Onsug Days

Hosted by Frank Edward Nora

The Overnightscape Underground ("Onsug" for short) began as an ambitious concept for freeform and longform audio content, released in 24-hour sets. These "days" contain a wide variety of material, interspersed with hosting segments by Frank. After 5 "days", Onsug switched to a monthly format, and eventually developed into the Onsug we know and love today.

The Overnightscape Underground - Day 1 (December 2007)

ug: The Start (11/11/07) 41:23 [111] It's the start of The Overnightscape Underground! Frank talks about how the project came into being and where it is headed. Recorded in The Overnightscape Studio on 11/11/07. Note: "ug" stands for "Underground". It is the way I describe the tracks where I am hosting The Overnightscape Underground, between all the other kinds of content. Topics: The start of The Overnightscape Underground!, the "secret project", background information, The Overnightscape, deep content, old time radio, Laurie Anderson's "United States", episodes, Station Unlimited, Weekend Showcase, Bluffcosm.com, wider range of audio content, organizing by days, an audio world you can explore, the formats of the project, BitTorrent, 24-hour MP3 file, the kind of content coming up on The Overnightscape Underground, taking advantage of the technology of today, The Overnightscape hi-fi archive, Creative Commons licenses, onsug.com, a new view on copyrights, people in the future, music, Fuzzy Daupner, audio cassettes, video tapes, online video, creative passion, field recordings, open source audio and video, movie time, the world of The Overnightscape, new audio field trips, Severe Repair audiobook, the defunct website MyVirtualBand.com, and the intro for the song "My Straw Hat - Mix 3".

song: My Straw Hat - Mix 3 (from MyVirtualBand.com, 2005) 3:29 [111] Cool rock song released on now-defunct music collaboration website MyVirtualBand.com on 7/18/05. MyVirtualBand.com was a website that began in late 2004 and closed in early 2007. On the site, musicians collaborated to create songs by uploading and downloading audio tracks. All the audio tracks on the site were released under the Creative Commons Attribution 2.0 license, which means that you can do pretty much what you want with the audio as long as you give credit to those who created it. There were 113 "featured songs" on the site, and a much greater number of songs "in progress". Even though the site has shut down, the music from the site is still under the same license - which allows the songs to be re-released here in The Overnightscape Underground!

"My Straw Hat - Mix 3" is an alternate mix of "My Straw Hat" (featured song #59, released 10/5/05). I feel this mix is superior to the mix that was in the featured release. It is a great song and I am very happy to play it it here at the start of The Overnightscape Underground! The lyrics are very appropriate... "heading out on the highway", just like I am heading off on the "road" of The Overnightscape Underground...

Lyrics:

Good mornin' highway, it's such a good day
We're goin' somewhere, where we can hear 'em play
You're gonna have to trace this line, to know what's on our minds
Just shufflin' down this road

We got our straw hats on our heads, yeah
We've got an itchin' for the road
To travel places far away
Come on now, let's go

Hey

Good mornin' highway, it's such a good day
We're goin' somewhere, where we can hear 'em play

I've got the feelin' that's got me wheelin'
On down that dusty road
On down that road
It's got me wheelin' on down that road

I got my straw hat on today
Ain't got no work it's time to play
I'm gonna head out on that highway
To travel places far away

Whoo

Hey

Lyrics:

And can I say we are Crazy crossing a rocky stream
Kissing hills and air and dreams
Coltishly beaucoup in our mysteries

Bathing cool in a stimulating rio
Tiki and arctic phase at Nanticoko
Singing folk space rock at the top of our lungs
Winding down in the wow fluff of the treetops

We can walk together
Under the moon or whatever
And our nasty predawn jive
Will even make the scorpions cry

We can walk together
Under the moon or whatever
And our nasty predawn jive
Will even make the scorpions cry

Humpback dude with jackdaw steed
Whale and bird on a new kind of trip
Motors, lights and audio delights
Rubber bands are pumping energy

The treasure of me is stalking away
At the whining dusk of day
Your mental aggression craft is called Attack-type dog

We can walk together
Under the moon or whatever
And our nasty predawn jive
Will even make the scorpions cry

We can walk together
Under the moon or whatever
And our nasty predawn jive
Will even make the scorpions cry

Above the primly introspective waste
The Rover is the tune
As we skydive in new wave ruins
She make weird animal dolls

Pogs were not a lasting trend
The new age it just came and went
The humans we're all stuck in are
The leftovers of an obvious recall

We can walk together
Under the moon or whatever
And our nasty predawn jive
Will even make the scorpions cry

We can walk together
Under the moon or whatever
And our nasty predawn jive

Will even make the scorpions cry

ug: About Place Sounds (11/17/07) 7:11 [111] Frank talks about the "Place Sounds" idea. Topics: Outro to "Sliding Gardens", music disappearing, metadata, feeling the way forward, the idea of "Place Sounds", ambient soundscapes, Place Sounds in Grand Central, Station Unlimited, Chef Mark, and the intro to "Audio Street Fair Blues".

Place Sounds: Audio Street Fair Blues (6/11/07) 20:05 [111] Ambient audio of a street fair in Times Square, NYC. Recorded in Times Square, NYC on 6/11/07. Originally released on StationUnlimited.com (release #74, June 19, 2007). On Monday, June 11, 2007 I was walking through Times Square in NYC and I saw a street fair called "Taste of Times Square". I went for 2 blocks on 46th St. from Times Square to 9th Ave. I walked the full length of it and realized it would make a great "Place Sounds" piece (a recording of an audio environment). So I started recording and heading back through the fair. ¶ Unfortunately, things didn't work out like I planned. First of all a lot of the musicians I had seen on the first walk thru were taking their breaks. Then it started to rain... lightly at first and then it turned into a real downpour. And then I realized I had pressed pause by accident and lost a lot of the stuff I was recording. ¶ This piece is the final result - the first in the "Place Sounds" series. I look forward to recording more "Place Sounds" in the future - it is certainly a different kind of audio content than what people are used to, but in the right frame of mind such stuff can be very enjoyable and intriguing to listen to. ¶ Topics: Intro, Tony and Tina's Wedding, song "Celebration", world music style singer, Chef Mark, blues band, latin music band, guitar player, police radio, whistle, radio station playing an ad, car horns, bluegrass band, "that'll be perfect", Frank sees the recorder was paused, description of what happened, the remaining audio walking in the rain, radio station playing song, drumming, world music, doo wop singers, and the conclusion.

Lyrics:

Early in the concrete cement
Sheet metal whatever center
The seeping enterprise washing
I wish this snow was unrelenting

I bore a hole in the Nunavut springtime
My misery isn’t interesting at all

I bore a hole in the Nunavut springtime
My misery isn’t interesting at all

Overnight cable got the
Beanies and the Christian Rock
And all the puppets there
Are constructed outta socks

Overnight cable got the
Beanies and the Christian Rock
And all the puppets there
Are constructed outta socks

The they and the temperature level
Black trees, his antimatter sneeze
Selected slash of casino ash
Lass in the pedways of Halifax

I bore a hole in the Nunavut springtime
My misery isn’t interesting at all

I bore a hole in the Nunavut springtime
My misery isn’t interesting at all

Overnight cable got the
Beanies and the Christian Rock
And all the puppets there
Are constructed outta socks

Overnight cable got the
Beanies and the Christian Rock
And all the puppets there
Are constructed outta socks

I prepared all last night
To rip the waterfall to shreds
Deemrose Bonnie crossbow humid
Pedway ankh the breeze is in shock

I bore a hole in the Nunavut springtime
My misery isn't interesting at all

I bore a hole in the Nunavut springtime
My misery isn't interesting at all

Overnight cable got the
Beanies and the Christian Rock
And all the puppets there
Are constructed outta socks

Overnight cable got the
Beanies and the Christian Rock
And all the puppets there
Are constructed outta socks

Early in the sheetrock day
My chocolate factory is in no way
Hershey or Wonka but it's quite okay
Its effect keeps my childhood erect

I bore a hole in the Nunavut springtime
My misery isn't interesting at all

I bore a hole in the Nunavut springtime
My misery isn't interesting at all

Overnight cable got the
Beanies and the Christian Rock
And all the puppets there
Are constructed outta socks

Overnight cable got the
Beanies and the Christian Rock
And all the puppets there
Are constructed outta socks

Lyrics:

Down this lonely road I travel
With my pockets filled with dreams
All the mysteries will unravel
Yet they're never what they seem

I need a hand to hold me
I need a hand to help me on my way
Oh yeah
I'm just lookin' for a lover that's never gonna stray
Oh no

All I want is lovin'
All I get is pain
And I can't believe it
No I can't believe it

One after another
Throwing good for bad
I watched another woman with all I had
I should have known better having done it before
Still I'd leave it all just to get a little more

One more shot at nothin'
Must be doing something wrong
Oh no
All your takin' and no givin'
Be easier alone
Yeah

All I want is lovin'
All I get is pain
And I can't believe it
No I can't believe it

All I want is lovin'
All I get is pain
And I can't believe it
No I can't believe it

Lyrics:

From my room I can see
Coyotes on the boulevard
Alone and afraid just like me

Iridescent eyes flash in the headlights
Not understanding these hot L.A. nights

Lost and all is gone
Wanna get back to the place they belong

Running frantic in the big city gloom
With no time for howling at the moon

Nothing here they understand
Nothing here but the dangerous man

A million people with that same terrified gaze
With a million reasons to escape this place

Like coyotes on the boulevard
Like coyotes on the boulevard
Yeah
Show me the way home
Show me the way home

Nothing here they understand
Nothing here but the dangerous man

A million people with that same terrified gaze
With a million reasons to escape this place

Lyrics:

God hates penguins
All penguins must die
He keeps them in the freezing cold
And will not let them fly

Now if you’ve got a poodle
And dress him up in black and white
God thinks that’s just the coolest thing y’all
He thinks they’re outta sight

I don’t know why God hates penguins so much
They’re not mentioned in the Bible
They’ve got nothing against him
They should sue him for libel

Penguins aren’t much good at conversation
Or differential calculus
But they’re smart enough to know when they’re being persecuted
By God and the rest of us

Now if you’ve got a black and white chicken
God thinks that’s really nice
You can fry it, you can bake, you can boil it in a pot
And serve it up with yellow rice

Now if you are a truly good person
You’ll ignore the lord above
And treat a penguin as a friend
All penguins need love

Penguins in love
Penguins in love
Penguins in love
Penguins in love
Penguins in love
Penguins in love

Lyrics:

Will the sun refuse to shine
Will the moon fall from the sky
Will the clouds make some rain
Will the sun come up again
Will my eyes ever see
What the hell's in front of me

With every question
Come my answer
I don't know
I don't know

Will tomorrow come on time
Will I find the keys to life
Will I mend or will I break
Will I find I'm much too late
Will my eyes ever see
What the hell's in front of me

With every question
Comes my answer
I don't know
I don't know
I don't know
I don't know

Will they be okay
Why they act that way
I don't understand
Will you hold my hand

Are you all that way
Will I be okay
What about this man
Can you understand

Willl they be okay

Why they act that way
I don't understand
Will you hold my hand

Are you all that way
Will I be okay
What about this man
Can you understand

Willl they be okay
Why they act that way
I don't understand
Will you hold my hand

With every question
I don't know
Comes my answer
I don't know

With every question

Lyrics:

In the middle of the night just outside of Phoenix
There's a little cafe called the El Gato Negro
Thats where we go to dance

Look at the stars up in the sky
So beautiful you want to cry

I can see the moon on the horizon
That's where we go to to dance

The wind blowing in our hair
Drinking whisky whisky and beer
A fire's burning deep inside
That's where we go to dance

In the middle of the night
Just outside of Phoenix
There's a little cafe called the El Gato Negro

That's where we go to dance
That's were fell into the trance
That's where we go to dance
To dance the El Gato Negro

The music's pounding in my head
Loud enough to wake the dead
Too much whisky too much beer
El Gato Negro is what I fear

In the middle of the night
Just outside of Phoenix
There's a little cafe called the El Gato Negro

That's where we go to dance
That's where we all fell into a trance
That's where we go to dance
To dance the El Gato Negro

Lyrics:

I've walked 150 miles walking day and night
Every footstep closer my goal is right at home for me

The war has taken its toll on my soul
'Cause each mile I make I feel a little older

I feel the heat comin' down on me
And I feel my feet givin' out on me
I left those battlefields for my home
I just got to get back home

Alright

It sure was bloody down in New Orleans
A few were lucky but most didn't make it
And all the blood that flowed out in those streets
And all the memories will haunt my dreams back home

I've walked 150 miles walking day and night
Every footstep closer my goal is right at home for me

The war has taken its toll on my soul
'Cause each mile I make I feel a little older

I feel the heat comin' down on me
And I feel my feet goin' out on me
I left those battlefields for my home
I just got to get back home

Lyrics:

Did you ever hear the story, did you ever hear the yarn?
'Bout what?
'Bout Gasoline Gus

He saved up a dollar then he borrowed twenty cents
Then what?
For the Jitney Bus

His coffee mill was made of tin
But tin was made to pack things in
He hung a sign and it read thus
This is Gasoline Gus and his Jitney Bus

Gus, Gus, Gasoline Gus
Gasoline Gus and his Jitney Bus
He packed them on the fenders and he packed them on the hood
He packed them by the dozen and the other dozen stood

From out the heap there came a cry
Hey take that suitcase out of my eye

Gus, Gus, Gasoline Gus
Gasoline Gus and his Jitney Bus

Did I tell you what he purchased, did I tell you what he used?
Who used?
Why Gasoline Gus

He bought a ton of dynamite
He bought a pint of gin
For what?
For his Jitney Bus

It's got a bigger kick than gasoline
Said Gus as he loaded his tin machine
A lady said "don't go too far"
Said Gus "it's not that kind of a car"

Gus, Gus, Gasoline Gus
Gasoline Gus and his Jitney Bus
He turned a dozen somersaults and then he looped the loop
He made a bigger noise than the boarders eating soup

How far he went I quite forget
But according to Hoyle he's not back yet

Gus, Gus, Gasoline Gus
Gasoline Gus and his Jitney Bus

Do you want hear the finish?
Do you want to hear the end?

'Bout what?

'Bout Gasoline Gus

He bumped into old Satan
And he got old Satan's goat
With what?
With his Jitney Bus

Old Satan frowned
Said “Take him out, and let him ride my imp about”
In fifteen minutes, big as life
He was making love to the old boy’s wife

Gus, Gus, Gasoline Gus
Gasoline Gus and his Jitney Bus

They telephoned old Satan that his wifey had eloped
With a funny looking fellow in a funny little boat
Old Satan never turned a hair
He smiled and said “they’re a perfect pair”

Gus, Gus, Gasoline Gus
Gasoline Gus and his Jitney Bus

Lyrics:

With the morning sun blazing in the sky
And the moon is singing bye-bye
I can feel the warmth reaching down from high
And it's burning into my eyes

I feel today will be my day
All things will turn and go my way
I'll find a song to sing and play
If not I'll surely fade away

Don't let me fade...

I'll just hold on
And I'll sing on
And I'll play until I've finally found my place

I feel today will be my day
All things will turn and go my way
Go my way
Go my way
Go my way
Go my way

Well the morning has stretched out into noon
And the colors have faded to blue
I'm still searching for my tune
For a sound that just might carry me through

I feel today will be my day
All things will turn and go my way
I'll find a song to sing and play
If not I'll surely fade away
Fade away
Don't let me fade
Fade away

Don't let me fade away
Don't want to fade away
Fade away
No don't fade away
But I'll just hold on
And I'll sing on
And I'll play until I finally find my way

I feel today will be my day

Lyrics:

They got your motion sickness medication wrong
That new girl that they hired can be spacey and hard-headed Still I don't think you should keep on repeating how the room is spinning
There's not a lot that can be done to change the simple fact that

I don't want to see you anymore
(Do you think that I am lying to you)
I don't want to see you anymore
(Do you think that I am lying to you)

Your next-door neighbor's walking papers haven't turned up yet
And so another filibuster with the broken teleprompter
Seems like one more stupid idea that you think will change all the others before it
But no impromptu speech will make a difference
Don't you know that

I don't want to see you anymore
(Do you think that I am lying to you)
I don't want to see you anymore
(Do you think that I am lying to you)

I don't want to see you anymore
(Do you think that I am lying to you)
I don't want to see you anymore
(Do you think that I am lying to you)

I don't want to see you anymore
(Do you think that I am lying to you)
I don't want to see you anymore
(Do you think that I am lying to you)

Lyrics:

I've got friends in the ocean
Who choose to live in the sea
I'll see you when my eyes are in another man
Whose hands are buried in the sand

Have you danced in the fire
Have you quenched your desire

Six feet below the ground
I'll take my leave
I'm moving to the sea

I've got friends in the city
Whose view is a little less blue
They're dryer than a caravan of cinnamon
But their eyes are the deepest shade of blue

Have you danced in the fire
Have you quenched your desire
Six feet below the ground
I'll take my leave
I'm moving to the sea

I've seen palaces that burn for less
Queens that stare into a mess
Take your rod and point it somewhere else
Your whipping boy is becoming a man today
Point your finger and fate will show the way
Fate will show the way

Lyrics:

Winter Lady
With a heart so cold
Never knowing which way she'll blow
She's my lady
Yes she told me so
Just before she dropped three feet of snow

I'll just take my time
Just sit here and unwind
Just let me clear my mind
With all the snow outside

Winter Lady
She's playing her games
She's calling me out by name
She's my lady
Every year it's the same
She keeps searching for fortune and fame

With all the snow outside
I'll just take my time
Just sit and clear my mind
Just let me warm up these hands unlined yeah

Oh here comes the sun

Just let me clear my mind
Just sit here and unwind
I'm gonna take my time
I'm gonna take my time
I'm gonna take my time

Winter Lady
Your time's about done
April's got you on the run
Keeps reminding me of all our fun
Keep on telling me that I'm the one

Winter Lady
Here come's the sun
Winter Lady
Here come's the sun

Your time's about done

Winter Lady
Every year it's the same
She keeps searching for fortune and fame
She's my lady
She told me so
Just before she dropped three feet of snow

I'll just take my time
Just sit here and unwind
Just let me clear my mind
With all the snow outside

Winter Lady
Your time's about done

April's got you on the run
Keeps reminding me of all our fun
Keep on telling me that I'm the one

Winter Lady
Here come's the sun

Winter Lady
Oh here come's the sun

Oh Winter Lady
Here come's the sun

Lyrics:

Us Hound Control, to The Us Hounds below
All aboard for action, we're ready to go!

Welcome to the new world of passenger trains
Choo choo to gardens and plains
yellow volcanoes in the rain
Their goal is no more than to entertain
Yet if passengers are threatened
they will intervene

All that youth in media culture

Is daydream fodder for grandfathers and fathers
Claws named youth and visual jazz
The Weather Channel frail honchos

All that youth in media culture
Is daydream fodder for grandfathers and fathers
Claws named youth and visual jazz
The Weather Channel frail honchos

Welcome to the new world of passenger trains
Choo choo to gardens and plains
yellow volcanoes in the rain
Their goal is no more than to entertain
Yet if passengers are threatened
they will intervene

Myra's on the synthesizer, in The Us Hounds
Enter the milieu, if you please, of The Us Hounds
Hildebad is on electric guitar, and Harla is on acoustic
Trace is on the bass guitar, and Bruckner plays the drums
They're rocking out on the rails of the world, The Us Hounds!

We are awfully proud of spring
And then again
Awfully bored of prance
And then again
Awfully proud of spring
And then again
Awfully bored of prance
And then again

All that youth in media culture
Is daydream fodder for grandfathers and fathers
Claws named youth and visual jazz
The Weather Channel frail honchos

All that youth in media culture
Is daydream fodder for grandfathers and fathers
Claws named youth and visual jazz

song: Steel Drum Ragtime - The Easy Winners (Scott Joplin, 1901) 1:34 [111] A classic ragtime song with a steel drum sound. I came up with the "steel drum ragtime" idea playing around with MIDI files back in the 90s. Somehow, the MIDI steel drum sound seems to work really well with ragtime songs to my ears. This particular song, "The Easy Winners" is really fast in the version I made. On the original sheet music it says "Not Fast"... so maybe I'll make a slower version sometime. But I think this version sounds cool.

The Rampler – 2008

Frank experiments with a new, simpler way of recording, on the streets of NYC , and The Rampler is born! This offshoot of The Overnightscape quickly takes on a life of its own. Soon, the show getting inextricably entangled in the whole "Andy Kaufman Lives" phenomenon... leading to the infamous "Andy Kaufman Press Conference".

The Rampler #1 (8/14/08) 18:15 [113] Testing audio, Beta version for this new project, Overnightscape raw feed, streamlined version of the overnightscape with no descriptions and no post-production, getting to a lot of topics, making it easier to release shows, test of the system, Burritoville, name of this project, Overnightscape Raw Feed, Overnightscape Feed, Do one thing and do it well, getting stuff in the overnightscape underground, getting new stuff out there, minimal descriptions. Overnightscape stripped. This episode is pretty much Frank planning and plotting this "stripped down" version of Overnightscape, testing and describing his equipment and methods.

The Rampler #2 (8/14/08) 11:32 [113] Much like the first episode, this is primordial, preperatory verbal goo, a continued "warm up" for the actual upcoming series. Basically, this is Frank, searching for that Rampler Groove.

The Rampler #3 (8/14/08) 41:56 [113] Our Man, Nora, continues to settle into the looser format. He reviews the two previous "test" shows as he wanders through a post-thunderstorm Times Square. He announces the decision to name this series "The Rampler" with lengthy exposition on the thought process, coincidences that led to this decision. Decides 20-90 is the ideal new setting. Has put an old, "retro" logo on the Overnightscape site. A crazy hassidic says "Leaves Without Aphids(?)". Frank uses his cigar holder to visit Sam Ash and play synthesizors and the Hershey Store. He, as he often ponders, wonders if he should just do one program and call it all The Overnightscape. Motor Excursion Ruffians.

The Rampler #4 (8/15/08) 37:41 [113] Beta 4 begins at the Port Authority and Frank launches with a review of the previous experiments and re-reviews the overall Rampler Concept. <missed some in here> Discusses Robert Moog's name and the "mooooooog/moag" pronounciation. Talks about how 2005 was the "Year of the Podcast", bemoans that despite his true pioneerdom and dilligence he has never fit into the clique of "popular podcasters". Another reason for the Rampler is that he may be spending too much home/quality family time with the podcast instead of the Mrs. How Rampler will let him riff and cover topics that wind up unused on The Overnightscape.

The Rampler #5 (8/15/08) 27:23 [113] A lunchbreak episode. Frank has registered the rampler.com domain name and finally seems settled that this will be the name of these programs. Mentions Walter Becker's new solo lp. Doesn't like Circus Money at all. Elite Foodbar is considered. Steely Dan talk for the uninformed. Crazy woman, who is behaving more normal than usual. Deli sounds. Sees a white guy and an Asian girl making out that initially look like mannequins. Sounds like "Slingblade" when he says "doggys". Describes and takes over spot by East River for lunch, reviews Aloe Vera King drink and stops to eat.

The Rampler #6 (8/15/08) 26:23 [113] Finishing his lunch, Frank resumes recording. Discusses the use of helicopters as transit, ponders what it would take to bring the craft into more common use. Commuting, transportation and the tram. Has cigar to smoke, after all. Launches into a lengthy critiquer of the latter Star Wars era, especially pointing at Jar Jar Binks as emblematic to the issue. Finishes show by suggesting that, since he wasn't going to do show notes for Rampler episodes, doing a wiki where listeners might.

The Rampler #7 (8/15/08) 34:15 [113] Frank walks around Midtown Manhattan talking about a wide variety of topics. In the rain...

The Rampler – 2009

Hosted by Frank Edward Nora

The Rampler is on the rise in 2009, as Frank starts getting involved with WFMU. In June, The Rampler takes over as Frank's main show and he starts broadcasting a version of the show on WFMU. Then… the show on WFMU gets canceled, and The Rampler is put to rest. It was a short but wild ride, and an important stepping stone to what Onsug would become.

The Rampler Special: Andy's Message (5/16/09) 4:46:00 [201]* May 16, 2009 is the 25th anniversary of the supposed death of Andy Kaufman. The website AndyKaufmanLives.com had been promising a special message for this day, so I got set up to record my reactions to it in real time. One thing I had been intending to do for awhile was sit out on the porch and smoke pipes. Also, having seen some recent web broadcasts from BradmanTV on USTREAM, I figured I would try it out myself, though I just had a kind of crappy webcam on my Acer Aspire One netbook. ¶ In the end, I would up broadcasting for nearly 5 hours! It was a heck of a lot of fun. I smoked pipes and drank some "Black & White" Scotch on the porch, and we got Andy's "fuck you" message, and a lot of the people were watching and in the chatroom. ¶ My battery ran out and I went inside and continued the show in The Overnightscape Studio, eventually drinking some absinthe and putting on a puppet show!! Also, showing some video of Andy Kaufman on Fridays with weird video feedback sounds... a whole lot of stuff. Most of it was recorded on video (see below)... ¶ It was a very fun experience! I hope to do it again, hopefully with a better webcam... ¶ From an audio perspective, this piece may be a bit difficult at times - long pauses and such - since so much was going on - but there is good stuff up till the very end, so stick with it! cross-listed in The Rampler and Overnightscape Departures

Remember The Rampler (2008-2009) 15:00 [202]

The Rampler. August 14, 2008 to October 10, 2009. 422 days. (March 13, 2009 is the midpoint, 211 days in.)

Remembering "The Rampler" with the first, middle, and last 5 minute segments of the show... The first 5 minutes of "The Rampler #1" from August 14, 2008. The middle 5 minutes of The Rampler recordings from March 13, 2009 (from "The Rampler #233"). And the last 5 minutes of "The Rampler on WFMU - Episode 16 - Night in Motion" from October 10, 2009.

In 2008, after 5 years of doing The Overnightscape, I was looking for a new method of doing the show that would take less time and effort. This experiment in field recording became "The Rampler", and it was such a different experience, I took it in a whole new direction. It very quickly grew in popularity, largely due to my involvement in the "Andy Kaufman Lives" phenomenon. This led to an opportunity to bring the show to a real radio station - WFMU. But as 2009 wore on, the show's popularity (at least as I perceived it) diminished, and the pressures of being on the "real" radio took away some of the spirit of spontaneity that the show had in its early months. And then... WFMU canceled the show. A little over a year after it had begun, The Rampler was finished.

I chose to continue my Internet radio recordings here on "The Overnightscape Underground" (which has been going great), and drop "The Rampler" name. While it is a good name, and I had a blast doing it, the name "The Rampler" is associated with energy and vibes that I would rather put behind me.

But what a wild ride it was!! This 15-minute audio piece is a brief encapsulation of the whole experience... but it's all available for you to listen to...

The Frank Nora Show – 2008

Hosted by Frank Edward Nora

In November 2008, Frank ended the "Days" system of The Overnightscape Underground ("Onsug" for short), and switched to a monthly system. This included "ug" tracks which were the hosting level of the system - the format that would eventually turn into "The Frank Nora Show". Collected here are the four "ug" tracks from November 2008. Frank was also doing The Overnightscape and The Rampler on Onsug at this time.

The Frank Nora Show – 2009

Hosted by Frank Edward Nora

2009 was a very chaotic year for Onsug. Frank was doing The Overnightscape, The Rampler, The Rampler on WFMU, and also running The Overnightscape Underground ("Onsug" for short). It's all too much, and by September, Frank cancels The Overnightscape and the Rampler, and then The Rampler on WFMU is cancelled, so all that's left is The Overnightscape Underground. Frank uses the "ug" hosting level tracks as his new main outlet. In October, he takes some time off with a "radio vacation", to try and figure out how to move foward. When Frank returns in November, we continues with a "show with no name" on The Overnightscape Underground as his main show. And then something amazing happens - other hosts start joining Onsug with their own shows, forming a new network... as Onsug as we know it was born...

Intro to the next 6 tracks / 11 hours of content: "The Motor Excursion Ruffians #1, "The Audio Field Trip #1, "The Forgotten Beercast", "The Lost Audio Field Trip", "Frank at the Apple Store Fifth Avenue Opening", and "Wedding at Woolman Hill".

ug: Swing Night (8/27/09) 2:07:54 [119] The resurgence of The Overnightscape Underground! Frank revives the "meta-level" of ONSUG, and goes to the Nutley Swing Night 2009 street festival, celebrating with some Barilla Pastina, Staroplzenecky Absinthe, Starbucks Espresso, and Nat Sherman 509 Blend pipe tobacco. Later, on the porch, Frank puffs on his pipe and muses on the past and future. ¶ Caricature by VG Myers

Nightstation Classic

2011-2012
Hosts: Frank Edward Nora, PQ Ribber, Shambles Constant, Chad Bowers, Eddie Murray

Nightstation began as an experiment in Internet radio, with the idea of creating "virtual live" broadcasts. Each "patch" was around 8 hours long, and played on a streaming station. While the project didn't last long, the ideas did live on, influencing many later Onsug shows.

Nightstation with Eddie 1: Sphynx (2/14/12) 2:00:05 [253]

Eddie sent this in on the same day I decided to end the Nightstation experiment (for the time being). He did this show in the "phase 2" style I established last week in "Swank". So this will be the last Nightstation patch, for a while at least.

Nightstation Flashback: Gasohol Segment 4 (12/1/11) 1:32:26 [253]

I've been listening to old Nightstation segments and I came across this one from the Gasohol patch, and I really enjoyed it. I figured I would release it here for everyone to check out. This is the first time it's been released in "hifi" audio. Topics include De La Soul, Stereolab, The Word, Katie Puckrik, Perfect Gambler, and The Jim Henson Hour Pitch Tape.

I'm still thinking about Nightstation. It had a number of aspects that worked, both also a lot that didn't work. I still may bring it back someday in a new form.

Nightstation Flashback Plus: Queens Malls (12/30/11) (8/31/12) 1:49:31 [253]

These are two recordings that stand out in my mind, where I ventured out to malls in Queens and made special recordings. The first one was for the Nightstation patch Coaxial, and the second one was for "Basic Overnightscape". I've collected them here so that they are easier to listen to.

On both recordings I talk about new ideas - Nightstation in the first one and Ramplers in the second one. Both ideas are related, and I've had to go back to the drawing board on both of them. I'm still working on these kind of ideas, and I'm hopeful that some variant will be useful when the time is right... but in any case, it's therapeutic for me to revisit these recordings...

The Rampler Special: Andy's Message (5/16/09) 4:46:00 [201]* May 16, 2009 is the 25th anniversary of the supposed death of Andy Kaufman. The website AndyKaufmanLives.com had been promising a special message for this day, so I got set up to record my reactions to it in real time. One thing I had been intending to do for awhile was sit out on the porch and smoke pipes. Also, having seen some recent web broadcasts from BradmanTV on USTREAM, I figured I would try it out myself, though I just had a kind of crappy webcam on my Acer Aspire One netbook. ¶ In the end, I would up broadcasting for nearly 5 hours! It was a heck of a lot of fun. I smoked pipes and drank some "Black & White" Scotch on the porch, and we got Andy's "fuck you" message, and a lot of the people were watching and in the chatroom. ¶ My battery ran out and I went inside and continued the show in The Overnightscape Studio, eventually drinking some absinthe and putting on a puppet show!! Also, showing some video of Andy Kaufman on Fridays with weird video feedback sounds... a whole lot of stuff. Most of it was recorded on video (see below)... ¶ It was a very fun experience! I hope to do it again, hopefully with a better webcam... ¶ From an audio perspective, this piece may be a bit difficult at times - long pauses and such - since so much was going on - but there is good stuff up till the very end, so stick with it! cross-listed in The Rampler and Overnightscape Departures

The Inramble Audio

Hosted by Frank Edward Nora

In early 2008, Frank experimented with a video show, called Inramble. These "quick video trips" seemed perfect for the rapidly growing online video world. But when they failed to gain any significant viewership, Frank ended the project and decided to stick with audio. This is the complete audio from that project (the videos are still available on YouTube).

Inramble (inramble.com) was Frank's attempt at creating a series of short videos for the Internet. It lasted from January thru June 2008, with 142 released episodes (plus 11 unreleased ones). "The Inramble Audio", in six parts, presents the full audio of all 153 videos.

In Part One, we hear episodes 1 through 26 (Jan. 14-18, 2008) - recorded on Frank's Treo 680. The audio quality is quite bad. On the next part, the quality will improve greatly as Frank got a new camera (Flip Video Ultra).

The Audio Field Trip #1 (7/24/03) 58:57 [202] Notes from Station Unlimited release, December 2005: ¶ "The Audio Field Trip" is a feature on The Overnightscape where I go out into the world and record various adventures and activities. Most of these are edited and played in their entirety on the show - but two of them are special cases. The first one is "The Audio Field Trip #1, which I was only able to play a very little bit of on The Overnightscape #20 (7/24/03). This is the complete recording. ¶ On this trip, I go on "The Iselin Run", driving down to my storage unit in Iselin, NJ. This full audio was played for a while in 2003 on the Bluffcosm "live stream", and was then released as one of the "Second Anniversary Bonus Releases" back on March 27, 2005. This release has much better audio quality.

The Forgotten Beercast (5/10/05) 40:54 [202] Notes from Station Unlimited release, October 2006: Recorded on Tuesday, May 10, 2005, at a bar called "One and One" (at the corner of 1st Ave. and 1st St. in Manhattan). Starring Greg Narain (Beercasting.com / Sparkcasting.com), Steve Warren (InteractiveNYC.com), Frank Edward Nora (TheOvernightscape.com), and waitress "Myar". ¶ Here's the story - Greg created the website "Beercasting.com", with the general idea of getting a bunch of people together at a bar, and then recording and podcasting their conversation on several different topics. At some point, Greg changed the name of the website to "Sparkcasting.com" and added a potential market research aspect to the project. This caused some controversy, as seen on this blog post. Then Greg posted on the NYC Podcasting Meetup forum, also causing a bit of controversy. ¶ In any case, I went to the Beercasting that night, and we didn't start recording till real late. Only Greg, Steve, and myself were left. Greg wanted me to use my recorder, so I recorded the Beercast. We talked on a number of different topics, including the Sparkcasting marketing idea, podcasting, Adam Curry, stats, and male aggression. Toward the end, waitress "Myar" joined the recording. I eventually went to the bathroom and the Beercast ended. ¶ The next day I sent the audio file to Greg, who said he would post it on Sparkcasting.com. But, as it happened, Sparkcasting was never updated. If fact, to this day, the site does not appear to have been updated at all since May of 2005. I think I emailed Greg a few times, but eventually I forgot about the whole thing. ¶ Then, at the Podcasting Expo in Ontario, California, in September 2006, who should I meet at the bar at the Marriott but Greg! It was good to see him again, and he said he was working on some new stuff. I mentioned the recording to him and he said I could go ahead and post it. ¶ I'm still not sure what happened with the whole Sparkcasting thing, but in any case, here is the complete, unedited "Forgotten Beercast" from that long ago day...

Bibb & Yaz 50th (2005) 0:33 [202]

Frank at the Apple Store Fifth Avenue Opening (5/19/06) 2:36:50 [202] Notes from Station Unlimited release, May 2006: I went to check out the opening of the new Apple Store Fifth Avenue and I wound up recording over 2-and-a-half hours of audio! Instead of waiting weeks or months to edit it and play it on the show, I figured I'd release the raw audio right away for your listening pleasure... nothing edited (except a few phone numbers I had to bleep). Ben from CodedSignal.com pretty much became my co-host at one point. I met a bunch of other podcasters there - it was a lot of fun! (P.S. Gaurav got in at 9:50 PM.)

The Overnightscape Skypecast Experiment - Preshow and Postshow (6/11/06) 1:06:00 [202] The Preshow and Postshow of "The Overnightscape Skypecast Experiment". The main part of the show was heard on The Overnightscape #476 (6/12/06).

Frank Learns How To Make Yarn On A Spinning Wheel (6/17/06) 6:08 [202] "Frank Learns How To Make Yarn On A Spinning Wheel (6/17/06)" - recorded June 17, 2006 - 6:08 - 5.7 MB - StationUnlimited.com release #44 (June 21, 2006) - su-AFT-04_Frank_Yarn-044 ¶ Frank visits the Handspun Collective at the Renegade Craft Fair at McCarran Park in Williamsburg, Brooklyn. Complete spinning wheel audio. (Edited version heard on The Overnightscape #483).

Wedding at Woolman Hill (7/29/06) 1:52:36 [202] Notes from Station Unlimited release, August 2006: Recorded on Saturday, July 29, and Sunday, July 30, 2006. On this Audio Field Trip, my wife Denice and I travel from northern New Jersey to a wedding in western Massachusetts. Phil and Sarah, listeners to The Overnightscape, are getting married at a Quaker retreat called "Woolman Hill". On this recording, you'll hear about the long drive up, the creepy motel, arrival at the wedding, the wedding ceremony, walking through a cornfield the next day, visits to the Yankee Candle Flagship Store and the Hampshire Mall, and much more. ¶ I recorded this Audio Field Trip on my Edirol R-1 digital recorder. Unfortunately, the Compact Flash card had gone faulty but I didn't know about it. The total recording consists of 75 segments, totalling almost 2.5 hours. Unfortunately, 11 of the files were corrupt - so about 36 minutes of recordings were lost, all interspersed throughout. The lost segments include some commentary about the wedding, the night drive back to the motel, and an interview with Phil and Sarah. ¶ This release consists of the raw unedited audio (minus the corrupt segments). It is a long, rambling piece of audio, and the "narrative" suffers a bit from the loss of some of the segments. But there is a lot of interesting and very varied stuff in this audio. Hopefully I'll do an edited version at some point that will be an easier listen.

Mall Remastered (11/12/05 and 9/30/06) 1:06:12 [202] Audio of Frank visiting the Ontario Mills Mall in Ontario, California, on two separate occasions - November 12, 2005 and September 30, 2006. Both audio pieces were previously released along with the Podcast Expo audio - but now they are brought together for the first time - and remastered, too!!

The Porch Trilogy - Episode Zero (10/21/07) 20:35 [202] This is a recording from October 21, 2007 - being released now for the very first time. The rest of The Porch Trilogy was recorded right after this, and released on The Overnightscape episodes 651, 652, and 653. Topics include the romance of vinyl, Marshall McLuhan, Pearl Jam, The Outer Limits Marathon, Treo 680, Mercury Retrograde, science and the supernatural, time problems, catching the bus, the secret project, a failed project, failed recordings, and The Overnightscape Undergound.

Initial Exit Ramp (10/12/09) 2:16:08 [202] The first "Exit Ramp" live broadcast, on the Internet, from The Overnightscape Studio. Intended to be a quick test of the technology, but so many people got involved in the chatroom and called in the show lasted for well over 2 hours! ¶ Video: http://www.ustream.tv/recorded/2343640

Nightweek: The New Season (9/1/11) 1:03:13 [202] Welcome to the new show "Nightweek" - a program all about The Overnightscape Underground, here at the start of the new season... what it's all about, shows on the station, explorations in the night, recent comments, 6-year-old Frank from 1973 in "Bad Hole", history of Onsug, ideas for future episodes of Nightweek, and much more...

Exit Ramp Test (5/21/12) 54:40 [202] Frank and PQ test out the idea of using Google+ Hangouts to record group shows. The Hangout is automatically recorded and posted to YouTube, where the audio can then be extracted. Let us know what you think. ¶ Original video: http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=8DgwebjSScs

Litopia After Dark: Teledildonics (9/26/12) 54:43 [202] I had a great time being on Litopia After Dark! Posting the show here with the kind permission of Peter Cox, the host. ¶ Show notes from the original post: Internet legend Frank Edward Nora joins us for tonight's show; for nearly a decade, Frank has been the C21st Samuel Pepys of the 'net. Patiently and wittily chronicling the life of homo sapiens commuticus, Frank's audio diaries extend to more than 4300 recordings that would take over 5 months to listen to. It's a legacy, he believes, for future historians. "This is the most interesting time in history ever", he says. ¶ YA author Colin Mulhern has had a great week - his second book, Arabesque, has just been published to glittering reviews - but why did he suddenly self-censor, at the eleventh hour? We probe! ¶ Presented by Peter Cox with Dave Bartram and the refulgent Ali Gardiner in the chat room.

My Address Is Still Walton: A Play For The Set of Charlie Rose (6/10/14) 1:14:47 [202] A reading of Karinne Keithley Syers' "My Address Is Still Walton: A Play For The Set of Charlie Rose", presenting a host of interviewers and guests, and one intriguing translator. Directed and performed by Johanna McKeon, Caleb Bark, and Lacy Post. Music composed by Steve Lighty. Illustration by John Nora. ¶ Recorded for The Overnightscape Underground by Frank Edward Nora on June 10, 2014, in John and Johanna's kitchen in NYC. ¶ License for this track: Creative Commons Attribution-NonCommercial-NoDerivs 3.0 Unported License (creativecommons.org/licenses/by-nc-nd/3.0/). The Neverending Broadcast (with Frank) (12/21/14) 4:00:00 [202] An experimental recording exploring the idea of an endless audio transmission. ¶ It's an idea I've had for a long time, so I decided to do an experimental show today... it's related to the old Nightstation concept... I don't plan on doing anything else with the idea for the time being, but it was fun to record.

OnsugBox Intro 1 (10/18/09) 1:48:58 [202] The is the new Intro, recorded after some additional material was added to OnsugBox.

OnsugBox Intro 2 (8/30/09) 1:05:52 [202] This was the original Intro, recoreded before the additional material was added.

OnsugBox Intro Music - "Interlude 1500"" (10/18/09) 19:47 [202] Frank playing with his Kaossilator. This brings OnsugBox to exactly 1,500 hours :)

Listen to Frank on The Overnightscape 1:12 [202] In case you haven't heard, I've returned to doing my original show, The Overnightscape. It's available at TheOvernightscape.com, and also on iTunes. Come and listen today! ¶ Thanks, Frank

Pocket Overnightscape Intro (3/23/13) 3:34:14 [202] Pocket Overnightscape is released! Basic Overnightscape (2012) 18:46:17 [202] Back in May 2012, I was contacted by Rosanna from basic.fm - a Broadcast Art, Sound & Independent Culture project based in Newcastle, UK. She said they wanted to play some episodes from the world of The Overnightscape, which would give a broad overview of shows, both old and new. I sent her this list of seven tracks (over the course of a month or two):

The Overnightscape 876: Jugo De Paraguas (5/16/12) 3:37:57
The Overnightscape #8 (5/1/03) 1:00:00
Overnightscape Central - Rainy Day (5/28/12) 1:26:27
The Rampler #318 - ANALOG TV (6/12/09) 3:20:27
Overnightscape Central - No Longer - (7/4/11) 1:57:57
The Overnightscape #596 (5/12/07) 2:13:00
ug: Port/Pinchot (11/28/08) 3:45:24

She said there was a good response to these shows. It's always good to get more people to listen to The Overnightscape Underground!

At some point I got the idea that it would be a cool idea to combine all of these tracks into a single audio file - a great way for someone to learn about Onsug with a single 200 MB file! At the beginning is an introduction I recorded especially for basic.fm. Listening all the way through is sure to be rewarding. Enjoy!

This track is an "archive exclusive" - it was not released on the regular blog/podcast of The Overnightscape Underground at onsug.com. Since it is almost 19 hours long, and consists of (mostly) previously released material, I felt this was the best way to release it.

Place Sounds: Audio Street Fair Blues (6/11/07) 20:05 [222] Ambient audio of a street fair in Times Square, NYC. Recorded in Times Square, NYC on 6/11/07. Originally released on StationUnlimited.com (release #74, June 19, 2007). On Monday, June 11, 2007 I was walking through Times Square in NYC and I saw a street fair called "Taste of Times Square". I went for 2 blocks on 46th St. from Times Square to 9th Ave. I walked the full length of it and realized it would make a great "Place Sounds" piece (a recording of an audio environment). So I started recording and heading back through the fair. ¶ Unfortunately, things didn't work out like I planned. First of all a lot of the musicians I had seen on the first walk thru were taking their breaks. Then it started to rain... lightly at first and then it turned into a real downpour. And then I realized I had pressed pause by accident and lost a lot of the stuff I was recording. ¶ This piece is the final result - the first in the "Place Sounds" series. I look forward to recording more "Place Sounds" in the future - it is certainly a different kind of audio content than what people are used to, but in the right frame of mind such stuff can be very enjoyable and intriguing to listen to. ¶ Topics: Intro, Tony and Tina's Wedding, song "Celebration", world music style singer, Chef Mark, blues band, latin music band, guitar player, police radio, whistle, radio station playing an ad, car horns, bluegrass band, "that'll be perfect", Frank sees the recorder was paused, description of what happened, the remaining audio walking in the rain, radio station playing song, drumming, world music, doo wop singers, and the conclusion.

Audio Street Fair Blues 2 - Preamble (6/2/08) 20:16 [222] The "preshow" to "Audio Street Fair Blues 2" - walking over to Times Square on June 2, 2008.

Audio Street Fair Blues 2 (6/2/08) 1:25:29 [222] A "Place Sounds" ambient recording of a street fair called "Taste of Times Square" (46th Street between 7th Ave. and 9th Ave.) on June 2, 2008. Frank walks the entire length of the fair five times. The street fair consists of many food tents run by different local restaurants, with a number of live musicians playing along the way.

Audio Street Fair Blues 3 (6/8/09) 1:21:16 [222]

Frank visits the Taste of Times Square street fair food festival on June 8, 2009, recording the ambient sounds of the event, including an intro and an outro.

Audio Street Fair Blues 3 Pure (6/8/09) 1:05:46 [222] Frank visits the Taste of Times Square street fair food festival on June 8, 2009, recording the ambient sounds of the event. This is the pure ambient audio, without the intro and the outro.

Audio Street Fair Blues 4 (6/7/10) 1:27:08 [222] For the fourth year in a row, recording the ambient sounds of the "Taste of Times Square" food and music street festival in NYC. An interesting audio journey! Attribution: by Frank Nora - more info at onsug.com

Place Sounds: Last Train (6/23/07) 24:37 [222] Ambient audio of waiting for the train on the platform at the Secaucus Junction train station (in Secaucus, NJ), and inside the train. Recorded by Frank in New Jersey on 6/23/07.

Highway Bus Stop 2 (6/26/07) 28:32 [222]

42nd Street Walk (7/13/07) 21:21 [222]

Place Sounds - Port Authority Bus Terminal (NYC-7/17/07) 3:53 [222] Some ambient sounds from the Port Authority Bus Terminal in NYC on July 17, 2007.

Place Sounds - Riding The 7 Train (NYC-8/10/07) 22:47 [222] Some ambient sounds from waiting for and riding the 7 Train in the NYC subway system in Manhattan on August 10, 2007.

Bag City Clips (8/28/07) 1:36:30 [222] With new microphones from Jerry from SoCal, some ambient sounds of New York City from August 28, 2007. Including the sound of waiting a heck of a long time on line for the bus at the Port Authority Bus Terminal.

Chant Ambient (9/2/07) 35:53 [222]

R-09 In Pocket (11/1/07) 24:53 [222]

Grand Central Terminal (11/16/07) 22:32 [222]

Casino Ambience (9/21/08) 45:05 [222] The ambient sounds of a casino in Atlantic City, NJ on September 21, 2008.

Vacuuming (9/14/08) 34:00 [222] The sound of Frank vacuuming his living room, while news of Hurricane Ike plays in the background, on September 14, 2008.

Yellow Denim Arcade (1/2/09) 46:35 [222] A cassette tape of the sounds of classic arcade video games I made with MAME circa 1999... with some reverb added to give it a new feel...

Sounds of NYC (4/2/14) 50:56 [222] Sounds of NYC

Sounds of 2:09 (4/2/14) 1:02:21 I had the idea of selecting 29 tracks from the Onsug Archive at random, and then randomly choosing a 2 minute and 9 second section of each, and presenting them in a random order. This is the result.

Sounds of TV (4/5/14) 1:09:53 [222] In the conclusion to the Sounds Trilogy, I flip through the channels of my cable TV. There are so many channels, it takes almost 70 minutes. It's a historical record for TV researchers of the future, and a fun, yet bleak, listen today.

The Overnightscape Grand Shuffle (12/2/12) 3:29:00 [222] Conceived of as an entry for "Reuse Aloud" on basic.fm, The Overnightscape Grand Shuffle consists of over 1,200 random 10-second sound segments from the entire run of The Overnightscape so far. ¶ Spanning from the first episode on March 27, 2003 to Episode 931: Granny Takes A Trip from November 28, 2012 (just a few days ago), the archive contains over 42 days worth of audio. This was split into over 350,000 10-second MP3s, which were then loaded into iTunes, and it took iTunes over 24 hours to process all the MP3s. From there, a 209-minute random smart playlist was made, and then played and recorded in real time. ¶ The resulting work is a dizzying trip of constantly changing yet strangely consistent ideas and topics, people and places. Synchronicities and weird thematic trends surface and submerge over the course of three and a half hours. It's a very different yet very familiar listening experience, maddening and soothing, mundane and insane all at once. Enjoy.

Sneaky TT

Sneaky TT began as an experimental video series where Frank commented on public domain videos. Then it became a show where Frank hosted various audio clips and music. Macho Condor used similar audio material, but without commentary. Additional experimental shows involved the curation of a wide variety of material. These ideas eventually led to the Other Side of The Overnightscape.

Sneaky TT - Test Broadcast 1 (4/17/10) 1:58:25 [221] This is the audio from the video of the first test of the Sneaky TT broadcasting system (at http://www.livestream.com/sneakytt), with me, Frank Nora. The idea of Sneaky TT is very simple - crazy public domain U.S. government videos with amusing commentary. During this first broadcast, I slowly figured out the best way to do things. Toward the end, I think the system was working pretty well. I really don't know if this is going to become any kind of regular thing, but I think it does have potential.

Sneaky TT - Test Broadcast 2 (4/18/10) 3:35:15 [221] This is the audio from the video of the second test of the Sneaky TT broadcasting system (at http://www.livestream.com/sneakytt), with me, Frank Nora. The idea of Sneaky TT is very simple - crazy public domain U.S. government videos with amusing commentary. During this second broadcast, I was able to do over 3.5 hours of broadcasting, showing and commenting on many videos, with around 8-10 people watching live. It was a lot of fun to do, but I am still unsure whether it's something I would do on a regular basis. Let me know what you think.

Sneaky TT - Test Broadcast 3 (4/21/10) 57:45 [221] This is the audio from the video of the third test of the Sneaky TT broadcasting system (at http://www.livestream.com/sneakytt), with me, Frank Nora. The idea of Sneaky TT is very simple - crazy public domain U.S. government videos with amusing commentary. I did this third broadcast right after I got home from work, to see if I could do a quick broadcast. I thought it went pretty well.

Sneaky TT Broadcasting System 2 (9/5/11) 8:25:42 [221]

This is an experimental "concept show" that explores the outer limits of what an Internet radio show can be. While it is over 8 hours long, it is presented in a lo-fi audio, which sounds similar to an AM radio broadcast. It's 86.8 MB - about the same size as a 95 minute show at standard 128kbps quality.

I am releasing it without any show notes - and that's part of the concept - that you can listen with no idea what is coming next.

I suggest listening in a player that can keep track of where you last left off, which most programs and devices allow for.

Because of the experimental nature of this show, I am not including it on the podcast feed, because I know it may not work for everyone. But if you want to explore this little audio world, you can download it here.

I really think this could make for a very cool listening experience... or perhaps it just goes too far? ... let me know what you think!

Sneaky TT Tonight (September 2014) 31:05:49 [221]

Created to air on the Sneaky TT Broadcasting System, Sneaky TT Tonight is over 31 hours, 1,124 tracks of audio clips and songs, drawn from the Other Side of The Overnightscape.

The set is based on the same formula as the Earweird project - clips under 5 minutes, and songs under 2 minutes. In this case, it's ALL the clips from the Other Side meeting these criteria - including duplicates for tracks played more than once on the Other Side.

The result is a seemingly neverending transmission of smoothly weird audio pleasure.

See Other Side Cask notes for more details on these tracks.

Sneaky TT Epic (August 2015) 87:47:36 [223]

Frank has had a streaming station for various experimental broadcasts over the years. Since August 2015 it has been playing this 87-hour track, Sneaky TT Epic, over and over again, to very few listeners. It's a mind-bending collection of Other Side music and audio tracks. Now you too can listen to it over and over again!

Macho Condor 2 (6/30/12) 4:37:01 [221]

A collection of 71 amazing songs for your late night listening enjoyment! This one is all music, with no hosting.

As you may know, I've been spending way too much time plowing through vast mountains of Creative Commons music, where you might need to listen to twenty bad songs to find one good one. I've been collecting the best of the best of my discoveries in my Trash Am Records compilations (available here on Onsug).

Since Trash Am #6 back in April, I've ramped up my music discovery obsession, and have dug up a massive new collection of songs. So massive, that I've been completely overwhelmed by the process of organizing it. So, I decided to released the best of the best of this phase in this form - one big slab of music, using the Macho Condor show name.

The music is at 192kbps bitrate, and the tracks have been adjusted to keep them at a consistent volume.

One amazing coincidence I just found out is that the original Macho Condor, from September 2010, has the same opening song! Weird... but appropriate...

Enjoy! Listen all night long!

Macho Condor Deluxe (4/6/14) 3:59:10 [221]

104 random tracks from the Other Side, each under 4 minutes in length, with some mastering applied. I was able to do this fairly easily because I've been spending a lot of time keeping the Other Side tracks organized.

The result is a cool four hour broadcast that, to me, would be an ideal companion to a long night of working or driving or playing games.

Macho Condor was an experimental predecessor to the Other Side, so I thought it would be cool to bring back the name for this little experiment.
