns of bitches from college
Her place in the scheme of things is just idiotic

As lame as a fast food no-left-turn sign
Dirty fingers that prod in the produce lane
Pirates adored as the dudes of pop culture
Real ones caused misery and torture

This place is construction zones and shoe store blues
The mentally scrambled at facade-craft are ample
The toys of the '80s are ready and waiting
Sweaty clothes are stripped and the shower is dreaming

Loving life can take more juice
Than the air conditioning at a mall
Rows and columns of bitches from college
Her place in the scheme of things is just idiotic

Loving life can take more juice
Than the air conditioning at a mall
Rows and columns of bitches from college
Her place in the scheme of things is just idiotic

This place has crap from the past that better not last
The razor wire friends that talk empty and fresh
Loving life is a rock guitar haunting
The mall is so cold that I gotta keep running

Rows and columns of bitches from college
Rows and columns of bitches from college
Rows and columns of bitches from college
Her place in the scheme of things is changing just slightly

37.20 [1343] The Rampler Special: Andy's Message (5/16/09) 4:46:00

May 16, 2009 is the 25th anniversary of the supposed death of Andy Kaufman. The website AndyKaufmanLives.com had been promising a special message for this day, so I got set up to record my reactions to it in real time. One thing I had been intending to do for awhile was sit out on the porch and smoke pipes. Also, having seen some recent web broadcasts from BradmanTV on USTREAM, I figured I would try it out myself, though I just had a kind of crappy webcam on my Acer Aspire One netbook.

In the end, I would up broadcasting for nearly 5 hours! It was a heck of a lot of fun. I smoked pipes and drank some "Black & White" Scotch on the porch, and we got Andy's "fuck you" message, and a lot of the people were watching and in the chatroom.

My battery ran out and I went inside and continued the show in The Overnightscape Studio, eventually drinking some absinthe and putting on a puppet show!! Also, showing some video of Andy Kaufman on Fridays with weird video feedback sounds... a whole lot of stuff. Most of it was recorded on video (see below)...

It was a very fun experience! I hope to do it again, hopefully with a better webcam...

From an audio perspective, this piece may be a bit difficult at times - long pauses and such - since so much was going on - but there is good stuff up till the very end, so stick with it!

37.21 [1344] The Overnightscape #780 (5/17/09) 1:29:00

Sounds of the Commons (Alternate Audio)

Go Away (Radio Segment)

Umbrella

1986

For Joey

Fall 1987?

--

News From Civilization

11/20/1985

(2:03) 11/20/85. Frank is a freshman in college and has drank way too much vodka. In a drunken stupor, he reads from a Walt Disney World guidebook...

Pineapple

October 1986

(2:08) An alternate take from the original footage of the Blufftoon "Weird October Hitchhiker". John is a waiter who gets abused by his customers...

The Famous Cameracorder

October 1986

(1:45) Now that you got your car started, can I have some food? Listen, this world runs on a capitalistic sort of system. You are an alms beggar. I have no need for you.

The Arkanoid Player

October 1986

(1:59) Step back in time to Drew University in October 1986... the campus arcade... with Galaga and Eight Ball Deluxe in the background... Bryan is playing... playing Arkanoid!

Matt Headroom

Fall 1986

It's a Tuck-In 1986

--

(2:55) In college, a girl's dorm was raising money by doing "tuck-ins". Frank and Mike buy one for Physics Phil, and surprise him with it. Check out the Blufftoon "Arcade Phantom" to hear Phil comment on this incident, among many other things.

Birthday 1988

(4:14) October 3, 1988... the offices of Anything But Monday Magazine in Caldwell, NJ... Mike wishes Frank a happy birthday by hurling batteries at him...

Anything But Monday Minimix mastered 7/27/03

Sounds of the Commons

1986

(9:26) Mike and Frank's cool trip to the college food center, recorded for their radio show, Anything But Monday. "Sights of the Uncommons" is the sequel to this Blufftoon.

A Hairy One

Fall 85 or Spring 86

(9:21) It's nighttime at college... and John is drunk! Hear his friends torment him in this mid-1980s classic!

Ping Pong

Early 1989

(18:47) Frank, Pete, and John visit Drew University in early 1989. Physics Phil bursts onto the scene. Then a confrontation. Then a quieter time with ping pong and the like. Then talking to people outside...

This is a very weird Blufftoon, but with some patience you'll be able to warp your ears and mind around it. Enjoy!

Go Away

1986

(3:04) Mike and Frank try to interview Physics Phil for their radio show, Anything But Monday. Phil is not cooperative. Check out the Space Shuttle Challenger disaster news report in the background, dating this piece to shortly after January 28, 1986.

Arcade Phantom

--

(16:20) A series of cool interviews with some fairly strange people. The subject: What do they think of Frank and his entertainment productions and stuff? The year: 1987. The location: Drew University, in Madison, NJ. Okay! Let's listen now!

Iggy and the Stud

1986

Weird Vice

Sep or Oct 1986

(5:36) The exciting adventures of Detective Goldberg on the campus of Weird University! Traffic violations, wild parties, drug deals... it's crazy crime action-adventure!

Weird October Hitchhiker

October 1986

(8:06) It's a Weird October at Weird University... and John's a waiter who gets abused by customers, and then has to hitchhike home one day...

Iggy and the Smart Guys

1986

(7:58) Iggy Szalzo interviews the smartest guys on the Weird University campus, Shannon O'Shannahan and Gil Mannings.

Shopping With Franco

Sep or Oct 1986

(8:41) Join Franco Wolfini and the mysterious cameraman "Willie" on a very wacky trip to the supermarket! Another audio masterpiece from "Weird University" ... including an appearance by Iggy Szalzo!

Weird October Beast

October 1986

(2:20) It's a Weird October at Weird University... and there's something wrong with Will! And whatever happened to Maureen...?

Iggy and the Condemned Man

1986

(7:18) Iggy Szalzo interviews Branson Stringfellow, a Weird University student who is scheduled to be executed for making obscene phone calls.

Sights of the Uncommons

(13:39) Fall 1986. Mike and Frank explore the wonders and mysteries of the college food center. Originally recorded for the video "Weird University".

Weird October Dreamer

October 1986

(4:31) It's a Weird October at Weird University... and why does Rob keep having these strange dreams...?

Weird October Spirit

October 1986

(1:58) It's a Weird October at Weird University... and Will, Rob, and John meet a mysterious stranger that they could all swear they've seen before...

For Joey (Full Version)

Originally released on Bluffcosm.com in March 2001. Original Description: “A computerized radio show all about video games! Recorded at the March 2001 NAVA video game collector’s meeting. Chock full of weirdness, sick topics, “adult material” ... and also some stuff about video games.”

Recorded at Video Game Connections in Howell, NJ. Some potentially “offensive” content.

This one is not my best work... but there's still a lot of interesting stuff to check out.

This is one of my favorite "Blufftoons". Blufftoons were the audio pieces on my Internet radio station, Bluffcosm.com. The idea was that a piece of non-music audio could be listened to over and over just like a song. To me, this Blufftoon is a real nihilistic treat.

FUZZY DAUPNER

You were there in that college
And you like this god Frey
You were there in that college
And you like this god Loki

You said this was all you were waiting for
I gave you my heart, I told you my soul

You were there in that college
And you like this god Frey
You were there in that college
And you like this god Loki

I gave you everything that I possibly could
But you just stood there with your hands wide open
I guess I should have expected that you would

You were there in that college
And you like this god Frey
You were there in that college
And you like this god Loki

What about what I want?
Were you ever gonna give me that?

So, if I gave you what you wanted
Would you really be happy?
And if I gave you what you wanted
Would I have been loved?

I'm a pretty cool chick
I like to laugh, I'm not too serious
maybe just a little mysterious
doesn't that make you curious

I'm a pretty cool chick
I've got my own dot com
I play guitar, I write you songs
I even have my own car
I'll let you take it for a ride

Let me make you feel like a man
you don't gotta be my biggest fan
I could do so many things to you
and you could say you're with the band
you could say you're with the band

My candle's not lit
hot wax could be naughty
when I use my voice like this
I'll see you in the morning, little fan

Let me make you feel like a man
you don't gotta be my biggest fan
I could do so many things to you
and you could say you're with the band
you could say you're with the band

I'm a pretty cool chick
I like to laugh, I'm not too serious
maybe just a little mysterious
doesn't that make you curious
doesn't that make you curious
doesn't that make you curious

Montana Kentucky Bermuda Maine
Hovercraft race and the dreamer Lorraine
Won the Mexican Hovercraft in a backgammon game
The first to Bar Harbor wins a trip into space

And the Mexican Hovercraft is ready for speed
Shields and Yarnell and J. Appleseed
The heck with nostalgia there can be a new dawning
Lorraine at the wheel is still sneering and yawning

Give it sweet attention
An incense on interstate rain
Give it sweet attention
Appomatox is buzzing again

Give it sweet attention
An incense on interstate rain
Give it sweet attention
Appomatox is buzzing again

October train stations as dark as can be
Thoughts from Cape May are numbingly clean
Racing stripes in an autumn scheme
Bolt Wintercindie and the Laser Bee

Kentucky is chill and the contest is fading
The Lippizan Stallions are ready for mating
The Halma Club geeks are bitter and jaded
Lorraine hits the brakes with a pepper elation

Give it sweet attention
An incense on interstate rain
Give it sweet attention
Appomatox is buzzing again

Give it sweet attention
An incense on interstate rain
Give it sweet attention
Appomatox is buzzing again

MONSTER NOW

So how you been my crazy monster head?
Are you lonely?
I know I haven't been myself,
I thought I was OK on my own,
But sometimes you just need your
Crazy monster
Sometimes you just need your monster

Somethings very very very wrong
You're my Easter
And someday this will get easier

Look at the sky
And say good-bye
Feelings don't last
Licorice goes bad
And children sometimes cry and

Somethings very very very wrong
You're my Easter
And someday this will get easier

"Have another cigarette,"
I say to myself
What else is there to do?
I convince my monster

Somethings very very very wrong
You're my Easter
And someday this will get easier

So how you been my crazy monster head?
Are you lonely?
I know I haven't been myself
I thought I was okay on my own,
But sometimes you just need your
Crazy monster
Sometimes you just need your monster
Sometimes I just need my monster
Sometimes you just need your monster
Sometimes I just need my monster

The slower the warning here is building
And a slow travel down weird sideways
No fortress here nothing
Otherside and faraway something

Dreaming by the hotel check-in
He should be here any second
A glance and a look
I'm waiting for a car
But I only saw trucks
I only saw trucks

Detours to a row of vending machines
Hearing their voices trying to make my choices
Next time I'll wear long sleeves

Dreaming by the hotel check-in
He should be here any second
A glance and a look
I'm waiting for a car
But i only saw trucks
I mantra slam all

My dreaming has changed to wondering
Many seconds have gone by
Pulling into my face with a smile
He has arrived and I told him that I was

Dreaming by the hotel check-in
Knowing you'd be here any second
Looking for your car but I only saw trucks
I only saw trucks

No wind no warning the desert is beat
Hopefully he'll be back quick
Standing alone near a red rock plateau
The air is downy like thunder
In my pocket no keys or money
Just dice and fax and phone numbers
Wrench and bolt 3 2 1 contact
One way is loosen one way is damn tighten

Baby I wanna get moving

But I only saw trucks
Baby I wanna get moving
But I only saw trucks
I only saw trucks

PENT BREEZE

Funnier and comfier, responsive and sane
Looping in imperfection space
Aukwise vinegars we're tinting slake
Terrarium daycare and the random sleep

You could be mine
In the early 90s
I'll find the time

You could be mine
In the early 90s
I'll find the time

Yo shrinkwrapped CD open it up
Climaxing and flaxen
A falconer attention
A Fallingwater affection
Change...
Rebel yanking my braid
Snarled stress gets unmade
A spy store gets rearranged
The days...
Are getting colder

Pent Breeze
Information please
I can't go to Europe right now

Pent Breeze
Maybe space is east
Garage sale signs are old

Frivolarctango's the focus pretty motorhome
Millheel Chamille's the focus pretty van
It's okay to fantasize
In an unbuilt building night
All mimsy were the slot machines
Cheap maple syrup is cheap

Yo shrinkwrapped CD open it up
Climaxing and flaxen
A falconer attention
A Fallingwater affection
Change...
Rebel yanking my braid
Snarled stress gets unmade
A spy store gets rearranged
The days...

Well here's the van, hop on in

There's still some fun in the world, y'know
So come along my friend

It's the time of day to open your mind
In other words it's anytime of the night or day

Don't believe in a starlight squeeze
Don't be the realistic one, oh jeez
Feel the morning slapping your frown
For a number of hours to come
We'll be hanging around
And singing around and playing around
And horsing and horsing
Around and around and around and AROUND

It's a wildering drifted gown
Licking freshly minted weeks
Oh...
Licking freshly minted weeks

Via va va vo and
Via va va vay
Toll plaza dragonflies
Wake up uh get up uh
Possible Calhoun

Via va va vo and
Via va va vay
Toll plaza dragonflies
Wake up uh get up uh
Possible Calhoun

Well hello space camp stepsister
Have you had that smile on long
Say you oughtta might honey feel the night
It's got a raven's nest and hero's hall

It's a wildering drifted gown
Licking freshly minted weeks
Oh...
Licking freshly minted weeks

So let's go now my
Happy sleepy amigos
So let's go now my
Happy sleepy amigos
So let's go now my
Happy sleepy amigos

There's more of all this revelry
It will not go sour
Don't be a drag with all of your counting the hours
Let us love a fair time of slush in the flowers

Via va va vo and
Via va va vay
Toll plaza dragonflies
Wake up uh get up uh
Possible Calhoun

Via va va vo and
Via va va vay
Toll plaza dragonflies
Wake up uh get up uh
Possible Calhoun

Car wash canals clearly doesn't make sense,
But smiles live with me behind that fence
Chocolate and vanilla are quite complimentary
You and I seem so contradictory
Picture perfect places only exist in pictures
And nothing is guaranteed as a permanent fixture

You and me, maybe not
Just a thought, that's all I've got
You and me, maybe not
Just a thought, that's all I've got

In the cards and on the dice,
Take your chance, it might be nice
Waiting for nothing and playing the game
Waiting for you is just the same as
Waiting for nothing and playing the game

You and me, maybe not
Just a thought, that's all I've got
You and me, maybe not
Just a thought, that's all I've got

I'm okay with you here,

Acting silly, shimmering smiles
Looking like lavender after a while,
But you better bet both hands now mister
‘Cause flounders are flying faster that you can

You and me, maybe not
Just a thought, that’s all I’ve got
You and me, maybe not
Just a thought, that’s all I’ve got

Sunflower Slow Drag 2
Lingerie in a suitcase in ice
A little mandolin gesture
Of a primitive pinball spice

I have agreed
Perhaps stupidly
To embark on a Hyper Mission

Out of a phase
The fading telecast age
With the in-flight dungeon games
In the flickety flames

I have agreed
I have agreed

Ridiculous Fortune
Savage FFM
Ocelot vibe
Bad Scoville in again

Out of a phase
The fading telecast age
With the in-flight dungeon games
In the flickety flames

I have agreed
I have agreed

This fiery Spring is a
Fine and naughty daydream

And strife is for erasing with Skinny dipping into things amazing

I have agreed
Perhaps stupidly
To embark on a Hyper Mission

Out of a phase
Out of a phase

Savage Far Field Monitor
Forgotten windshear friend
Lulling me the ramping lyre
Away... Away... Away...

Ridiculous Fortune
Savage FFM
Ocelot vibe
Bad Scoville in again

I have agreed
Out of a phase

I have agreed
Out of a phase

I have agreed
Out of a phase

SIGN OF THE MALLS

At a loser's house she sought the sign of the malls
People are insane towards her
What do you want

At a loser's house she sought the sign of the malls
People are insane towards her
What do you want

Sign of the malls
Going where I want to go

It's not a song for the insane people to sing

Sign of the malls

Going where I want to go

It's not a song for the insane people to sing

At the new york mercantile exchange

Lightning teen walk

What do you want

At the new york mercantile exchange

Lightning teen walk

What do you want

Sign of the malls

Going where I want to go

It's not a song for the insane people to sing

Sign of the malls

Going where I want to go

It's not a song for the insane people to sing

Do not keep throwing oranges at me

It's not what I want

So unlock the storm

SLIDING GARDENS

And can I say we are

Crazy crossing a rocky stream

Kissing hills and air and dreams

Coltishly beaucoup in our mysteries

Bathing cool in a stimulating rio

Tiki and arctic phase at nanticoko

Singing folk space rock at the top of our lungs

Winding down in the wow fluff of the treetops

We can walk together

Under the moon or whatever

And our nasty predawn jive

Will even make the scorpions cry

We can walk together

Under the moon or whatever
And our nasty predawn jive
Will even make the scorpions cry

Humpback dude with jackdaw steed
Whale and bird on a new kind of trip
Motors and lights and audio delights
Rubber bands are pumping energy

The treasure of me is stalking away
At the whining dusk of day
Your mental aggression craft is called Attack-type dog

We can walk together
Under the moon or whatever
And our nasty predawn jive
Will even make the scorpions cry

We can walk together
Under the moon or whatever
And our nasty predawn jive
Will even make the scorpions cry

Above the primly introspective waste
The Rover is the tune
As we skydive in new wave ruins
She make weird animal dolls

Pogs were not a lasting trend
The new age it just came and went
The humans we're all stuck in are
The leftovers of an obvious recall

We can walk together
Under the moon or whatever
And our nasty predawn jive
Will even make the scorpions cry

We can walk together
Under the moon or whatever
And our nasty predawn jive
Will even make the scorpions cry

SOME IN THE WOODS

Though it wouldn't compute today
There were some in the woods
Detergent like misty May go away
Sunglasses like that she's no bank employee

The airport one of the grasslands
Has a nuclear weapon
There's a reptile that's almost here
And on carpet he ain't steppin'

Seen the white phosphorus braids
Of the jingle bell maker of the breeze
Erotically wasted
On the leaves of hidden trees

There's an elevator on the train
Of windmill and waterwheel
Saw a dryad with anthracite
Cuckoo clock's cold, gotta heat that steel

Bold and bright and savage hammer
From a field of silly flowers
Dark artwork of a corporation
Snowy and ruined, my night hours

Seen the white phosphorus braids
Of the jingle bell maker of the breeze
Erotically wasted
On the leaves of hidden trees

Though it wouldn't compute today
There were some in the woods
Detergent like misty May go away
Sunglasses like that she's no park ranger

The airport one of the grasslands
Has a nuclear weapon
There's a reptile that's almost here
And he's got my full attention

The grizzlycorn with the copper horn
In the light of digital clocks was born
Jesse and Sasha wore their outfits torn
And those in the woods, they hit their foghorn

Yes those in the woods, they hit their foghorn

Yes those in the woods, they hit their foghorn
Yes those in the woods, they hit their foghorn

TAKE A NAP

When this happens I feel trapped
When this happens I feel trapped
I need to run away to a place I can relax
'Cause when this happens
I feel trapped
I need a nap

When this happens I take a nap
When this happens I take a nap
Wrap me in a blanket
and throw me in the sack
'Cause when all this stuff happens
I take a nap
I feel trapped

James K. Polk and his hamster Zack
Are playing out in the back
When this stuff happens I take a nap
When that happens I take a nap
When that happens I take a nap ---CHANGE line added
I feel trapped
I'm on attack

Let me shut off
with my pillow nice and soft
'Cause when all this stuff happens
I take a nap
When this happens I take a nap
I feel trapped
I feel trapped

I'm too big for daddy's lap
these days he just gives me a pat
so these days stuff happens
I take a nap
When that happens I take a nap
When this happens I take a nap
I feel trapped
I'm on attack

Don't wake me up
or I'll give you a whack

If that happened I'd take a nap

If you don't let me nap
I'll be on a Feral Kid attack

If that happened I'd take a nap
I'd play with Zack

When I wake from my nap
I can then deal with the crap
but when all this stuff happens
In Carbonite I'm trapped
I need a nap

Can I fathom this darkling drape?

Can I fathom this darkling drape?

Can I fathom this darkling drape?

I take a nap.

TEN MINUTES CAT

I always forget to water my plants
New clothes make me dance
I always forget to tell you how I feel

Always waiting for that second chance
Look at me with that long time glane
So I'm sure that you feel the same

Ten minutes cat, you better call
Ten minutes cat, until I fall
You've got ten minutes cat, that's all

I can't help feeling pissed
Why does no matter what this
Romance is such a game

Why do I leave it up to
Whether or not I feel blue
I don't know what else to say or do

Ten minutes cat, I'm waiting no more
Ten minutes cat, this is such a chore
Ten minutes to call, that's all

Ten minutes cat, you better call
Ten minutes cat, until I fall
You've got ten minutes cat, that's all.

note: there are two versions of this song - the long version (below), and the short version, which is a subset of the long version

A thousand years ago, I was so alone
I had three horses, Bob, Jake and Fred
I made my money by making bread
Those horses were my only friends
and you said I was weird cause, I talked to them,
but I knew, that you knew, that you loved me anyway

But, I was disruptive, I was untrusted, I was destructive with your heart
I was disruptive, I was untrusted, I was destructive with my heart
Transit shivers make me quiver
Transit shivers always make me quiver

Five hundred years ago, I was so alone
I had three plants, Daisy, Dead and Petal
I made my money by making metal
Those plants were my only friends
and you said I was crazy because, I talked to them,
but I knew, that you knew, that you loved me anyway

But, I was disruptive, I was untrusted, I was destructive with your heart
I was disruptive, I was untrusted, I was destructive with my heart
Transit shivers make me quiver
Transit shivers always make me quiver

One hundred years ago, I was so alone
I had three frogs, George, Blair, and Cope
I made my money by making soap

Those frogs were my only friends
and you said I was strange because, I talked to them
but I knew, that you knew, that you loved me anyway

But, I was disruptive, I was untrusted, I was destructive with your heart
I was disruptive, I was untrusted, I was destructive with my heart
Transit shivers make me quiver
Transit shivers always make me quiver

This year, I am so alone
I have three cuckoos, Mappy, Reese, and Kitty
I make my money by making old woman pretty
These cuckoos are my only friends
and you think I'm insane because, I talk to them
but I know, that you know, that you love me anyway

I'll try not being so disruptive, or untrusted, or destructive with your heart
So disruptive, or untrusted, or destructive with my heart
Transit shivers make me quiver
Transit shivers always make me quiver
And maybe someday I won't be so alone, so solo, so solo

Us Hound Control, to The Us Hounds below
All aboard for action, we're ready to go!

Welcome to the new world of passenger trains
Choo choo to gardens and plains,
yellow volcanoes in the rain
Their goal is no more than to entertain
Yet if passengers are threatened,
they will intervene

All that youth in media culture
Is daydream fodder for grandfathers and fathers
Claws named youth and visual jazz
The Weather Channel frail honchos

All that youth in media culture

Welcome to the new world of passenger trains
Choo choo to gardens and plains,
yellow volcanoes in the rain
Their goal is no more than to entertain
Yet if passengers are threatened,
they will intervene

Myra's on the synthesizer, in The Us Hounds
Enter the milieu, if you please, of The Us Hounds
Hildebad is on electric guitar, and Harla is on acoustic
Trace is on the bass guitar, and Bruckner plays the drums
They're rocking out on the rails of the world, The Us Hounds!

We are awfully proud of spring
And then again
Awfully bored of prance
And then again
Awfully proud of spring
And then again
Awfully bored of prance
And then again

All that youth in media culture
Is daydream fodder for grandfathers and fathers
Claws named youth and visual jazz
The Weather Channel frail honchos

I can't say this song is called dial
Get telepathic with gecko and skink for awhile
Steel wool crossfire is grand
a thousand years old, drawn on a goddess's hand

The subject of a company of dust
Dance rants laugh
On the Nordenskjold Line of my mind
Imbibing the stripes of industrial signs

Apartment pepper December fire coze
Clash of blasted slack with sudden pose
Like lemonglass walls of fulsome of those Total envy as Tixe-a is the one I chose

Cruisin' down a weird highway
on a Himalayan kitten's couch
Truckin' the dance of flying thru windows
is the only thing that counts

That Barchetta isn't red
It's gunmetal gray instead
Stumbling down Mediocre Lane
Some hatters are still sane

Cruisin' down a weird highway
on a Himalayan kitten's couch
Truckin' the dance of flying thru windows
is the only thing that counts

And took an immediate liking to this type of percussion
Wearing denim from head to toe
He doesn't know who to like
And he doesn't know where to stand

The Armixhony of Conrad
Another Universe Southland
The Delicious Potential of Spencer
Honk Towers is the town where he met her

Of startings over, hello
Dollhouse checkerboards in the black & tan
He's in the air, And her name is Flare
And they are going over there

Well it's official, it's night
And it's officially wet
As jesters from head to toe
The new games fresh in the memory

The Armixhony of Conrad
Another Universe Southland
The Delicious Potential of Spencer
Honk Towers is the town where he met her

When summer plant feathers flock in air
Spencer's a rock-climbing marketing hack
She puts in glass fragile artifacts
From semi-fictional mad shipwrecks
Flare's not gonna deal like that
Conrad's in the Indian paddywhack

BACK TO CIRCLES

Love is all around me
Just not in me
Sometimes I'm wrapped in plastic it seems
Someone else's shoes is more appealing to me

Maybe if I just start spinning

Circles
Everything leads
Back to circles

Back to circles

Back to circles

Sometimes I try to speak

But I choke

Sometimes I laugh

When there's no joke

Now you see me

Now you don't

Sometimes I would

Most times I won't

Maybe if I just start spinning

Circles

Everything leads

Back to circles

Back to circles

Back to circles

Love is all around me

Just not in me

I'm wrapped in plastic again today

Someone else's shoes could help me run away

Maybe if I just start spinning

Circles

Everything leads

Back to circles

Back to circles

Back to circles

Why do kids color lobsters red?

They're only red when they're dead

Why are these crustaceans dead?

'Cause people with butter are waiting for them

Lobsters red

When they're dead

Lobsters red

When they're dead

And sometimes crabs are victims too
They should stay brown and blue

Lobsters red
When they're dead
Lobsters red
When they're dead
And sometimes crabs are victims too
They should stay brown and blue

Why do kids color lobsters red?

Black old shoes
And a dusty knife
I supinely rose, late last night
I did not succeed, 'cause the moment you sneezed
You blew all my courage away

You always find something to ruin my plans
You always found some way to serif my sans
But it's okay 'cause I've got...

Built-in bookshelves baby
Built-in bookshelves
Go get your reading glasses
'Cause I wanna teach you a lesson
about me

I thought I was easy to read
I thought I made it easy for you to read
I gave you the bait, but I guess you never bit
Could you really be this illiterate?

Built-in bookshelves baby
Built-in bookshelves
Go get those grinded lenses
'Cause I'm gonna teach you lesson
about me

I could've been the book you can't put down
Your neverending story
But I finally found

These built-in bookshelves inside me
I finally found these built-in bookshelves
Right here, inside me

Lissomeness, a creek, this geometric peace
Came so close to crashing, clean by not touching you at all
In your rockness, you made... me... see...
The flowers and fireworks in me
In your rockness, you made me see
And I learned a lesson about me

CATAMARAN WALKER

How could you let it come to this?
How could you let this take place?

The woman above me holds herself together with aerosol cans
The mirror seems to be her best friend
And I think this may change my plans
Since I'm starting to learn how to bend

Let me be who I am meant to be
Let me see how I can actually be

The woman below me tries to act drunk
Because she feels somewhat invisible
And I try to fathom the reason
But it's really not so hard to see

Let me learn from other women's mistakes
Let me learn so my heart will never break

The woman inside me is only a fantasy,
And the little girl that possesses me is only thinking about
Screaming and breaking free
The woman inside me is only a fantasy,
And the little girl that possesses me is only thinking
She's only thinking

Let me learn from other women's mistakes
Let me learn so my heart will never break

The person in the mirror is always a bit intrigued,
She is lonely, she is fearful, and not willing to receive

She imagines possibilities occurring from something only to realize

She still has nothing

So, she pretends to be okay and pretends to be alive, because she won't be responsible for letting herself die

Is there a man out there who is able to fix this?

For some reason I doubt that he even exists

How could you let it come to this?

How could you let this take place?

Your time is up, it's time to stand up and face this problem

That began long before you started to run,

Lost in space too far behind to ever catch up,

Losing my mind don't tell me again to shut up,

'Cause last time I listened and now look at me,

No really look...

Can you see me?...

Can you see me?

Early in the concrete cement

Sheet metal whatever center

The seeping enterprise washing

I wish this snow was unrelenting

I bore a hole in the Nunavut springtime

My misery isn't interesting at all

I bore a hole in the Nunavut springtime

My misery isn't interesting at all

Overnight cable got the

Beanies and the Christian Rock

And all the puppets there

Are constructed outta socks

Overnight cable got the

Beanies and the Christian Rock

And all the puppets there

Are constructed outta socks

The they and the temperature level

Black trees, his antimatter sneeze

Selected slash of casino ash
Lass in the pedways of Halifax

I bore a hole in the Nunavut springtime
My misery isn't interesting at all

I bore a hole in the Nunavut springtime
My misery isn't interesting at all

Overnight cable got the
Beanies and the Christian Rock
And all the puppets there
Are constructed outta socks

Overnight cable got the
Beanies and the Christian Rock
And all the puppets there
Are constructed outta socks

I prepared all last night
To rip the waterfall to shreds
Deemrose Bonnie crossbow humid
Pedway ankh the breeze is in shock

I bore a hole in the Nunavut springtime
My misery isn't interesting at all

I bore a hole in the Nunavut springtime
My misery isn't interesting at all

Overnight cable got the
Beanies and the Christian Rock
And all the puppets there
Are constructed outta socks

Overnight cable got the
Beanies and the Christian Rock
And all the puppets there
Are constructed outta socks

Early in the sheetrock day
My chocolate factory is in no way
Hershey or Wonka but it's quite okay
Its effect keeps my childhood erect

I bore a hole in the Nunavut springtime
My misery isn't interesting at all

I bore a hole in the Nunavut springtime
My misery isn't interesting at all

Overnight cable got the
Beanies and the Christian Rock

COPING SAW SUNSET ROADS

Each morning I sleep in your family room
Sunshine in the raw clamps your terra cotta
Somewhat perfect I attend to marshes in dreams
And your cat is nice to me

Driving your truck to a home architecture place
My headband is giving out 65 messages
Tears on the yellow credit card receipt
And the scowls of dour teens aplenty

Searching the tippy tops of your many closets
Boardgames from the seventies often lurk there
And I brew that deep peppermint tea
Having missed 15 minutes of Quincy

I was not happy with your E-mail from the airport
I got a pile of magazines and a collage to create
I might walk in the night, some festivals are near
I have a cougar's soul, that's what I'll tell myself

So I'll read my newsgroup and try to learn a song
So I can play for you, when you get home
I have a cougar's soul, that's what I'll tell myself

Calling all you tricky nothingnesses
A Crazy Plonto clockiful morning is storming
Seekling goes to store, vases on her mind
Pawn of the Ago Quartz, Crazy Plonto, Episode 5

Wanting the clop clop antique
Baby, as baby hawks are near
Three stupid things we got in here
Nostalgia, karate, and a sponge

Yeah Vulcan, that is me
Young, outcast, yeah I failed
Forging away, forming facades
Yeah I failed, yeah so now what?

Superscience needed, she loves muddy bay
Polluting the minds with ballet
Art in museum, doesn't mean a thing
A cat god robot on film she likes to see

A freckle and a burn, side by side
I would think that skeeball's your game
Pretty please play tetherball with me
Tonight you're cool, you're a fortieth century schoolgirl

Yeah Vulcan, that is me

Young, outcast, yeah I failed
Forging away, forming facades
Yeah I failed, yeah so now what?

Blue Jay Earth Phone
Bicentennial Quarter Maniac
Interthimble, erasing candles
Gaga Scirroco, I gather you're fumbling

Don Jay Maxfield plays the role
Time travel action hero, it's fantastic
She claims she's gonna marry him someday
And be in a Crazy Plonto movie

Yeah Vulcan, that is me
Young, outcast, yeah I failed
Forging away, forming facades
Yeah I failed, yeah so now what?

Yeah Vulcan, that is me
Young, outcast, yeah I failed
Forging away, forming facades
Yeah I failed, yeah...
Let's get outta here
Let's get outta here...

CUP OF JOE

I'm kind of in the mood for a cup of joe
I'm kind of in the mood for a cup of joe
I'm feeling kinda scared and I don't think it's fair
I'm feeling kinda scared and I don't think he cares

So, I'll hold in my thoughts
And I'll hold in my fears
Holden teach me how to be real

I'm kind of in the mood for a cup of joe
I'm kind of in the mood for a cup of joe

It's sort of strange, but it's classified as sane
It's sort of strange, and I know he thinks the same

An uncommon friendship that's lasted a few years

An uncommon friendship caused by my own fears

I'm kind of in the mood for a cup of joe
Kind of in the mood for a cup of joe
Kind of in the mood for a cup of joe

DEAR ANYONE

I think my heart needs a jump start
I feel the need, I feel the want, but i never learned how to flaunt
I'm a blessing in disguise, I promise you that
So come on, come on let me try on your hat

Dear Anyone, I'm lonely but I'm to blame
Dear Anyone, Show me my flame
Dear Anyone, you don't know how lucky you could be
Dear Anyone, I dare you to set me free

Dear Anyone, I'm lonely but I'm to blame
Dear Anyone, I'm begging show me my flame
Dear Anyone, you don't know how lucky you would be
Dear Anyone, I dare you to set me free

I think my heart needs a jump start
I feel the need, I feel the want, but i never learned how to flaunt
I'm a blessing in disguise, I promise you that
So, come on, come on, let me try on your hat

Dear Anyone, I'm lonely buy I'm to blame
Dear Anyone, I want a better flame
Dear Anyone, you don't know how lucky you would be
Dear Anyone, I dare you to set me free

Eight o'clock to sound in a peal
Her brunette crown through the window
A darkling intersection in between his things
Unfirm and awesome
She felt his eyes on her

Unfirm and awesome
She felt his eyes on her

A night in the city
Washington Square Park
Commencing on church steps in the dark
Still there and it's morning
Something keeping them awake
Unfirm and awesome
She felt his eyes on her
Unfirm and awesome
She felt his eyes on her

True Lies it's a snow cone maker
Syd Barrett sing Late Night
Deluge of Primacy dripping wax
She was still amazed
He continued to gaze
Unfirm and awesome
She felt his eyes on her
Unfirm and awesome
She felt his eyes on her

He only has eyes for her
He only has eyes for her

DIRT BIKE FUN

Dirtbike fun revolaxation
Dirtbike fun revolaxation
Dirtbike fun revolaxation
Dirtbike fun revolaxation

Dawdling as madly as the safety swing hummingbird
19 and 17 and 13 and 11 are
indivisible like us and our friends

Your free will is set against
a clockworking majesty
To thrash around uselessly
and following most of the rules

Calming the nerves of everyone
Surfing fun relaxation
Hello keep your wanting need
Your handlers are a rational breed

Drowsy as elklike as
the jester virgin spy
7 and 5 and
3 and 2 are indivisible like us and our friends

Kids can talk about freedom
and it's real in an inside way
Chico Marx has the vital spark
If you like the chains, they'll give you more

Calming the nerves of everyone
Dirtbike fun relaxation
Hello keep your wanting need
Your handlers are a damnable weed

Surfing fun relaxation
Surfing fun relaxation
Surfing fun relaxation
Surfing fun relaxation

FEAR NUMBER ONE

If I told you a story would you want to hear the end?
'Cause it's kinda long and it's awfully stupid
So just let me begin

It started on Michael's porch in 1984
He stuck his tongue in my mouth and I fell to the floor

He said we were playing make-believe
But pretending was never that real
And since that day, I've been afraid
Of the real thing
I'm afraid of the real thing
I'm afraid of the real thing
I'm afraid of the real thing

His mom saw us and she called to tell mine

My mom stood there in the kitchen and asked what's on my mind
And I said nothing
I said nothing
I said nothing
I said nothing

She asked if what she heard was true
I didn't know what to say
I wanted to tell the truth
That Michael made me play
But I said nothing
I said nothing
and I lied
and I lied

And I'm not sure why, I let this control my mind
And I'm not sure how I became such a coward

I'm not sure why, I let this control my mind
I'm not sure how, it made me such a coward
I'm such a coward
I'm such a coward
I'm such a coward
I'm such a coward

And you loved to climb my tree
And you loved to watch me pee
Always asking how it works
How am I supposed know?
I'm only seven years old
How could you expect me know?
I'm only seven years old
Seven years old

And I'm not sure if that's the reason
But it keeps my wonder sane
And maybe if this didn't happen
I'd still turn out the same
Afraid of the real thing
I'm afraid of the real thing
I'm afraid of the real thing
I'm afraid of the real thing

And I wonder what would happen if the real thing came my way
What kind of excuses could I think of to say
Maybe I'd start to sing to help you understand
That I really don't want to leave it's just the way I am Afraid of the real thing

I'm afraid of the real thing
I'm afraid of the real thing
I'm afraid of the real thing

THE FILMOGRAPHY OF ANN B. DAVIS

Boring books that other people read
About adults and their infidelities
And travelling to romantic places
These readers are wanting of sleeves with aces

Paper plates with the cartoon stars of the day
Inelegant remains of some kind of ice cream cake
As relatives are lazing the tension is phasing
And phone calls at night's-end are hoped to be pleasing

Loving life can take more juice
Than the air conditioning at a mall
Rows and columns of bitches from college
Her place in the scheme of things is just idiotic

Loving life can take more juice
Than the air conditioning at a mall
Rows and columns of bitches from college
Her place in the scheme of things is just idiotic

As lame as a fast food no-left-turn sign
Dirty fingers that prod in the produce lane
Pirates adored as the dudes of pop culture
Real ones caused misery and torture

This place is construction zones and shoe store blues
The mentally scrambled at facade-craft are ample
The toys of the '80s are ready and waiting
Sweaty clothes are stripped and the shower is dreaming

Loving life can take more juice
Than the air conditioning at a mall
Rows and columns of bitches from college
Her place in the scheme of things is just idiotic

Loving life can take more juice
Than the air conditioning at a mall
Rows and columns of bitches from college

Her place in the scheme of things is just idiotic

This place has crap from the past that better not last
The razor wire friends that talk empty and fresh
Loving life is a rock guitar haunting
The mall is so cold that I gotta keep running

Rows and columns of bitches from college
Rows and columns of bitches from college
Rows and columns of bitches from college
Her place in the scheme of things is changing just slightly

“The Woodstock 89 Tape (8/16/89)” - recorded August 16, 1989 - 1:30:40 - 83.1 MB - StationUnlimited.com release #1 (December 17, 2005) - su-W89-01_Wdstck89_Tape-001

I started a magazine in college with my friend Mike. It was called Anything But Monday, and by 1988 we were distributing it to comic books shops nationwide. Unfortunately, we didn’t sell enough copies to keep it going, and by the summer of 1989 the business was falling apart.

On August 16, 1989, just 3 months before the final collapse of the magazine in November, Mike and I took a trip up to Bethel, NY, where people had gathered in an impromptu celebration of the 20th Anniversary of Woodstock, often referred to as Woodstock ‘89 (here is the Wikipedia article on it.) The idea was that we would take pictures and interview people for a feature in the magazine. We recorded a 90-minute tape of the event, primarily so we could transcribe the interviews for the magazine.

After we left Bethel, our car broke down and we watched the lunar eclipse in the parking lot of some municipal building in the middle of nowhere. Eventually, our business partner Jim Lord came and rescued us. We put together the feature for our last issue, as seen below (click for larger pictures):

And here are some hi-res scans of the photos we took (in chronological order):01-Dennis 02-Daniel 03-Steven 04-Ziggy_and_Bosco 05-Karen 06-Max 07-Gary 08-Robert 09-Maureen 10-Debbie 11-Murph 12-George 13-UnknownThe set on Flickr is here.

The interview tape sat in a box for over 11 years. In January 2001, I finally listened to it and put in on computer, editing some segments for my Internet radio station, Bluffcosm.com. I was amazed at how vastly superior the audio itself was to the print piece we had derived from it. At that time, I put together 5 audio pieces ("Blufftoons"), totalling about 20 minutes. Plus, I extracted a segment called "Mountain Madness" which I used in several other Blufftoons.

Now, on December 17, 2005, I am finally releasing the audio of the complete tape. Absolutely nothing is edited out - this is the full, raw audio. Besides being quite entertaining, I think this recording also has some historical significance. I hope you enjoy it!!!

Anything But Monday Show #1 (Feb. 19, 2007 - 2:58:13 - abmshow.com), starring Mad Mike Masters and Frank Edward Nora. On the 21st anniversary of the first ABM broadcast, the Anything But Monday Show is back as a premium comedy podcast! On this inaugural episode, Mike and Frank (in their brand new state-of-the-art studio) discuss the origins of the show back in the dark ages of the 1980s - from their first meeting at Drew University in Madison, NJ, to getting (and then losing) their first radio show, their magazine which almost got them kicked out of college, their burgeoning media empire, and its premature collapse in 1989. Topics include Frank sending Mike to the Planet of the Apes dimension, Frank's awkward first day at college, Chemical Bank, an MTV News story on ABM, the shirt incident, "The Cave" (Mike and Frank's highly illegal dorm night club), pinball machine, alcohol delivery on campus, ((33:18)) the website and premium subscription, contours of the time travel continuum, Tiffany, the battery incident, how to contact the show, the dumping of the free listeners ((50:00)) An Interview with Two Bimbos (Erin and Tawny) that program director Dave met at the gym in California, celebrity encounters (Jamie Foxx, Kurt Russell, Goldie Hawn), naked toga party, naked beach party, the pizza box incident, The Knights Templar, The Dating Game, motorcycle riding, yoga, Dhalsim, Booty Ballet, judo, Ontario Mills Mall, ((78:35)) Street Fighter II, premium podcasting, the snow key incident, PRESENTATION OF THE GIFTS (the "exciting" Burger Mallow (life-size marshmallow hamburger), new 30GB black iPod, Hong Kong Phooey action figure, "I Love My Penis" chewing gum, "Lick Your Wounds" Candy, original Farrah Fawcett poster, original Wacky Packages stickers), Super Video Battle (Phoenix (Centuri, 1980)), ((1:56:38)) disclaimer, "Here's Your Horrorscope", George W. Bush, Submit-A-Bit, ((2:07:53)) The F'd Up World That We Live In (Zeus Worship, The Flat Earth Society, zombies, horny gods, giant rabbits, "Night of the Lepus", world domination, exploded cars in Baghdad, Tim Hardaway, racial issues, Jennifer Aniston, NASCAR, puppets, ((2:33:25)) Real Life Adventures (Mike and Frank visit "Woodstock 89", with audio clip "Dirty Trip"), breakdown on the thruway, the in-between years, time sheets, the closing credits, and vinyl siding repair.

Anything But Monday Show #2 (Feb. 26, 2007 - 3:03:44 - abmshow.com), starring Mad Mike Masters and Frank Edward Nora from the great state of New Jersey. It's a late night and Mike and Frank are working diligently to bring you another work of audio brilliance and turpitude. Among the many topics are Mike's "arousing, warming" cinnamon soy wax candle, the first premium subscriber (Neal from Ireland, host of the "Into Your Head" podcast) who Mike said he would give a million dollars to, 7-11 Fusion Energy Coffee, the hellish lands of Long Island and Staten Island, interviewing nannies, Ash Wednesday, the notebook incident, Your ABM Insult of the Week, ((25:20)) an angry message from a zombie, the continental U.S., our first voice mail, girl group update, The Button from Japan, The Amazing True Life Adventures of Mike and Frank ("Working for MTV To Go Magazine - board meeting, launch party, insulting Gilbert Gottfried and the editor-in-chief of Sassy Magazine, and... a picture of Mike and Frank from the party that is so embarrassing only our esteemed premium subscribers will get a chance to see it). 45.08 [1754] The Brian Jude Show #13 - Oops I Did It Again (11/14/09) 28:13

Description from brianjudeshow.blogspot.com: After the last episode, I vowed never to leave the house without my iPod microphone, just in case I had the opportunity to record. Well, today I did remember to take it with me - but I left it at The Unitarian Universalist Congregation at Montclair (where I was heading later that night) and did NOT have it with me as once again I left my acting gig at Kaplan Medical even earlier than I did the other day! Too bad, because the trip via the Newark Light Rail and NJ Transit Bus #28 would have made for an excellent Rampler-esque episode! I will, however, offer the episode to Frank Nora for release on his Overnightscape Underground. Plugs include KillingBoxx.com (two films I produced made it to their Top 13 list!), The Fave and Natalie Gelman. Attribution: by Brian Jude - more info at brianjudeshow.blogspot.com and onsug.com

45.23 [1769] World Gateway Area Loop (11/25/09) 1:00:00

Background music loop for an imaginary theme park land called “World Gateway”. This idea was inspired by the the “world music” trend of the 1990s, and generic “world” themes such as video game levels, Rainforest Cafe, etc. My initial idea was of “world laser tag” - like laser tag, but with the “world” theme instead of the generic sci-fi theme. Then I thought about some kind of indoor theme park with such a theme... or it could be one “land” of a much larger theme park... anyway, it’s still a very vague idea, but I love the idea of making background music for an imaginary place like this...

This one-hour music loop consists of 27 tracks created by Kevin MacLeod, and released on his website, incompetech.com. The songs are licensed under Creative Commons “Attribution 3.0” - which means he gives permission for people to use the music in just about any way as long as they give him credit. I chose the set of songs and the sequence. I have to say, I was amazed to find such perfect music for this whimsical little project - Kevin is incredibly talented - I suggest you check out his site if you are looking for music!

List of songs used: AngloZulu, Folk Round, Baltic Levity, Kumasi Groove Flugelhorn, Cambodian Odessa, Thunderhead, Bama Country, Desert City, Tango de Manzana, Artifact, Parisian, Beach Party, Monkoto, Miri’s Magic Dance, Ishikari Lore, Padanaya Blokov, Night of the Owl, Confused State, The North, Double Polka, Chanter, Whimsy Groove, Rhythm 2005, Netherworld Shanty, Night Cave, Celtic Impulse, Flutey Sting.

So sit back, relax, and imagine yourself exploring World Gateway!

46.20 [1794] Republic of Avalon Radio - Episode 73 - Hammin' It Up (12/15/09) 1:44:59

Check out this great episode of Republic of Avalon Radio, from Newfoundland, Canada with Jim Fidler...

This Time on the ROAR:

Jim talks about his love for and history in radio. He looks back from his first transistor radio, as a very wee lad, up until the present. He also shows ham radio in action as well as taking you for a spin through the 41 meter shortwave band and the AM broadcast band. He also mentions the alternative search engine, startpage.com, the internet archive site at archive.org and gives a tip of the hat to his friend and fellow ?caster, Frank Nora at onsug.com.

Big thanks to Bill and Zac of the Random Access Thought, a regular part of This week in Amateur Radio, for their new ROAR station ID. Brilliant stuff! Mother Radio on the ROAR! Who'd a'thunk it?

If you're interested in radio, ham radio most specifically, tune into this one!

Music this time:

48.24 [1858] Remember The Rampler (2008-2009) 15:00

The Rampler. August 14, 2008 to October 10, 2009. 422 days. (March 13, 2009 is the midpoint, 211 days in.)

Remembering "The Rampler" with the first, middle, and last 5 minute segments of the show... The first 5 minutes of "The Rampler #1" from August 14, 2008. The middle 5 minutes of The Rampler recordings from March 13, 2009 (from "The Rampler #233"). And the last 5 minutes of "The Rampler on WFMU - Episode 16 - Night in Motion" from October 10, 2009.

In 2008, after 5 years of doing The Overnightscape, I was looking for a new method of doing the show that would take less time and effort. This experiment in field recording became "The Rampler", and it was such a different experience, I took it in a whole new direction. It very quickly grew in popularity, largely due to my involvement in the "Andy Kaufman Lives" phenomenon. This led to an opportunity to bring the show to a real radio station - WFMU. But as 2009 wore on, the show's popularity (at least as I perceived it) diminished, and the pressures of being on the "real" radio took away some of the spirit of spontaneity that the show had in its early months. And then... WFMU canceled the show. A little over a year after it had begun, The Rampler was finished.

I chose to continue my Internet radio recordings here on "The Overnightscape Underground" (which has been going great), and drop "The Rampler" name. While it is a good name, and I had a blast doing it, the name "The Rampler" is associated with energy and vibes that I would rather put behind me.

But what a wild ride it was!! This 15-minute audio piece is a brief encapsulation of the whole experience... but it's all available for you to listen to...

396 episodes (19 days of audio):

367 of "The Rampler" (regular numbered episodes)

19 of "The Rampler on WFMU" (broadcast on 91.1 FM)

5 of "The Rampler on the Airwaves" (radio practice sessions)

Get it all on the Frank Nora Archive. And most of it is also here on The Overnightscape Underground site, just use the search box on the right.

Description from brianjudeshow.blogspot.com: A double-reference to the great and wonderful “Weird Al” Yankovic! In this episode I discuss the mysterious “27” phenomenon associated with “Weird Al,” as well as my family’s three-day trip to Virginia last week. I also announce officially that I am writing a screenplay based on the life of Morris E. Goodman, a.k.a. “The Miracle Man,” (as seen in “The Secret”), and describe my meeting with him, which was one of the catalysts for my trip. I also remark how things are ironically happening about an hour earlier on this, the day before Daylight Savings Time begins. Once again, special thanks to Frank Nora of The Overnightscape Underground at <http://onsug.com>, and Wayne from Spare Time Radio for his encouragement. 49.29 [1894] On Noyage (2/14/90) 1:34:56

This is a very strange recording. It's me, Frank Nora, at age 22 back on Wednesday, February 14, 1990 (over 20 years ago!) driving from New Jersey to Rhode Island in the middle of the night. I brought a tape recorder and decided to record some thoughts on a project I was working on called "Nomadi" (and the related concept of "Noyage"). I was in some kind of weird mental haze back then. My ideas were incredibly bizarre and convoluted. But it is very interesting to listen to...

49.30 [1895] Panda Hamilton (FN 3/23/10) 1:11:53

Frank Nora in NJ and NYC. Smells like the ocean, giant piece of metal, smoke detector problems, talking to birds, cement mixing, underground bases, the old TV show "Salvage 1", mate and coffee, anti-beep technology, the recording "On Noyage" from 1990 that I released on the channel last night, lost memories, yerba mate gourds and bombillas, your robot name, your porn name, delusions, The Post-Scarcity Economy, conspiracy theories, allergy medication pinball game, free granola bar, viking ship and Wal-Mart displays in Times Square to promote the movie "How To Train Your Dragon", attention span, Wolfram Alpha, reading magazines on the iPad, film noir parody, Rockefeller Center, CD-ROM Multimedia magazines of the 90s (Launch, Blender, etc.), John Lennon, Stone Temple Pilots, Weezer, another conspiracy theory, and Cate Blanchett.

50.14 [1922] The St. Paul Skyline (with Sarjé) - Theatre District (4/7/10) 49:48

Sarjé in the studio and streets of suburban St. Paul, MN.

The first show of "The St. Paul Skyline," with Sarjé. In advance, let me apologize for the uneven levels... hopefully I'll improve these next episode. Today:

Thanks, Frank! New viewpoints from the midwest of the U.S., show format/recording equipment, "a little bit about me." The question of productivity, show origin/formatting again, some shows "lost in the ether." A consolidation of shows, coming up, along with "LOST." Pause for "Jeopardy!"

Back at 2045 CST, walking/getting beer, the phrase "death and taxes." Where I live. A cat! Level Up Games. Nice night after a nice day. "There goes a cop." Old photos, show art, chemtrails, and Jon Stewart (May 18, 2007 @ Orpheum). The Minneapolis Theatre District. Anthony Bourdain coming up (April 16, 2010 @ State), the Travel Channel, Ani DiFranco. Ambient sounds at the liquor store. Architecture/drafting/construction/building codes. Back to Jon Stewart. Beer (Stella Artois, Summit). Black Sheep Coffee Shop (<http://blacksheepcoffeecafe.com>). Ambient sounds at the walk-up Dairy Queen. Again, really lovely night.

Back in the studio. "Castillo Blanco," and "Svalbard," also, hi Manny the Mailman. Live version of show sometime, maybe. "LOST," Desmond--trending on Twitter. Consolidation of shows--scattered thoughts--what do you think about this so far? (<http://twitter.com/sarje>) Goal mapping. Thanks!

Sarjé records in suburban St. Paul, MN.

Show 2: Theories Abound!

A note on today's show art: I mention Rochester, MN in today's show, so here's a photo taken there!

Friday April 9, 2010. "Delayed show," Severe Repair Universe, waking up with a song in your head, "Twilight" / "Boy" by U2, dream recollection, Twilight movies, mind control/conspiracy, Bono (bad Irish accent!). Night coffee, "The Big Bang Theory,"/Sheldon, annoying coffeemaker. Thanks listeners!

Internet radio networks (like terrestrial radio), Rochester, MN's tiny station (KNXR), ONSUG network, Adam Carolla network, Kevin Pollak, Chris Hardwick, getting my best friend on the show sometime.

Experience rooms, themed restaurants/Rainforest Cafe, virtual reality/augmented reality, time cracks, "The Rhythm of Life"/YES, string theory, perception of time is linear (FYI: I realize that time is no longer used as the fourth dimension by physicists...but it used to be...anyway). Consciousness time-traveling (experienced as deja vu). Past-or-future projection experience rooms. Potential graphic novel.

Using Audacity, anyone with advice on mixing/levels for these recordings? Garden State, challenges of having "complete creative control" in filmmaking. "TBBT" is a "Roseanne" reunion show.

50.37 [1945] Sneaky TT - Test Broadcast 1 (4/17/10) 1:58:25

This is the audio from the video of the first test of the Sneaky TT broadcasting system (at <http://www.livestream.com/sneakytt>), with me, Frank Nora. The idea of Sneaky TT is very simple - crazy public domain U.S. government videos with amusing commentary. During this first broadcast, I slowly figured out the best way to do things. Toward the end, I think the system was working pretty well. I really don't know if this is going to become any kind of regular thing, but I think it does have potential.

50.38 [1946] Rich from North Carolina - I'm Just Sayin' (4/15/10) 45:15

Rich from North Carolina in his car, talking about many topics. Rich has been on the channel previously, including his audio from Taiwan on my shows Garbage Jingle and Capsicum. Topics include... signs, Betty Nora

50.40 [1948] Sneaky TT - Test Broadcast 2 (4/18/10) 3:35:15

This is the audio from the video of the second test of the Sneaky TT broadcasting system (at <http://www.livestream.com/sneakytt>), with me, Frank Nora. The idea of Sneaky TT is very simple - crazy public domain U.S. government videos with amusing commentary. During this second broadcast, I was able to do over 3.5 hours of broadcasting, showing and commenting on many videos, with around 8-10 people watching live. It was a lot of fun to do, but I am still unsure whether it's something I would do on a regular basis. Let me know what you think.

Description from brianjudeshow.blogspot.com: I had recorded an entire episode and part of a second episode last week. But alas, my iPod somehow became corrupted, and I had to talk about here what I talked about then. Sad, because I had some really great stuff! Talked about my involvement in the American Cancer Society's Relay for Life, held last week at Montclair State University, on a team led by Cindi Merkle, plus the screening of a short film I produced, "The Collector's Item," and Q&A with director Bill Clemis. Plus I answer a question from Wayne from Sparetime Radio, and TV's Jorge Garcia (from LOST) answers my question on his podcast, Geronimo Jack's Beard. The Brian Jude Show #31: The Cellular Toaster WMSC-FM Alumni Takeover Special 2010 (ONSUG Version)

Description from brianjudeshow.blogspot.com:

After a 15-year hiatus, I return to my old college radio station at Montclair State University with my former co-host, the lovely & talented Jill Knapp as we relive old times and talk about things we're up to now. We discuss the history of The Cellular Toaster, how it evolved from the show Propaganda From Hell (and we take calls from former hosts Jim From Hell and Alter-Ego Pete), We Might Be Giants Too, Ralph the Word Guy, Jill's band: Industrial Jazz Group, my work with Digital Cafe Tour and Friday's Child, The Dead Milkmen (Bring Out Your Dead!), The Joe Trainor Trio, They Might Be Giants, Frank Zappa, "Weird Al" Yankovic, Fathom and more! Tremendous thanks to Jeff Knapp for being resourceful enough to record this, while my efforts to do so failed miserably! (Recorded Monday, May 10, 2010, 3pm-5pm.)

52.23 [2062] Into Your Head 301: Thursday's breakfast Show - guest hosted by BRIAN JUDE! (6/3/10) 13:41

The original version of this episode cut off suddenly at the end. It was assumed by NEAL to be a deliberate and excellent joke, but the truth is even better. It was not the end. Not BRIAN's fault - An Internet problem at the Irish end appears to have conspired.

Here now is the full version of Thursday's Into Your Head Temporarily Almost Daily Breakfast Show, Guest hosted and produced by BRIAN JUDE.

Some of you know BRIAN from his works, including THE BRIAN JUDE SHOW at BRIANJUDESHOW.blogspot.com and the eponymous @BRIANJUDE Twitter feed

BRIAN JUDE also acts, teaches, writes screens, makes movies, directs plays, is a bandmember who plays instruments properly, and was the first man ever to podcast from space. It is widely believe that he does not know how to sleep.

BRIAN JUDE is standing in for NEAL today after volunteering to do Thursday's IYH at very short notice. Thanks BRIAN.

52.24 [2063] Brian Jude Show 32: The Real Neal - with guest host Neal from Ireland (6/9/10) 25:06

Description from brianjudeshow.blogspot.com:

Sorry that there's not been many updates from me lately, but, well, if you've been listening to my show lately, you'll know why! If not, my friend and guest host Neal from Ireland will explain it all to you! (Thank you, Neal, for covering me!) Neal talks about his "real" speaking voice, his "uniquely nonsensical improvised talk show" Into Your Head, being a cranky old man before his time, stopping uninvited sales calls at the door, gypsies, catering to the illiterate, the inexplicable overuse of the word "is," a scary neighborhood dog, Barack Obama, "The Secret" and positive thinking, cats, crap vs. carp. Neal's help in this endeavor is in return for my covering a recent episode of his show.

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT: I and my wife will be directing and performing in A.R. Gurney's "The Dinning Room" at the Unitarian Universalist Congregation at Montclair, 67 Church Street, Montclair, New Jersey, on Saturday, June 12 at 8pm, Sunday June 13 at 3pm, and Saturday June 19 at 8pm. Suggested donation is $10, no advanced tickets will be sold. Hope you can make it!

52.55 [2094] The Brian Jude Show #33: BD (ONSUG Version) 39:10

Brian's show notes: I was going to call this episode "Between Doors," as several "doors" in my life have recently closed, and I'm awaiting some new ones to open. However, the day ended up being a "Beach Day," which was another appropriate title! So "BD" it is! My son Jacob & I went to the city of my birth, Long Branch, New Jersey, where my mother Nancy lives, and the three of us went to the beach. We also went to my other hometown, Howell, New Jersey, twice, visiting my friends Sabrina and Lynda! "Beach Day" topics include a bit of my personal history, "pool people" vs. "beach people," my grandparents' now abandoned buildings, my Mom's poodle Emily, mussels & my seafood allergies, The Mystery of Jetties, playgrounds, Jacob's report card & concert performance, airplane advertisements, Amy's Omelette House, helping my mom with computer stuff. "Between Doors" topics include finishing substitute teaching for the school year, the final performances of "The Dining Room," and finishing the first draft of the screenplay of "The Miracle Man" (NOTE: If you would like to read my draft, and provide feedback, e-mail me at brianjude27@gmail.com!), upcoming jobs counting people and possibly demonstrating 3D TV's. Words of Wisdom: Be grateful for the best parts of your day, every day, and resolve to make each day the best day it can be! Night Pool - Lot 53 [2108-2127] Midnight Cassette System (18:57:25)

20 Tracks

When I was cleaning up The Overnightscape Studio a few weeks ago, I discovered that I had a brand new MadPlayer that had never been used. I decided that I would use it to record lots of music that anyone can use for whatever they want. This is the Midnight Cassette System.

A double-shot of new Conspiracy of the Insignificant demo/creations is the focus of this episode! You get the long-awaited sneak listen to Fruitcake Toothpaste's Furby Experiments as well as 'Just Say No To Politics' - a new and weirdie song addition to the COI Songbook! (lyrics below) The General and Xenon provide the guitar loop, courtesy Mentor Productions and the legendary Henny Henchman! Old Photoplay magazines in the Public Domain and online at archive.org! Music and pop culture babble all in a 10 minute Power Pac of PQ Ribberation! Attribution: by PQ Ribber - <http://conspiracyoftheinsignificant.blogspot.com>

Released August 2010 on The Overnightscape Underground (onsug.com), an Internet talk radio channel focusing on a freeform monologue style, with diverse and fascinating hosts and amazingly unique programs.

Just Say No To Politics - lyrics (c) 2010 Conspiracy of the Insignificant
Just say no to politics - Just a bunch of parlour tricks
When You See them Urging Voters - They're Just Trying to Meet Their Quotas
They Just Wanna Be In Power - They Will Make your stomach sour
Just Say no to politics - Isnt this a ton of bricks?
Bibble babble wasting time - Just another Party Line
Rising up into a station - Representing corporations
Just Say No to Politics - Give you candles, sell you wicks
Tell you one thing then they switch - Kiss the asses of the rich
They are just a bunch a wankers - They will bail out all the bankers
Just say no to politics
They are on their best behaviour - They will owe too many favors
Funds from folks with such a hard-on - for a Presidential Pardon
Just say no to politics - Somethings voting just cant fix

Turning fiction into fact - Selling you the Patriot act
Emptiness in Legislation - Diplomatic Masturbation
Just say no to politics - Heaven is a lot like this

We Buzz Away

B for Breakfast [BP055] (March 21, 2010)

Cagey House creates ethereal and energetic instrumental music. Cagey House music has been featured on over one hundred alternative-oriented music podcasts, and also used as background, bumper, and theme music on many other non-music-oriented shows. Have had a couple of net-releases through Nishi, Umor-rex, Dog Eared, bumpfoot, and a few other netlabels.

B for Breakfast is Cagey House's latest production. The album has varied between being kind of pop/rock-ish and instrumental experiments. All the tracks focused on melody and rhythm, but with lots of unexpected twists and turns, and with some dada-style vocal samples mutually interacting.

Batavia EP (2010)

At Sea Music

This companion EP to "It Is Glorious to Make Electricity for Socialism" is about the British commercial war against the Dutch in the 18th century, Dutch colonialism in Indonesia and the amazing synergies between British and Indonesian folk songs. I've been having these ideas for over 20 years, so here are my musical thoughts over time. I'm not celebrating colonialism, I'm celebrating the connections between people made evident through music.

Sakee Sed -

I Am Drunk

Alle basi della roncola (ca365)

Clinical Archives Collection

SAKEE SED The band was born as DE SEEKAS Letters turned upside-down, like in a mirror. The Sakee Sed are Marco Grezzi and Gianluca Perucchini, guys from Bergamo, Italy, born between 1984 and 1986, grown in the nearby of the "Roncola", a grey mount in Bergamo. After a two-years experience with the band De Seekas, a band with a stoner-rock attitude, the two guys began to deal with Howard, a piano from the beginning of the century, which drives them to turn letterally upside-down their style and name.

"Alle basi della Roncola" (At the feet of the Roncola) is the title of their debut album as Sakee Sed, coloured and dark at the same time, compact and multifaceted but of great impact. The album contains 13 tracks that blend a sense of lightness with paranoia, friendship and hate, fairy and frenzy, everything hanging by a grey rural dimension and a coloured world soaked in LSD.

Old and vintage instruments, very simple and low-fi recording characterize the album. On the Howard's tunes and on a dancing drumming, we find ourselves catapulted back to the old saloons of the 50s and we can even smell tobacco. Everything is surrounded by harmonies of acoustic and electric guitars, vibraphones, banjo, ukulele, horgans, basses, chorus, melted with Marco, just awake, voice.

Puns, metaphores and allusions characterize the lyrics. The reality of some images fits in novels that remind of a melancholy fairy.

Sakee Sed still seem to be able to listen to the children novels, the sound of nature and its becoming human, and involve all: introspective sound and stories of drugs and alchool, medicines, fears, everyday life and love.

Sakee Sed usually change their live sets, sometimes unplugged, sometimes loud and electric, and they are supported on stage by "the family", some friends and musicians of them, like Roberta Sammarelli (Verdena), Nicolas Restivo [n!], Martina Togni e Thomas Maffi.

Improvisations For NoSyncopated Guitars

The Fly

(ca353) Clinical Archives

"Improvisations For NoSyncopated Guitars" is the first solo album of the Italian eclectic improviser Stefano Ferrian. Here he's with 9 abstract classical guitar solos and duet (with himself) improvisations. Not just the usual impro stuff but a deep introspection guided by the winter's solitude.

Produced by Stefano Ferrian @ Noize Studios on 19/20 December 2009

Stefano Ferrian / Classical Guitars

Stefano Ferrian plays guitars since the age of 9 studying various genres like Blues, Rock, Fusion, Funky and Avantgarde techniques. He's the former member of the Italian well known grindcore/experimental band 'psychofagist' and he's active in various projects like Razoj, UduS and collaborates with many bands in the extreme music scene like Ephel Duath, The True Endless and in the folk project Skoll. After more than a decade playing in extreme/experimental bands he started studying Saxophones founding his new Impro Trio FFATSO. He recorded or played live with musicians like Davide Tiso (Ephel Duath), Mario Gabola, Damo Suzuki, Stefano Giusti, Dominik Gawara, Ivan Pilat and Luca T Mai (ZU).

Logan Whitehurst and The Jr. Science Club

“Buckaroo Bonzai Is Not Just a Movie”

“An Introduction to...”

Logan Whitehurst (November 15, 1977 – December 3, 2006), was an American musician. His career began as the drummer for the band Little Tin Frog from 1995 until 2000, although he is best known as a founding member of Californian indie rock band The Velvet Teen[1] and as a solo artist performing under the name Logan Whitehurst and the Junior Science Club.

From November 2003 onward Logan battled fatigue, headaches, dizziness, and stomach illness. In May, 2004 it was discovered that the ailments he was suffering were due to a cancerous brain tumor. Deciding to focus on his recovery, he left The Velvet Teen[12] and put his solo career on hiatus. He spent the better part of a year and a half in treatments for the recurring brain cancer. On December 3, 2006, Logan Whitehurst succumbed to his illness at his home in Los Banos, California.

55.43 [2238] Frank Nora Show 1550 - Breakout (8/18/10) 27:55

Raining, heading into the tunnels, The Frank Nora Show, screensavers, Electric Sheep, silicon Graphics computers, Electropaint, the idea of teleporting The Titanic into Grand Central Station, barnacles, Listen With Art Glut, Nanny McPhee, Mary Poppins, Chitty Chitty Bang Bang, Bedknobs and Broomsticks, take a flying bed into the cartoon universe, early comic strips, whistle jerk, the unoriginal blues, woman selling turtles in the subway, Starbucks crime flyers update, the book "Pilgrim in the Microworld", Atari VCS Breakout, the complex relationship between people and video games, and the long line for the bus starts moving.

55.44 [2239] Conspiracy of the Insignificant - Music Clearence - (8/18/10) 10:00

Catching up and branching out - Gangpol and Mit, one of our favorite Creative Entities have been kind enough to allow us to play you their music, so PQ brings on 'Safety Instructions in Case of Emergency', then a Zappa Mini-Tribute (he would've been 70 this year) with Dr Panasofkee and PQ doing a quick instrumental run of 'Take Your Clothes Off When You Dance', then, as if this wouldn't be more than enough stimulation to your auditory nerves, an assemblage of Don Ebel of Bethel Baptist church in Portland, Oregon, Three Man Army, and some Conspiracy of the Insignificant/Rubber Room Entertainment Lab Magic - 'Entertainment'. More of why this 10 minute broadcast may be the coolest thing coming out of New Mexico! Attribution: by PQ Ribber.

55.45 [2240] Across the Pond - Episode 13 (8/18/10) 51:08

Naomi Campbell and her appearance at the blood diamond trial. Robbie Williams gets married (big deal) The Beckhams ...what I think of them. Major League Soccer, my thoughts on sport and what I watch. The rip off that is Lost. Toy Story 3 review, very expensive to see a 3D movie these days. Crazy air steward leaves his job in the best way possible. Oldest woman in China disappears, oldest man in China has been dead for 30 years....hmmmm. How to die young ...just eat a burger in a sugar bun. Take.fm good for torrents, coda.fm good for music. I have become a granddad at a very early age. Benefit cheats playing the system to get massive amounts of money for nothing. David Beckham's sister is claiming benefit too. 55.46 [2241] Frank Nora Show 1551 - Never Odd Or Even (8/20/10) 2:17:01

Centipede, missed the bus, something nasty on the shoe, yesterday the Iraq War ended, 9/11, no devil lived on, palindromes, control, the question of the world, fake celebrities, everyone's hypnotized, the devil's lantern, The Overnightscape, Halley's Comet, activity on the spiritual plane, Mercury goes retrograde today, astrology, palindromic numbers, Rush, transformative energy, song "Selfish" by Ned's Atomic Dustbin, Die Hard, kinetic sculpture, numbers, vague comets, M.C. Escher, subway, Coney Island ONSUG meetup, schmerltzes, Cyclone pinball, Nancy Reagan, California ONSUG meetup, comet themes, synergy, mohawks, street fair, perk up, bakery renovation, drill sound, Extreme Toffee Coffee, food, listening to audio backwards, Ice Town, the other side of the start of the retrograde, a blank feeling, soup, the meetup, driving to Coney Island, promotion and marketing, pasta, introspective, smoking a Nub Habano cigar, walk down 57th Street, fire engines, cool building, fancy stores, watches, the rich, sleep, ceramics, podcasting memories, TV shows (True Blood, America's Got Talent, Flipping Out), sitting at the edge of the park by Columbus Circle, new broadcasting ideas - live streaming station, live shows, Skype, etc., annoyances on a bench, Internet radio memories, categories, and the new directions. Attribution: by Frank Nora - more info at onsug.com

55.47 [2242] The Brian Jude Show #39: Moo Cow (8/21/10) 35:44

It's my 39th episode - and my 39th birthday! I spent my morning watching one of my favorite movies, City Slickers, and the afternoon at the Highlands Natural Pool in Ringwood, NJ. Topics include midlife crisis, having a positive attitude about your present condition, the ONSUG Meetup, Wayne from Sparetime Radio, Manny the Mailman, Roel from the Netherlands, The Andy Kaufman Press Conference and more!

55.49 [2244] Republic of Avalon Radio - Episode 91 - Walking With The Little People (8/6/10) 41:58

Republic of Avalon Radio logo This time on the ROAR: Walkabout with Jim and Lillian, same old same old, calm as a clock, how calm is a clock, sweating like a pig, do pigs sweat, Jim's blooper, the state of the world, fandom, you can't blame the youths, good people with guns VS bad people with guns, blaming society VS personal accountability, the state raising children VS parents raising children, home schooling VS public indoctrination, some weather banter, fast walking, dancing on the sidewalk, Jim and Lillian turn into little people, the ancient thesaurus, ugga ugga boo ugga boo boo ugga, thinking up potential album names and band names, the secret milk shakes, Flappy and the Lapdogs, Abba Cadavre, the spooky street lights, transitioning the ROAR to the new server, DIY, images, branding, Reality Time, Revolution Time, Jim's up-coming performance at the Folk festival, artistic children growing up into artistic adults, public negativity, smelling oil, don't kill Kenny, the human nature paradox, folks basing reality on fiction, planning VS spontaneity, actors are liars, the Lesbo-Folk genre, passing the Djembe players, Jim and Lillian's new theme song again, "what odds?", running into Roseanne and Donny, Michael Meekins, a call for content and all dat kind of stuff. Music this time:

Our theme, Genesis, by Jim Fidler. Best listened to on headphones. - The world can be a scary place when you're 6 inches tall. Attribution: by Jim Fidler - more info at jimfidler.libsyn.com and onsug.com

55.50 [2245] Special Delivery (with Manny the Mailman) #23 (8/5/10) 47:04

"Manny's California Adventure" - Riding on a cable car, The Electric Bus, Japanese Tea Garden, SF Botanical Gardens, in Anaheim, recapping SF trip, Convention stuff. Attribution: by Manny the Mailman - more info at onsug.com

55.51 [2246] Special Delivery (with Manny the Mailman) #24 (8/12/10) 15:15

"California Meetup" - Manny has dinner with Escapist, Jerry Novak and Jerry's girlfriend Susan. Attribution: by Manny the Mailman - more info at onsug.com

55.52 [2247] Frank Nora Show 1552 - The Coney Island Meetup (8/22/10) 2:27:35

55.53 [2248] The Brian Jude Show #40: The ONSUG Meetup - Coney Island (8/22/10) 43:01

Listen along as I trek along the PATH train from Newark to Hoboken to Manhattan, then on the D train to Coney Island in Brooklyn, where I meet up with fellow ONSUG hosts Frank Nora (the man, myth, legend and inspiration for The Brian Jude Show) and Wayne Reichert of Sparetime Radio. Along the way I talk about the film The Taxman, the controversial "Ground Zero Mosque," Mercury Retrograde, I have my car back, more on positive attitude, my DCT laptop was shipped out for repairs, The Fulton Street Transit Center, the Verazzano-Narrows Bridge, Nathan's Hot Dogs, corn dogs, the Coney Island subway stop, my poetry, Dan Zanes, The Wonder Wheel, heavy rain, ONSUG Schmerltzes. For more conversation of our meetup, check out The Frank Nora Show Ep. 1552 at <http://onsug.com/archives/3584> (I apologize in advance for the loud noise and my soft voice. It did not turn out to be a good combination.) Attribution: by Brian Jude - more info at onsug.com

55.54 [2249] Sparetime Radio: Episode 32 (8/23/10) 28:59

Temple of the Dog, Michaels Spray Paint Run, Art Project Talk, ONSUG Meet Up, The Homosexual Warning, Welcome to the Ship of Shame, Two Gatorades an Iced Tea and a Dounut, Friendly's New Soft Pretzel Bacon Burger, Wendy's Baconator. KFC's Double Down, Sharpie Liquid Pencil, Coca Cola Slurpee, Pickups with Smoke Stacks Rant, Static Radio, George Carlin - The American Dream, Off to the Coney Island Meetup, The Pictures, The Video. Attribution: by Wayne Reichert - more info at sparetimeradio.com

55.55 [2250] Conspiracy of the Insignificant - All Star Marching Team - (8/23/10) 10:00

Inspired by ONSUG's All-Star Get Togethers, here is a classic 1941 episode of Vic and Sade, one of the greatest and funniest shows, especially if you like your humor dry! Paul Rhymer's dialog is about as good as it gets! Enjoy this special episode and we'll be back to distorting your thought patterns with babble and music before you know it!! Attribution: by PQ Ribber.

55.56 [2251] Frank Nora Show 1553 - Someone Spun Out (8/23/10) 36:28

Someone spun out, rainy day, reckless drivers, Coney Island Meetup, roller coaster, remodeled sports store, cops with machineguns, subway paranoia, nothing weird happened, listening to Die Hard, driving simulators in high school in the 80s, ColecoVision, the jaws of life, Long Island Railroad shut down for awhile today, 9-day traffic jam in China, Doctor Who, the anime Bleach, bad dubbing, Need For Speed World, fairies and panthers in True Blood, and The American Experience: Coney Island (1991).

55.57 [2252] Frank Nora Show 1554 - Skipping (8/24/10) 33:42

Black Bolt T-shirt, The Inhumans, Pee-Wee Herman coming to Broadway, MTV Video Music Awards, Beavis & Butthead, ONSUG streaming, Die Hard - one of the best movies ever, TV Dinners, Eggo Real Fruit Pizza, The Steven Sondheim Theater, some stuff fell, cinnamon news, Skip To The Loo My Darling, child toothbrush, resistant corn maltodextrin, glycerol ester of wood rosin, and the Sharpie Liquid Pencil.

55.58 [2253] Special Delivery 25 - Baltimore (8/22/10) 47:46

Attribution: by Manny the Mailman - more info at onsug.com

55.59 [2254] Morning Commute (with Bob) #50 - Tan-Tar-A (08/24/10) 33:26

Join Bob LeMent (from Static Radio) rambling on his morning commute into St. Louis, Missouri... "Tan-Tar-A" - Hotel Rooms, Meetings and Secret Passages on this business traveller Morning Commute. Attribution: by Bob LeMent - more info at onsug.com and StaticRadio.com

55.60 [2255] Conspiracy of the Insignificant - Rivals Spanish Eyes - (8/25/10) 10:00

The obscure and apparently unusual 1972 film, "Rivals" is thrown into the air and babbled up, as well as some choice opinions on comedians. A sort of double-review of this movie can be found here. You also get to hear PQ and Dr Panasofkee as they conspired to attempt the cheezoid standard, 'Spanish Eyes'. Another fun and frivolous ten minutes from New Mexico's badlands to you! Attribution: by PQ Ribber.

55.61 [2256] Frank Nora Show 1555 - NP (8/25/10) 40:52

Excited by two things, the new "Union Shield" penny, my new idea "N.P.", double Americans, penny history, subway, maniac laughers, Captain America, heavy rain, heading home, sore throat, weird lunch, a wrong taboule, cracked wheat, "Sea Mineral" SoftSoap, Goop, Lava, the idea, more penny history, several Chinmeyer Rocks, Choose Your Own Adventure books, America's Got Talent from last night, zombie girl fail, Prince Poppycock, Lady Gaga, caramel popcorn snacks, and the aggravating dishwasher incident from last night.

55.62 [2257] Conspiracy of the Insignificant - Starlost and 1953 - (8/26/10) 10:00

The 1973 Canadian Sci-Fi series, The Starlost, is remembered and while PQ gives you some cool rudiments, your further curiosity will appreciate this review of the complete DVD set. This forgotten 70s classic that Harlan Ellison planned then disowned is certainly another addition to the Conspiracy of the Insignificant Hall of Stuff and People that Shouldn't Vanish. Then, PQ turns back the clock to 1953 as he leafs through the December 1953 issue of Popular Mechanics with special Aluminum references! The modernest 10-minute audio transmission in the universe! Attribution: by PQ Ribber.

55.63 [2258] Listen With Art Glut - Number Four (8/26/10) 18:43

More amazing and unusual Creative Commons Cool music unearthed by Art Glut! These shows are simply amazing!

55.65 [2260] Conspiracy of the Insignificant - Colonel Bleep Blip - (8/27/10) 9:59

More of the obscurest and deliciousest strange popular culture ever as PQ Ribber discusses Colonel Bleep, more spiffy retroriffic Outer Space Adventure from the depths of 1960s Kid's TV! A tribute tune to Jean Shepherd, 'Whoopie World' is premiered and then more obscure toons with The Mighty Mister Titan - Not enough?? There's even another drop into the 1953 mindset! Fun compressed and formed into another episode of the Universe's Awesomest 10 Minute Broadcast! Attribution: by PQ Ribber

55.66 [2261] Manny & Brian: 2 Guys @ 5 Guys - 32:07

A mini ONSUG meetup with Manny the Mailman (of Special Delivery) and Brian Jude (of The Brian Jude Show). Listen as they enjoy the fine cuisine of Five Guys Burgers and Fries at Woodbridge Center Mall in Woodbridge, NJ and discuss such topics as Gold Peak Tea, peanuts, potatoes from Clawson Farms in Shelley, Idaho, Brian's odd job working for Edison Research, Arm & Hammer deodorant, deodorant paint, why Manny changes out of his uniform right away, our sons & when they start driving, the number 27 & "Weird Al" Yankovic, Sparetime Radio with Wayne, tons of fries, fries with vinegar, Quiet Riot & Slade, "Cum on Feel the Noize," John Cougar & Pat Benatar, "I Need a Lover," Five Guys doubles their burgers, Jerry Novak and The Escapist, FiRE+iCE, Manny's California trip, The Rank & File and protesting for Embassy Suites hotel workers, where Manny has gone for business trips, Brian's location scout for the short film, "That's What She Told Me," off-roading through the woods in a Hummer, Brian's second draft of "The Miracle Man" is still three hours long, Manny's screenplay "Age of Destruction," the September ONSUG meetup with Roel from the Netherlands.

55.67 [2262] Across The Pond / Sportscast Episode 1 (8/26/10) 40:53

This is going to be a sportscast and also tech, gadgets and the world wide web reviews. The premier league in England a brief run through of the current situation. Major League Baseball, brief coverage of the state of play at the minute and a story which is well known about a sports fan who made a big mistake during a play off game. Tech News...a guy with a downloading fixation. My first meeting with an iPad..very positive review, excellent case for the iPad with a keyboard attached. iPad rival, the Samsung Galaxy Tab, looks good but why buy that when you could get an iPad? Apple trying to get a patent so they can control the product they sold you.....Big Brother? New 3D products on the way. Google Goggles coming to iPhone. New Firefox looks interesting...coming soon. New rss reader that looks a good piece of software. Music site that finds music from all over the net. Everyone knows Spotify for your music but has a new addon which can incorporate your music

55.68 [2263] Frank Nora Show 1556 - Biorhythms (8/27/10) 38:14

Air Force jet fighter and monster trucks in Times Square, police motorcycles, matte black vehicles, masculinity, craving cheddar Pringles, stare at whiskey, newsstand monopoly, depressing music in the morning, sore throat, new idea, get rid of dirty money, walk into traffic, biorhythms, Mattel Aquarius, disoriented, triple critical, beautiful day, pigeons flippin' pasta, the clock is ticking in the kombucha world, alcohol stores, the beginning of The Overnightscape Underground, the new idea, perception of media, yogurt review ("RiceEra Vanilla Rice Yogurt"), locust bean gum, cheap applesauce, got Buffalo Trace bourbon, Night Packages, archive listening, length of night, demolition, biorhythms, and sports.

55.69 [2264] Frank Nora Show 1557 - Possum (8/29/10) 1:36:41

Frank and Jay at Minado Japanese Buffet and the NAVA video game collectors meetup at Digital Press Videogames in Clifton, talking to Greg from The Paunch Stevensom Show, ONSUG Streaming Station, and checking out 18 View-Master reels from the 1950s I got at a flea market.

55.70 [2265] Conspiracy of the Insignificant - Mr F Lemur - (8/29/10) 10:01

Introducing audio collagist Mr. F Lemur and his work! Also a brief look at the Subgenius Foundation in this fun and funny sound sammitch of spiffiness!! Attribution: by PQ Ribber.

PQ presents the music of Pre Fash Consultants, a band with direct lineage to the entire ongoing Conspiracy. We premiere their track, 'As You Move Through Me'! PQ babbles about the Music Shift of 1978 and inducts Brann the Iconoclast into the Conspiracy of the Insignificant Hall of Weirdness to Remember! Delicious digression in the easy to digest 10-minute package! Attribution: by PQ Ribber.

55.76 [2271] Across the Pond - Episode 14 - London Trip Part 1 (8/30/10) 51:48

Part 1 of my London trip. Piccadilly Circus, Leicester Square and Covent Garden. Ritz Hotel would have been a nice place to stay but....

Visit to the biggest apple store in the world. The craziest Michael Jackson story of when I went to see a show down here. Crazy mad woman tries to get some money from me and does not like the reply. Found a treasure trove of candy from around the world. Expensive wifi in the hotel...robbing thieves. Attribution: by Hootie1233 (Mark from England) - more info at onsug.com

55.77 [2272] Frank Nora Show 1559 - Mag Wheels (8/31/10) 50:41

Recordbreaking and transformative month, the most tracks in one month on The Overnightscape Underground, shift in energy, new show art, 1559 (the 246th prime number), Hurricane Earl, the new New York "Empire Gold" license plate design, Pepperidge Farm Neon Goldfish, Palatino, Polar Lion, Griffinos Cigarillos, cane buyer, Times New Roman, Cinnabon, Comic Sans, storefront gates, licensing, branding, 57th Street, mini pasta, Fearless Fosdick, Hollows from Bleach, sweeteners, citrus packs, night is coming to Need For Speed World, the Sneaky TT cars, Central Park, Reason 5 and Record 1.5 demo, King Kong, Kaptain Kool and the Kongs, The Krofft Supershow, Korg nanoKEY, books, sausage peanut butter sandwich, Rock The Destination, Pelters, the movie "Mag Wheels" (aka "Summer School") (1978), magical time period, Arco gas station, Newark, NJ, disturbing history, NJPAC, The Quarrymen, The Beatles, Shake Shack, Retro Arcade Museum in Beacon, NY got shut down, and enough with the ridiculous puritanism in this country.

56.11 [2283] Conspiracy of the Insignificant - 10 Shows 10 Days 1 - (9/7/10) 10:01

PQ Ribber is back after a weird Labor Day pre and weekend that saw a PC bite the dust and lots of other wackiness with the first of TEN SHOWS IN TEN DAYS (If not faster!) He tells you about a cool buncha Soviet/Bloc cartoons (catch em while you can), Bob and Ray and the vagaries of copyright and persistency of internet. Music is played (Hayseed Rag by the Dizzy Trio with early Borah Minovich on the Mouth Organ) and PQ gives you an update on Conspiracy of the Insignificant visual art projects including Fruitcake Toothpaste's show at the Happy Belly Deli, in Truth or Consequences, New Mexico! Attribution: by PQ Ribber

56.12 [2284] Frank Nora Show 1561 - The Mystery Mattress (9/7/10) 1:29:28

The end of summer, chemtrails, tucking in your shirt, barrel planter, cigar, waiting, religious music, intelligent design, world seems fictional, the dialectical thoughtstyle, obscure Sanrio characters (such as "The Mainstream"), flu shots, atheism, mind control, pursuing the truth, human interaction, Fox News, New Super Mario Bros. Wii, the sun, Donkey Kong, weirdness at a bedding store, car salesmen, mattresses, press release, anecdotal evidence, review of a new lunch place that opened today called "Hello Pasta", memories of Zen

Burger, Baby Graham, giant chessboard, the story of Macho Condor #1, Jim Guittard song “You Can Not Knock Me Down”, Damaged Gods song “Celestial Mechanix”, further thoughts on the “Night Packages” concept, ephemeral media, annoyed by sweeping, the length of night, and the barrel as a symbol.

56.13 [2285] Conspiracy of the Insignificant - 10 Shows 10 Days 2 - (9/8/10) 10:00

PQ goes on a cantankerous babble on sports and what used to be. Some music from PQ and Doctor Panasofkee, ‘Sincere’, an insert from F Lemur, another urging to see Fruitcake Toothpaste’s Art Extravaganza, September 11th, 2010, at Happy Belly Deli, in Truth or Consequences, New Mexico, and all the between that fills another ten minutes of internet broadcastness! Attribution: by PQ Ribber

56.14 [2286] Republic of Avalon Radio - Episode 93 - Marching Onward (8/12/10) 44:22

This time on the ROAR: Walkabout with Jim and Lillian, the Centrios Soundbag, the ROAR parade, the coming ROAR Iphone app, another perfect night in the Republic, the festival, a possible ROAR vidcast to come, Stone Edge, selling off all those pesky CD’s, contest submissions are coming in, the ROAR corp, how pricey is Cafe Press?, what do you all think about ROAR mugs?, the photographic memory joke, the baby shower joke, the ROAR corp is more, stats, the nightish nature of the ROAR, the sun rising up out of the ocean, the image for the Iphone app, shout-outs to Michael Meekins, Rod, Kevin Doucet, Kevin Brough, passing Richard Mixer, another busker, running into and having a brief chat with Bob O’Brien and Sheila Brake, the origin of the name Pressure Drop, a shout-out to Jack and Hope, yet another busker and tings like that there. Music this time:

Our theme, Genesis, by Jim Fidler. Best listened to on headphones. - Hey, this life thing ain’t so bad after all.

56.21 [2293] Conspiracy of the Insignificant - 10 Shows 9 Days 7 - (9/12/10) 10:00

Music fun and babble - The Old News Show and World Series will continue on this series - Posting some of these ten minute shows on Youtube to attempt to lure more listeners to onsug. Editing out the ums and ahs. Art Glut to be back soon. PQ demo of 'Come on By' - another 3 Man Army Classic and silly, probably too much reverb, as well. Gregor Sansa? Twink's 'Crayons' makes it a double-shot of music. Fruitcake Toothpaste's Art Show update! A vast amount of vague awesomeness in ten minutes! Attribution: by PQ Ribber

56.22 [2294] Across the Pond - Episode 16 - September 11, 2010 (9/11/10) 23:20

My thoughts on the things that happened on 9/11, I was not recording on the last anniversary of the attacks so this is my chance to get my feelings across. I recorded this without any notes so if I said anything to offend anybody I am sorry. If you have any comments on this please let me know in the forum. I know from past shows by Frank that talking about religion is dodgy ground. Thanks...Mark. Attribution: by Hootie1233 (Mark from England) - more info at onsug.com

56.41 [2313] Frank Nora Show 1569 - Light Rail Meetup (9/19/10) 3:59:38

Frank, Roel from the Netherlands, Manny the Mailman, and his son Mike meet up for another yearly adventure! Starting at the Liberty State Park Light Rail station in Jersey City, NJ, they travel all the way to the end of the line in Union City, where they find a bizarre work of art in the middle of a parking lot. Then they head back the other way and explore the Newport Center Mall. Then they head to Hoboken, and walk north on the waterfront, discovering many strange things, including a cave and an ancient boat. Then they take the NY Waterway ferry to Manhattan, and take a bus downtown to the World Trade Center. After a hearty Five Guys meal, they head over to the World Financial Center and the Irish Hunger Memorial before heading back to New Jersey on the PATH train. They visit the front of the WFMU building, and then head back to the parking lot, having had a very satisfying journey.

It’s the first anniversary of The Brian Jude Show today! To celebrate, I am releasing the first in a series of episodes that were previously unreleased here on the Overnightscape Underground channel, packaged together into “NON-SUG Bundles!”

This first volume includes:

- BJS002: What About the Boy? (Originally released 9/30/09)

My second, and potentially my last show. In this episode we take a trip to Anything But Costumes Prop Rental House in Flemington, New Jersey, where I pick up props for T. Schreiber Studios’ production of “Rosencrantz and Guildenstern are Dead” while discussing my son, Jacob. Listen as I butcher the word “Guildenstern,” and talk about my busted GPS, Edward Norton, my web design work, “Sweet Bird of Youth,” “Picasso at the Lapin Agile,” Cat Parker, “A Bronx Tale,” my URL & iTunes updates, Judaism & my family, my work with Kaplan Medical, the Jersey Devil Hunters, news video of a horse attacked by an unknown animal, my dad’s encounters with the Jersey Devil, women who inspired “Lucy in the Sky with Diamonds” and “Sexy Sadie” dead, Eric Roberts’ new CD “My Brazilian Heart,” DCT Live 2.0 NYC, comedian John McClellan’s blog “4 Minutes of Fame,” Geoffrey “Badger” Gould and black smoke – 9/11, the future of The Jacob & Daddy Show, my son’s birth, VACTERL association, rescuing Jacob, his new school, learning Polish. Plugs: ONSUG’s “Rambling Roundup” with Eddie Murray, Morning Commute with Bob, Brandon Rambles/now Ramblecast, Into Your Head, The Rubenerd Show, Big Kev’s Geek Stuff and my suggestions for “Heroes,” FLIC(K).

- BJS003: Mercury Retrograde Won’t Leave Me Alone (Originally released 10/3/09)

My third and potentially last show, and I’ll tell you WHY it may be my last... all while walking two miles in Nyack, New York to the beginning of a parade with the Tappan Zee Bridgemen. Topics covered: Explaining Mercury Retrograde, people asking me questions, problems uploading Episode 2, my bluetooth, my car, DCT Comedy project tapes not digitizing, TK Music Rock Academy, Uploading photos to Facebook, my busted GPS fixed, the “Weird Al” ringer, Jimmy Sheridan, Manny the Mailman, Carrie Engdahl, Dawn Peat McNamara, Rampler on WFMU is no more, Tom Walker. Concludes with Friday’s Child’s “Pay Day Ray” © 1998 Thomas V. Walker/Can’t See the Honeybee Music, Used With Permission.

- BJS005: The Search for BJS004 (Originally released 10/8/09)

My fifth and potentially last episode, in which I talk about why my actual last episode (i.e. previous, not final) is no longer available. For those of you who missed it, I also recap my dreams about The Six Fingered Jesus with the Lamé Left Arm and The Bell-Shaped UFO, and discuss being sick, thoughts on the swine flu vaccine, my impromptu visit from Verizon, DCT Concerts on CBS Interactive's tv.com, DCT Comedy pilots and plug The Industrial Jazz Group "avant-garde party music," Jill Knapp, Andrew Durkin, Brooklyn Ferry, The Evelyn Situation, Jay's Booming Hat and Stephanie Richards.

- BJS006: Lunchtime and The Jersey Devil (Originally released 10/15/09)

My sixth show - and no more negative comments on how many I might be doing in the future! Listen as I make my standard lunch - peanut butter and apple. I discuss my progress on the DCT Comedy 30-minute pilots, the TK Music Rock Academy project, Jacob's realization that I can now edit the unreleased episodes of The Jacob & Daddy Show, spending time at The Unitarian Universalist Congregation at Montclair, Melanie & I appearing in Selections from "Spoon River Anthology," Senior Youth Group overnight lock-in, The Jersey Devil Hunters may be on SyFy's "Destination Truth." Concludes with audio from the interview with my father about his encounters with The Jersey Devil.

- BJS007: Shopping Wild (Originally released 10/19/09)

Take a trip with me to a wild, magical far away place called Shop Rite. (Okay, it's not wild, magical, or far away, but I'm in that kinda mood.) I discuss lower sales tax in New Jersey "urban areas," Jacob being sick again, Melanie's birthday, the comparison between The Balloon Boy and Max from "Where the Wild Things Are," hoping to go to the Apple Store & the movies tomorrow if the boy isn't still sick, Optimum Rewards, Clearview Cinemas, Arcade Fire, Brandon Rambles - now Ramblecast WV, Frank Nora's Radio Vacation, Industrial Jazz Group, Iron Monkey Automata Chino, Peanut Butter & Apple Facebook picture comments, GPS, Louisiana Justice of the Peace Keith Bardwell not marrying interracial couple, Jeremiah Kipp's short film "Contact" is showing at the end of the month at Sinister Six Fest, Zoë Daelman Chlanda, Robb Leigh Davis, Alan Rowe Kelly, Fangoria, Tom Walker of Friday's Child and Tasty Cocoa in Caldwell, New Jersey. 57.01 [2342] Escapist Radio #3 - Hong Kong Businessmen's Lunch (10/01/10) 11:18

It's a binary day (10-01-10... get it?) release of Escapist Radio Episode 3, and it's a short one - but long on lessons to be learned when attending a proper Hong Kong businessmen's luncheon at a proper Hong Kong businessmen's restaurant. This show was recorded while driving the uncharacteristic uncrowded freeways of Los Angeles County VERY early in the morning.

While today's content isn't racy or generally vulgar, those who possibly have a sensitive constitution might want to sit this one out. It's not gross, just a wee bit disturbing in the end.

57.19 [2360] The Brian Jude Show: NON-SUG Bundle #2 (Oct. - Nov. 2009) 3:06:26

Here's the next in my series of episodes that were previously unreleased on the Overnightscape Underground channel. This was right before I discovered "The Secret." See how negative I was at first?

This volume includes:

- BJS008: Sick of... (Originally released 10/23/09)

I wasn't going to record today, but this project I'm working on is stalling. Also, I'm sick with an ear infection, and I'm frankly sick of... well, everything, really! So I'm working from my bed, and talking to you about all of the problems with my project for TK Music, Tom Walker, Alan Scott & AMS Video, problems with my last show, my TB test, missing the Industrial Jazz Group and Tom Walker gigs because I'm sick, my sister & nieces and nephews have swine flu, taking the boy to see "Where the Wild Things Are," my short film "The Last Days of Frank Whyte" screening on Nov. 28 1:30 pm at Central Library One Old Bridge Plaza Municipal Center Old Bridge, NJ, "Weird Al" Yankovic's 50th birthday, Soupy Sales Dead, lost deposit slip, no hats at the bank, my Jersey Devil theory, Devil Hunters on SyFy, calling eyewitnesses, Windows 7 Whopper, plugging podcasts. Concludes with Friday's Child's "Everything She Said (Black Cat/White Cat)" © 2005 Thomas V. Walker/Can't See the Honeybee Music, Used With Permission.

- BJS009: Horray* for Sleepy Hollow (Originally released 10/25/09)

*Type-o intentional.

In this episode, I wait to march in the Halloween Parade in Sleepy Hollow, New York, dressed in my Jedi robes, as I interview musicians JB Reed & Brandon General regarding their collaborative venture Hooray for Everything! Listen while I discuss passing a DeLorean on the way up, driving over the Tappan Zee Bridge, R2-D2 on the GPS, my student Laura telling me to “cheer up,” Rev. Charlie Ortman’s children’s story about the Farmer’s Horse, Reiki, Jedi Realism, “The Legend of Sleepy Hollow,” Hessian soldiers. JB, Brandon & I talk about their meeting and working together, Canada, Caledonia, Ontario, the Niagra Peninsula, Tim Hortons vs. Dunkin Donuts and Krispy Kreme, local jewelery store, Canadian currency, regional accents and more! Music by JB Reed & Brandon General. Used with permission.

- BJS010: Alternate (Originally released 11/3/09)

In this episode I sit in a noisy Dunkin’ Donuts across the street from my mechanic in Paterson, New Jersey as I wait my car to receive a new alternator. (I think I forgot to actually explain that in the show, but that’s why I’m here.) It’s my first show that I’m recording and releasing remotely via my laptop and a free wifi connection! I talk about Election Day, why I voted for Chris Daggett, Democrats & Republicans, marriage equality, Garden State Equality, the Obama-Corzine billboard: “Keep it going,” when my alternator died, 9-year old girl died on Halloween, puts a perspective of my situation, losing my step-brother. I plug Zombie Take-Out The B-Movie & Cult Movie Podcast, Big Kev’s Geek Stuff - I got “Heroes Revealed” by Michael Goldman, DK Publishing - DCT Concerts artist The Fave, playing Maxwell’s on 1/22/10 (Dom’s bday), nominated as Top Band in the Pop Rock Category for the second consecutive year by The 2009 Asbury Park Music Awards, held on November 14th at The Stone Pony. Concludes with The Fave’s “Let It Out” recorded by DCT Concerts. Celebrity GPS Voice: Homer Simpson.

- BJS011: Reunited (Originally released 11/8/09)

Hear some behind-the-scenes rambling before, during and after my 20-year high school reunion at the Sheraton in Eatontown, New Jersey. Celebrity Guest GPS Voice: Hannibal Lecter.

- BJS012: He Left Home Without It (Originally released 11/12/09)

I found myself done with my acting gig at Kaplan Medical early today, so I had time to record. But did I bring my microphone? NO! So I decided to record on my laptop.

- BJS014: A Short Time Ago In A Concert Very, Very Close (Originally released 11/20/09)

Join me and my friend, Maestro Tracy Glenn Murray, as we attend “Star Wars in Concert” at the Izod Center at the Meadowlands Sports Complex in East Rutherford, New Jersey. I recorded our commentary immediately after the show, and we met up with our friend P Jay and his sons, then I called my mother to thank her for getting us the tickets - none of which you’ll hear, because I inadvertently deleted all of that! But you’ll hear us talk about the concert on our way back to nearby Lyndhurst, New Jersey where I had to pick up my son.

Superman Fan Podcast Episode #146: It Was 50 Years Ago Today!*

As I celebrate my 50th birthday this week, on this episode I feature the Superman stories that were published the month I was born: September, 1960! Thanks to MIKE'S AMAZING WORLD OF DC COMICS at <http://dcindexes.com> for being an invaluable resource for this episode, as always!

DC published 27 titles during the month of September 1960, five of them Superman titles. They carried the cover date of November or November / December 1960, and a few carried the cover date of December 1960. All of the Superman titles that were published this month carried the November 1960 cover date.

- WORLD'S FINEST COMICS 113: published on September 6, 1960 and edited by Jack Schiff. The cover was pencilled by Curt Swan and inked by Stan Kaye. It featured the Superman / Batman story, BAT-MITE MEETS MR. MXYZPTLK, written by Jerry Coleman, pencilled by Dick Sprang and inked by Sheldon Moldoff. This story was reprinted in BATMAN FROM THE THIRTIES TO THE SEVENTIES, WORLD'S FINEST COMICS ARCHIVES vol. III and SHOWCASE PRESENTS: WORLD'S FINEST vol. II. (I may have mistakenly said vol. III. That's what I had written in my notes.)

The remaining Superman related titles were edited by Mort Weisinger.

- SUPERMAN 141: published on September 15, 1960. The cover was pencilled by Curt Swan and inked by Stan Kaye. SUPERMAN'S RETURN TO KRYPTON was written by Jerry Siegel, pencilled by Wayne Boring and inked by Stan Kaye. It was reprinted in SUPERMAN IN THE SIXTIES, SUPERMAN: THE GREATEST STORIES EVER TOLD vol. II and SHOWCASE PRESENTS: SUPERMAN vol. II.

- SUPERMAN'S GIRL FRIEND LOIS LANE 21 was published on September 22, 1960. The cover featured the second story in the issue, and was pencilled by Curt Swan and Kurt Schaffenberger (who inked Lois Lane and maybe Lana Lang). the rest of the cover was inked by Stan Kaye. THE LOIS LANE DOLL was written by Edmond Hamilton and drawn by Kurt Schaffenberger. It was reprinted in SUPERMAN: THE BOTTLE CITY OF KANDOR. THE BATTLE BETWEEN SUPER LOIS AND SUPER LANA was drawn by Kurt Schaffenberger. The writer credit was unknown. It was only reprinted in 80 PAGE GIANT #3, with the cover date of September 1964.

I was disappointed to learn that no Superman titles were published on my birthday of September 27, 1960. The final two Superman related titles were published on September 29, 1960.

- ACTION COMICS 270: The cover was drawn by Curt Swan and inked by Stan Kaye. THE OLD MAN OF METROPOLIS was written by Otto Binder, pencilled by Curt Swan and inked by John Forte. It was reprinted in SHOWCASE PRESENTS: SUPERMAN vol. II and SHOWCASE PRESENTS: SUPERGIRL vol. I. SUPERGIRL'S BUSIEST DAY was written by Jerry Siegel and drawn by Jim Mooney. This story was reprinted in SUPERGIRL ARCHIVES vol. II and SHOWCASE PRESENTS: SUPERGIRL vol. I.

- ADVENTURE COMICS 278: The cover was drawn by Curt Swan and inked by Stan Kaye. SUPERGIRL IN SMALLVILLE was written by Otto Binder and drawn by Al Plastino. It was reprinted in SHOWCASE PRESENTS: SUPERGIRL vol. I.

Citizen Reporter ctrp352 Landing as a Journalist in Kabul, 1996*

In Sept. 1996 the Taliban had just taken over Kabul and Jeremy Wagstaff was working as a journalist for Reuters in Hong Kong when the unexpected happened. He was told they needed him in Kabul, without much preparation or explanation he eventually found his way there and found his way to the front lines of the war in Afghanistan.

In this podcast, recorded one calm sunny afternoon in Kabul, Jeremy recalls what the city was like in those days, what you could and couldn't do, and what dealing with the Taliban was like for a foreign journalist.

The Bikecast Episode #40: Giving Up on Politics*

Another element of Getting from Here to There is giving up on politics. The theatrics and drama of politics, along with the ever appealing us vs. them dynamic involved, freezes people for years and decades in the mistaken belief that the state can effect a reversal of social ills. Endless energy and resources are expended in the pursuit of political solutions and are thereby diverted from alternative efforts. This starving of effective, decentralized, and sustainable non-governmental approaches to social problems insulates and protects the existing power structures from the threat of any substantive change.

57.36 [2377] 418 Show #5 (Oct. 2010) 19:55

418 Show (with Peter Bernard)

Robot intro, closing the cabin door, swinging on the porch, there's the chipmunk, humans are squirrels, thinking about family and kids, white kids can be annoying, be happy with what you've got, people staring at me, I want a hot meal, cabins and tents vs. Washington Heights, squirrels- playing or mating?, maybe I should be a "serious artist" instead of trying to make people happy, Jim Morrison's shamanism, the day I died, lay people becoming interested in shamanism, Skidoo, Cary Grant, Monkey Business, organic food supermarkets, trees all colors, wanted hot breakfast, enter zen through fried mushrooms, territorial pissings, look out for low stone fences, I am not an expert of anything, I know nothing about show business, music or anything else, in NYC people tell me who it would be good to work with, the chipmunk is living under my cabin, I never understood bar hopping, here comes a tractor trailer.

Mystery cat video- please help me solve the mystery of what this cat was:

Around 10 after 7 am on the morning of 10/15/10, the birds started making a fuss and I looked out the screen door of the cabin to see a cat run past from left to right. I had not seen ANY cats the entire time I was up there but saw plenty of chipmunks and squirrels. I grabbed the camera and turned it on and ran outside. I saw the cat sitting in the dark. I tried to lure it out by talking cat language to it. When it finally came out into the light, it was larger than I had realized and I'm sort of glad it was scared of me.

Video and photos here:

<http://209show.com/418/spottedcat.html>

It looks sort of like a bobcat but has a long fluffy tail. Maybe it's a large house cat mixed with a wild cat? If you can solve this puzzle, please forward along your findings to peter@peterbernard.com.

Hogan Grip – Stance Gives You Balance [foot156] (October 10, 2010)

To Henry Picard – An Outstanding Teacher, An Outstanding Player And An Outstanding Man

Junior85 formed a tag team with DeclanQKelly, that is Hogan Grip. Their description is as shown below.

There followed an intense fortnight or so of recording, mixing, the addition of various horns and and much golf tee painting to bring into existence the Hogan Grip EP “Stance Gives You Balance”, which was launched on the 20th of August 2010 with much fanfare and free golf tees at the CitÃ³g free music night in Galway, within walking/golf carting distance of that same fateful charity shop. The music is based mostly on hurried improvisation, with the main parts of the songs composed and recorded in Tony’s sitting room – DeclanQKelly played keys and guitar and Tony Higgins played drums, bass and keys. Additional magic occurred in Tony’s bedroom where he made the songs go whoosh with extra instrumentation and magical masterering.

All the song titles for the EP were taken from phrases or chapter titles in Ben Hogan’s seminal instructional golf book “Power Golf” (Corgi Press, 1958) (except “Stance Gives You Power”, which was merely Tony’s mis-remembering of “Stance Gives You Balance” that just stuck around). Though the resulting music bears little direct relation to “Power Golf”, we believe it was conceived and executed in the spirit of the book, summed up in the last chapter “Now it’s up to you”. It contained “Eight hints on how to lower your score”, which include such golden tips as “PLAY SAFE IF YOU CAN’T GET A CLEAN SHOT”; “COMMON SENSE” and “DON’T BE AFRAID”. “LEARN TO PLAY THE SAND WEDGE” and “USE A CLUB WITH ENOUGH LOFT” were perhaps not so relevant to our cause but were duly noted and applied vigourously to other areas of our lives.

Most importantly, we learned that most people hit the outside of the ball instead of the back of it. Armed with this knowledge we are, admittedly, no better off generally, but feel there is at least something about ourselves we ought to be in some way improving. Which is as good a reason as any to go on living.

Spin Drive Smasher – Crazy Tiny EP

Sprigott 3:05

Spin Drive Smasher is a new 8-bit-infused chiptune artist from Milwaukee, Wisconsin. While many modern chiptune artists like to focus on club-style music, Spin Drive Smasher takes its cue from Final Fantasy, Megaman and other NES-era classics. This EP features four original tunes, as well as two Famby Fun! covers (a band Spin Drive Smasher is also a member of).

57.59 [2400] Escapist Radio #4 - The House At Haunted Hill (10/27/10) 49:51

It's that time of year once again. A time when children go door-to-door trick-or treating, adults have an excuse to act bizarre and people with certain talents shine in all their glory in the bathing moonlight. Yes, it is Halloween season.

In this episode we are introduced to a couple from Southern California who, for 10 years now, have been passionately displaying their home in the All Hallows Eve Holiday motif. But somewhere along the way, their passion of simply decorating the outside of their home for trick-or-treaters turned into a real, honest to Golem high-end Halloween Yard Haunt with professional story production and state of the art lights, music, performances and special effects. What on this side of reality drives people to do such things for no more than the love of the holiday itself? Listen in and find out.

You can easily find out more about The House At Haunted Hill at their website.

Apologies up front, but this one was a bear to edit due to some serious technical difficulties behind the scenes. There are a couple of audio level and mix inconsistencies. All are due to temperamental software, flakey hardware and a trans-coder that couldn't understand what 192 kb/ps was, therefore the show was a day or two delayed - please enjoy anyway and I look forward to your comments here on the ONSUG Forum.

57.63 [2404] The Brian Jude Show #45: Back to the Frajer (10/30/10) 30:02

Last week was the 25th anniversary of the date in which Marty McFly (well, the dog Einstein, actually) became the first time traveler in "Back to the Future." Melanie & I saw the remastered film in the theatre, and it still stands up after all these years. Makes me think about how our own realities can be shifted by simply putting your mind to it. A true example of that is my friend Jen Ponton, a most talented actress whose recent cameo/debut on NBC's "30 Rock" just aired, including a scene that is destined to be one of the series' most memorable moments.

Shadows in the Dark - Lost Cosmonauts (January 20, 2008)

Olav Phillips returned to the show to discuss the secret Soviet space program and the Lost Cosmonauts. In 1961, The Judica-Cordiglia brothers, after setting up a listening post which probed the cosmos and successfully tracked all the early american and soviet unmanned satellites, heard the beat of a failing heart and the last gasping breaths of a dying cosmonaut weeks before Yuri Gagarin's epic space flight. It is believed that the Soviets tried to launch 2 men in to outer space before Gargarin.

58.51 [2455] The Brian Jude Show: NON-SUG Bundle #3 (Nov. - Dec. 2009) 3:08:12

Just in time for Pagan Thanksgiving, here's the next in my series of episodes that were previously unreleased on the Overnightscape Underground channel. This was a very transformative period in my life. Check out the moment during which I realized and declare that I want to start working on a feature film, how my mentality changes after I discovered "The Secret," and my thoughts on 2010 being the Year of Abundance! But of course, it all starts with gratitude...

Also look for the supplemental video episode to follow - BJS016a: The Last Days of Frank Whyte (a short film with intro!)

This volume includes:

- BJS015: Rosencrantz and Guildenstern Are Thankful Pagans (Originally released 11/23/09)

If you listened to BJS002, you'll remember I picked up props for T. Schreiber Studios' production of "Rosencrantz and Guildenstern are Dead." Yesterday Melanie & I saw the show, and today I returned the props back to Anything But Costumes i Flemington, New Jersey. Later on, I attended the 19th annual Pagan Thanksgiving, hosted by two former college classmates - and Student Government Association presidents - of mine, Tony Susco and James "Appetite" Cotter.

- BJS016: Q&A at the Old Bridge Filmmakers Showcase (Originally released 11/28/09)

Three local New Jersey filmmakers participate in a Q&A session at the first installment of the Old Bridge Filmmakers Showcase at the Old Bridge Public Library. Hosted by Matt Helme, the filmmakers discuss their short films presented earlier in the afternoon. Marla Cukor discusses "The Masquerade" (directed by Natalia Garcia), a mystery thriller which she wrote, and which stars Christopher Masterson of TV's "Malcolm in the Middle." Jamal Hall talks about his short film "Strivin'," a stylistic story about an inner city kid who dreams of becoming a dancer while coping with an abusive father. I ramble on about "The Last Days of Frank Whyte," which I co-wrote, directed and produced with the film's star Franklin Correa, and which tells the tale of a drug dealer's downward spiral of life. (If you haven't already, check out BJS016a - my first video episode which contains my film in its entirety.)

- BJS018: Crazy Nights (Originally released 12/14/09)

Join me as I talk about the Festival of Lights known as Hanukkah - the story behind it, our family's observance of it and what it means to me as a non-Jew. I also discuss my Paramount Pictures hat given to me by Joe "Joey Pants" Pantoliano, Jacob's "bad witch/good witch" dream, starting to live with "The Secret" and the controversy over "Happy Holidays." Music by the Unitarian Universalist Congregation at Montclair Choir.

- BJS019: I'll Be Elvish For Solstice (Originally released 12/21/09)

Listen as I join fellow members of the Unitarian Universalist Congregation at Montclair as we bring toys and books to the children of the Newton Street School in Newark, NJ, assisting Santa (as played by congregation member and television actor Andre Braugher). I interview fellow member Courtney Allen on our seven-year relationship with the school, and discuss the winter solstice, accepting the benefits of abundance, and New Moon rituals. Concludes with music by Mr. Steve and Miss Katie (used with permission).

- BJS020: Reflections on 2009 (Originally released 12/31/09)

I spend a few moments on the morning of New Year's Eve reflecting on the positive moments of 2009, and why it's critical to be grateful for the things we have in our life. I also discuss Facebook's "My Year in Photos" application, the Facebook group "I Claim 2010 As the Year of Abundance," and how the principals of Kwanzaa can apply to non-African-Americans as well.

“Next Time I See You Remind Me Not To Talk To You” (by Stealing Orchestra)

from Wikipedia entry for Stealing Orchestra:

A review by Cool and Strange Music Magazine back in 2000 gives a general idea of the music by Stealing Orchestra even if there were many changes in the line-up or musical creation.

“No matter how off the map Mascarenhas’ musical funhouse gets, with things running backward and jumping in at the most inappropriate spots, there is always the semblance of a song. His mixed madness has a definite lounge and pop bent to it – yet there is also a strong Portuguese/Spanish flavor. Think of all faux Spanish music that exists out there, then try to imagine what would happen if someone from the area began lampooning American culture with that inherent style. It’s like a soundtrack a spy movie ran through a blender.”

“When I Snap My Fingers You’ll Wake Up” (by Eusebio)

These are 9 tracks testifying together about the way Bucharest is and feels like today. The album, simply called ONE, marks Eusebio’s debut and it doesn’t just play the capital’s soundscape. Its purpose is to make you feel like you are taking a walk through it: full blown human chaos with sound chaos and traffic chaos for the middle of the day and deep, deep clam punctuated by a vagrant dog or car for the middle of the night. The album contains reworked night time street ambient recordings and for any of the song there is a corresponding particular state of mind or moment in time.

It took Eusebio a full year to finish ONE, a full year of fine tuning to achieve minute details that you are aware of after two or three listening sessions. The more sessions, the more details. Synths, flutes, guitars, drums and drum effects and drum machines plus traffic signs turned drum kits, plates and glasses turned to chimes and bells, and above all these, the mighty PC, used as a recording, editing and mixing tool. Part of the songs are produced by Waar, Eusebio wingman in the High Jet project, an electronica extravaganza endeavor, a musical fresh mint designed to refresh you.

“Destroy She Says” (by Zoe.LeelA)

Queendom Come is some of the finest electronic urban soul I’ve heard on the internet. The Berlin artist has a silky smooth sound that rides a fine line between naughty and sexy. Her voice is casual yet seductive. The production values on her album are almost impeccable. Yet it is her vocals and breathy persona that tempts me into each replay. “Bridges” and “Destroy She Says” are two excellent examples of her alchemy. How "Santa Claus Vs. The Devil" Came To America

Artist/Composer: Michael Edward Miller

Turner Classic Movies is getting ready to air one of the strangest Christmas films ever made. Created in 1959, its officially called "Santa Claus," but it's better known as "Santa Claus Vs. The Devil." You might remember seeing it in Chattanooga theaters-it used get re-released every few years at Christmas. You might remember seeing it lampooned on Mystery Science Theater 3000.

The film was originally created in Mexico. A promoter named K. Gordon Murray brought it to the United States and dubbed it into English. Today, we will discover who K. Gordon Murray was, and why he brought this film to American children. In the 1960's, Murray was known as the "King of the Kiddie Matinee."

Daniel Griffith joins us. Griffith is a Chattanooga filmmaker and an expert on the subject. Griffith has been working on a documentary about Murray's life, called the Wonder World of K. Gordon Murray.

Short Science Podcast 080

Welcome to the eightieth episode of the Short Science Podcast!

This is a very special "Take-Over" edition of Short Science. Hosted by Elizabeth Hauke, this episode is written and presented by Ed Prosser, Katie Draper and Andy Bailey.

We kick off the podcast with a few prominent fishy news headlines from the week, including:

- new study offers hope for multiple sclerosis sufferers
- giant panda breeding breakthrough
- oriental hornets powered by solar energy
- index finger length possible clue to risk of prostate cancer
- artificial tornado created in Japan
- arsenic-eating microbe claims to redefine chemistry of life

This week, Ed, Katie and Andy are looking at potential 'end of the world' scenarios. After a run down of the top-five possibilities, they focus on nuclear annihilation.

Guest Andrew Purcell talks about the science magazine I, Science.

To be included in the show, leave any thoughts, questions or ideas on the Short Science answerphone +44 (0)7401 856 681, or send us an email to studio@shortscience.co.uk. More details can be found on our website www.shortscience.co.uk!

"Chasing Theme from Millano Brothers IV" (by Makunouchi Bento)

Very few people knew the fact that Makunouchi Bento have scored one of the most obscure imaginary movies in the history of VHS exclusives: Millano Brothers IV. The magnetic tapes (thought to be permanently lost) were accidentally found by one of the guys' grandmother in an old macaroni box in her attic, and are now brought to your attention. Out of the 10 hours of original material, we've selected 3 songs, marking 3 important moments in the movie.

60.29 [25 65] No Snowjob - 4:07

Jim Fidler announces the launching of the Snowman Radio Podcast

The SnowMan Radio Broadcast, a satirical talk show, was produced between August of 1999, and May 2001 by Jim Snowbarger of Marshalltown Iowa. The program was broadcast over LiveStreamAmerica.com. Later shows were also broadcast on ACBRadio.org. Shows were also posted on Live365.com and a now defunked service called GiveMeTalk.com. All voices and nearly all of the music used on this show were that of Jim Snowbarger.

The Program was supposedly originated from a mythical radio station known as WWSNOW, an A.M. station which featured talk programming comprised of the stream-of-consciousness ramblings of The SnowMan. The show featured three primary personalities:

* The SnowMan - the self-possessed star of the show and boss of the station. Hefty Genitals - NewsMan and general fun-loving man about town.

* The program engineer and producer, who speaks over an intercom system, often harassing the SnowMan as he does his show, but who is never named.

Other personalities referred to but never heard were Nookie, girlfriend of Hefty Genitals, an unnamed secretary, presumably the SnowGirl, and the staff psychologist Dr. Weebit Mental, though Dr. Weebit does make one appearance.

The program was actually produced in a small spare bedroom with an 8-channel mixing board, several effects devices and a computer. The first 25% of these programs were produced on analog tape, with the remainder done with multi-track computer software. All programs were produced on Saturday afternoon, and uploaded late saturday

60.78 [2614] The Brian Jude Show Ep. 51: The Social Timesuck - 57:37

So since I missed recording a segment for The Overnightscape Central's episode about Facebook, I decided to dedicate an entire episode of The Brian Jude Show to the topic! Here the story of how I first joined Facebook, courtesy of Kathryl Velvel Jones, Facebook's lack of customizability, throwing sheep, the rise of Facebook and the downfall of MySpace, high school reunion, some people don't want to talk with old high school classmantes, Alumni Group page, closer with some people now than ever before, letting bygones be bygones, getting gigs, keeping up with family, younger cousins, requests from strangers, Temple of the Jedi Order, status updates, Twitter, "Brian Jude is....," Wall vs. Profile/Info vs. Home, News Feed, using SMS to keep up, FB + Twitter = Now have to keep texts silent & always check, I ignore notifications, Gmail Priority Inbox & Facebook notifications separated, News from friends, Dawn Richie, Vanessa & Reiki, birthdays sharing photos, Jacob's albums, The Many Faces of Brian Jude, people don't like being tagged, DCT Comedy's Brooke Van Poppelen, videos, 3rd Party Apps, MP3, YouTube - Great auto function - instant embed - any web site image, no more Links page(?), notes, tagging, Events, Groups vs. Pages, "Like," Discussions, Insights, promoting DCT, DRP, the Miracle Man, the great time suck, Chat - I'm always "offline", games, Mafia, Farmville, ads are non-intrusive, quick to load, New Facebook, removed info box from sidebar, love new info page & its functionality, birthdays, friends photos, friend groups - everyone has at least 1 category - helps with mass messaging, "The Social Network," helpful for me - cast off doubts! Make someone happy with your favorite social network.

61.30 [2650] Frank Nora Show 1649 - Rubber Superstars (2/11/11) 1:13:34

The unnatural haze of a chemical spray, ideas, the origin of The Overnightscape, shoveling snow off a roof, new idea for an Internet radio station, The Exit Ramp, Letraset Masquerade, Creative Commons music, Jamendo, FedFlix, bad timing, more station ideas, limited time and energy for creative pursuits, The Shamen "Ebeneezer Goode", black dog, profitability, context could performances, we still have a serious lack of context on the channel, insane sky of chemdogs and chemtrails and chemhaze, fools are so damn ingenious, Destructoid, more thoughts on the Boxee Box, analysis of the occult symbolism in the new Lady Gaga song "Born This Way", theories about the Illuminati on the Internet, mind control victims, various names for the devil, rubber superstars, numerology, DNA, new cardboard bowls, Fresh Ginger Ale by Bruce Cost, Wacky Packages, Onsong Manual, the siren issue, Monty Python song "I Like Traffic Lights", talking about seeing the Moon in the daytime, looking at the sky, wall hangings, bought some cigars, thoughts on tobacco, I need glasses, Oakley frames, Tekzilla, similarity between the 1984 songs "Welcome To The Pleasuredome" by Frankie Goes To Hollywood and "Where's The Walrus?" by The Alan Parsons Project, and the animals are winding me up.

61.31 [2651] goodrob13 music show 1 - (2/8/11) 1:53:36

A NEW Music-Talk show hosted by Rob from the Paunch Stevenson show!

The Overnightscape Underground podcast network, Frank Nora, The Paunch Stevenson Show, walking to my office in Manhattan, figuring out where to post the Goodrob13 Music Show, growing up with old music, percussion instruments and humor, starting rock bands in high school, being the one who could figure out songs by ear, figuring out how to play guitar on my own, making my first home recordings, starting a band as an adult instead of a teenager, 1990s grunge/alternative rock, the evolution of rock music from the late 1950s through the early 1980s, experiencing the evolution of rock music in the 1990s in real-time, the premature death of alternative rock in 1996, not being able to write music, the excitement of experiencing a current band's progression in real time vs. exploring an old band's catalog, three reasons I find current music unlistenable (oversimplified, overperfected, and overprocessed), the progressive lack of dynamic range in music since the mid 1990s, Weird Paul Petroskey, the natural power of musical instruments and simpler recordings, deceptively simple songs like "She Loves You," digitally remastered CDs usually sound worse than older versions, and your music suggestions! 61.32 [2652] goodrob13 music show 2 - (2/09/11) 48:37

The Free Design!: naming the show, creating new content efficiently (recording during my commute), PATH train problems, analog tape saturation vs. digital clipping, getting used to recording while walking in NYC, the fourth reason I find current music unlistenable (lack of charisma and likable personalities), indie artists acting too serious and pretentious, video games, fun vs. dark and edgy, the irony of public figures wanting privacy, late 1960s-early 1970s jazzy pop group The Free Design, plain and simple singing voices vs. today's affected vocals, the horrible Free Design remix album The Now Sound Redesigned (2005), and some short clips of Free Design songs ("Make the Madness Stop," "I Found Love," "Bubbles," "Girls Alone," "Butterflies Are Free," and "2002 - A Hit Song"). 61.33 [2653] goodrob13 music show 3 - (2/10/11) 46:00

The lost art of TV theme songs and commercial jingles, what do those songwriters, musicians, and vocalists do now?, a generation that finds it weird for products to be advertised with songs, the Toys "R" Us song ("I don't wanna grow up, I'm a Toys 'R' Us kid"), the irony of enjoying commercial jingles while living an anti-commercial life, Mount Airy Lodge, judging theme songs and jingles out of context on their own merits, acknowledging the nostalgia factor, the Kellogg's Frosted Flakes song ("The taste of Tony's Frosted Flakes brings out the tiger in you"), the Tootsie Roll song ("Whatever it is I think I see becomes a Tootsie Roll to me"), gum commercials, hoping for a revival, and a small selection of my favorite intros and jingles (The Electric Company, Alice, He-Man and the Masters of the Universe, One Day at a Time, Big Red, Charles in Charge, Dennis the Menace, Green Acres, Alvin and the Chipmunks, Juicy Fruit, The Munsters, Laverne and Shirley, The Addams Family, G.I. Joe: A Real American Hero, Mr. Ed, Bod, We're Not Candy, Simon in the Land of Chalk Drawings, Jem, Tootsie Rolls, The Great Space Coaster, Josie and the Pussycats, and The Magic Garden). Public Drunkenness in Paris (Americast #11)

Ohmygod I'm so sick, I don't know how the French drink this much. French children can like hold their liquor better than me and Deb. Well, better than me anyway, Debbie can like drink more than Lindsay Lohan the day after parole finishes.

Thank you for all you intelligent men and women who voted for me for Valentine's Day and everything. Maybe this will wake Debbie up that she just isn't trying hard enough to be like the most fabulous girl she can be. Then again, maybe I'm too hard on her, expecting her to keep up with me.

Enjoy our latest bit of genius, lovers! As soon as the room stops spinning, we're booking a flight to some island or other I think. But for now, I'm gonna go be like sick again. Blah, pauvre, pauvre moi.

St. Paddy's Day!

OMG OMG OMG it was like so windy? That the wind was like louder than us talking.

So we like went into the doorway of this like church?

And we put the podcasterizer maker on the thingie there, like umm what do you call a pole but thicker and made of stone?

Anyway so then the whole webisode ended up sounding like we were standing inside of like a cave entrance? In Hell? During a blizzard?

While a funeral took place outside.

Or something.

I'm like tired already.

This holiday is stupid.

I think we're going to Italy next though! Mmmmmmm!

Follow us on Twitter, lovers! Our Street Teem just got us over 500 followers!

Mad props to tha krew in NYC! Miss u guys! XOXO :)

63.02 [2792] The Brian Jude Show Ep. 56: Sherman Nyrphryeizhenyrphglergryr & Washington's Crossing (4/2/11) 56:58

Today I met up with my friend Kati Gegg at Washington Crossing State Park in Titusville, NJ, as we did a training walk for our upcoming participation in Out of the Darkness Overnight - an 18-mile walk over the course of one night in New York City. Net proceeds benefit the American Foundation for Suicide Prevention, funding research, education, and awareness programs – both to prevent suicide and to assist those affected by suicide. Today's topics include turning the radio down through toll booths, April Fool's Day idea for next year, this year I changed my Facebook profile name to Sherman Nyrphryeizhenyrphglergryr and lost 10 friends (but gained one back), soon approaching an Academy Award winner to play Morris Goodman for "The Miracle Man," baby names for Boy #2, Pinky Dinky Doo and her Little Brother Tyler, Big Kev's Geek Stuff, Exposed with Kay and Abi, The Tobolowsky Files, Neal from Ireland in Newark, mailing the rest of the Miracle Man t-shirts, meeting up with Manny the Mailman, Kati's participation in last year's Out of the Darkness Overnight walk in Boston, walking slower is a harder workout, issues being a suicide survivor, warning signs of suicide, Revolutionary War reenactment, getting stuck in traffic on Christmas for the reenactment of Washington's Crossing, visiting center, losing the Blue Dot Trail, air raid sirens, random telephone pole in the middle of a field, living in Lancaster, PA, Spring House, burrito lunch at Gabriel's II pizzeria, correction to BJS002: learning disability is not considered to be related in any way with VACTERL association.

63.22 [2812] American Girls Americast #18 (4/7/11) 2:53

OMG I am usually the one handing out advice to my fans but this week I'm faced with a genuine unsolvable dilemma:

When is having sex all the time having TOO much sex all the time?

Or is there such a time?

Plus, what is like wrong with guys that like don't friend you on Facebook after you've like already had sex with them and stuff and everything??!?

Oh and a shout out to the City Council candidate in Austin Texas that we just endorsed today! <3

He must be so proud!

I'm hoping we can get a Republican to endorse next, that would be fair!
We'll endorse any candidate who retweets something we write on Twitter!<3

New podcast every Thursday at <http://AliciaAmerican.com>
NEXT WEEK: We interview "former Republican" podcasting legend, Frank Nora!
Other stuff at <http://ThoseAmericanGirls.com> and you can follow us at <http://twitter.com/ThoseUSAGirls>

It is ours, lovers, the entire world is ours for the taking.

63.23 [2813] American Girls Americast #19 (4/14/11) 6:15

Interview with a Rampler!

OMG Deb and I got to meet the guy who owns like one of our internet radio stations or like something or whatever and like his name is Franky Nora and he's like really hot. I think he like wanted to cheat on his wife with me but he'll probably cut that part out when he runs this on his website onsug.com. Speaking of which, if you want to actually hear the Americast the way it's MEANT to be heard- on THURSDAY- then you'll have to like check out MY site, <http://AliciaAmerican.com>. Cuz if anything like goes up late on MY site, heads like STROLL and everything. Actually, I don't even know what that like means.

Anyway, darlings, I'm certain that like now that we've buttered Mister Franky up that he'll like pay us a lot LOT more to like do our show and stuff and everything. Or maybe at least upload our podcasts the same week we like release them. If not, then I AM willing to have sex, but not more than like once or twice, honestly.
Enjoy our live in person interview with radio star FRANK EDWARD NORA a/k/a "The Rampler!"

Starring Lucy DeLeche as Alicia American, Rachel Cleary as Debbie American, and introducing Frank Nora as "The Beaver"

63.40 [2830] The Midnight Citizen 25 - “Vindication” 50:05

It seems creative people have the hardest time getting vindicated for their actions - working super hard on a project, whether it be novel, or screenplay, or acting, only to see their efforts evaporate into the universe of ephemeral appreciation. Well, no more - at least for me! Tonight, I look back on some of my ideas, past and present - ones I’ve spent huge chunks of time obsessing over, and throw them out there for your enjoyment. And you will enjoy, and I will finally feel vindication for spending most of my life inside my own head. Attribution: by Mike Boody - more info at onsug.com

63.43 [2833] The Midnight Citizen 26 - "The State of Emergency Show" 32:57

With massive regional destruction, six people dead, and no end in sight, hear a first-person, blow-by-blow account of what Famed Alabama Weatherman James Spann has called "the worst weather I've seen in my career!" Hear all the severe weather action as I shack up inside my tiny apartment and ride the storm out. Also, witness the tale of how my humble paper route almost ended my life! 63.44 [2834] NIGHT PROJECT - Heart of Darkness - (4/27/11) 2:04:12

A jam-packed assemblage of awesomeness, highlighted by Orson Welles and the Mercury Theater's 1939 rendition of Josef Conrad's Heart of Darkness! But there's more! Franklin MacCormack's night poetry from WGN, December, 1970, Americanisms, Mr F Le Mur, 1960 Flying Saucer Convention recordings (details below), Babe Ruth, Henry Morgan, and even a rare, 1958 Jean Shepherd excerpt! PQ Ribber oversees the proceedings from the temporary Rubber Room Annex, in Truth or Consequences, New Mexico. This is Night Radio!

“Reuniting The Brattles”

OMG lovers, this week has been like the most exciting and most humbling all at the same time!
We have a bunch of like announcements in this podcast including news about a NEW A-GIRL!
From AUSTRALIA!!

Listen 4 more info!

In addition to what’s on the audio, we want to like let u know we have a number of cool new INTERVIEWS in the works, including

PAT WALSH, CEO of like Walsh Family Media, and like JOHN BEACH VOICEGUY of Voiceguy Inc.,

and our like sister band, THE MOON IS A DISCO BALL!

Plus a very special shoutout to our best friend on Twitter, the very smart and pretty Conservative Princess Lisa Chapman!

She’s teaching us how to like comprehend our THOUSANDS of new Tea Party fans and friends, and she’s been INCREDIBLY patient. We owe her like 8 gazillion flavors!

We can never like pay her back, we appreciate her so much! ♥♥

OMG speaking of which, if u want 2 hear our patriotic new song, “USA” go to

<http://freedomtorock.org/profile/AliciaAmerican>

OMG Deb and I realized we like do NOT agree with everything the like Tea Party stands for.

Like 4 instance, we do NOT think its like EVAR appropo 2 like insult OUR PRESIDENT.

However, we were reading on this liberal website that the Tea Party are gonna like win the next election bigtime, so if the Liberals want us 2 support them, they better like prove 2 us they can like WIN it, yo!

Cuz Deb and I like do NOT bet on like LOSERS! LOL ♥♥

Plus like the Conservative Princess says we can support the Tea Party but not be Republicrats!

Make us a better offer than THAT, Liberatives! ♥♥ LOL ♥♥

We’re 4 sale 2 tha highest bidder and I dont mean high on weed yo! ♥♥

Peace in tha middle east, lovers!

♥♥~~Alicia~~♥♥ (and Deb)

ADDENDUM: Hi, Deb here. Lee just axed me 2 type in this "IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT" that she just like dictated 2 me or whatever:

"I don't know why I never saw this before when its the most obvious thing anyone could ever possibly see. HOW MANY TIMES have you been to forever? How many times have you HAVEN'T?

"Deb says we're in the air in Brooklyn but that's impossible because she's in the Dominican and I'm upstate making a souffle. LOL that's a funny word- souffle.

"There are aspects of every aspect of every thing which are incorruptible. You can tell it by their accent when they smile at you.

"I realize NOW that it is OUR JOB to skin the cat- OUR JOB OURSELVES! It's NOT up to the TV people- Darlings, we ARE the TV people! Stop acting as though you weren't animated too- we ALL are, lovers, and THIS is our DEFINING MOMENT! From now on, we are The Beatles and the ONLY love greater than love is the love we love you with so abundantly, lovers!

Luv,
Lee♥"

Wiping the slime off

Darlings, have you ever worked with the kind of people who make you feel you need a REALLY LONG BATH after your project is completed?

Well, lovers, I work in show business so I really SHOULD be like USED 2 it by now.

However, as a human with a soul, I'll never FULLY adapt 2 Hollyweird, LOL.

This like old clueless talentless guy like hired me and my like crew?

Then like put us in a bag like cats and beat us with a bat for 2 weeks.

Apparently, that's legal if you like PAY people at the end of it and stuff.

As long as you're like completely talentless, you're allowed 2 abuse artists as much as if they were like in Gitmo!

At least that's what he told us, and WHY would a snake oil salesman ever like LIE?

♥Debbie♥ was in the Dominican, she avoided the whole ordeal.

Thank god for Deb, she is my rock, my like Philosopher's Stone.

OK this webisode has like secret references to like ♥The Conservative Princess♥ and to like ♥Andy Kaufman♥, so like keep your ears peeled or whatever.

OMG and our manager just gave us the like GREEN LIGHT to record our Conservative Princess song!!!!

Stay tuned, lovers!

67.06 [2931] The Brian Jude Show Ep. 59: The Overnight Walk 2011 - NYC (6/5/11) 1:05:12

After several months of promoting this event, listen along as my friends Kati, Lynda, Tammy and I - and about 2,000 others - walk for 18 miles from Cadman Plaza in Brooklyn, up the Brooklyn Promenade, over the Brooklyn Bridge, past Ground Zero, around the tip of Manhattan, through Battery Park City, up the Hudson River, over to Sixth Avenue, down Broadway, then back over the Brooklyn Bridge to Cadman Plaza as we raise both money and awareness for the American Foundation for Suicide Prevention! Discussion topics include Mariel Hemingway in the Opening Ceremony, Kati's brother Michael and my step-brother Allan, my grandfather's death and what it still means to me today, the recent passing of Dr. Jack Kevorkian, is suicide ever justified, suicide and older men, Blue Marble Ice Cream, the film The Jonestown Defense, talking with a man whose 22 year old son took his life in February, I left stuff in the car, The Freedom Tower and the 9/11 Memorial, passing by the mile markers and questioning the accuracy of their placement, the Staten Island Ferry, I used to work at 17 State Street with Frank Nora's sister-in-Law Carrie Ann Carol, the film Keeping the Faith, midnight snack at Pier 96, promoting the film In Montauk by Kim Cummings and the band HOT BREAKFAST featuring Jill Knapp and Matt Casarino, talking to street people, caffeine makes you dehydrated, reading the list of names of those who have sponsored my walk, luminarias, closing ceremony.

67.21 [2946] The Midnight Citizen 29 – “Super 8 Day” 54:50

After months of stayin’ away from the pictures, I go back in full force with “Super 8”. Folks are describing this one as the perfect valentine to early Spielberg, a bunch of kids in late 70s suburbia making movies and dealing with aliens. Why does that make me hesitant? Listen as I talk about my reservations before leaving for the theater, and find out if I was right after I get home and give ya my full review.

67.23 [2948] The Unbodied: Drawn Back Again, Part One (6/5/11) 13:31

The latest show, Drawn Back Again Part One, is a continuation of a series of stories written in 2009. To listen to the previous episodes in this series, go to www.theunbodied.com.

It’s one year after Megan’s strange and, at times, dangerous mission to find Rachel’s missing friends. Strange because in the course of pursuit she got lost in shape-shifting houses and met people capable of making unusual things happen. Dangerous because Smith, the thing who kidnapped the friends, didn’t want to be bothered and had a funny way of torturing people just with his gaze.

In that year’s time Megan has been avoiding all things strange, and that includes thinking about what happened and speaking to Rachel. But, an arbitrary decision one evening forces it all back into her memory. What happens next? Listen and find out!

67.46 [2971] The Brian Jude Show - Ep. 60: Resort Town Gigs (6/29/11) 31:42

Recorded June 18 & 26, 2011.

It's been a while - been keeping really busy between taking care of my wife, who is currently on bed rest, the boy, who just finished Kindergarten, a busy work schedule, "The Miracle Man" progress and other projects. I didn't even have time to do post production until a few days after recording this...

In this episode, I take you along on two interesting gigs - first a long bus ride up to Lake George, NY - a great resort town where I march in a huge Fireman's convention parade with the Tappan Zee Bridgemen, then a long drive south to Wildwood, NJ where I officiated a wedding. Topics include multiple units of the band, Six Flags Great Escape, marginal placenta previa, changing the baby's "due" date, Jacob Celebrity Fashion Show and the Boys & Girl's Club, camping in Wildwood in 1989, had a video gig in Queens, drove through 4 out of the 5 boroughs of New York City, scouting the beach, Ontario license plates in Wildwood, enormous Ferris wheel, The Skyscraper, don't go to Seaside, finding a fenced pathway up a sand dune, Jacob's iPod Touch takes better pictures than my phone, waiting to hear back from a famous actor for "The Miracle Man," putting investment documents together, a brief review of the latest CD from "Weird Al" Yankovic, "Alpocalypse," I may start a new regularly published podcast on the Law of Attraction.

Republic of Avalon Radio logo

This time on the ROAR:

Greetings from "not" Alan Alda, greetings from Ian, Kate and Lance, all from Australia, opening remarks from Jim, the weather, the music industry, Jim's new album and the soon to come EP releases, the soon coming Roots Cellar Rats community at www.jimfidler.com, Walkabout with Jim and Lillian, a wee bit of democracy, the usual weather report, the "not quite" half moon, moon names, the turd moon, the man in the moon, bad moon landing footage, bad logic formulae, ancient technology, "Dead Men's Secrets" by Jonathan Gray, the moon cheese joke, the moon cheese idea, the moon cheese slogan, Jim's song "Matrix", we all need a filter, the box reality, the big illusion, the myth myth, a school of fools, manufacturing reality, ashew obfuscation, passing the ROAR's number 1 busker, Richard Mixer, passing the open gates to hell, weather, warming periods, cooling periods, running into our friends Charlie and Tanya and all kinds of that there fooly dooly.

Music this time:

Our theme, Genesis and a bunch of stuff, in the background, from Jim's new album by Jim Fidler

Best listened to on headphones.

That really wasn't Alan Alda. - Really!

72.08 [3065] Sneaky TT Broadcasting System 2 (9/5/11) 8:25:42

This is an experimental “concept show” that explores the outer limits of what an Internet radio show can be. While it is over 8 hours long, it is presented in a lo-fi audio, which sounds similar to an AM radio broadcast. It’s 86.8 MB - about the same size as a 95 minute show at standard 128kbps quality.

I am releasing it without any show notes - and that’s part of the concept - that you can listen with no idea what is coming next.

I suggest listening in a player that can keep track of where you last left off, which most programs and devices allow for.

Because of the experimental nature of this show, I am not including it on the podcast feed, because I know it may not work for everyone. But if you want to explore this little audio world, you can download it here.

I really think this could make for a very cool listening experience... or perhaps it just goes too far? ...let me know what you think!

Just what is it about the music quality while watching Harold and Maude, what is the connection between conspiracy and dada, john lennon, and lobster claws, dada art and crustaceans. The sound of the past, why do the walls seem to be breathing, filter on the brain. Frank's idea of a Wall of Density as it applies to modern people being cut off from the rich history of 20th century popular culture. I forgot to talk about monsters.

72.30 [3087] The Midnight Citizen 36 – “The Final Girl Theory” 1:14:43

After a month’s absence, I get on back to the microphone for another landmark episode. Actually, this is a show that was supposed to be posted weeks ago, just after Birmingham’s Sidewalk Film Festival in late August, but due to a slew of technical problems (no procrastination for once, I promise), it’s just going up now. It’s still cool and relevant, though, I swear!

On this episode, I’ve got an interview with Mark Trammell, pop culture and entertainment editor for UAB’s Kaleidoscope newspaper, who gives the most extensive review you’ll hear of the grassroots Sidewalk Film Festival. I talk with Mark about why Sidewalk matters in the film festival scene, and get a breakdown of all the independent flicks that played at this year’s event that you need to see. Tell your girlfriend, tell your parents – truly something for everybody!

72.31 [3088] The Brian Jude Show #64: SECOND ANNIVERSARY EPISODE - Inexplicable Overpasses (9/26/11) 40:31

Recorded September 25, 2011.

It’s been two years since I started my “rampling,” and I’m ready to start Year Three!

I’ve been exceptionally busy lately, working a lot at my acting gig at Kaplan, video shoots, parades, substitute teaching and officiating weddings. Here I drive down the New Jersey Turnpike on my way to a wedding, where I have noticed a major-scale construction project, which includes about 7 overpasses that don’t seem to lead to anything - mostly into woods and housing developments, with no road at either end. I worked in my son’s school, my wife went back to work. Crazy things have been happening lately - my son lost his hearing aid, my iPod went on the fritz, the car battery died...almost like Mercury Retrograde, or is it because my energy is off from being so exhausted? Long time Friends of ONSUG Brandon General and JB Reed have a brand new music project - The Human Orchestra - listen to 5 of their tracks from their upcoming EP due out soon! Includes the track, “On With The Show,” courtesy of Brandon General.

73.06 [3100] Trash The Airport Meadow - Compilation Album (2011) 1:18:10

This is a compilation album of Creative Commons-licensed music I found on Jamendo.com. I released it about four months ago on Archive.org, but I've been listening to it a lot lately and I decided to release it here as a single combined MP3 file so more people could hear it. I love this album, and to me it shows that Creative Commons music, released in the spirit of sharing, can be just as good as draconian copyright-shackled commercial music.

Pocket Overnightscape

Check it out!

<http://onsug.com/pocket>

The complete archive of The Overnightscape Underground (up to September 2011) contains 3,094 shows, totaling 3.7 months of audio (2,679 hours). This includes everything - all of my shows - The Overnightscape, The Rampler, The Frank Nora Show, etc. Plus, all the shows by the other hosts.

You can find the entire archive in its own collection on Archive.org. This is every show in hi-fidelity audio (MP3s, usually at 128kbps stereo). The whole collection is currently at 144 GB. All the shows are Creative Commons licensed and are free to download.

I think it's a good idea for listeners to have a copy of the entire archive in their possession. We live in rather unstable times, and the more copies out there, the better. Plus, you can listen to any show, anytime, whether you're online or not.

144 GB is a lot to download - so I have an alternative - Pocket Overnightscape. This is the same exact collection as on Archive.org, just in lo-fi audio (24kbps mono MP3s) - and just 27.4 GB to download! The lo-fi sound is very similar to listening to AM radio, with a warm and pleasant feel.

You can currently get a 32 GB USB flash drive for around $40. I just put the entire collection on a 32 GB drive and it fits, with 2.7 GB to spare - enough for many months of audio to come. Of course, you can just put the files on a hard drive, but I think it's cool to have the collection on a little separate object.

The archive is separated into lots. There are currently 72 lots - each of which is a separate folder. So, the set of 72 folders makes up the current archive. October 2011 will be Lot 73.

To get Pocket Overnightscape, just download all the ZIP files in this directory: onsug.com/pocketzips - (double check if your ISP allows for unlimited downloading - 27.4 GB is still a lot of data, and depending on your plan it could exceed your limits - be careful! You may want to download them one by one, over the course of time, if this is an issue for you. Your ISP may charge you data overage fees so definitely check into this before downloading.)

Unzip the files before adding them to your personal container. Keep each lot in its own folder.

The archive is also available to browse as loose files here: onsug.com/pocketloose - this will allow you to download individual shows.

Check the newest lot for the most up to date Overnightscape Handbook - a guide which contains a massive amount of information about the shows.

Thanks for checking out Pocket Overnightscape!

P.S. If you are not able to download the files, let me know. I could transfer the files to a drive you provide and then mail it to you.

P.P.S. If enough people are interested we could do this as a torrent...

73.30 [3124] The Midnight Citizen 38 - "Let's Go Camping!" 1:53:32

Here's a bunch of audio I got on my camping trip to Noccalula Falls, AL to do my Halloween show, which will be posted this weekend. Very raw and unpolished, recorded with an indescree Zoom, which draws some very curious stares from random passersby, mainly in Wal-Mart when I'm buying food and beer for the campsite. Topics include equipment check, "Henry Winkler and Fonzie", jackhammer outside my bedroom window, the cat's meow, flat tires, a trip to the Briary to pick up some cigars, road work that leads to about a one hour detour, Super Listening, Chadcast, "I just put the ketchup on the last burrito!", Frank Nora and the Overnightscape, Occupy Wall Street, vacation follies, Wal-Mart shopping, beer buying, hobo chicken, Evil Dead, a nice morning stroll around the camp ground, a final cigar, a return to civilization and responsibility, and being solicited crack at the country filling station.

73.32 [3126] The Midnight Citizen 39 - "The Halloween Show" 1:30:57

On location from the Alabama wilderness at Noccalula Falls campground. Hang out at the campfire and listen closely for Indian spirits, while enjoying some spooky stories and fun tips to get the most out of Halloween 2011. Also, come with me on location, first to the Terrortorium Dark Ride in Oxford, AL, and then to one of those controversial Judgement Houses at Farmstead Baptist Church in Jasper. Grab a beer and warm up in the late October night!

73.33 [3127] The Brian Jude Show #65: Snowtoberpocalypse - 18:07

Recorded October 29, 2011.

It's October... and it's SNOWING! I make my way home via the NJ Transit train system and spend my wait time between trains at Secaucus Junction updating you on some recent exciting things in my life, such as "The Miracle Man" being selected as indieWIRE.com's Project of the Day, then voted as Project of the Week, then this Monday is the vote for Project of the Month - CONTACT ME TO JOIN MY VIRTUAL STREET TEAM - I'm producing & co-directing the independent TV pilot "Erroneous Convictions" with Bruce Birns and Jerry Sheindlin, the October snow postponed the Tarrytown/Sleepy Hollow Halloween Parade, my niece's quinceanero, the family's fine.

Theme music: "The Chasing Game" by Friday's Child.

73.35 [3129] First Four Trash Am Records (2011) 5:13:57

Here's a 4-CD box set of amazing music - all combined into a single convenient MP3 file! It's like a cool little radio station in your pocket with an abundant supply of addictive tunes!

Trash Am Records came about because I think it's time to start paying more attention to music released under Creative Commons licenses - which allow the music to be downloaded and shared freely, including being able to play the songs on podcasts.

Most of the commercial music we all know and love is shackled under an outdated copyright and music licensing system, which makes it illegal to play on podcasts - or to share the songs with your friends. It really is a sad state of affairs.

So thank goodness so many talented musicians are releasing their songs under Creative Commons! I have been spending a huge amount of time lately on Jamendo.com to find great songs and to sequence them into compilation albums - and the result is Trash Am Records (a completely non-commercial project).

The first four records:

Trash Am #1 - Trash The Airport Meadow

Trash Am #2 - Needed The Tea Am Flimsy's

Trash Am #3 - Tribal Caffeine Mazes

Trash Am #4 - Billiard Winter Drink

The album titles, cover art, and song sequences are by me. Otherwise, I had nothing to do with the creation of these songs. Please support these artists in any way you can! (I have not contacted the artists telling them they have been included, because the time and energy that would require is beyond the scope of this project, and they have already given permission for this type of non-commercial compilation by using Creative Commons licenses).

I do plan on releasing the albums separately, but for now, enjoy this huge slab of satisfying music. My goal was to create records that I myself would crave and enjoy listening to over and over again - and in that I have succeeded. The music genres included are generally rock, pop, electronic, and eclectic.

I released the first record, Trash The Airport Meadow, on June 9, 2011. I loved it so much I decided to make a sequel - a project which began to take up more and more time and eventually lead to these three additional albums - which I am very excited about. Enjoy!

74.06 [3139] The Midnight Citizen 40 - "Friday the 13th Press Kit" - 1:14:40

I start out with a review of the flick "Money Ball", then go on to a few more rants, interspersed with the ritualistic smacking of Quaker Oat Meal Squares cereal, chased with a PBR. Fun stuff.

Check out my friend Hunter's online comic Vexxarr here, as well as his Apple "Think Different" parody from (circa?) 2004.

74.19 [3152] The Midnight Citizen 41 - "Praxis Crash" - 57:46

Exhausted after taking the grueling Praxis test, I nevertheless sit down to do a show, fraught with weird ideas and suggestions, such as what to do with my body after I die, and quitting teaching altogether to open a video store. There's a drinking game for this episode: take a shot of Ancient Age every time I say "You Know".

Music for this episode performed entirely by Persson, off their wonderful Creative Commons album, "Outside the Walls".

Nightstation.org

An new experimental concept for a streaming station.

8-hour segments of audio, hosted from a "virtual studio," each identified by a single-word title. The stream would be composed of a sequence of such segments.

The idea is for a station someone can tune into anytime where there is a host at the top meta-level talking about the shows being played.

I did the first segment today, "Pinecone", which is playing on there now.

Just an experiment right now, we'll see where it goes.

Frank

74.30 [3163] The Midnight Citizen 42 - "HB 56" - 1:04:39

This week saw one of the first arrests under Alabama's controversial new illegal immigration law. On this episode, I try to explain the law - best as I can understand it - and why it's being used as a prop for my home state to go to war with the Obama admin. Also: the movie "Cape Fear" (original and remake), the Natalie Wood drowning case being reopened after 30 years, and why Blues musicians can't get respect.

Theme song: Trailed In The Dust (GhostHandPunch, Attribution-Noncommercial-No Derivative Works 3.0)

My sincere apologies for the occasional jump edits. Somehow when I mixed this episode together, there were several instances in which the sound dropped for no apparent reason. It turns out those drops are on the master edit and I foolishly deleted the original tracks. I was forced to cut a total of a little over a minute of silenced material. I think it's still a good enough episode to keep it on the channel though...

Recorded December 16, 2011.

My son Jacob’s latest obsession has been “Little Shop of Horrors” - the Off Broadway soundtrack, the movie, different performance clips on YouTube, you name it! So my wife Melanie and I surprised him with an early Hanukkah gift - we took him to the Repertory Company High School for the Theatre Arts, where they did a performance of the show! When the cast heard that we came in from Passiac to see it just because he loves the show, they had the director bring us backstage so they could meet him! Listen along to our adventure - one he’ll treasure for the rest of his life! (Includes a couple vintage TV commercials from the original Broadway show!)

The Overnightscape Underground - Lot 76: First Four Trash Am Records
86 transmissions [3228-3313] 5:13:16

76.01 [3228] First Four Trash Am Records (2011) 5:13:57

Here's a 4-CD box set of amazing music - all combined into a single convenient MP3 file! It's like a cool little radio station in your pocket with an abundant supply of addictive tunes!

Trash Am Records came about because I think it's time to start paying more attention to music released under Creative Commons licenses - which allow the music to be downloaded and shared freely, including being able to play the songs on podcasts.

Most of the commercial music we all know and love is shackled under an outdated copyright and music licensing system, which makes it illegal to play on podcasts - or to share the songs with your friends. It really is a sad state of affairs.

So thank goodness so many talented musicians are releasing their songs under Creative Commons! I have been spending a huge amount of time lately on Jamendo.com to find great songs and to sequence them into compilation albums - and the result is Trash Am Records (a completely non-commercial project).

The first four records:

Trash Am #1 - Trash The Airport Meadow
Trash Am #2 - Needed The Tea Am Flimsy's
Trash Am #3 - Tribal Caffeine Mazes
Trash Am #4 - Billiard Winter Drink

The album titles, cover art, and song sequences are by me. Otherwise, I had nothing to do with the creation of these songs. Please support these artists in any way you can! (I have not contacted the artists telling them they have been included, because the time and energy that would require is beyond the scope of this project, and they have already given permission for this type of non-commercial compilation by using Creative Commons licenses).

I do plan on releasing the albums separately, but for now, enjoy this huge slab of satisfying music. My goal was to create records that I myself would crave and enjoy listening to over and over again - and in that I have succeeded. The music genres included are generally rock, pop, electronic, and eclectic.

I released the first record, Trash The Airport Meadow, on June 9, 2011. I loved it so much I decided to make a sequel - a project which began to take up more and more time and eventually lead to these three additional albums - which I am very excited about. Enjoy!

78.30 [3366] Across the Pond - Episode 38 (January 2012) 1:55:24

My review of "Thrive". Internet Censorship. Boxee Box and Nas hard drive. Local business meeting. Reply to Bobs comments on unemployment. Jaws ride closing. Run in with a local radio station. Phone call goes wrong for the person calling me. Pawn stars. World news and the problems with social ethics. Catching Hell review. Which captain has balls...captain of the "Titanic" or the captain of the "Costa Concordia". Alcatraz is here and it's good.

The Overnightscape Underground - Lot 79: Nightstation Patches 2

onsug.com / TheOvernightscape.com / Nightstation.org

Nightstation is live stream that is going 24/7 - very simple, just turn it on, turn it off, as you like. Part of the fun is jumping into the audio in progress. And of course the group aspect, everyone listening to the same thing and chatting on the homepage, Nightstation.org

Patches are the audio segments that play one after another on Nightstation. Each one is titled by a single word and runs from about 5 to 10 hours.

80.17 [3407] The Shambleshow #13: Baker's Dozen (2-12-12) 44:44

My medical update, codeine didn't help, Onsug stuff, Nightstation stuff, luck, reading Star Trek Voyager: Pathways, Deep Space Nine, Embargoed (Edit) (Blasting Trout Overbite, Attribution 3.0 United States), Whitney Houston died, Charlie Brown Valentine special, Jackie and I play games on the Atari Flashback console. Theme song: Simple Pleasures (Henry Homesweet, Attribution-NonCommercial-ShareAlike 2.0 England & Wales).

Special notes:

1. This episode was recorded with intention of being released on February 13th in keeping with the "thirteen" theme, but it was all ready to go and I didn't know if I'd get time on February 13th to release it, so I just figured screw it, I'll release it now on the 12th.
2. When it was all compiled, this episode's run time was 44:43, so I added one extra second of silence after the closing theme so that it would come out to 44:44 in honor of Eddie and his show Cloud Base 44.
3. In earnest hope that PQ Ribber won't mind, I have borrowed a small section of BUG OUT Episode Ten (from the Magic Island portion), which has been altered significantly and can be heard at the very, very end of this episode.
4. I'm going to take a few days off from recording in order to recharge my creative faculties. There may or may not be another Shambleshow this week, but I plan to return to the two-a-week schedule next week for sure.

80.48 [3438] Blind Duncan's Blues, Chapter 1: Winter in Duncanworld (2-26-12) 4:20

Blind Duncan's Blues by Arthur Jaz (aka Shambles)

This is my first novel, Blind Duncan's Blues, which I completed in 2004 and am now releasing here upon an unsuspecting public. Blind Duncan's Blues is a novel consisting of interrelated short stories about a boy named Duncan Pierce. It covers various incidents in Duncan's life, ranging from the age of eighteen months through about eleven years. There are eighteen chapters in all, which will be released sporadically on Onsug.com. Read by the author.

There are certain autobiographical elements to this book, but they mainly consist of general impressions of what it was like to be a child in the early 1980s in Illinois. I never had an older brother who made me eat cat food; my parents had a much happier and stronger marriage than Duncan's own folks; none of my teachers ever made me wear a dunce cap. The situations that arise for Duncan from being in a large family (as well as a dysfunctional one) I had to either steal from other people's experiences or fictionalize entirely.

However, I did start writing stories at an early age, and I did play Santa Claus one year in the Christmas program. Most of the rest is fictionalized.

I am currently working on a sequel, Bentleyville Tigers, which will be completed one of these days.

81.20 [3468] The Shambleshow #20: Actors (3-10-12) 1:28:01

It's a German cabaret (field recording from 4/12/94), taking it easy this week, old cassettes, "don't you break!", acting classes, the neutral mask, Phantom of the Opera, actors (field recording from 4/12/94), more field recordings coming up, people from the past that I can't remember, musical theater class, Hair, road(s) closed, "thru," skirmishes, director telling a girl to make herself hyperventilate, characters I played in college production of Our Town, character acting, people I knew on campus (part 1) (field recording from 4/12/94), looking up people from my past on Facebook, old memories that I can't access, idea of plugging yourself into a computer to watch your memories, Final Cut, people I knew on campus (part 2) (field recording from 4/13/94), I hope this episode comes out okay, cartwheels, hyper as a child, ridiculous gas prices, heartburn, old Suncoast store, the moon, gods and goddesses in ancient mythology, audio projects in progress, group discussion class (field recording from 4/13/94). Theme song: Simple Pleasures (Henry Homesweet, Attribution-NonCommercial-ShareAlike 2.0 England & Wales).

81.22 [3470] The Shambleshow #21: Question Mark (3-11-12) 51:23

Thinking about experimenting with length and frequency of Shambleshows, Daylight Saving Time, old cassettes and videotapes, nostalgia, Jackie acting out a play for my mother, not the state of Georgia, The Shambleshow #20, varying lengths of past Overnightscape episodes, buying a Cherry Coke at Casey's, phone call, bowling, religion, human beings wrote the Bible, reincarnation and other cool ideas, Mother Abigail quote in The Stand, every day is different from every other day, flipping through FM radio stations, my high school prom, the old fishing trailer, the need to preserve old audio, the street my old church was on, does everybody get nostalgic?, sunlight is bright. 81.33 [3481] Blind Duncan's Blues, Chapter 3: Cat Food (3-15-12) 5:04

Blind Duncan's Blues by Arthur Jaz (aka Shambles)

This is my first novel, Blind Duncan's Blues, which I completed in 2004 and am now releasing here upon an unsuspecting public. Blind Duncan's Blues is a novel consisting of interrelated short stories about a boy named Duncan Pierce. It covers various incidents in Duncan's life, ranging from the age of eighteen months through about eleven years. There are eighteen chapters in all, which will be released sporadically on Onsug.com. Read by the author.

There are certain autobiographical elements to this book, but they mainly consist of general impressions of what it was like to be a child in the early 1980s in Illinois. I never had an older brother who made me eat cat food; my parents had a much happier and stronger marriage than Duncan's own folks; none of my teachers ever made me wear a dunce cap. The situations that arise for Duncan from being in a large family (as well as a dysfunctional one) I had to either steal from other people's experiences or fictionalize entirely.

However, I did start writing stories at an early age, and I did play Santa Claus one year in the Christmas program. Most of the rest is fictionalized.

I am currently working on a sequel, Bentleyville Tigers, which will be completed one of these days.

81.45 [3493] Glass Parameters (3-20-12) 4:38:57

New from Falling Cow Productions, Glass Parameters is a compendium of old-time radio shows with a science fiction (for the most part) theme. Also featured are several songs recorded in the first half of the 20th century, a considerable amount of talky-talk from me (this is Shambles typing this, so I'm the me I mean), and perhaps another treat or two in here somewhere. And now the show notes:

Yearning, Just For You (Gene Austin, 1925), Glass Parameters Intro, And The Moon Be Still As Bright (Dimension X, 9/29/50), Ray Bradbury and other topics, Selections from Sunny Side Up (The Victor Light Opera Company, 1930), driving to work, The Blue Eyed People (Theater Five, 12/30/64), melanin, Brown Eyes, Why Are You Blue? (Nick Lucas, 1925), The Twilight Zone and other topics, clip from Attack of the Monsters (1969), DVD box sets of public domain films and other topics, Encountering New Race (Planet Man, 1950), where to find more Planet Man, Shine On Harvest Moon (The Southerners, 1930), preservation of pop culture and other topics, The Time Machine (Escape, 5/9/48), a brief word from Jackie, Sugar Lump (The Victor Military Band, 1914), The Time Machine and other topics, Queen of Space (Space Patrol, 11/15/52), rain, Love Me Tonight (Annette Hanshaw, 1929), stories in multiple forms of media and other topics, Meet John Smith, John (Quiet Please, 10/3/48), Glass Parameters Outro, Destination K.C. (Kansas City Seven, 1944).

And now the important text-text about Creative Commons licensing and stuff like that:

Frank Nora Show Numbering

The Overnightscape went through a period of chaos from approx. 2008-2010, where I recorded the show under a number of different names. On May 29, 2010, I decided to start fresh with The Frank Nora Show #1500. This was the 1500th show I had done, counting all the different shows - The Overnightscape, The Rampler, The Overnightscape Underground, etc.

Then, on May 9, 2011, I revived The Overnightscape, with The Overnightscape #782 - which was equivalent to The Frank Nora Show #1683. I continued to include the "Frank Nora Show Number" (in the format "F1623"), to continue counting all the shows I had done.

Today, March 24, 2012, I am reviewing the number, to make sure it is correct. The most recent show I did was "The Overnightscape 862: The Carleton Branch (3/22/12)" - with a Frank Nora Show Number of 1790. I double-checked this, and it was correct, counting episodes of The Overnightscape.

However, in my review, I found that in the time after FN Show 1500, I had done 22 additional shows that I would consider Frank Nora Shows. So, the adjusted FN Show Number for The Overnightscape 862 is... 1812.

The 22 additional shows are listed below:

Misc: 5

55.20 [2215] Late Night Music Show (8/8/10) 3:24:20
56.06 [2278] Macho Condor #1 (9/4/10) 1:19:54
56.23 [2295] Sneaky TT Broadcasting System 1 (9/12/10) 4:46:18
72.08 [3065] Sneaky TT Broadcasting System 2 (9/5/11) 8:25:42
72.01 [3058] Nightweek: The New Season (9/1/11) 1:03:13

Nightstation Patches: 17

77.01 [3314] Pinecone (11/19/11) (Frank) 8:42:41
77.02 [3315] Doorjamb (11/22/11) (Frank) 8:48:24
77.03 [3316] Afterglow (11/24/11) (Frank) 8:15:51
77.04 [3317] Blacktop (11/26/11) (Frank) 8:47:29
77.05 [3318] Sidewinder (11/27/11) (Frank) 8:59:22
77.06 [3319] Gasohol (12/3/11) (Frank) 8:47:12
77.07 [3320] Sarsaparilla (12/4/11) (Frank) 9:11:43
77.10 [3323] Tempura (12/10/11) (Frank) 8:18:35
77.12 [3325] Policewoman (12/12/11) (Frank) 6:38:23
77.15 [3328] Kitchenette (12/18/11) (Frank) 10:19:36
77.17 [3330] Would (12/23/11) (Frank) 10:03:08
77.18 [3331] Loungewear (12/26/11) (Frank) 7:33:41
77.21 [3334] Coaxial (12/31/11) (Frank) 10:19:48
77.22 [3335] Seaboard (1/3/12) (Frank) 8:48:42
79.03 [3387] Hotshot (1/12/12) (Frank) 10:36:57
80.10 [3400] Nightstation with Frank 1: Swank (2/9/12) 2:14:45
81.24 [3472] Nightstation with Frank: Southbound (3/11/12) 2:47:29

So, there are currently 862 episodes of The Overnightscape... which means that there are 950 Frank Nora Shows besides The Overnightscape:

396 episodes of The Rampler

322 shows on The Overnightscape Underground (before Frank Nora Show 1500)

183 episodes of The Frank Nora Show, starting with The Frank Nora Show 1500 (including 3 episodes of "The Rampler Weekly")

27 additional because The Overnightsapes 782-786 were released in a segmented form (that I soon realized was not a good idea)

22 episodes listed above

That sorts things out for now!

82.33 [3547] Trash Am #5 - Highwayside's Edge (April 2012) 1:16:28

"Highwayside's Edge" is the fifth collection of Creative Commons music compiled by me, Frank Edward Nora, and released on Trash Am Records (a completely non-commercial project).

The songs featured here have been collected from a number of different sites, chief among them Jamendo.com.

For this collection, the artists have not been contacted about their songs being included, due to the time and energy that would be involved in doing so. By releasing a song under a Creative Commons license, an artist gives permission for the song to be re-distributed on a non-commercial compilation like this.

This is a set of fantastic songs, and I hope it increases awareness of the high quality of Creative Commons music available today. I feel that Creative Commons is a much healthier form of copyright for our society, moving forward.

82.48 [3562] Manifesting Mastermind - Episode 6 (4/23/12) 53:11

Welcome listeners of The Overnightscape Underground, and thanks to Frank Edward Nora for suggesting we be a part of his channel as well!

This week Jen, Brian & Kay return to Legends Diner in Secaucus, NJ to discuss what they're manifesting, and how they're doing it. Alicia could not make it, as she has manifested her new car, as well as a resolution to the problem with the dealer! Jen was able to bring her husband and her "geese" to the red carpet premiere of Jack and Diane at the Tribeca Film Festival, and was inspired to cut her hair for the first time since her teen years. Kay has been getting rid of old stuff in preparation for her move to Hackensack. Brian completed his presentation and shooting schedule for The Miracle Man and stumbled across another fantastic potential source of funding for the film!

Tips this week: Purging of the old makes way for manifesting the new! What do you do when you're out of vibrational harmony with the universe? Do you "mute your strings," change your situation, or allow it to be?

“Venom of the Best” is the sixth collection of Creative Commons music compiled by me, Frank Edward Nora, and released on Trash Am Records (a completely non-commercial project).

The songs featured here have been collected from a number of different sites.

For this collection, the artists have not been contacted about their songs being included, due to the time and energy that would be involved in doing so. By releasing a song under a Creative Commons license, an artist gives permission for the song to be re-distributed on a non-commercial compilation like this.

This is a set of fantastic songs, and I hope it increases awareness of the high quality of Creative Commons music available today. I feel that Creative Commons is a much healthier form of copyright for our society, moving forward.

82.66 [3580] Manifesting Mastermind - Episode 7 (4/30/12) 49:08

This week Jen, Brian, Alicia & Kay return to Legends Diner in Secaucus, NJ to discuss what they're manifesting, and how they're doing it. Playing the role of David is our "Fight Club" friend Melissa. Jen got booked on HBO's Boardwalk Empire. Kay's muppet now has a name - and a tail! Alicia did her own purging last week to make room for her step-son, who is now living with her. Brian finished the filmmakers' reel DVD and proposal for a grant to fund The Miracle Man and has been attracting the Namaste principle into his life in several ways.

Tips this week: Don't put negative thoughts such as rejection out there as your destiny. You deserve and have to be open to receive the inherent abundance in front of you. Vibroacoustics reveals scientific proof that thoughts produce sound waves that attract other sound waves to you.

Come see Kay in Stephen Sondheim's "Assassins" at The Barn Theatre in Montville, NJ. May 18, 26, June 1, 2, 8, 9 at 8pm

May 19, 20, 27, June 3 at 2pm

Actors - check out Act Outside the Box, as well as their Facebook page.

Listen to Brian & Kay next Monday, May 7, 2012, 10p-12a EDT on <http://wmscradio.com>!

83.02 [3582] Success Odyssey - Ep. 7: $K+(A*(T+F))=8$ (5/2/12) 22:42

Dr. Rob Gilbert, who teaches Sports Psychology and Yoga at Montclair State University, started Success Hotline as a way to help motivate his students during the Spring semester of 1992. 20 years later, Dr. Gilbert is STILL recording a new message on Success Hotline, every single day! One of my favorite lessons of his is the equation $K-A=0$ - Knowledge minus Action equals NOTHING. But in analyzing the equation and incorporating principals of the Law of Attraction, I may have stumbled upon another equation...

83.04 [3584] The Midnight Citizen 51 – “Between Night and Day/Where to Begin” 57:05

After a month away from the microphone, I get on back to it with an extensive, in depth interview with the awe-inspiring, and perhaps mildly – yet entertainingly – delusional Duke Fightmaster, of “This American Life” fame, who quit his lucrative day job to follow his creative ambition, of hosting a late night talk show on YouTube. Duke’s story makes me wonder if I should do the same. Do you need the “day” to make the “night” happen. Also, was my mind-bending car wreck perhaps a happy accident – something that might allow me to follow in Duke’s footsteps and focus all my energy on creative pursuit?

If you haven’t heard Duke Fightmaster’s odd story, check it out here.

83.23 [3603] Manifesting Mastermind - Episode 9 (5/17/12) 1:12:31

Brian & Kay returned to Legends Diner in Secaucus, NJ... but ended up meeting Jen, Alicia, Matt & Melissa at Tick Tock Diner in Clifton, NJ. Apparently Brian wanted to manifest a salad bar, Alicia wanted to manifest an alcoholic beverage, and the universe responded in kind!

In this episode, we discuss what to do when negativity shows up in your life, if things can manifest instantly and how to change negative thoughts into positive thoughts.

WE ARE CREATING A CHILDREN'S TELEVISION SHOW! Using our talents for acting, music, and film/video production, and combined with passion for all things positive as well as puppetry, we have been planning a "secret" project designed to teach positive thinking, visualization, and other Law of Attraction techniques to kids! Perhaps as a pilot to pitch to a television network, or as a stand-alone DVD... we're not quite sure yet, but we are planning this now! YOU CAN HELP MAKE THIS HAPPEN! Brian's company Dragon Rider Productions has been entered into Chase's Mission: Small Business program for a chance to win a $250K grant which will help fund this new project, as well as Brian's film The Miracle Man! If you are a Facebook user, you can go to <http://missionsmallbusiness.com>, log in with Facebook, and in the Business Name box enter Dragon Rider Productions! Help manifest a positive future by helping us, and please pass it on! THANK YOU!!!

Plug of the Week: Matt suggests you watch the film The Adjustment Bureau, and think about how the universe always makes sure you're right on time, all the time!

83.33 [3613] Success Odyssey - Ep. 9: The Happy Channel (5/24/12) 24:45

When you want to see a hockey game, do you turn on The Weather Channel? Of course not. You have to turn on a sports channel. Similarly, if you want to see happy things in your life, you need to turn on The Happy Channel!

How do you do that? Take some tips from Abraham-Hicks!

MY CO-HOSTS FROM MANIFESTING MASTERMIND AND I ARE CREATING A CHILDREN'S TELEVISION SHOW! Using our talents for acting, music, and film/video production, and combined with passion for all things positive as well as puppetry, we have been planning a "secret" project designed to teach positive thinking, visualization, and other Law of Attraction techniques to kids! Perhaps as a pilot to pitch to a television network, or as a stand-alone DVD... we're not quite sure yet, but we are planning this now! YOU CAN HELP MAKE THIS HAPPEN! My company, Dragon Rider Productions, has been entered into Chase's Mission: Small Business program for a chance to win a $250K grant which will help fund this new project, as well as my film The Miracle Man! If you are a Facebook user, you can go to <http://missionsmallbusiness.com>, log in with Facebook, and in the Business Name box enter Dragon Rider Productions! Anybody's Guess #41: Wake Up, Shambles! (11-15-11) (2:20:14)

My "get out of bed early" experiment, the possum in the garage, did not hit snooze, Annie rearranged our bedroom, grrrrrr!, it's raining and I'm a dumbass, Saturday Night Live, Nasim Pedrad, Whitney Cummings, I say Two and a Half Men when I really mean How I Met Your Mother and don't realize it because as I said I'm a dumbass, getting sleepy during meetings at work, planned to release this episode on November 12 (which didn't happen), can't stop listening to Trained In The Dust by GhostHandPunch, this time I catch myself incorrectly saying Two and a Half Men, Barney Stinson's sensitive side, My Sister My Love, mid-'90s field recordings on cassette tapes, fall festival recording will be released eventually, depressing news stories, Frosty, Heidi and Frank, long lunch with my friend Tony, getting drunk after Tony's wedding, more relaxed these days, Happy Meal, the trip for you will be instantaneous, loud children in McDonald's Play Place, can't remember any dreams this week, Thomas Park aka Mystified, self-help cassette to help you get to sleep, Simon and Garfunkel, meeting scheduled for 10:30 to 12:00, loyalty to the Monical's, white crud falling off the roof, brainstorming on Anybody's Guess #40, not in proper mindset for meditation class, Lum and Abner, public domain, downloaded a bunch of material, can't remember what I talked about early in this episode, creative highs, Barnes and Noble, medium raspberry steamer, opposing viewpoint, a very pleasant discussion with a B&N employee about the Nook, uploading Anybody's Guess #40, a pretty pretty pretty bad Larry David impression. Theme song: Trailed In The Dust (GhostHandPunch, Attribution-Noncommercial-No Derivative Works 3.0).

83.36 [3616] Anybody's Guess #42-44 (Onsug release: 5-25-12) 1:50:17

Anybody's Guess #42: You Should Have Seen What We Got Pete Gibbons! (11-17-11) (34:36)

Need gas and a checkbook register, warmer outside than I expected, Who Moved My Blackberry?, Lucy Kellaway and "Martin Lukes", Pandora, big floppy coat, humorous depictions of corporate life, Office Space, dream of telling your boss to stick it, Gary Cole, The Office (U.K.) as compared to The Office (U.S.), the Michael Scott Paper Company, Tim and Dawn, not missing Steve Carell that much, Toby is Charlie Brown, Dwight's name misspelled in the Threat Level Midnight script, secretary, Personal Days and Then We Came to the End, Dilbert, only get a half hour for lunch, wondering where I will be in two years.

Anybody's Guess #43: Rhombus (11-18-11) (47:46)

Black Friday, 11/22/63 by Stephen King, 20th century pop culture history, Harry Turtledove, almost ran a stop sign, The Shining (book, film, and miniseries), Dr. Sleep, The Dark Tower series on audiobook, present-day kindergarten math, five-year-olds using computers, my first Internet chat room experience back in 1994, Forrest Gump and Jeffrey Dahmer, before the Internet, movies currently playing in the theater, Adam Sandler movies, Jack and Jill looks very one-note, SNL cast members in Grown-Ups, the death of Chris Farley, Kurt Cobain, Nirvana in About a Boy by Nick Hornby.

Anybody's Guess #44: Community, Contacts, and Coben (11-20-11) (27:54)

On my way to the eye doctor, NBC put Community on hiatus, Whitney is getting horrible reviews, Abed and the alternate timelines, considering getting contact lenses, preparing episodes ahead of time before Thanksgiving, AudioTrack 07 (Peace & Anarchy, Attribution-Share Alike 3.0), the epic saga of putting in contact lenses for the first time, so weird, Caught, Jerry Sandusky, looking for a parking space, building a snowman on Thanksgiving when I was a kid, flurries a few days ago, Toys for Elliot, Shaky Eyes (Arthur Collins, Attribution-Noncommercial-Share Alike 3.0). Theme song: Trailed In The Dust (GhostHandPunch, Attribution-Noncommercial-No Derivative Works 3.0).

83.43 [3623] Manifesting Mastermind - Episode 10 (5/29/12) 1:00:03

Jen, Brian, Alicia, Kay, Matt & Melissa return to Legends Diner in Secaucus, NJ, once again with Brian’s son

David. In this episode, we discuss changing your thoughts from lack to abundance, how the universe/your higher self has already had your goal set for you since before you were born, being in your truth, how much of our resistance comes from the subconscious level and the importance of keeping still and being happy.

Tips of the Week: Keep a Mental Bank log for everything you do that helps you further your goals, and mentally “bill” for that time, including meetings, social events, etc. and keep track of how much money you “earn” for such time. Also, keep a symbol for the universe to remind you that you’re right on track.

WE ARE CREATING A CHILDREN’S TELEVISION SHOW! Using our talents for acting, music, and film/video production, and combined with passion for all things positive as well as puppetry, we have been planning a “secret” project designed to teach positive thinking, visualization, and other Law of Attraction techniques to kids! Welcome GunkCast to The Overnightscape Underground!

Show notes: While you wait for the much anticipated part# 2 of Space Trek, check out the adventures of Byron and a certain legendary New Jersey podcaster as they had a meetup on the streets of Chicago. We don’t want to give alot away about the identity of our surprise guest...but clues may be found in a couple alternate titles Byron had thought of for this episode: “A Gunkcast Special Delivery” or “Byron Meets The Champler” (but the actual title we used in the end came from quite an unexpected source)! You'll just have to listen for all the answers & much more! Cheers!...
